Dear Friend:

Welcome to California Baptist University! I look forward to greeting you personally when the opportunity permits, but for now allow me to congratulate you for deciding to pursue your educational goals at CBU and to thank you for trusting us to help you reach those goals.

Since 1950, students have chosen California Baptist University for the caring personal attention they receive and for high quality academic programs taught by faculty members who recognize the importance of spiritual development as well as intellectual growth.

CBU remains faithful to the Christian values and principles found in the Great Commission, Christ's challenge to his followers found in Matthew 28:19-20:

"Go ye therefore and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost, teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you; and lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world."

At CBU, we work hard to fulfill this commandment by integrating faith and learning and by offering a wide range of opportunities for service. Throughout Southern California and around the world, we are gaining a reputation to match our vision of "a University Committed to the Great Commission."

For many students, the decision to share the CBU experience marks the first step in a long-term relationship. We trust it will be a positive and rewarding experience for you. This is an exciting time to be part of the CBU community and we are genuinely pleased that you are here.

Once again, welcome to California Baptist University and may the Lord continue to bless!

Your brother in Christ,

Ronald L. Ellis, Ph.D.

President

The University

History

On September 18, 1950, the Los Angeles Southern Baptist Association opened the doors of California Baptist College in El Monte to students who came seeking a liberal arts education in a Christian environment. The college began operations with 42 students in Fall 1950; 120 were enrolled during the 1950-51 academic year.

In 1955, after four years of continued growth, the college relocated to larger facilities in Riverside. Growth in all areas paved the way for the institution to become a university on September 25, 1998.

Location and Environment

Riverside is located in the Los Angeles Basin, sixty miles east of downtown L.A. Freeways lead into Riverside from every direction, and the area is served by international airports in nearby Ontario and Los Angeles.

California Baptist University is surrounded by cultural and scientific opportunities for student of all interests, and the proximity of other colleges and universities makes possible inter-library and inter-cultural exchanges.

Mission Statement

The primary purpose of this corporation is to conduct regular four-year college courses in education, music, sciences, and the liberal arts, and to grant certificates, diplomas, and any and all degrees evidencing completion of any course of training, together with any and all honorary degrees and to provide training for Baptist youth and others desiring to be affiliated with Baptist theology and theological instruction and such other instruction as may be needful and advantageous in preparing and qualifying ministers and others for Christian work.¹

Philosophy Statement

California Baptist University is a Christian liberal arts institution founded by Southern Baptists to serve the world. As such, the university community provides an accepting, caring Christian atmosphere in which the growth of individuals is enhanced by spiritual formation, personal development, vocational preparation, and a sound, academic, liberating education. In the midst of the pursuit of truth, individuals are encouraged to investigate, practice, and refine their aesthetic, moral, social, and spiritual values in order to prepare themselves to make substantial contributions to the cause of Christ as skilled professionals, thinking citizens, and educated persons.

Goals

To implement its philosophy, the University strives:

1. To reflect, in life and thought, historic Southern Baptist principles, such as:
 - a. The Lordship of Jesus Christ.
 - b. The competency of the individual soul before God.
 - c. The Scriptures as the authoritative guide for doctrine and practice.
 - d. The separation of Church and State.
 - e. The autonomy of the local church.
2. To help students observe and interact with a community that effectively models Christian characteristics and values.

3. To offer a selection of programs that will attract a wide range of qualified students.
4. To encourage a free exchange of ideas by providing a wide variety of spiritual, intellectual, cultural, and social learning experiences both within and outside the classroom.
5. To encourage high standards of scholarship.
6. To provide support for students experiencing academic and personal difficulties.
7. To encourage each member of the University community to be involved in a lifelong, personal Christian pilgrimage.
8. To enable its educators to engage in continuing professional development.
9. To develop mature individuals of genuine Christian character who can contribute to churches and effect changes in society for its betterment.
10. To develop specific leadership for the churches and general work of the Southern Baptist Convention.

University Student Outcomes

California Baptist University desires that each student acquire certain knowledge, skills, values, and aspirations during their collegiate experience. The University seeks to provide academic programs that prepare students for professional careers, as well as co-curricular programs that foster an environment supporting the intellectual, physical, social, and spiritual development of each student. Within these arenas of the student experience, the University, through its faculty and administration, has identified student outcomes as desirable and reflective of the impact it seeks to have in the lives of its students.

Upon completion of a degree program, each student at California Baptist University shall be:

Biblically Rooted

- Demonstrate spiritual literacy, including Biblical Christian faith and practice, Baptist perspectives, and the Christian's role in fulfilling the Great Commission.

Globally Minded

- Respect diverse religious, cultural, philosophical, and aesthetic experiences and perspectives.

Academically Prepared

- Use critical thinking skills to demonstrate literacy: listening, speaking, writing, reading, viewing, and visual representing.
- Demonstrate competence in mathematical, scientific, and technological skills.

Equipped to Serve

- Transfer academic studies to a profession and the workplace.
- Implement a personal and social ethic that results in informed participation in multiple levels of community.

Council for Christian Colleges & Universities

California Baptist University is a member of the Council for Christian Colleges & Universities, a higher education association of more than 180 Christian institutions around the world. With campuses across the globe, including more than 150 in the U.S. and Canada and more than 30 from an additional 18 countries. Membership in CCCU provides CBU students access to numerous off-campus learning opportunities: an American Studies program in Washington, D.C.; a Contemporary Music Program; the Los Angeles Film Studies Center; and an increasing number of overseas travel programs.

American Studies Program (ASP)

Founded in 1976, the American Studies Program has served hundreds of students from member institutions as a "Washington, D.C. campus." ASP uses Washington as a stimulating educational laboratory where collegians gain hands-on experience with an internship in their chosen field. Internships are tailored to fit the student's talents and aspirations and are available in a wide range of fields. They also explore pressing national and international issues in public policy seminars that are issue-oriented, interdisciplinary, and led by ASP faculty and Washington professionals. Through interdisciplinary reflection on public life and vocation, practical marketplace experiences, and community living, the purpose of the program is to create an atmosphere for students: first, to develop an appreciation for how the integral character of biblical faith relates to thinking critically about public policy and marketplace issues, and second, to nurture a desire to take up responsible Christ-centered service in their personal and public vocations, whatever their career paths or walks of life. The mission of the program is to help students gain an integral biblical faith for thinking critically about public affairs and for responding faithfully in vocational service.

Contemporary Music Program (CMP)

The Contemporary Music Program provides students the opportunity to live and work in community while seeking to understand how God will have them integrate music, faith, and business. Both interdisciplinary and multidisciplinary in nature, the CMP offers two tracks: the Artist Track and the Executive Track. The Artist Track is tailored to students considering careers as vocalists, musicians, songwriters, recording artists, performers, producers, and recording engineers. The Executive Track is designed for business, arts management, marketing, communications, and other majors interested in possible careers as artist managers, agents, record company executives, music publishers, concert promoters and entertainment industry entrepreneurs. Both Artist and Executive track students receive instruction, experience, and a uniquely Christian perspective on creativity and the marketplace, while working together to create and market a recording of original music. Both tracks include course work, labs, directed study, and a practicum.

Los Angeles Film Studies Center (LAFSC)

The Los Angeles Film Studies Center is designed to train students of CCCU member institutions to serve in various aspects of the film industry with both professional skill and Christian integrity. Students live, learn, and work in the L.A. area near major motion picture studios. The curriculum consists of two required seminars focusing on the role of film in culture and the relationship of faith to work in this very influential industry. In addition, students choose two elective courses from a variety of offerings in film studies. Internships in various segments of the film industry provide students with hands-on experience. The combination of the internship and seminars allow students to explore the film industry within a Christian context and from a liberal arts perspective.

Faculty Information

The College of Architecture, Visual Arts, and Design embraces the entire spectrum of design-oriented disciplines, all students will experience our interdisciplinary approach to learning that offers unique and unlimited opportunities for collaboration, inspiration, and most importantly, a deep and well-rounded education. And building on this broad foundation, the college is continually expanding our program offerings to ensure our students continue to receive the most innovative and comprehensive education.

Students also benefit from a practice-based approach that connects them directly with professional organizations throughout Southern California, exposing them to real business situations, and often allowing them to take part in the professional process through mentoring and internships. What makes the College of Architecture, Visual Arts, and Design truly unique is that we teach these programs from a Christian worldview, encouraging students to use their creative talents to engage and inspire the world around them.

Architecture, BA

The Architecture major creates a rich academic environment marked by the confluence of advanced practice, contemporary theory, and social engagement. Our primary goal is to help students develop the capacity and judgment necessary to understand the built environment and generate architecture as a critical response, so that each student can engage both the discipline of architecture and the multiple discourses - artistic, technological, social, political, environmental, economic, spiritual - necessary to be a successful practitioner and a conscientious citizen with a Biblical worldview.

The Bachelor of Arts in Architecture at CBU is intended as a degree that will allow a student to proceed onto graduate studies, or into the workforce, in architecture or another discipline. It is not designed to be an accredited, professional degree and therefore does not satisfy the qualifications for licensure as an architect in most states in the U.S.

- PSY 459 - Dynamics of Religious Experience OR
- SOC 349 - Sociology of Religion

Art Education, BA

The Art Education major will prepare students for visual art teaching careers working in the context of K-12 education. Candidates for the Art Education major will complete the state-approved Visual Art Single Subject Matter Program, which will satisfy the subject-matter competency requirement from the California Commission on Teacher Credentialing (CTC). As a state-approved teacher preparation program, the requirements for the Visual Art Single Subject Matter Program are subject to revision at any time by state or federal law. Art Education majors will be eligible to obtain a California teaching credential, by completing the professional methods courses with fieldwork and student teaching after applying and being admitted to the Preliminary Single Subject credential program under the School of Education.

Students choosing the Art Education major must additionally be admitted into the Credential program for Preliminary Single Subject Credential. Students who do not meet the credential requirements may not be able to complete the major due to accreditation requirements.

Candidates must complete all credential and state requirements to be eligible for a credential. Credential requirements can be obtained from the School of Education credential program advisors.

- PSY 213 - General Psychology
- STA 144 - Introduction to Statistics

Lower Division Studio Art Elective Requirements

Complete six to eight (6-8) units from the following:

- ART 225 - Sculpture I

- ART 232 - Ceramics I
- ART 283 - Painting I
- ILL 210 - Illustration I

Upper Division Requirements

- ART 495 - Art Therapy Studio
- PSY 320 - Life-Span Development
- PSY 322 - Theories of Personality
- PSY 328 - Cognitive Psychology
- PSY 346 - Abnormal Psychology
- PSY 376 - Art Therapy

Upper Division Art Elective Requirements

Complete twelve (12) units from the following:

- ART 301 - Color, Theory, and Application
- ART 305 - Figure Drawing I
- ART 314 - Drawing II
- ART 325 - Sculpture II
- ART 353 - Ceramics II
- ART 354 - Printmaking
- ART 355 - Contemporary Art Practice
- ART 383 - Painting II
- ART 405 - Figure Drawing II
- ART 414 - Drawing III
- ART 432 - Sculpture III
- ART 453 - Ceramics III

Upper Division Elective Requirements

Complete six (6) units from the following:

- BEH 440 - Field Experience
- PSY 305 - Developmental Psychology: Child OR
- PSY 315 - Developmental Psychology: Adolescence and Adulthood
- PSY 422 - Theories of Counseling
- PSY 443 - Social Psychology
- PSY 473 - Psychophysiology

Film, BA

Film is the most culturally influential artistic medium in our era. The Film major equips students both to understand film as a culture-shaping force and to pursue diverse careers in the entertainment industry. Students choose one of four concentrations: Film and Screen Media Studies, Film Post Production, Film Production, or Screenwriting. Film majors develop valuable technical knowledge and experience as well as sharp critical thinking skills and significant audio-visual literacy. In a world that increasingly relies on visual information, a comprehension of how meaning grows out of the moving image is indispensable to a deeper social and cultural understanding. Our majors have the opportunity to learn how to apply this knowledge to filmmaking by creating high quality films on state-of-the-art equipment, writing screenplays and teleplays, and exploring the best of global cinema.

Fine Art, BA

The Fine Art program offers a curriculum intended to stimulate creative ability, impart effective technique and foster an understanding and appreciation of the dynamic role of visual art in culture, whether defined locally or globally and grounded in a Biblical worldview. While recognizing the unique intersection of technology and tradition that has transformed the practice of visual art in our time, the program emphasizes traditional media: drawing, painting, printmaking and sculpture. The result is to provide quality professional preparation that can be realized in market-based applications and/or further graduate-level studies.

Graphic Design and Visual Experience, BA

The Graphic Design and Visual Experience major is a multidisciplinary program that prepares students to think critically, creatively, and experimentally, in pursuit of creating relevant, meaningful design solutions. The major prepares students for careers as practitioners and art directors in professions including graphic design, experience design, emerging media, 3D, animation and motion design. This studio-based major gives student's a rigorous education that results in a competitive, well-rounded portfolio that stands out in the graphic design industry.

Traditional Major Program Requirements (63 units)

Lower Division Requirements

- ART 201 - Principles of Design and Color
- DES 101 - Design Technology Applications I
- DES 110 - Creativity: Process and Purpose
- GDM 215 - Principles: Introduction to Graphic Design
- GDM 225 - Principles: Letterforms and Structure
- GDM 235 - Principles: Image Visualization
- GDM 240 - Principles: Innovations in Design
- PHO 105 - The Camera

Upper Division Requirements

- DES 310 - Creativity: Collaboration and Context
- DES 498 - Portfolio
- GDM 315 - Practice: Designing Brand Identity
- GDM 325 - Practice: Typographic Form and Space
- GDM 335 - Conceptual Image Making
- GDM 371 - User Interface and User Experience Design I OR
- GDM 342 - Motion Design I OR
- GDM 351 - 3D Concept Design I
- GDM 495 - Design Capstone
- PHI 312 - Beauty

Concentration Courses (15 units)

Students must complete all requirements in one of the following concentrations: Graphic Design; Illustration; Motion Design; Photography; Visual Experience Design

Graphic Design (15 units)

Core Requirements

- GDM 415 - Studio: Visual Systems Design (6 units)
- GDM 425 - Studio: Typographic Hierarchies
- GDM 435 - Studio: Image and Art Direction

Elective Requirement

Complete three (3) additional units from the following:

- GDM 342 - Motion Design I
- GDM 351 - 3D Concept Design I
- GDM 371 - User Interface and User Experience Design I

Illustration, BA

The Bachelor of Arts in Illustration degree develops students in the art of visual and conceptual storytelling in a variety of artistic mediums, preparing them to pursue a career as a professional illustrator.

Traditional Major Program Requirements (63 Units)

Lower Division Requirements

- ART 201 - Principles of Design and Color
- ART 208 - Studio Drawing I
- ART 283 - Painting I OR
- GDM 215 - Principles: Introduction to Graphic Design OR
- GDM 225 - Principles: Letterforms and Structure
- BIO 153 - Anatomy and Physiology I
- DES 101 - Design Technology Applications I
- DES 110 - Creativity: Process and Purpose
- ILL 210 - Illustration I
- ILL 250 - Digital Painting I
- GDM 240 - Principles: Innovations in Design OR
- ART 242 - Global History of Art: Renaissance to Contemporary

- KIN 264 - Movement Anatomy

Upper Division Requirements

- ART 305 - Figure Drawing I
- ART 405 - Figure Drawing II
- DES 310 - Creativity: Collaboration and Context
- DES 498 - Portfolio
- ENG 371 - The Graphic Novel
- ILL 310 - Illustration II
- ILL 350 - Digital Painting II
- ILL 400 - Special Topics in Illustration
- ILL 410 - Illustration Studio (6 units)

Optional Concentration Courses (12-15 units)

Students have the option of completing a concentration in one of the following: Fine Art; Motion Design

Fine Art

- ART 283 - Painting I
- ART 314 - Drawing II OR
- ART 354 - Printmaking
- ART 300 - Advanced Art OR
- ART 414 - Drawing III
- ART 383 - Painting II

Motion Design

- GDM 215 - Principles: Introduction to Graphic Design
- GDM 315 - Practice: Designing Brand Identity
- GDM 342 - Motion Design I
- GDM 343 - Motion Design II
- GDM 352 - Visual Effects Concept Design

Interior Design, BA

The Interior Design major develops students in the art of applying artistic principles and techniques to the professional planning, designing, equipping, and furnishing of interior spaces - preparing them to pursue professional practice as interior designers.

Traditional Major Program Requirements (63 units)

Lower Division Requirements

- ARC 120 - Design Communication

- ARC 122 - Design Fundamentals
- ARC 220 - Computer Modeling
- ARC 242 - Architectural History II OR
- ART 242 - Global History of Art: Renaissance to Contemporary
- DES 110 - Creativity: Process and Purpose

Upper Division Requirements

- ARC 385 - Luminous and Sonic Environmental Systems
- ART 301 - Color, Theory, and Application
- DES 310 - Creativity: Collaboration and Context
- DES 498 - Portfolio
- IND 310 - Interior Design Studio I
- IND 312 - Interior Design Studio II
- IND 350 - Space Planning and Code
- IND 380 - Materials, Finishes, and Sourcing
- IND 410 - Interior Design Studio III
- IND 412 - Interior Design Studio IV

Photography, BA

The Photography major explores the practice and theory of photography via technical understandings and methodological explorations of the photography medium as applied to commercial, fine art, and social practice. Through the introduction of narrative, conceptual development, and Christian worldview - students will acquire a unique stylistic aesthetic and photographic voice leading to a professional portfolio.

Traditional Major Program Requirements (54 units)

Lower Division Requirements

- DES 110 - Creativity: Process and Purpose
- PHO 105 - The Camera
- PHO 110 - Commercial Photography
- PHO 120 - Fine Art Photography
- PHO 140 - History of Photography
- PHO 250 - Post-Production

Upper Division Requirements

- DES 310 - Creativity: Collaboration and Context
- PHO 310 - Process and Practice
- PHO 330 - Visual Storytelling
- PHO 332 - Studio Lighting
- PHO 350 - Digital Printing and Color Management
- PHO 400 - Special Topics in Photography
- PHO 415 - Context and Narrative
- PHO 432 - Location Lighting

- PHO 433 - Studio Practice
- PHO 450 - Digital Asset Management
- PHO 485 - Photography Business
- PHO 499 - Portfolio and Gallery

Art History Minor

* Fine Art majors and minors must complete nine (9) additional Art History or Theory elective units unique to the Art History minor.

Traditional Minor Program Requirements (21-22 units)*

Lower Division Requirements

- ART 241 - Global History of Art: Ancient to Medieval
- ART 242 - Global History of Art: Renaissance to Contemporary

Lower Division Studio Elective Requirement

Complete three to four (3-4) units from the following:

- ART 201 - Principles of Design and Color
- ART 204 - Drawing I
- ART 225 - Sculpture I
- ART 232 - Ceramics I
- DES 110 - Creativity: Process and Purpose

Upper Division Art History and Theory Elective Requirements

Complete twelve (12) units from the following:

- ARC 350 - Architectural Theory I
- ART 345 - Nineteenth Century Art History
- ART 346 - History of Modern Painting
- ART 347 - Contemporary Art History
- ART 351 - Museum Studies

Faculty Information

The College of Arts and Sciences comprises seven departments: Aviation Science; the Division of Arts and Letters, which includes Communication Arts, History and Government, and Modern Languages and Literature; and the Division of Natural and Mathematical Sciences, which includes Biological Sciences, Chemical Sciences, and Mathematical Sciences. Together they reflect and promote studies in and personal pursuit of the finest in human artistic, intellectual, scientific and spiritual achievements. All curricula are aimed at enriching the lives of our students by enabling them to grow in sensitivity to themselves, their heritages, and the world around them.

Integration of faith with learning is key both to our identity and our mission, our tasks and our goals. Our commitment to applying faith to life is second to none. If you want to pursue a job to earn a living, a degree program in most any university will do. But if you want to pursue a calling, CBU and the programs in the College of Arts and Sciences will prepare you for the race.

Faculty Information

The Department of Aviation Science prepares students for professional aviation careers who think critically, communicate effectively, and lead ethically with excellence built on a strong Christian foundation. Students can obtain private pilot, instrument airplane, commercial single engine and multi engine, flight instructor, instrument instructor, and multiengine instructor FAA certifications and ratings. In addition, greater in-depth knowledge is obtained in areas such as aerodynamics, airline management, human factors, international aviation environment, laws and regulations, leadership, meteorology, safety, and security.

The Aviation Flight Bachelor of Science program is designed for students with little or no flight experience desiring a career as a professional aviator. The Aviation Flight program has concentrations in Commercial, Military, Missionary, and Unmanned Aerial Systems. Potential careers include airline pilot, air cargo pilot, military pilot, missionary pilot, law enforcement pilot, state aviation department pilot, air taxi or charter pilot, business or corporate pilot, unmanned aerial system operator and observer, and flight instructor.

All incoming Aviation Flight majors are initially enrolled as preflight majors. After successful completion of solo with a minimum 2.5 GPA, the student can declare Aviation Flight with a specific concentration. The preflight program is designed that even after a year, an Aviation Management Bachelor of Science can be completed within the next three years of that four year degree. For those considering the Aviation Flight BS UAS or Military concentrations, additional requirements need to be met in order to declare either of those concentrations.

The Aviation Management Bachelor of Science program is designed for students desiring a professional non-flight aviation career. The Aviation Management program has concentrations in Aerospace Technology, Airport Management and Operations, Dispatch, Flight Operations, and Logistics and Operations. Graduates are prepared for careers in airline management, airport management, fixed base operations management, aviation safety and security, dispatch, and aviation consulting.

Aviation Minors include Dispatch, Management, Missionary Pilot, and Unmanned Aerial Systems. These can be added to the Aviation Management or Aviation Flight Bachelors of Science degrees as appropriate or other degrees within the university. Dispatch prepares graduates to serve as a crew scheduler or dispatcher with airlines or business aviation as a licensed FAA Dispatcher while Unmanned Aerial Systems prepares students to enter this rapidly evolving segment of the aviation industry with the knowledge of remotely piloted systems and the pilot qualifications necessary to fly UAS within the national airspace system.

Aviation Flight, BS

The major is designed for students whose desire is to be a professional commercial airline pilot, unmanned aerial systems operator, military pilot, or missionary pilot. Students complete a common core and can choose to concentrate in one or more of four concentrations: Commercial, Military, Missionary, and Unmanned Aerial Systems.

Traditional Major Program Requirements (59-73 units)

Lower Division Requirements

- AVN 110 - Introduction to Aviation
- AVN 210 - Aviation Meteorology
- FLT 116 - Private Pilot Ground
- FLT 117 - Private Flight I
- FLT 118 - Private Flight II
- FLT 119 - Instrument Pilot Ground
- FLT 214 - Instrument Flight I
- FLT 216 - Instrument Flight II

Upper Division Requirements

- AVN 310 - Aviation Law and Regulations
- AVN 322 - Aviation Safety
- FLT 326 - Human Factors
- FLT 328 - Aircraft Systems
- FLT 350 - Airplane Aerodynamics
- FLT 410 - Turbine Systems
- FLT 420 - Crew Resource Management
- FLT 495 - Advanced Aerodynamics

Concentration Courses (12-30 units)

Students must complete all requirements in one or more of the following concentrations: Commercial; Military; Missionary; Unmanned Aerial Systems

Commercial (20-25 units)

Commercial Requirements

- FLT 301 - Advanced and Commercial Airplane Pilot Ground
- FLT 311 - Commercial Pilot Ground
- FLT 312 - Commercial Flight I
- FLT 313 - Commercial Flight II
- FLT 314 - Commercial Multi Engine Flight

Commercial Elective Requirements

Complete nine (9) additional units from the following:

- AMG 424 - Business Aviation Management
- AMG 426 - Airline Management
- AVN 490 - Aviation Internship I
- AVN 491 - Aviation Internship II
- FLT 430 - Airline Prep

Optional Flight Instructor Requirements

Complete four to five (4-5) units from the following:

- FLT 315 - Flight Instructor Pilot Ground
- FLT 318 - Certified Flight Instructor Lab
- FLT 319 - Certified Flight Instrument Instructor Lab

Military (12 units)

Military Requirement

- LDR 310 - Leadership Theory
- LDR 330 - Personal Leadership

Military Elective Requirements

Complete three (3) units from the following:

- AIR 301 - Air Force Leadership and Management I
- AIR 302 - Air Force Leadership and Management II
- AIR 303 - Air Force Leadership and Management III
- AIR 401 - National Security Forces in Contemporary American Society I
- AIR 402 - National Security Forces in Contemporary American Society II
- AIR 403 - National Security Forces in Contemporary American Society III
- LDR 350 - Communication Principles for Leadership
- LDR 410 - Ethical and Biblical Principles for Leadership
- LDR 430 - Decision Making and Leadership
- LDR 450 - Culture and Leadership
- LDR 470 - Groups and Leadership
- MSL 301 - Training Management and the Warfighting Functions
- MSL 302 - Applied Leadership in Small Unit Operations
- MSL 401 - The Army Officer
- MSL 402 - Company Grade Leadership
- MSL 451 - Seminar in Military History
- POL 471 - Terrorism
- PST 405 - Cross-Cultural Leadership
- PSY 388 - Industrial and Organizational Psychology

Missionary (26-30 units)

Missionary Requirements

- CBS 420 - Behavioral Implications of Theology OR
- CST 370 - The Christian Faith
- FLT 311 - Commercial Pilot Ground
- FLT 312 - Commercial Flight I
- FLT 313 - Commercial Flight II

- FLT 315 - Flight Instructor Pilot Ground
- FLT 318 - Certified Flight Instructor Lab
- FLT 421 - Mission Aviation
- ICS 305 - Global Christianity

Old Testament Elective Requirement

Complete three (3) units from the following:

- CST 110 - Old Testament Survey
- CST 210 - Pentateuch and Former Prophets
- CST 220 - Latter Prophets and Writings

New Testament Elective Requirement

Complete three (3) units from the following:

- CST 130 - New Testament Survey
- CST 230 - Jesus and the Gospels
- CST 240 - Paul and the Early Church

Optional Multi-Engine Commercial Requirements

- FLT 301 - Advanced and Commercial Airplane Pilot Ground
- FLT 314 - Commercial Multi Engine Flight

Unmanned Aerial Systems (16 units)

Unmanned Aerial Systems Requirements

- UAS 425 - Large Unmanned Aerial Systems Operations

Unmanned Aerial Systems Elective Requirements

Complete six (6) units from the following:

- GDM 341 - Video Fundamentals
- UAS 326 - Medium Unmanned Aerial Systems Operations II
- UAS 400 - Special Topics in UAS
- UAS 415 - Unmanned Aerial Systems Mission Planning
- POL 471 - Terrorism

Additional Course Fees

California Baptist University course lab fees are designed to ensure a student has funds available at the beginning of the semester to train within the syllabus of that flight course. CBU tuition does not include flight course costs and fees. Flight lab fees are based on FAA approved syllabus for each course and cover ground, simulator, and flight training. Flight course lab fees are due to CBU Student Accounts prior to a student beginning any flight lab and are unique to each flight course.

To receive clearance to participate in a flight lab, students must meet all financial clearance requirements and complete full payment with verified funds to cover their flight lab fee. Once cleared to fly, the lab fee amount billed to the student's student account will be credited to the student's flight fee account. Students are responsible for accessing and tracking their flight fee accounts through the TALON/ETA system incorporated on the flight line. If for any reason a student's flight fee account falls below the required minimum balance, the University may place a hold on the student's academic progress, until the flight account is restored to good standing.

Students will have the entire semester to complete the flight lab in which they are enrolled. In order to pass a flight lab, students must meet each flight lab's student learning outcomes. Inability to achieve the outcomes will result in a failing grade. If the student learning outcomes for the flight lab are not achieved by the end of semester due to reasons beyond the student's control (weather, aircraft maintenance, etc.), a Satisfactory Progress (SP) will be issued, allowing the student to continue the flight lab in the subsequent semester. Any unused funds remaining on a student's flight account can be used in the subsequent semester.

If a student with an SP does not meet the student learning outcomes for the flight lab in which they are enrolled within the subsequent three semesters, the student will receive a failing grade for the lab. The student, in consultation with the Department of Aviation Sciences (Department), may have the option to enroll in the lab again, incurring an additional lab fee.

If a student is found unable to meet the standards in flight (sickness/fear/low situational awareness/physically unable/not meeting standards), the flight line will make reasonable efforts to facilitate that student's training in order that the student can demonstrate the requisite proficiency to pass the lab. The Department will conduct a three-level review (Chief of Program/Director of Flight Operations/Chair of Department). If, in the Department's professional assessment, the student cannot meet the standards, the student will be withdrawn from the course and refunded the flight lab fee balance from the flight account in TALON/ETA.

If a student does not achieve proficiency requirements within the flight hour parameters defined in the syllabus for any given flight lab, upon Department approval, the student may deposit additional funds to their TALON/ETA account to continue to train to demonstrate proficiency. Students will be required to submit an "Additional Flight Hours" request form with payment (VA will not cover additional hours) to the Student Accounts Office to add additional funds to their flight account. Once the form is processed and payment is confirmed, the Department of Aviation will be notified of the student's clearance to fly via email from the Student Accounts Office. Should a student fail a flight lab, change degree programs, withdraw from the University, or graduate from the program, any credit from unused "Additional Flight Hours" will be refunded to the student.

Faculty Information

Communication is a foundational skill in all sectors of the professional world. And, in a rapidly shifting environment, there has never been a more pressing need for excellent communicators.

Our programs integrate deep conceptual knowledge with strong practical experience, through close collaboration with faith-based faculty mentors whose influence stretches from scholarly research to creative communication production. As a result, students do more than master the technical skills of the discipline - they learn to think critically about the way messages are created, conveyed, and consumed in modern society.

With so many unique ways to communicate, the Communication Arts department offers Bachelor of Arts degrees in Communication Studies, Public Relations, Strategic Communication, and Journalism and New Media. In addition, we offer a Master of Arts degree in Strategic Communication. In the Communication Arts department, we are preparing students for careers in a wide variety of communication professions. In this dynamically changing communication landscape, strong communication skills through multitude of platforms translates to professional success.

Communication Studies, BA

Students in the Communication Studies major will demonstrate proficiency in creating, developing and delivering presentations of communicative merit, utilizing critical thought, and the integration of a broad worldview. Public Relations, BA

The Bachelor of Arts in Public Relations is designed to develop our next generations of innovative public relations leaders. Throughout this program, students learn about the many nuances of public relations that foster success in the professional arena. Students will be equipped to serve as ethical practitioners and relational champions for organizations. With courses focused on the numerous platforms of public relations, students will be well versed in the academic underpinnings of communication and how they relate to creating powerful messages that move and influence people. Students will learn to communicate strategically through a Christian worldview, whether that messaging is via social media, online, in-person events, through public relations campaigns, during a crisis, or managing an organization's reputation. This program allows students to prepare for the future of public relations.

Faculty Information

The Modern Languages and Literature Department offers a variety of courses in language acquisition, composition, literature, critical theory, cultural studies, linguistics, digital literary studies, and creative writing. The department also presents students with the opportunity to participate in dynamic learning experiences through diverse fields of study. The Modern Languages and Literature Department encompasses degrees in creative writing, English language and literature, Spanish language and literature, as well as liberal arts, liberal studies, and interdisciplinary studies.

The English and Creative Writing programs are dedicated to fostering students' interests and abilities. English and Creative Writing provide students across disciplines with dynamic General Education opportunities to develop foundations in reading, writing, critical thinking, and interpretation. English and Creative Writing majors are drawn to our undergraduate curriculum because it prepares them for future careers embracing a wide range of professions and ministries: to become teachers in secondary education; to go into journalism, library science, or publishing; to embark on Christian missions; to work in commerce, industry, and government; to succeed as creative writers; or to further education by attending graduate schools of law, medicine, business, literature, etc. As a double-major or minor, English and Creative Writing provides students a valuable means of enriching their future professions. The department also offers a master's program in English. Students interested in teaching at elementary schools may seek a minor in English, which affords them an area of specialization within the Multiple Subjects credential. Students interested in teaching English at secondary schools or to speakers of other languages are encouraged to contact program instructors or advisors.

The program in Spanish currently serves students seeking a major or minor in Spanish as well as fulfilling General Education requirements. Our primary goal is to enable students, through carefully-designed course sequences, to gain a bilingual proficiency and multicultural adaptability so that they are well-equipped for future professional and ministerial careers where linguistic and cultural knowledge in Spanish is imperative. Lower-division courses train students in basic communication skills. Upper-division classes guide students into areas where special attention goes to interactions between and among language, history, culture, politics, economics, psychology and all other aspects of real life. Students who have taken two or more years of Spanish in high school or college may choose to take a placement test administered by the department in order to be exempt from lower-division requirements. (Note: in this case, however, no credit shall be given for placing out of lower-division courses.) For those who begin the program with a linguistic ability above the intermediate level, it is wise to consult program instructors or advisors for an appropriate, well-constructed academic plan.

The programs in liberal arts, liberal studies, and interdisciplinary studies encourage students to discover the rich synergy of learning across disciplines. Students learn to synthesize their knowledge creatively and critically. Students within these majors are prepared to explore and evaluate a wide range of problems and solutions from multiple perspectives, including a biblical worldview.

Creative Writing, BFA

The Creative Writing major allows students to write fiction and poetry in multi-tiered workshops that culminate in a final writing project of publishable quality. The program offers instruction in other genres of writing and in literary editing and publishing, and it includes substantial coursework in literature. The skills students acquire in this program will equip them for all types of careers where keen, lucid writing is expected, whether analytical, editorial, or creative. This program also prepares students for graduate study in both Creative Writing and English.

Lower Division Requirement

- ENG 273 - Introduction to Creative Writing

Upper Division Requirements

Complete one of the following sequences:

- ENG 384 - Writing Fiction
 - ENG 484 - Advanced Fiction Writing
- OR
- ENG 385 - Writing Poetry
 - ENG 485 - Advanced Poetry Writing

Upper Division Writing Elective Requirements

Complete six (6) units from the following:

- ENG 384 - Writing Fiction
- ENG 385 - Writing Poetry

- ENG 386 - Writing Creative Nonfiction
- ENG 411 - Special Topics in Creative Writing
- ENG 431 - Literary Journal Editing and Publishing
- ENG 484 - Advanced Fiction Writing
- ENG 485 - Advanced Poetry Writing

Upper Division Elective Requirement

Complete three (3) additional units from the following:

- ENG 384 - Writing Fiction
- ENG 385 - Writing Poetry
- ENG 386 - Writing Creative Nonfiction
- ENG 411 - Special Topics in Creative Writing
- ENG 431 - Literary Journal Editing and Publishing
- ENG 484 - Advanced Fiction Writing
- ENG 485 - Advanced Poetry Writing
- FLM 301 - Basic Screenwriting
- JRN 312 - Magazine and Feature Writing
- THE 424 - Scriptwriting

English Minor

Traditional Minor Program Requirements (18 units)

Lower Division Requirement

- ENG 201 - Introduction to Literature

Lower Division Elective Requirement

Complete three (3) units from the following:

- ENG 213 - British Literature Pre-1750
- ENG 223 - British Literature Post-1750
- ENG 233 - American Literature Pre-1865
- ENG 243 - American Literature Post-1865
- ENG 253 - World Literature Pre-1650
- ENG 263 - World Literature Post-1650

Upper Division Requirements

Complete twelve (12) upper division units in English

Spanish for Healthcare Professions Minor

The Spanish for Healthcare Professions minor provides concentrated preparation in the study of language and culture in the healthcare field. Given the ever-growing need for bilingual doctors, nurses, and other health care professionals due to the consistently growing population of Spanish speakers in the US, students graduating with this minor will be well equipped and at an advantage to many of their peers when applying for positions within the healthcare professions.

Traditional Minor Program Requirements (19 units)

Prerequisites

Complete one of the following course sequences:

- SPA 110 - Spanish for Health Care Professionals I AND
- SPA 120 - Spanish for Health Care Professionals II
OR
- SPA 115 - Elementary Spanish I AND
- SPA 125 - Elementary Spanish II
OR
- SPA 130 - Spanish for Heritage Speakers I

Lower Division Requirements

*Replace with upper division units in Spanish if exempted by exam or assessment.

- SPA 101 - Introduction to the Discipline
- SPA 213 - Intermediate Spanish I AND
- SPA 223 - Intermediate Spanish II
OR
- SPA 230 - Spanish for Heritage Speakers II * AND
- Three (3) additional units in Spanish

Upper Division Requirements

- SPA 335 - Spanish in the Professions
- SPA 337 - Advanced Spanish for Healthcare Professions
- SPA 465 - Spanish-English Translation and Interpretation

Upper Division Elective Requirement

- Complete three (3) additional units in Spanish

Spanish Minor

Traditional Minor Program Requirements (18 units)

Prerequisites

- SPA 115 - Elementary Spanish I AND
- SPA 125 - Elementary Spanish II
- OR
- SPA 130 - Spanish for Heritage Speakers I

Lower Division Requirements

*Replace with upper division units in Spanish if exempted by exam or assessment.

- SPA 101 - Introduction to the Discipline

- SPA 213 - Intermediate Spanish I AND
- SPA 223 - Intermediate Spanish II
- OR
- SPA 230 - Spanish for Heritage Speakers II * AND
- Three (3) additional units in Spanish

Upper Division Requirements

- SPA 315 - Introduction to Hispanic Literature
- SPA 325 - Spanish Grammar in Context and Composition
- Six (6) additional upper division units in Spanish

Teachers of English to Speakers of Other Languages (TESOL) Minor

The TESOL minor includes concentrated coursework in TESOL designed for students from all disciplines who wish to supplement their academic interest or goals. The TESOL minor is especially valuable for students who seek work or ministry opportunities - at home or abroad - with speakers of languages other than English.

Traditional Minor Program Requirements (18 units)

Upper Division Requirements

- ENG 432 - Sociolinguistics
- ENG 442 - Teaching Second Language Writing
- ENG 446 - Teaching Second Language Reading
- ENG 452 - Second Language Curriculum Development and Assessment
- ENG 463 - Language Structure and Acquisition
- ENG 472 - Theory and Methods of TESOL

Writing and Digital Studies Minor

The Writing and Digital Studies minor is designed to complement a broad range of majors and to prepare students for professional writing in a digital environment by developing and translating their written, analytical, and research skills into the workplace. It explores a variety of digital platforms for both analysis and expression.

Traditional Minor Program Requirements (18 units)

Lower Division Requirements

- ENG 201 - Introduction to Literature OR
- ENG 273 - Introduction to Creative Writing

- JRN 216 - Digital Storytelling OR
- HUM 213 - Humanities I OR
- HUM 223 - Humanities II

Upper Division Requirements

- ENG 302 - Professional Writing
- ENG 382 - Introduction to Digital Studies

Writing and Practical Application Elective Requirement

Complete three (3) units from the following:

- ENG 431 - Literary Journal Editing and Publishing
- ENG 454 - Writing in Context
- ENG 491 - Internship

Upper Division Breadth Elective Requirement

Complete three (3) units from the following:

- ART 351 - Museum Studies
- ART 385 - Film as Visual Art
- ART 387 - Contemporary Visual Arts and Culture
- ART 430 - Art and the Bible
- ENG 303 - Topics in World Literature
- ENG 323 - Classical Literature
- ENG 333 - Seventeenth Century British Literature
- ENG 343 - Eighteenth and Nineteenth Century British Literature
- ENG 353 - Introduction to Children's Literature
- ENG 354 - Children's Classics
- ENG 355 - Folklore and Fairy Tales
- ENG 363 - Introduction to Young Adult Literature
- ENG 365 - Christian Classics
- ENG 399 - Independent Study
- ENG 400 - Special Topics in English
- ENG 431 - Literary Journal Editing and Publishing

- ENG 434 - Major Christian Authors
- ENG 440 - Modern American Literature
- ENG 443 - Contemporary American Literature
- ENG 454 - Writing in Context
- ENG 460 - Modern and Contemporary British Literature
- ENG 491 - Internship
- FLM 305 - Christianity and Film
- FLM 350 - Film and Literature
- HIS 440 - History Through Film
- HUM 325 - Culture and the Museum
- JRN 320 - Media Law, Ethics, and Copyright
- JRN 349 - Editing for Print and Online Media
- JRN 370 - Social Media Strategies
- POL 330 - Law and Literature

Advanced Proficiency in Written and Oral Spanish Certificate

The Advanced Proficiency in Written and Oral Spanish Certificate is issued by the Office of the University Registrar upon student request and completion of the below courses.

Traditional Certificate Program Requirements (12 units)

Certificate Requirements

*Replace with upper division units in Spanish if exempted by exam or assessment.

- SPA 213 - Intermediate Spanish I AND
- SPA 223 - Intermediate Spanish II
- OR
- SPA 230 - Spanish for Heritage Speakers II * AND
- Three (3) additional units in Spanish

- SPA 325 - Spanish Grammar in Context and Composition
- Three (3) additional upper division units in Spanish

Children's Literature Certificate

The Children's Literature Certificate is issued by the Office of the University Registrar upon student request and completion of the below courses. The certificate includes concentrated coursework in children's literature designed for students who wish to supplement their academic interest or goals.

Traditional Certificate Program Requirements (12 units)

Certificate Requirements

- ENG 353 - Introduction to Children's Literature
- ENG 363 - Introduction to Young Adult Literature

Certificate Elective Requirements

Complete six (6) units from the following:

* Special Topics courses must be approved by the Department of Modern Languages and Literature to meet certificate requirements.

- ENG 200 - Special Topics in English *
- ENG 354 - Children's Classics
- ENG 355 - Folklore and Fairy Tales
- ENG 400 - Special Topics in English *

Hispanic Literature and Film Certificate

Traditional Certificate Program Requirements (12 units)

The Hispanic Literature and Film Certificate is issued by the Office of the University Registrar upon student request and completion of the below courses.

Upper Division Requirements

- SPA 330 - Hispanic Literature and Film
- SPA 339 - Modern Mexican Literature and Film

Additional Upper Division Requirements

Complete six (6) units from the following:

- SPA 305 - Conversational Spanish for the Professions
- SPA 315 - Introduction to Hispanic Literature
- SPA 335 - Spanish in the Professions
- SPA 400 - Special Topics
- SPA 450 - Research in Literature

Teachers of English to Speakers of Other Languages (TESOL) Certificate

The TESOL Certificate is issued by the Office of the University Registrar upon student request and completion of the below courses. The certificate includes concentrated coursework in TESOL designed for students with a major outside the English program who wish to supplement their academic interest or goals.

Traditional Certificate Program Requirements

Certificate Requirements (15 units)

- ENG 442 - Teaching Second Language Writing
- ENG 446 - Teaching Second Language Reading
- ENG 452 - Second Language Curriculum Development and Assessment
- ENG 463 - Language Structure and Acquisition
- ENG 472 - Theory and Methods of TESOL

Faculty Information

The Division of Natural and Mathematical Sciences consists of the following three departments: Biological Sciences, Chemical Sciences, and Mathematical Sciences. We are committed to preparing students for careers in mathematics and science and science-related fields. Our students are successfully transitioning into professional or graduate schools, into the classroom as teachers, or directly into the workforce in a variety of careers. Students have the opportunity to work with our faculty on research, present their research at California Baptist University and outside conferences, as well as work in our labs. Our diverse, highly qualified and caring faculty is interested in helping to develop the whole person so that our students will leave California Baptist University as Christian scholars who can make a positive impact in our world.

A bachelor's degree in the Department of Biological Sciences from California Baptist University is a great start toward many exciting career opportunities, especially those related to healthcare, solving environmental challenges, working with animals, teaching, research, sustainable development, and more. Students will be prepared to join the growing number of people and organizations around the globe who are focused on helping others meet their basic human needs, including healthcare and developing sustainable communities.

The Biomedical Sciences major is tailored for students seeking careers in various biomedical professions, including medicine, dentistry, pharmacy, physician assistant, physical therapy, podiatry, optometry, veterinary and others.

The Biology Major is for students who want to go to medical or other professional schools, who want teach, or who just have a general interest in biology.

The Environmental Science major is focused on learning about and solving environmental challenges.

The Sustainability major provides a cross disciplinary approach, which includes education in urban agriculture, social issues, sustainable development, environmental studies, and ecological impact.

We are very proud of the success our graduates are having. Our faculty are personally invested in the students, and opportunities for students to be involved in research and student organizations are plentiful. These interactions will help in choosing a career goal that fits their strengths, helps realize their goals, and allows them to live their purpose.

Biology, BS

This Biology program provides the core curricular needs for the life sciences, and prepares its majors for the pursuit of graduate studies, professional studies, teaching at the secondary level, or research in the biological sciences. Students interested in teaching at the secondary level should see the Education section for the Professional Methods Program for Single Subject Credential Students.

Traditional Major Program Requirements (64-68 units)

Lower Division Requirements

- BIO 101 - Orientation to the Discipline
- BIO 146 - General Biology I with Lab
- BIO 148 - General Biology II with Lab
- CHE 115 - General Chemistry I
- CHE 115L - General Chemistry I Lab
- CHE 125 - General Chemistry II
- CHE 125L - General Chemistry II Lab
- MAT 145 - Mathematical Methods in the Natural Sciences OR
- MAT 245 - Analytical Geometry and Calculus I
- PHY 214 - Physics I
- PHY 214L - Physics I Lab
- PHY 224 - Physics II
- PHY 224L - Physics II Lab

Upper Division Requirements

- BIO 313 - Genetics
- BIO 330 - Cell and Molecular Biology with Lab
- CHE 351 - Organic Chemistry I with Lab
- CHE 352 - Organic Chemistry II with Lab

Practicum Requirement

Complete three (3) units from the following:

- BIO 380 - Biology Seminar
- BIO 490 - Senior Research in Biology
- BIO 491 - Internship in Biology
- BIO 499 - Biology Capstone

Concentration Courses (16-20 units)

Students must complete all requirements in one of the following concentrations: Environmental Science; General Biology; Secondary Biology Education

Environmental Science (16 units)

- BIO 114 - General Botany with Lab
- BIO 302 - Ecology with Lab
- ENV 360 - Environmental Chemistry with Lab
- SCI 412 - Topics Marine Science

General Biology (16 units)

- BIO 114 - General Botany with Lab
- Complete twelve (12) additional upper division units in biology and SCI 412

Secondary Biology Education (20 units)

- BIO 114 - General Botany with Lab
- BIO 302 - Ecology with Lab
- BIO 344 - Vertebrate Physiology with Lab
- ENV 451 - Advanced Geoscience with Lab
- PHY 301 - Astronomy II
- PHY 301L - Astronomy II Lab

Recommended Courses

- PHY 214D - Physics I Discussion
- PHY 224D - Physics II Discussion

Biomedical Sciences, BS

This major prepares students for careers in biomedical sciences, including as physicians, dentists, pharmacists, podiatrists, graduate nursing, physician assistants, physical therapists, optometrists, and veterinarians. The curriculum provides necessary application course requirements and preparation for success in graduate programs. Emphasis is placed on human biology, pathobiology, and pharmacology.

Traditional Major Program Requirements (74 units)

Lower Division Requirements

- BIO 101 - Orientation to the Discipline
- BIO 146 - General Biology I with Lab
- BIO 148 - General Biology II with Lab
- CHE 115 - General Chemistry I

- BIO 330 - Cell and Molecular Biology with Lab
- BIO 353 - Advanced Human Anatomy and Physiology I with Lab
- BIO 363 - Advanced Human Anatomy and Physiology II with Lab
- BIO 440 - Pharmacology with Discussion
- CHE 351 - Organic Chemistry I with Lab
- CHE 352 - Organic Chemistry II with Lab
- CHE 443 - Biochemistry I with Lab

Upper Division Research Requirement

Complete at least two (2) units of either:

- BIO 490 - Senior Research in Biology OR
- BIO 491 - Internship in Biology OR
- BIO 499 - Biology Capstone

Upper Division Electives

Complete eight (8) units from the following:

- BIO 313 - Genetics
- BIO 324 - Developmental Biology with Lab
- BIO 412 - Topics in Biology
- BIO 425 - Cancer Biology
- BIO 489 - Immunology and Molecular Pathogenesis with Lab

Recommended Courses

- PHY 214D - Physics I Discussion
- PHY 224D - Physics II Discussion

Environmental Science, BS

The Environmental Science degree program is designed for students who wish to receive a comprehensive environmental science education for the purpose of research into and management of Earth's natural resources, and for promotion of environmental protection of these resources for public health and welfare. The major prepares students for careers in private, state and federal environmental roles. The major is designed for students who have a desire to solve environmental challenges and be involved in their solutions.

Traditional Major Program Requirements (63 units)

Lower Division Requirements

- BIO 114 - General Botany with Lab

- ENV 110 - Introduction to Environmental Science with Lab
- MAT 145 - Mathematical Methods in the Natural Sciences
- STA 144 - Introduction to Statistics

Upper Division Requirements

- BIO 302 - Ecology with Lab
- ENV 360 - Environmental Chemistry with Lab
- ENV 380 - Environmental Science Seminar
- ENV 390 - Stewardship of the Environment
- ENV 450 - Environmental Organic Chemistry with Lab
- ENV 470 - Advanced Environmental Science with Lab

Upper Division Elective Requirements

Complete twelve (12) additional upper division units from:

- ENV (any upper division ENV courses)
- BIO 305 - Microbiology with Lab
- BIO 313 - Genetics
- CHE 321 - Quantitative Chemical Analysis with Lab
- CHE 470 - Instrumental Analysis
- SCI 412 - Topics Marine Science

Sustainability, BS

Sustainability is the science of developing, planning, and providing for the current global population's needs while not exceeding our future generations' resources. To achieve this goal, our Sustainability program provides a cross disciplinary approach, which includes education in urban agriculture, social issues, sustainable development, environmental studies, and ecological impacts. Students graduating with this degree will have the skills to develop innovative solutions to global challenges while helping to protect the natural environment and build resilient communities.

The Department of Chemical Sciences offers majors and minors that will help prepare students for a variety of careers. Students can work in fields at the forefront of science - helping to develop the technologies of tomorrow, or in a variety of careers which require a background in chemistry.

A major in chemistry can lead to work in industries that produce pharmaceuticals, personal care products, plastics, household chemicals, foods and beverages, and thousands of other materials relied upon for everyday life. Chemists also conduct research to better understand nature and solve significant problems, such as developing alternative fuels and understanding climate change. Many of our graduates continue on to graduate school to further prepare them for research-related careers while other students pursue careers as secondary school teachers, scientists in private labs, or employment in governmental agencies.

The biochemistry and molecular biology major is designed with courses that will either prepare students for, or directly cover, topics that are at the convergence of chemistry and biology. This major is rigorous and comprehensive, preparing students for graduate and professional programs in the biomedical sciences and the same careers as biology and chemistry majors.

The forensic chemistry major prepares students to be competitive for entry level employment in forensic science-related positions while also providing a strong background in chemistry that can lead to other careers. By choosing either a concentration in Criminal Justice Systems or Criminalistics, students will gain advanced experience in one of these areas, depending on the career direction that the student wants to pursue.

Students will learn under professors who are dedicated to their students. Most major classes are taught by full-time faculty members. We have state-of-the-art equipment and facilities that are dedicated solely for use by our students in both classes and research.

Biochemistry and Molecular Biology, BS

Biochemistry and Molecular Biology majors study the area of science where biology and chemistry intersect. It is an ideal major for students with strong interest in both biology and chemistry as it prepares students for graduate studies and professional studies in medical sciences, in addition to industry and government careers that require in-depth knowledge of either chemistry or biology.

Traditional Major Program Requirements (75 units)

Lower Division Requirements

Upper Division Requirements

- BIO 330 - Cell and Molecular Biology with Lab
- BIO 430 - Laboratory Techniques in Molecular Biology
- BIO 435 - Proteomics, Genomics, and Bioinformatics with Lab
- CHE 321 - Quantitative Chemical Analysis with Lab
- CHE 351 - Organic Chemistry I with Lab
- CHE 352 - Organic Chemistry II with Lab
- CHE 415 - Physical Chemistry I
- CHE 443 - Biochemistry I with Lab
- CHE 444 - Biochemistry II with Lab

Upper Division Elective Requirement

Complete four (4) units from the following:

- BIO 313 - Genetics
- BIO 440 - Pharmacology with Discussion
- BIO 489 - Immunology and Molecular Pathogenesis with Lab

Upper Division Research Requirement

Complete a four (4) unit sequence from the following:

- BIO 380 - Biology Seminar
 - BIO 490 - Senior Research in Biology (3 units)
- OR
- CHE 480 - Chemistry Research Seminar
 - CHE 490 - Senior Research in Chemistry (3 units)

Recommended Courses

- PHY 214D - Physics I Discussion
- PHY 224D - Physics II Discussion

Chemistry, BS

The Chemistry major prepares students for employment in industry, government, and academia in positions that require an in-depth knowledge of chemistry. The major also prepares students to be chemistry teachers and for graduate study in scientific disciplines related to chemistry. Students choose one of four concentrations, depending on interests and career goals. Students interested in teaching at the secondary level should see the Education section for the Professional Methods Program for Single Subject Credential Students.

- Preliminary Multiple Subject Credential
- Preliminary Single Subject Credential

- CHE 470 - Instrumental Analysis
- CHE 480 - Chemistry Research Seminar

Concentration Courses (15-20 units)

Students must complete all requirements in one of the following concentrations: Advanced Studies in Chemistry; Environmental Science; Secondary Chemistry Education; Pre-Medical Chemistry

Advanced Studies in Chemistry (15 units)

Upper Division Requirement

- CHE 490 - Senior Research in Chemistry (3 units)

Upper Division Elective Requirements

Complete twelve (12) units from the following:

- CHE 341 - Advanced Inorganic Chemistry with Lab
- CHE 400 - Special Topics in Chemistry
- CHE 443 - Biochemistry I with Lab
- CHE 444 - Biochemistry II with Lab

Environmental Science (20 units)

- BIO 148 - General Biology II with Lab
- ENV 110 - Introduction to Environmental Science with Lab
- Twelve (12) additional units of upper division Environmental Science coursework

Secondary Chemistry Education (20 units)

- BIO 146 - General Biology I with Lab
- BIO 148 - General Biology II with Lab
- CHE 341 - Advanced Inorganic Chemistry with Lab
- PHY 301 - Astronomy II
- PHY 301L - Astronomy II Lab
- ENV 451 - Advanced Geoscience with Lab

Pre-Medical Chemistry (16 units)

- BIO 146 - General Biology I with Lab
- BIO 148 - General Biology II with Lab
- Eight (8) additional units of upper-division Biology or Chemistry coursework

Recommended Courses

- PHY 214D - Physics I Discussion
- PHY 224D - Physics II Discussion

Forensic Chemistry, BS

The Forensic Chemistry major prepares students to be competitive for entry level employment in forensic science-related positions while also providing a strong background in chemistry that can lead to other careers. Faculty Information

The Division of Natural and Mathematical Sciences consists of the following three departments: Biological Sciences, Chemical Sciences, and Mathematical Sciences. We are committed to preparing students for careers in mathematics and science and science-related fields. Our students are successfully transitioning into professional or graduate schools, into the classroom as teachers, or directly into the workforce in a variety of careers. Students have the opportunity to work with our faculty on research, present their research at California Baptist University and outside conferences, as well as work in our labs. Our diverse, highly qualified, and caring faculty are interested in helping to develop the whole person so that our students will leave California Baptist University as Christian scholars who can make a positive impact in our world.

With programs in Actuarial Science, Foundational Mathematics, Mathematics, Sports Analytics and Statistics and Data Analytics, the Department of Mathematical Sciences prepares students to pursue some of the top careers of today. Our programs provide a strong academic aptitude that is founded on faith. Collectively, our programs do this in at least two different ways:

1. By glorifying God through the study of the beauty of the mathematical sciences.
2. And by cultivating Christ-like compassion that serves and loves others via problem solving that is relevant to an ever-changing global landscape.

The Actuarial Science degree program is designed for students who wish to pursue a career as an actuary or in other areas of industry dealing with risk management. With margins thinner, actuarial accuracy is more necessary than ever to the global economy. This program is designed to prepare students to take the first two actuarial exams. Also, the Society of Actuaries (SOA) has approved CBU for Validation by Educational Experience (VEE) in areas of Mathematical Statistics, Economics, and Accounting and Finance.

We offer a Bachelor of Arts in Statistics and Data Analytics as well as a Bachelor of Science in Sports Analytics. These majors prepare students to work in one of the hottest sectors with the latest technology collecting, displaying, analyzing and mining data. Students will work side-by-side with full-time professors with real world experience. Using state-of-the-art computers and software, students will analyze local and global life-changing issues and apply their results to save lives and help people.

Our Mathematics major prepares students for careers in teaching at the secondary level, research, industry, business and graduate study. With a major in math, students will learn skills that will enable them to serve God and our society. Our Mathematics students want to develop their mathematical abilities with depth and excellence, and we are here to help them do just that. We are concerned with more than just providing the required coursework to be a skilled mathematician; we also care about our students and want to help them prepare for the career that is right for them.

Kappa Mu Epsilon is a specialized honor society in mathematics founded to promote the interest of mathematics among undergraduate students and recognition of outstanding achievement in the study of mathematics at the undergraduate level. Membership is open to students who have completed at least three college mathematics courses (including at least one semester of calculus) with an overall grade point average of 3.00 or better. Members must be at least a second-semester sophomore and rank in the top 35% of their class. For more information, contact Dr. Jim Buchholz, Faculty Advisor.

Actuarial Science, BS

The Actuarial Science degree program is designed for students who wish to pursue a career as an actuary or in other areas of industry dealing with risk management. The program is designed to prepare students to take the first two actuarial exams (Probability and Financial Mathematics) and has been approved by the Society of Actuaries (SOA) for Validation by Educational Experience (VEE) in all three areas of Mathematical Statistics, Economics, and Accounting and Finance.

Traditional Major Program Requirements (66 units)

Lower Division Requirements

- ACC 250 - Principles of Accounting I
- ACC 251 - Principles of Accounting II
- BUS 217 - Microeconomics
- BUS 218 - Macroeconomics
- CIS 268 - Computer Programming Languages
- MAT 245 - Analytical Geometry and Calculus I
- MAT 255 - Analytical Geometry and Calculus II
- STA 101 - Statistical Foundations
- STA 144 - Introduction to Statistics
- STA 205 - Applied Linear Regression
- STA 210 - Statistical Computing I
- STA 211 - Statistical Computing II

Upper Division Requirements

- BUS 303 - Business Finance
- MAT 303 - Linear Algebra with Applications to Differential Equations
- MAT 343 - Multivariable Calculus

- MAT 353 - Probability and Statistics
- STA 310 - Mathematical Statistics I
- STA 311 - Mathematical Statistics II
- STA 320 - Financial Mathematics I
- STA 321 - Financial Mathematics II
- STA 470 - Seminar in Financial Mathematics
- STA 480 - Seminar in Probability and Statistics

Foundational Mathematics, BS

The Foundational Mathematics major is designed for students who plan to teach mathematics in a single subject classroom, up through but not including calculus or Advanced Placement mathematics courses at the secondary level.

Traditional Major Program Requirements (58-59 units)

Lower Division Requirements

- MAT 101 - Orientation to the Discipline
- MAT 125 - Mathematical Concepts and Applications I
- MAT 127 - Mathematical Concepts and Applications II
- MAT 135 - Pre-Calculus
- MAT 245 - Analytical Geometry and Calculus I
- MAT 250 - Modeling and Applications of Calculus
- MAT 255 - Analytical Geometry and Calculus II

Upper Division Requirements

- EDU 341 - The Exceptional Child
- EDU 409 - Educational Psychology
- EDU 411 - Theories and Methods of Teaching Diverse Students
- ETC 407 - Technology and Learning
- MAT 313 - Mathematical Proof and Structures
- MAT 353 - Probability and Statistics
- MAT 363 - History of Mathematics and Theory of Numbers
- MAT 403 - Linear Algebra
- MAT 463 - Fundamental Concepts of Geometry
- MAT 499 - Capstone (4 units)

Elective Requirements

Complete a set of courses from the following:

- MAT 343 - Multivariable Calculus AND
- MAT 443 - Introduction to Real Analysis
- OR
- PHY 214 - Physics I AND
- PHY 214L - Physics I Lab AND

- PHY 224 - Physics II AND

Subject Matter Preparation Program in Mathematics

The Single Subject Matter Preparation (SSMP) Program in Mathematics consists of approved mathematics courses selected to provide undergraduate students the academic background necessary to qualify them to teach mathematics in grades seven through twelve. To obtain a Single Subject Credential in Mathematics the student must:

1. Obtain an undergraduate degree.
2. Demonstrate subject competence in mathematics in one of two ways: Earn a passing score on a mathematics examination that has been adopted by the Commission on Teacher Credentialing (CTC) or complete a commission approved SSMP program. The SSMP Program from CBU is an approved CTC program.
3. Complete a teaching credential program.

Students interested in the Subject Matter Preparation Program should contact their Faculty Advisor in the Mathematics Department. Students seeking a teaching credential should contact the Teacher Education Credential Program within the School of Education. (Also see the Single Subject Credential section for the Professional Methods Program for Single Subject Credential Students.)

Mathematics, BS

The Mathematics major is designed for students who wish to become competitive mathematicians that seek to discover uncharted mathematical territory through research, find a fulfilling career in a job-market in need of mathematical and analytical skills, teach mathematics and impact the lives of students at the secondary level, and solve real-world problems.

Traditional Major Program Requirements (54-58 units)

Lower Division Requirements

- CIS 268 - Computer Programming Languages
- MAT 101 - Orientation to the Discipline
- MAT 245 - Analytical Geometry and Calculus I
- MAT 250 - Modeling and Applications of Calculus
- MAT 255 - Analytical Geometry and Calculus II
- PHY 214 - Physics I
- PHY 214L - Physics I Lab
- PHY 224 - Physics II
- PHY 224L - Physics II Lab

Upper Division Requirements

- MAT 310 - Differential Equations

- MAT 313 - Mathematical Proof and Structures
- MAT 343 - Multivariable Calculus
- MAT 403 - Linear Algebra
- MAT 443 - Introduction to Real Analysis
- MAT 473 - Abstract Algebra I
- MAT 480 - Senior Seminar

Concentration Courses (12-16 units)

Students must complete all requirements in one of the following concentrations: Advanced Studies in Mathematics; Applied Mathematics; General Studies in Mathematics; Secondary Mathematics Education

Advanced Studies in Mathematics (12 units)

- MAT 333 - Complex Variables
- MAT 423 - Introduction to Topology
- MAT 453 - Numerical Analysis
- MAT 483 - Abstract Algebra II

Applied Mathematics (12-14 units)

- MAT 353 - Probability and Statistics
- MAT 453 - Numerical Analysis

Applied Mathematics Elective Requirements

Complete at least six (6) additional units from the following:

- MAT 333 - Complex Variables
- MAT 400 - Special Topics in Mathematics
- MAT 425 - Applications of Topology
- MAT 490 - Senior Research in Mathematics (3 units)*
- PHY 310 - Waves and Optics with Lab
- PHY 320 - Modern Physics
- STA 310 - Mathematical Statistics I
- STA 311 - Mathematical Statistics II
- STA 320 - Financial Mathematics I
- STA 321 - Financial Mathematics II

* If MAT 490 is selected, it must be taken for three (3) units, and may only be counted toward the concentration one time.

General Studies in Mathematics (12 units)

Complete twelve (12) additional upper division units in Mathematics.

NOTE: A maximum of six (6) units may be completed through enrollment in MAT 400

Secondary Mathematics Education (16 units) **

 See Subject Matter Preparation Program in Mathematics (below) for more information.

- MAT 333 - Complex Variables
- MAT 353 - Probability and Statistics
- MAT 363 - History of Mathematics and Theory of Numbers
- MAT 463 - Fundamental Concepts of Geometry
- MAT 499 - Capstone

Sports Analytics, BS

Sports analysts watch and dissect sports for a living! They gather data and statistics on players and strategies and use them to help teams perform better. A combination of statistics and sports, sports analytics is a fun career option for those that want to find the hidden secrets in sports of any kind. In this interdisciplinary program, students develop innovative, analytical skills, and mathematical talent, as well as computer science proficiency. The ultimate goal of the sports analyst is to find innovation through deep knowledge of the sport as well as its business context, through the ability to see patterns that others can't see! This field is rapidly growing and applicable to any sport.

Traditional Major Program Requirements (41-51 units)

Lower Division Requirements

- CIS 268 - Computer Programming Languages OR
- EGR 121 - Introduction to Computer Programming in C++

- STA 101 - Statistical Foundations
- STA 144 - Introduction to Statistics

Rehabilitative Sports Analytics (19 units)

- BIO 153 - Anatomy and Physiology I
- BIO 153L - Anatomy and Physiology I Lab
- KIN 264 - Movement Anatomy
- KIN 353 - Care and Prevention of Athletic Injuries

- KIN 383 - Exercise Physiology OR
- KIN 490 - Principles of Conditioning Athletes

- KIN 454 - Behavioral Aspects of Sport
- STA 462 - Measurement and Evaluation

Sports Performance Analytics (12 units)

- KIN 305 - Applied Sport Management
- KIN 315 - Sport Governance
- KIN 454 - Behavioral Aspects of Sport

- STA 305 - Sampling and Survey Methodology OR
- STA 462 - Measurement and Evaluation

Statistics and Data Analytics, BA

An Interdisciplinary major providing math, statistics, and discipline-oriented skills aimed at professional practitioners as entry-level data analysts, and data mining applications.

Traditional Major Program Requirements (51-53 units)

Lower Division Requirements

- MAT 245 - Analytical Geometry and Calculus I
- STA 101 - Statistical Foundations
- STA 144 - Introduction to Statistics
- STA 205 - Applied Linear Regression
- STA 210 - Statistical Computing I
- STA 211 - Statistical Computing II

Upper Division Requirements

- STA 303 - Research and Experimental Design
- STA 305 - Sampling and Survey Methodology
- STA 310 - Mathematical Statistics I
- STA 311 - Mathematical Statistics II
- STA 490 - Research in Statistics (1 unit)
- STA 499 - Capstone (3 units)

Concentration Courses (18-20 units)

Students must complete all of the requirements in one of the following concentrations: Mathematical Data Analytics; Quantitative Business Methods

Mathematical Data Analytics (20 units)

- MAT 255 - Analytical Geometry and Calculus II
- MAT 303 - Linear Algebra with Applications to Differential Equations
- MAT 343 - Multivariable Calculus
- STA 360 - Data Visualization
- STA 362 - Advanced Statistical Computing
- STA 364 - Applied Statistical Methodology

Quantitative Business Methods (18 units)

- BUS 380 - Business Analytics Visualization and Strategy
- BUS 381 - Spatial Analytics in Business
- BUS 480 - Business Models and Analytics
- BUS 481 - Design Thinking in Business Analysis
- STA 320 - Financial Mathematics I

- STA 321 - Financial Mathematics II

Upper Division Requirements

- STA 310 - Mathematical Statistics I
- STA 311 - Mathematical Statistics II

Upper Division Elective Requirements

Complete six (6) units from the following:

- STA 303 - Research and Experimental Design
- STA 305 - Sampling and Survey Methodology
- STA 360 - Data Visualization
- STA 362 - Advanced Statistical Computing
- STA 364 - Applied Statistical Methodology

Mathematics Minor

Traditional Minor Program Requirements (26 units)

Lower Division Requirements

- MAT 245 - Analytical Geometry and Calculus I
- MAT 250 - Modeling and Applications of Calculus
- MAT 255 - Analytical Geometry and Calculus II

Upper Division Requirements

- MAT 313 - Mathematical Proof and Structures
- MAT 343 - Multivariable Calculus
- Nine (9) additional upper division units in Mathematics

Physics Minor

Traditional Minor Program Requirements (20 units)

Lower Division Requirements

- PHY 201 - Physics for Engineers I with Lab AND
- PHY 203 - Physics for Engineers II with Lab

Faculty Information

The College of Behavioral and Social Sciences provides undergraduate general education courses and degrees in the subject areas of Anthropology, Behavioral Science, Christian Behavioral Science, Human Services (online), Psychology, Sociology, and Social Work.

A minor is also available in: Anthropology, Behavioral Science, Christian Behavioral Science, Psychology, and Sociology.

The faculty of the College of Behavioral and Social Sciences believes that academic training best serves the student when it is generalized across the various disciplines of the University. Students are therefore encouraged to broaden their educational experience by examining interdisciplinary aspects of their major and intentionally integrating their world view and religious perspective. Understanding human behavior from the unique perspective of integrating the relationship of material, cognitive, and spiritual aspects of reality are a significant part of the instruction and curriculum of the division.

Behavioral and social science graduates can find entry-level employment in business, education and government positions. Most degrees prepare the student for graduate work and professional life in the behavioral and social science fields.

Anthropology, BA

The Anthropology major is a traditional approach to anthropology which includes an overview of the four-field perspective which includes cultural anthropology, linguistics, physical anthropology, and archeology. The major provides the student with a general understanding of the discipline of anthropology and focuses on the concept of culture as an overriding concept in understanding human nature and variability.

Traditional Major Program Requirements (50-53 units)

Lower Division Requirement

- ANT 225 - Cultural Anthropology

Methodology Requirements

- BEH 250 - Reading and Writing in the Behavioral Sciences
- BEH 290 - Introduction to Research Methods
- BEH 333 - Epistemology and Worldview
- BEH 383 - Statistics and Research Methodology I
- BEH 385 - Statistics and Research Methodology II

Upper Division Requirements

- ANT 325 - Physical Anthropology and Archaeology
- ANT 340 - Theory in Anthropology
- ANT 350 - Language and Culture
- ANT 430 - Culture and Personality
- ANT 460 - Religion and Culture
- BEH 480 - Capstone OR
- BEH 440 - Field Experience

Concentration Courses (12-15 units)

Students must complete all requirements in one of the following concentrations: Cultural Anthropology; Psychological Anthropology

Cultural Anthropology (12 units)

- ANT 360 - Globalization and Culture
- ANT 400 - Special Topics in Anthropology
- ANT 410 - Economic and Political Anthropology
- ANT 450 - Family and Gender Studies

Psychological Anthropology (15 units)

- PSY 213 - General Psychology
- PSY 320 - Life-Span Development
- PSY 322 - Theories of Personality
- PSY 346 - Abnormal Psychology
- PSY 473 - Psychophysiology

Optional Additional Concentrations* (12-15 units)

Students can earn an optional concentration in one of the following areas: Forensic Psychology; Industrial and Organizational Psychology; Life Span Development; Medical Anthropology; Social Work; Sports Psychology

*Each optional concentration requires the completion of a minimum twelve (12) distinct units beyond the major.

Forensic Psychology

- PSY 213 - General Psychology
- PSY 315 - Developmental Psychology: Adolescence and Adulthood
- PSY 350 - Introduction to Forensic Psychology
- PSY 404 - Psychopathic Mind
- PSY 443 - Social Psychology

Industrial and Organizational Psychology

- BUS 435 - Leadership in Organizations
- BUS 463 - Business and Organizational Management
- PSY 213 - General Psychology
- PSY 388 - Industrial and Organizational Psychology
- PSY 443 - Social Psychology

Life Span Development

- PSY 305 - Developmental Psychology: Child
- PSY 315 - Developmental Psychology: Adolescence and Adulthood
- PSY 443 - Social Psychology
- PSY 453 - Psychology of Learning

Medical Anthropology

- ANT 315 - Health and Holistic Healing
- ANT 320 - Ethnomedicine
- ANT 430 - Culture and Personality

- PSY 213 - General Psychology
- PSY 473 - Psychophysiology OR
- PSY 305 - Developmental Psychology: Child

Social Work

- SWK 300 - Introduction to Social Work
- SWK 335 - Substance Use Disorders, Treatment, and Recovery
- SWK 340 - Mental Health First Aid
- SWK 345 - Trauma in Children

Sports Psychology

- KIN 454 - Behavioral Aspects of Sport
- PSY 213 - General Psychology
- PSY 360 - Sports Psychology
- PSY 443 - Social Psychology
- PSY 458 - Motivation and Emotion

Behavioral Science, BA

The Behavioral Science major is a broad program drawn from the modern behavioral sciences of anthropology, psychology, and sociology and includes the full methodological skills common to those behavioral sciences. The program also includes a Christian perspective of theology as a behavioral science. The major prepares graduates for employment in social service careers, and for graduate study in Psychology, Sociology, Social Work, and Anthropology. Students are encouraged to pursue a complimentary minor.

Traditional Major Program Requirements (56-68 units)

Lower Division Requirements

- BEH 100 - Survey of the Behavioral Sciences OR
- SOC 213 - Introduction to Sociology OR
- ANT 225 - Cultural Anthropology
- PSY 213 - General Psychology

Methodology Requirements

- BEH 250 - Reading and Writing in the Behavioral Sciences
- BEH 290 - Introduction to Research Methods
- BEH 333 - Epistemology and Worldview
- BEH 383 - Statistics and Research Methodology I
- BEH 385 - Statistics and Research Methodology II

Upper Division Requirements

- ANT 325 - Physical Anthropology and Archaeology

- ANT 340 - Theory in Anthropology OR
- SOC 381 - Social Theory
- ANT 360 - Globalization and Culture
- ANT 430 - Culture and Personality
- CBS 350 - Lifespan Development and Discipleship
- PSY 320 - Life-Span Development
- PSY 322 - Theories of Personality
- PSY 346 - Abnormal Psychology
- SOC 335 - Social Problems
- SOC 345 - Race and Ethnicity
- BEH 480 - Capstone OR
- BEH 440 - Field Experience

Optional Concentrations* (12 units)

Students can earn an optional concentration in the following areas: Forensic Psychology; Industrial and Organizational Psychology; Life Span Development; Medical Anthropology; Social Work; Sports Psychology

*Each optional concentration requires the completion of a minimum of twelve (12) distinct units beyond the major.

Forensic Psychology

- PSY 213 - General Psychology
- PSY 315 - Developmental Psychology: Adolescence and Adulthood
- PSY 350 - Introduction to Forensic Psychology
- PSY 404 - Psychopathic Mind
- PSY 443 - Social Psychology

Industrial and Organizational Psychology

- BUS 435 - Leadership in Organizations
- BUS 463 - Business and Organizational Management
- PSY 213 - General Psychology
- PSY 388 - Industrial and Organizational Psychology
- PSY 443 - Social Psychology

Life Span Development

- PSY 305 - Developmental Psychology: Child
- PSY 315 - Developmental Psychology: Adolescence and Adulthood
- PSY 443 - Social Psychology
- PSY 453 - Psychology of Learning

Medical Anthropology

- ANT 315 - Health and Holistic Healing

- ANT 320 - Ethnomedicine
- PSY 213 - General Psychology
- PSY 338 - Sensation and Perception
- PSY 473 - Psychophysiology

Social Work

- SWK 300 - Introduction to Social Work
- SWK 335 - Substance Use Disorders, Treatment, and Recovery
- SWK 340 - Mental Health First Aid
- SWK 345 - Trauma in Children

Sports Psychology

- KIN 454 - Behavioral Aspects of Sport
- PSY 213 - General Psychology
- PSY 360 - Sports Psychology
- PSY 443 - Social Psychology
- PSY 458 - Motivation and Emotion

Christian Behavioral Science, BA

The Christian Behavioral Science major is a distinct and decidedly Christian perspective of human behavior. It addresses the relationship of biblical truth to the knowledge drawn from the Behavioral Sciences. This approach integrates psychology, anthropology, sociology and political science as academic disciplines with theology as a behavioral science.

Traditional Major Program Requirements (51-63 units)

Lower Division Requirements

Should be completed prior to enrollment in upper division Christian Behavioral Science

- BEH 100 - Survey of the Behavioral Sciences OR
- ANT 225 - Cultural Anthropology OR
- SOC 213 - Introduction to Sociology
- CST 110 - Old Testament Survey
- CST 130 - New Testament Survey
- PSY 213 - General Psychology

Upper Division Introduction Requirements

- ANT 460 - Religion and Culture
- BEH 333 - Epistemology and Worldview
- CST 350 - Biblical Interpretation
- CST 370 - The Christian Faith
- PSY 322 - Theories of Personality OR

- ANT 430 - Culture and Personality

Upper Division Christian Behavioral Science Requirements

- CBS 303 - Marriage and Family in the Christian Community
- CBS 350 - Lifespan Development and Discipleship
- CBS 400 - Special Topics in Christian Behavioral Science
- CBS 403 - Congregation and Community
- CBS 415 - Biblical Wisdom and Human Behavior
- CBS 420 - Behavioral Implications of Theology
- CBS 423 - Models of Christian Counseling

Upper Division Elective Requirement

Complete three (3) units from the following:

- ANT 360 - Globalization and Culture
- CST 360 - Church History
- CST 425 - Christian Social Ethics

Optional Additional Concentrations* (12-15 units)

Students can earn an optional concentration in one of the following areas: Forensic Psychology; Industrial and Organizational Psychology; Life Span Development; Medical Anthropology; Social Work; Sports Psychology

*Each optional concentration requires the completion of a minimum twelve (12) distinct units beyond the major.

Forensic Psychology

- PSY 213 - General Psychology
- PSY 315 - Developmental Psychology: Adolescence and Adulthood
- PSY 350 - Introduction to Forensic Psychology
- PSY 404 - Psychopathic Mind
- PSY 443 - Social Psychology

Industrial and Organizational Psychology

- BUS 435 - Leadership in Organizations
- BUS 463 - Business and Organizational Management
- PSY 213 - General Psychology
- PSY 388 - Industrial and Organizational Psychology
- PSY 443 - Social Psychology

Life Span Development

- PSY 305 - Developmental Psychology: Child
- PSY 315 - Developmental Psychology: Adolescence and Adulthood

- PSY 443 - Social Psychology
- PSY 453 - Psychology of Learning

Medical Anthropology

- ANT 315 - Health and Holistic Healing
- ANT 320 - Ethnomedicine
- PSY 213 - General Psychology
- PSY 338 - Sensation and Perception
- PSY 473 - Psychophysiology

Social Work

- SWK 300 - Introduction to Social Work
- SWK 335 - Substance Use Disorders, Treatment, and Recovery
- SWK 340 - Mental Health First Aid
- SWK 345 - Trauma in Children

Sports Psychology

- KIN 454 - Behavioral Aspects of Sport
- PSY 213 - General Psychology
- PSY 360 - Sports Psychology
- PSY 443 - Social Psychology
- PSY 458 - Motivation and Emotion

Human Services, BA (Online)

The Bachelor of Arts in Human Services degree program prepares graduates for employment opportunities in public, private and non-profit arenas. Graduates will leave the program with comprehensive analytical and practical skill sets. The Bachelor of Arts in Human Services will qualify graduates for job opportunities such as community outreach worker, counselors, case managers, and other community and social service specialists. Human services organizations looking for qualified, ethical, and skilled individuals include employment, food and nutrition, housing and shelter, legal and victims' assistance, public safety and disaster relief, foster and senior care, and youth development. The Bachelor of Arts in Human Services degree program also provides students with logical and foundational support for continued education should students wish to consider a Master of Arts in Human Services, Counseling, Public Administration or Business.

Online Major Program Requirements (48 units)

Prerequisites to Program

- ENG 113 - Composition
- ENG 123 - Intermediate Composition
- SOC 213 - Introduction to Sociology

Lower Division Requirements

- BEH 250 - Reading and Writing in the Behavioral Sciences
- BEH 290 - Introduction to Research Methods
- HMS 100 - Introduction to Human Services
- HMS 213 - Theories of Human Services

Upper Division Requirements

- HMS 310 - Diversity and Social Justice
- HMS 320 - Ethics and Legal Implications of Human Services
- HMS 330 - Context of Human Social Behavior
- HMS 340 - Case Management and Assessment in Human Services
- HMS 415 - Family Violence and Mandated Reporting
- HMS 420 - Crisis Intervention
- PSY 346 - Abnormal Psychology
- SOC 323 - Marriage and the Family
- SOC 335 - Social Problems
- SOC 352 - Sociology of Health and Illness

Additional Program Courses

- CST 100 - Overview of the Bible
- CST 300-400 Upper Division Christian Studies (3 units)

Psychology, BA

The Psychology major prepares graduates for employment in public and private agencies and for graduate school in psychology and other related fields. The Psychology major explores the science of human behavior and mental processes. Graduates will understand the historical foundations of psychology and how theories are applied to modern practice. Students are encouraged to pair the Psychology major with an additional major or minor in a complimentary field.

Traditional Major Program Requirements (47-62 units)

Lower Division Requirement

- PSY 213 - General Psychology

Methodology Requirements

- BEH 250 - Reading and Writing in the Behavioral Sciences
- BEH 290 - Introduction to Research Methods
- BEH 333 - Epistemology and Worldview
- BEH 383 - Statistics and Research Methodology I
- BEH 385 - Statistics and Research Methodology II

Upper Division Requirements

- PSY 301 - History and Systems of Psychology
- PSY 320 - Life-Span Development
- PSY 322 - Theories of Personality
- PSY 325 - Tests and Measurements
- PSY 328 - Cognitive Psychology
- PSY 346 - Abnormal Psychology
- PSY 422 - Theories of Counseling
- PSY 473 - Psychophysiology
- BEH 480 - Capstone OR
- BEH 440 - Field Experience

Optional Concentrations* (12-15 units)

Students can earn an optional concentration in one of the following areas: Forensic Psychology; Industrial and Organizational Psychology; Life Span Development; Medical Anthropology; Social Work; Sports Psychology

*Each optional concentration requires the completion of a minimum of twelve (12) distinct units beyond the major.

Forensic Psychology

- PSY 315 - Developmental Psychology: Adolescence and Adulthood
- PSY 350 - Introduction to Forensic Psychology
- PSY 404 - Psychopathic Mind
- PSY 443 - Social Psychology

Industrial and Organizational Psychology

- BUS 435 - Leadership in Organizations
- BUS 463 - Business and Organizational Management
- PSY 388 - Industrial and Organizational Psychology
- PSY 443 - Social Psychology

Life Span Development

- PSY 305 - Developmental Psychology: Child
- PSY 315 - Developmental Psychology: Adolescence and Adulthood
- PSY 443 - Social Psychology
- PSY 453 - Psychology of Learning

Medical Anthropology

- ANT 225 - Cultural Anthropology OR
- BEH 100 - Survey of the Behavioral Sciences
- ANT 315 - Health and Holistic Healing
- ANT 320 - Ethnomedicine
- ANT 430 - Culture and Personality
- PSY 338 - Sensation and Perception

Social Work

- SWK 300 - Introduction to Social Work
- SWK 335 - Substance Use Disorders, Treatment, and Recovery
- SWK 340 - Mental Health First Aid
- SWK 345 - Trauma in Children

Sports Psychology

- KIN 454 - Behavioral Aspects of Sport
- PSY 360 - Sports Psychology
- PSY 443 - Social Psychology
- PSY 458 - Motivation and Emotion

Social Work, BSW

The Mission of California Baptist University's Bachelor of Social Work (BSW) Program is to develop generalist social work practitioners, who are biblically informed, legal, and ethically rooted, data-informed decision makers who are committed to serving within local, global, and congregational communities. Through the engagement and interprofessional collaboration of individuals and systems, CBU's BSW graduates will advance the health and well-being of individuals, families, groups, and communities, with a firm commitment to biblical social justice.

The BSW program strives to develop graduates with the highest integrity and ethics that will distinguish them in the workplace and the world. The BSW program is committed to pursuing Christ-centered justice by equipping graduates to live their purpose and glorify God through community-based social action both locally and globally.

BSW Program Goals:

- Prepare biblically informed social work generalist practitioners.
- Prepare students to serve diverse and historically oppressed groups utilizing data-informed strategies and skills to engage in human rights and social justice advocacy.
- Prepare students to engage in interprofessional collaboration to increase effectiveness in micro, mezzo, and macro outcomes, in local, global, and congregational settings.
- Generate change-oriented research and scholarship to promote social and economic justice.
- Provide educational opportunities to assist undergraduate students in gaining the competencies necessary for generalist social work practice.

Pre-Social Work Requirements (6 units)

- BEH 250 - Reading and Writing in the Behavioral Sciences
- SWK 300 - Introduction to Social Work

Traditional Degree Requirements (62 units)

Foundational Requirements

- SWK 315 - Congregational Social Work
- SWK 335 - Substance Use Disorders, Treatment, and Recovery
- SWK 345 - Trauma in Children
- SWK 380 - Introduction to Medical Social Work
- IPE 410 - Interprofessional Education: Exposure
- IPE 420 - Interprofessional Education: Immersion

- IPE 430 - Interprofessional Education: Competence

Foundational Elective Requirements

Complete nine (9) units from the following:

- ANT 320 - Ethnomedicine
- CBS 403 - Congregation and Community
- CJS 341 - Minorities and the Criminal Justice System
- HIS 311 - Minorities in America
- ICS 410 - Global and Urban Ministries
- SWK 361 - Global Social Work Policy
- SWK 371 - Spirituality and the Helping Professionals
- SWK 381 - Introduction to Child and Family Welfare
- SWK 400 - Special Topics in Social Work

Research Requirements

- BEH 290 - Introduction to Research Methods
- BEH 383 - Statistics and Research Methodology I
- BEH 385 - Statistics and Research Methodology II

- SWK 435 - Case Management
- SWK 451 - Field Practicum II
- SWK 462 - Marginalized Populations

Sociology, BA

The Sociology major prepares graduates for employment in social service careers, and for graduate study in Sociology and Social Work. The program is based on the traditional emphasis of institutions, collective behavior and the socialization process. The program provides the core foundation for understanding the social structure and its patterns, stressing the influence of systems, and highlighting issues and policy necessary for completing a graduate program in social work. Students are encouraged to pursue a complimentary minor. Students may complete a double major in Psychology and Sociology by substituting overlapping courses. Sociology majors may also complete a Psychology or Christian Behavioral Science minor.

Traditional Major Program Requirements (47-62 units)

Lower Division Requirements

- SOC 213 - Introduction to Sociology

Methodology Requirements

- BEH 250 - Reading and Writing in the Behavioral Sciences
- BEH 290 - Introduction to Research Methods

- BEH 385 - Statistics and Research Methodology II

Upper Division Requirements

- SOC 335 - Social Problems
- SOC 337 - Deviant Behavior
- SOC 345 - Race and Ethnicity
- SOC 347 - Sociology of Gender
- SOC 381 - Social Theory

Concentration Courses (15 Units)

Students must complete all requirements in the Cultural Sociology concentration

Cultural Sociology (15 Units)

- SOC 323 - Marriage and the Family
- SOC 338 - Group Dynamics and Social Movements
- SOC 348 - Sociology of Aging
- SOC 355 - Social Stratification
- BEH 480 - Capstone OR
- BEH 440 - Field Experience

Optional Additional Concentrations* (12-15 units)

Students can earn an optional concentration in one of the following areas: Forensic Psychology; Industrial and Organizational Psychology; Life Span Development; Medical Anthropology; Social Work; Sports Psychology

*Each optional concentration requires the completion of a minimum twelve (12) distinct upper division units beyond the major.

Forensic Psychology

- PSY 213 - General Psychology
- PSY 315 - Developmental Psychology: Adolescence and Adulthood
- PSY 350 - Introduction to Forensic Psychology
- PSY 404 - Psychopathic Mind

Sport and Performance Psychology, BS (Online)

The Bachelor of Arts in Sports and Performance Psychology prepares graduates for careers as professionals who can guide clients in gaining confidence through performance enhancement. The demand is high for educated and experienced mental health professionals who have the skills to help others overcome the cognitive problems that impede their performance. The Bachelor of Science in Sport and Performance Psychology degree program is centered on providing students with the psychological foundation needed to meet these demands providing a curriculum focused on core disciplines, including social focus, cognitive practices, theoretical knowledge, professionalism and ethics, among others.

Departments

Aerospace, Industrial, and Mechanical Engineering	Richard Baumer, Ph.D.
Chemical Engineering and Bioengineering	Sarah Zhao, Ph.D.
Civil Engineering and Construction Management	Jong-Wha Bai, Ph.D.
Computing, Software, and Data Sciences	Dan Grissom, Ph.D.
Electrical and Computer Engineering	Seunghyun Chun, Ph.D.

Through the Gordon and Jill Bourns College of Engineering at California Baptist University the Biomedical Engineering, Chemical Engineering, Civil Engineering, Electrical and Computer Engineering, and Mechanical Engineering degree programs are accredited by the Engineering Accreditation Commission of ABET and the Computer Science degree program is accredited through the Computing Accreditation Commission of ABET, <http://www.abet.org>. The Construction Management major is accredited by the American Council for Construction Education (ACCE), www.acce-hq.org.

Engineers provide products and services that serve the needs of humanity. Engineers see problems and challenges as opportunities in disguise. Engineering graduates are highly sought after for their critical thinking, communication and team skills and are thus well compensated. Engineering degrees prepare students for the broadest number of outcomes. In addition to a growing variety of engineering jobs, about 20% of engineering students take their training and end up being doctors, lawyers, teachers, professors, officers, business entrepreneurs and salespeople. Students have also used their training as missionaries and pastors.

Distinctives of the College of Engineering include:

- A caring, Christ centered learning community with outstanding faculty

- Both "excellent" and "average" students will have opportunities for growth
- Hands on, team oriented design projects all four years
- Required internships with industry, university research or a non-profit organization prior to graduation
- Training in project management and an exposure to the business side of engineering
- All students will be shown how to obtain a provisional patent on their own creative idea
- Emphasis on broad life skill training (e.g. critical thinking, teamwork, communication etc.)
- All students are required to pass the Fundamentals of Engineering practice exam or an equivalent program assessment to graduate.
- All students will be required to have a cross cultural experience
- All students will develop and maintain an electronic portfolio

Numerous regional businesses are actively involved with the College of Engineering through hiring alumni for jobs and students as interns, sponsoring capstone projects, serving on the strategic advisory board and departmental advisory councils, providing curriculum partners, funding student scholarships and equipment, and providing tours and guest lectures.

Areas of focus for research within the College of Engineering includes: outstanding undergraduate curriculum development, applications relating to human health, applications for green and sustainable technologies, and applications which have global implications.

The Engineering Degree has concentrations in Agricultural, Business, Global Applications, and Pre-Law.

Biomedical Engineering, BSBME

Biomedical Engineers study the human body from an engineering perspective and create high-tech solutions for improving human health. They are well-suited for the design and development of implantables, such as artificial joints or stents, wearables, such as glucose monitors or artificial limbs, and healthcare equipment, such as a medical imaging systems or surgical consoles. Many biomedical engineering graduates select to join cutting-edge research programs where they use their knowledge of science and engineering to expand our understanding of human conditions and develop novel methods to treat disease and disabilities. Through the College of Engineering at California Baptist University the Biomedical Engineering degree program is accredited by the Engineering Accreditation Commission of ABET, <http://www.abet.org>.

Traditional Degree Program Requirements (124-142 units)

General Education

The general education requirements will follow the curriculum set forth for other University programs. Some general education requirements will be met through specific Biomedical Engineering requirements. Approximately eighteen (18) units of general education are not met in the specific core and Biomedical Engineering requirements.

Lower Division Core Engineering Requirements (16 units)

* Junior/Senior transfer students will complete EGR 301. All other students will complete EGR 101.

- EGR 101 - Engineering from a Christian Worldview OR
- EGR 301 - Engineering from a Christian Worldview *
- EGR 102 - Introduction to Engineering Design OR
- EGR 106 - Introduction to Engineering Design - Energy Systems
- EGR 121 - Introduction to Computer Programming in C++
- EGR 122 - Visualization Languages I OR

- EGR 124 - Visualization Languages - Excel
- ICS 105 - Introduction to Global Studies

Upper Division Core Engineering Requirements (15 units)

- EGR 302 - Engineering Design and Documentation
- EGR 304 - Leadership Cohort
- EGR 305 - Engineering Statistics
- EGR 306 - Internship Preparation
- EGR 401 - Capstone Design
- EGR 402 - Capstone Design and Presentation
- EGR 403 - FE Exam
- EGR 405 - Internship Report and Presentation

Math and Science Requirements (31 units)

- BIO 146 - General Biology I with Lab
- BIO 153 - Anatomy and Physiology I
- BIO 153L - Anatomy and Physiology I Lab
- CHE 115 - General Chemistry I
- CHE 115L - General Chemistry I Lab
- EGR 182 - Introductory Mathematics for Engineering Applications
- EGR 382 - Applied Differential Equations and Linear Algebra
- MAT 245 - Analytical Geometry and Calculus I
- MAT 255 - Analytical Geometry and Calculus II
- PHY 201 - Physics for Engineers I with Lab

Lower Division Biomedical Engineering Requirements (18 units)

- EGR 231 - Circuit Theory I
- EGR 241 - Statics
- EGR 242 - Strength of Materials
- EGR 261 - Fundamentals of Bioengineering I
- EGR 262 - Fundamentals of Bioengineering II
- EGR 263 - Introduction to 3D Computer Aided Design

Upper Division Biomedical Engineering Requirements (14 units)

- EGR 361 - Introduction to Biomechanics
- EGR 367 - Machine Learning for Bioengineering
- EGR 462 - Biomaterials I: Fundamentals of Concepts
- EGR 463 - Biomaterials II: Polymers for Biomedical Applications
- EGR 464 - Neural Engineering

Additional Degree Requirements (0 units)

- Complete an approved cross-cultural experience. Course credit is not required. A list of approved experiences is available in the College of Engineering.
- Complete pre-approved 200 hours of supervised internship.

Concentration Courses (16-19 units)

Students must complete all requirements in one of the following concentrations: General Studies; Mechanical Systems

General Studies (16 units)

- EGR 363 - Biofluid Mechanics and Relevant Technologies
- EGR 364 - Bioimaging
- EGR 365 - Biomedical Engineering Research and Instrumentation

General Studies Science Elective Requirement

Complete four (4) units in science from the following:

- BIO 163 - Anatomy and Physiology II
- BIO 163L - Anatomy and Physiology II Lab
- BIO 313 - Genetics
- CHE 125 - General Chemistry II
- CHE 125L - General Chemistry II Lab
- PHY 203 - Physics for Engineers II with Lab

General Studies Engineering Elective Requirement

Complete three (3) additional units from the following:

- EGR 324 - Engineering Economics
- EGR 341 - Thermodynamics
- EGR 343 - Dynamics
- EGR 344 - Materials and Manufacturing Processes
- EGR 346 - Machine Design
- EGR 351 - Structural Analysis I
- EGR 356 - Hydrology
- EGR 381 - Operations Research I: Deterministic Methods
- EGR 384 - Human Factors and Ergonomics
- EGR 386 - Operations Research II: Probabilistic Methods
- EGR 442 - Computer-Aided Engineering Design and Visualization
- EGR 446 - Aerodynamics
- EGR 447 - Mechanics of Composite Structures
- EGR 448 - Propulsion
- EGR 481 - Systems Simulation
- EGR 491 - Research Project

Mechanical Systems (19 units)

- EGR 363 - Biofluid Mechanics and Relevant Technologies
- EGR 364 - Bioimaging
- PHY 203 - Physics for Engineers II with Lab
- EGR 365 - Biomedical Engineering Research and Instrumentation

Mechanical Systems Elective Requirements

Complete six (6) additional units from the following:

- EGR 341 - Thermodynamics
- EGR 344 - Materials and Manufacturing Processes
- EGR 346 - Machine Design
- EGR 442 - Computer-Aided Engineering Design and Visualization
- EGR 445 - Thermal Design of Heat Exchangers
- EGR 446 - Aerodynamics
- EGR 447 - Mechanics of Composite Structures
- EGR 448 - Propulsion
- PHY 310 - Waves and Optics with Lab

- EGR 356 - Hydrology
- EGR 445 - Thermal Design of Heat Exchangers
- EGR 447 - Mechanics of Composite Structures
- EGR 453 - Environmental Engineering I
- EGR 463 - Biomaterials II: Polymers for Biomedical Applications

Elective Requirement (3 units)

Complete three (3) additional approved engineering, science, applied math, or business units.

Recommended:

- BIO 146 - General Biology I with Lab
- EGR 231 - Circuit Theory I
- EGR 256 - Principles of Environmental Engineering and Science
- ENT 442 - Opportunity and the Lean Startup
- CHE 443 - Biochemistry I with Lab
- MAT 453 - Numerical Analysis

Additional Degree Requirements (0 units)

- Complete an approved cross-cultural experience. Course credit is not required. A list of approved experiences is available in the College of Engineering.
- Successfully pass the practice FE exam.

The general education requirements will follow the curriculum set forth for other University programs. Some general education requirements will be met through specific Civil Engineering requirements. Approximately eighteen (18) units of general education are not met in the specific core and Civil Engineering requirements.

Lower Division Core Engineering Requirements (16 units)

* Junior/Senior transfer students will complete EGR 301. All other students will complete EGR 101.

- EGR 101 - Engineering from a Christian Worldview * OR
- EGR 301 - Engineering from a Christian Worldview *
- EGR 102 - Introduction to Engineering Design OR
- EGR 106 - Introduction to Engineering Design - Energy Systems
- EGR 121 - Introduction to Computer Programming in C++
- EGR 122 - Visualization Languages I OR
- EGR 124 - Visualization Languages - Excel
- ICS 105 - Introduction to Global Studies

Upper Division Core Engineering Requirements (11 units)

- EGR 304 - Leadership Cohort
- EGR 305 - Engineering Statistics
- EGR 306 - Internship Preparation
- EGR 401 - Capstone Design
- EGR 402 - Capstone Design and Presentation
- EGR 405 - Internship Report and Presentation

Math and Science Requirements (29 units)

- BIO 204 - Microbiology for Engineers
- CHE 115 - General Chemistry I
- CHE 115L - General Chemistry I Lab
- EGR 182 - Introductory Mathematics for Engineering Applications
- EGR 382 - Applied Differential Equations and Linear Algebra OR
- MAT 303 - Linear Algebra with Applications to Differential Equations OR
- MAT 310 - Differential Equations
- MAT 245 - Analytical Geometry and Calculus I
- MAT 255 - Analytical Geometry and Calculus II
- MAT 343 - Multivariable Calculus
- PHY 201 - Physics for Engineers I with Lab

Lower Division Civil Engineering Requirements (16 units)

- EGR 241 - Statics
- EGR 242 - Strength of Materials
- EGR 251 - Surveying
- EGR 254 - Materials Engineering
- EGR 256 - Principles of Environmental Engineering and Science

Upper Division Civil Engineering Requirements (39 units)

- EGR 342 - Fluid Mechanics
- EGR 351 - Structural Analysis I
- EGR 352 - Structural Design I
- EGR 353 - Soil Mechanics
- EGR 354 - Soil and Foundation Engineering
- EGR 355 - Dynamics and Vibration
- EGR 356 - Hydrology
- EGR 451 - Project and Construction Management
- EGR 453 - Environmental Engineering I
- EGR 455 - Structural Design II
- EGR 458 - Water Resources Engineering
- Six (6) additional upper division approved engineering elective units

Additional Degree Requirements (0 units)

- Successfully pass the practice FE Exam
- Complete an approved cross-cultural experience. Course credit is not required. A list of approved experiences is available in the College of Engineering.
- Complete pre-approved 200 hours of supervised internship

Computer Science, BCS

Computer scientists study computers: their design, their use for computation and control, and especially their software components. Computer scientists can perform roles ranging from systems design and architecture through software design, development and maintenance, through analysis and research. Often, software developers will have a degree in computer science. An essential element of computer science is the mathematical and theoretical foundation of computing and software. As one of the most rapidly developing and expanding fields, computer science offers a wide range of career choices. Through the Gordon and Jill Bourns College of Engineering at California Baptist University the Computer Science degree program is accredited through the Computing Accreditation Commission of ABET, <http://www.abet.org>.

Traditional Degree Program Requirements (124 units)

General Education

The general education requirements will follow the curriculum set forth for other University programs. Some general education requirements will be met through specific Computer Science requirements. Approximately eighteen (18) units of general education are not met in the specific core and Computer Science requirements.

Lower Division Core Engineering Requirements (16 units)

- EGR 106 - Introduction to Engineering Design - Energy Systems
- EGR 121 - Introduction to Computer Programming in C++
- EGR 122 - Visualization Languages I OR
- EGR 124 - Visualization Languages - Excel
- ICS 105 - Introduction to Global Studies

Upper Division Core Engineering Requirements (14 units)

- EGR 302 - Engineering Design and Documentation
- EGR 304 - Leadership Cohort
- EGR 305 - Engineering Statistics
- EGR 306 - Internship Preparation
- EGR 401 - Capstone Design
- EGR 402 - Capstone Design and Presentation
- EGR 405 - Internship Report and Presentation

Math and Science Requirements (30 units)

- CSC 312 - Algorithms
- EGR 182 - Introductory Mathematics for Engineering Applications
- EGR 225 - Discrete Structures I
- EGR 328 - Numerical Methods for Computing
- MAT 245 - Analytical Geometry and Calculus I
- MAT 255 - Analytical Geometry and Calculus II
- PHY 201 - Physics for Engineers I with Lab
- PHY 203 - Physics for Engineers II with Lab
- Two (2) units of approved science

Lower Division Computing and Software Requirements (12 units)

- EGR 222 - Software Engineering
- EGR 223 - Software Engineering Approach to Human Computer Interaction
- EGR 226 - Operating Systems and Networking
- EGR 227 - Data Structures and Analysis

Upper Division Computer Science Requirements (29 units)

- CSC 311 - Compiler Design and Languages
- CSC 411 - Social and Professional Issues in Computing
- CSC 412 - Intelligent Systems
- CSC 413 - Information Security and Computer Forensics
- CSC 414 - Theory of Computation
- EGR 324 - Engineering Economics
- EGR 325 - Database Systems
- EGR 329 - Computer Architecture
- EGR 425 - Real Time and Embedded Development

Additional Degree Requirements (0 units)

- Computer Science students are required to complete an approved cross-cultural experience. Course credit is not required. A list of approved experiences is available in the College of Engineering.
- Complete pre-approved 200 hours of supervised internship.
- Complete the program assessment exam requirement.

Construction Management, BS

The Construction Management program prepares men and women for management and supervisory professions in the world of construction. This program focuses on field operations, estimating, and project management processes as they relate to the built environment.

Traditional Major Program Requirements (87 units)

Lower Division Requirements

- ACC 250 - Principles of Accounting I
- BUS 217 - Microeconomics OR
- BUS 218 - Macroeconomics
- CHE 102 - Fundamentals of Chemistry OR
- ENV 151 - Introduction to the Geosciences
- CON 105 - Introduction to Construction Management
- CON 205 - Plan Reading and Estimating
- CON 215 - Computer-Aided Drafting and Design
- EGR 101 - Engineering from a Christian Worldview
- EGR 241 - Statics
- EGR 251 - Surveying
- ICS 105 - Introduction to Global Studies

- MAT 245 - Analytical Geometry and Calculus I OR
- MAT 145 - Mathematical Methods in the Natural Sciences
- PHY 214 - Physics I AND
- PHY 214L - Physics I Lab
- OR
- PHY 201 - Physics for Engineers I with Lab
- STA 144 - Introduction to Statistics

Upper Division Requirements

- BUS 358 - Business Law
- BUS 463 - Business and Organizational Management
- CON 310 - Construction Materials and Methods
- CON 315 - Building Information Modeling
- CON 325 - Construction Company Financial Management
- CON 330 - Construction Safety
- CON 340 - Building Structures

- CON 350 - Project Delivery, Law and Contracts
- CON 430 - Advanced Estimating
- CON 460 - Construction Planning and Scheduling
- CON 470 - Mechanical Electrical and Piping Construction
- EGR 304 - Leadership Cohort
- EGR 306 - Internship Preparation
- EGR 401 - Capstone Design
- EGR 402 - Capstone Design and Presentation
- EGR 405 - Internship Report and Presentation
- EGR 451 - Project and Construction Management

Additional Requirements (0 units)

- Complete pre-approved 200 hours of supervised internship.
- Complete an approved cross-cultural experience. Course credit is not required. A list of approved experiences is available in the College of Engineering.

Electrical and Computer Engineering, BSECE

Electrical and Computer Engineering is a profession in great demand. From supercomputers and robotics to self-driving electric vehicles and renewable energy, electrical and computer engineers are improving the quality of life everywhere in the world. Students in this major study electrical and electronic circuits, control systems, telecommunication systems, signal processing, computers, microcontrollers, and other digital systems. CBU's electrical and computer engineering program trains students to become problem solvers and innovators with the technologies of the 21st century. Through the College of Engineering at California Baptist University the Electrical and Computer Engineering degree program is accredited by the Engineering Accreditation Commission of ABET, <http://www.abet.org>.

Traditional Degree Program Requirements (124-128 units)

General Education

The general education requirements will follow the curriculum set forth for other University programs. Some general education requirements will be met through specific Electrical and Computer Engineering requirements. Approximately eighteen (18) units of general education are not met in the specific core and Electrical and Computer Engineering requirements.

- EGR 121 - Introduction to Computer Programming in C++
- EGR 122 - Visualization Languages I OR
- EGR 124 - Visualization Languages - Excel
- ICS 105 - Introduction to Global Studies

Upper Division Core Engineering Requirements (15 units)

- EGR 302 - Engineering Design and Documentation
- EGR 304 - Leadership Cohort
- EGR 305 - Engineering Statistics
- EGR 306 - Internship Preparation
- EGR 401 - Capstone Design
- EGR 402 - Capstone Design and Presentation
- EGR 403 - FE Exam
- EGR 405 - Internship Report and Presentation

Math and Science Requirements (31 units)

- EGR 182 - Introductory Mathematics for Engineering Applications
- EGR 382 - Applied Differential Equations and Linear Algebra
- MAT 245 - Analytical Geometry and Calculus I
- MAT 255 - Analytical Geometry and Calculus II
- MAT 343 - Multivariable Calculus
- PHY 201 - Physics for Engineers I with Lab
- PHY 203 - Physics for Engineers II with Lab

Science Elective Requirement

Complete four (4) additional units in Science

Recommendations include:

- BIO 146 - General Biology I with Lab
- BIO 153 - Anatomy and Physiology I
- BIO 153L - Anatomy and Physiology I Lab
- CHE 115 - General Chemistry I
- CHE 115L - General Chemistry I Lab

Lower Division Electrical and Computer Engineering Requirements (15 units)

- EGR 221 - Data Structures
- EGR 231 - Circuit Theory I
- EGR 232 - Circuit Theory II and Design
- EGR 234 - Digital Logic Design

Upper Division Electrical and Computer Engineering Requirements (33 units)

- EGR 321 - Computer Organization
- EGR 322 - Microcontroller System Design
- EGR 331 - Signals and Systems
- EGR 333 - Electronics I
- EGR 334 - Electronics II

- EGR 335 - Data Acquisition, Design and Visualization
- EGR 431 - Control Systems
- EGR 432 - Applied Electromagnetics
- EGR 433 - Power Electronics
- Six (6) additional upper division approved engineering elective units

Additional Degree Requirements (0 units)

- Successfully pass the practice FE Exam
- Complete an approved cross-cultural experience. Course credit is not required. A list of approved experiences is available in the College of Engineering.
- Complete pre-approved 200 hours of supervised internship

Engineering, BSE

Engineers provide products and services that serve the needs of humanity. Engineers see problems and challenges as opportunities in disguise. Engineering graduates are highly sought after for their critical thinking, communication and team skills and are thus well compensated. Engineering degrees prepare students for the broadest number of vocational outcomes. In addition to a growing variety of engineering jobs, engineering students use their training as doctors, lawyers, teachers, professors, missionaries, military officers, business entrepreneurs and salespeople.

Traditional Degree Program Requirements (124-131 units)

General Education

The general education requirements will follow the curriculum set forth for other University programs. Some general education requirements will be met through specific engineering requirements. Approximately twelve (12) to eighteen (18) units of general education are not met in the specific core and engineering requirements.

Lower Division Core Engineering Requirements (16 units)

* Junior/Senior transfer students will complete EGR 301. All other students will complete EGR 101.

- EGR 101 - Engineering from a Christian Worldview * OR
- EGR 301 - Engineering from a Christian Worldview *
- EGR 102 - Introduction to Engineering Design OR
- EGR 106 - Introduction to Engineering Design - Energy Systems
- EGR 121 - Introduction to Computer Programming in C++
- EGR 122 - Visualization Languages I OR
- EGR 124 - Visualization Languages - Excel
- ICS 105 - Introduction to Global Studies

Upper Division Core Engineering Requirements (14 units)

- EGR 302 - Engineering Design and Documentation
- EGR 304 - Leadership Cohort
- EGR 305 - Engineering Statistics

- EGR 306 - Internship Preparation
- EGR 401 - Capstone Design
- EGR 402 - Capstone Design and Presentation
- EGR 405 - Internship Report and Presentation

Math and Science Requirements (15-16 units)

- EGR 182 - Introductory Mathematics for Engineering Applications
- MAT 245 - Analytical Geometry and Calculus I
- PHY 201 - Physics for Engineers I with Lab
- PHY 203 - Physics for Engineers II with Lab OR
- CHE 115 - General Chemistry I

Upper Division General Engineering Elective Requirements (9 units)

Complete nine (9) additional upper division engineering elective units

Recommendations include:

- EGR 332 - Communication Systems
- EGR 341 - Thermodynamics
- EGR 354 - Soil and Foundation Engineering
- EGR 431 - Control Systems
- EGR 432 - Applied Electromagnetics
- EGR 441 - Heat Transfer
- EGR 442 - Computer-Aided Engineering Design and Visualization
- EGR 443 - Mechanical Vibrations
- EGR 446 - Aerodynamics
- EGR 447 - Mechanics of Composite Structures
- EGR 451 - Project and Construction Management
- EGR 453 - Environmental Engineering I
- EGR 455 - Structural Design II

Additional Degree Requirements (0 units)

- Successfully pass the practice FE Exam
- Complete an approved cross-cultural experience. Course credit is not required. A list of approved experiences is available in the College of Engineering.
- Complete pre-approved 200 hours of supervised internship

Concentration Courses (42-60 units)

Students must complete all requirements in one of the following concentrations: Agricultural; Business; Civil Engineering; Global Applications; Internet of Things; Mechanical Engineering; Pre-Law

Agricultural (57 units)

Lower Division Requirements

- BIO 114 - General Botany with Lab
- EGR 241 - Statics
- EGR 242 - Strength of Materials
- MAT 255 - Analytical Geometry and Calculus II
- NFS 101 - Introduction to Nutrition and Food Sciences

Upper Division Requirements

- BIO 305 - Microbiology with Lab
- EGR 341 - Thermodynamics
- EGR 342 - Fluid Mechanics
- EGR 343 - Dynamics
- EGR 346 - Machine Design
- EGR 353 - Soil Mechanics
- EGR 356 - Hydrology
- EGR 371 - Heat and Mass Transport
- EGR 382 - Applied Differential Equations and Linear Algebra
- EGR 453 - Environmental Engineering I
- EGR 454 - Environmental Engineering II
- EGR 458 - Water Resources Engineering

Business (49-50 units)

Lower Division Requirements

- ACC 250 - Principles of Accounting I
- ACC 251 - Principles of Accounting II
- BIO 146 - General Biology I with Lab
- BUS 217 - Microeconomics
- BUS 218 - Macroeconomics
- BUS 237 - Management Based on Biblical Principles
- CHE 115 - General Chemistry I
- CIS 265 - Information Systems Essentials

Lower Division Engineering Elective Requirements

Complete one (1) of the following courses:

- EGR 231 - Circuit Theory I
- EGR 234 - Digital Logic Design
- EGR 241 - Statics

Upper Division Requirements

- BUS 334 - International Business
- BUS 358 - Business Law
- BUS 463 - Business and Organizational Management
- MKT 333 - Principles of Marketing

Upper Division Engineering Elective Requirements

Complete nine (9) additional upper division approved engineering elective units from the following:

Civil Engineering (45 units)

Lower Division Requirements

- EGR 241 - Statics
- EGR 242 - Strength of Materials
- EGR 251 - Surveying
- EGR 254 - Materials Engineering
- EGR 256 - Principles of Environmental Engineering and Science
- MAT 255 - Analytical Geometry and Calculus II

Upper Division Requirements

- EGR 342 - Fluid Mechanics
- EGR 351 - Structural Analysis I
- EGR 352 - Structural Design I
- EGR 353 - Soil Mechanics
- EGR 356 - Hydrology
- EGR 382 - Applied Differential Equations and Linear Algebra OR
- MAT 303 - Linear Algebra with Applications to Differential Equations OR
- MAT 310 - Differential Equations
- EGR 458 - Water Resources Engineering
- MAT 343 - Multivariable Calculus

Global Applications (37-38 units)

Lower Division Requirements

- BIO 146 - General Biology I with Lab
- CHE 115 - General Chemistry I
- ICS 205 - Global Discipleship
- SOC 213 - Introduction to Sociology

Lower Division Engineering Elective Requirement

Complete one (1) of the following courses:

- EGR 231 - Circuit Theory I
- EGR 234 - Digital Logic Design
- EGR 241 - Statics

Upper Division Requirements

- ICS 305 - Global Christianity

- ICS 430 - Intercultural Communication and Practice
- PHI 353 - Comparative Religions
- POL 415 - World Geography

Upper Division Engineering Elective Requirements

Complete nine (9) additional upper division approved engineering elective units from the following:

- EGR (300 or 400 level)
- CON (300 or 400 level)
- CSC (300 or 400 level)

Internet of Things (42 units)

Lower Division Requirements

- CYB 220 - Security by Design
- EGR 221 - Data Structures
- EGR 222 - Software Engineering
- EGR 223 - Software Engineering Approach to Human Computer Interaction
- EGR 226 - Operating Systems and Networking

Upper Division Requirements

Complete twenty-seven (27) additional upper division approved engineering elective units from the following:

- CIT 360 - Legal and Ethical Practices in Information Technology
- CIT 380 - Computer and Network Security
- CIT 460 - Business Networking
- CSC 412 - Intelligent Systems
- CYB 390 - Database Security
- CYB 410 - Defensive Security
- CYB 420 - Offensive Security
- CYB 430 - Computer Forensics
- CYB 440 - Cybersecurity Management
- CYB 470 - Network Defense
- CYB 480 - Essential Tenets of Cybersecurity
- EGR 323 - Software Requirements and Analysis
- EGR 324 - Engineering Economics
- EGR 325 - Database Systems
- EGR 327 - Software Construction
- EGR 423 - Mobile Applications Development
- EGR 424 - Web Application Development

Mechanical Engineering (47 units)

Lower Division Requirements

- CHE 115 - General Chemistry I
- EGR 231 - Circuit Theory I
- EGR 232 - Circuit Theory II and Design
- EGR 241 - Statics
- EGR 242 - Strength of Materials
- MAT 255 - Analytical Geometry and Calculus II

Upper Division Requirements

- EGR 331 - Signals and Systems
- EGR 341 - Thermodynamics
- EGR 342 - Fluid Mechanics
- EGR 343 - Dynamics
- EGR 344 - Materials and Manufacturing Processes
- EGR 346 - Machine Design
- EGR 382 - Applied Differential Equations and Linear Algebra OR
- MAT 303 - Linear Algebra with Applications to Differential Equations OR
- MAT 310 - Differential Equations
- MAT 343 - Multivariable Calculus

Pre-Law (56-59 units)

Lower Division Requirements

- BIO 146 - General Biology I with Lab
- CHE 115 - General Chemistry I
- COM 113 - Oral Communication
- POL 213 - American Government
- POL 223 - State and Local Government

Lower Division Engineering Elective Requirement

Complete one (1) of the following courses:

- EGR 231 - Circuit Theory I
- EGR 234 - Digital Logic Design
- EGR 241 - Statics

Upper Division Requirements

- BUS 358 - Business Law
- BUS 359 - Intellectual Property Law
- COM 401 - Argumentation and Debate
- PAD 453 - Administrative Law and Bureaucracy
- PHI 300 - Logic
- PHI 323 - Ethics
- PHI 324 - Applied Ethics
- POL 330 - Law and Literature

- POL 440 - Pre-Law Internship (3 units)
- POL 484 - Constitutional Law I

Upper Division Engineering Elective Requirements

Nine (9) additional upper division approved engineering elective units

- EGR 441 - Heat Transfer
- EGR 442 - Computer-Aided Engineering Design and Visualization
- EGR 443 - Mechanical Vibrations
- EGR 444 - Mechanical Engineering Laboratory
- Three (3) additional upper division approved engineering elective units

Additional Degree Requirements (0 units)

- Successfully pass the practice FE Exam
- Complete an approved cross-cultural experience. Course credit is not required. A list of approved experiences is available in the College of Engineering.
- Complete pre-approved 200 hours of supervised internship.

Software Engineering, BSSE

Software engineers work to produce effective software applications for the benefit and use of mankind. They work in almost every industry creating and enhancing software as either a product or supporting mechanism. Software engineers are educated to analyze, problem solve, create, and optimize complex systems. They work over a wide range of scales, designing and implementing software in a predictable and reliable manner.

Traditional Degree Program Requirements (124 units)

General Education

The general education requirements will follow the curriculum set forth for other University programs. Some general education requirements will be met through specific Software Engineering requirements. Approximately eighteen (18) units of general education are not met in the specific core and Software Engineering requirements.

Lower Division Core Engineering Requirements (16 units)

* Junior/Senior transfer students will complete EGR 301. All other students will complete EGR 101.

- EGR 101 - Engineering from a Christian Worldview OR
- EGR 301 - Engineering from a Christian Worldview *

- EGR 106 - Introduction to Engineering Design - Energy Systems
- EGR 121 - Introduction to Computer Programming in C++
- EGR 122 - Visualization Languages I OR
- EGR 124 - Visualization Languages - Excel
- ICS 105 - Introduction to Global Studies

Upper Division Core Engineering Requirements (14 units)

- EGR 302 - Engineering Design and Documentation
- EGR 304 - Leadership Cohort
- EGR 305 - Engineering Statistics
- EGR 306 - Internship Preparation
- EGR 401 - Capstone Design
- EGR 402 - Capstone Design and Presentation
- EGR 405 - Internship Report and Presentation

Math and Science Requirements (30 units)

- CSC 312 - Algorithms
- EGR 182 - Introductory Mathematics for Engineering Applications
- EGR 225 - Discrete Structures I
- EGR 328 - Numerical Methods for Computing
- MAT 245 - Analytical Geometry and Calculus I
- MAT 255 - Analytical Geometry and Calculus II
- PHY 201 - Physics for Engineers I with Lab
- PHY 203 - Physics for Engineers II with Lab
- Two (2) units of approved science

Lower Division Software Engineering Requirements (12 units)

- EGR 222 - Software Engineering
- EGR 223 - Software Engineering Approach to Human Computer Interaction
- EGR 226 - Operating Systems and Networking
- EGR 227 - Data Structures and Analysis

Upper Division Software Engineering Requirements (31 units)

- EGR 323 - Software Requirements and Analysis
- EGR 324 - Engineering Economics
- EGR 325 - Database Systems

- EGR 423 - Mobile Applications Development
- EGR 424 - Web Application Development
- EGR 425 - Real Time and Embedded Development
- EGR 427 - Software Project Management

Additional Degree Requirements (0 units)

- Complete an approved cross-cultural experience. Course credit is not required. A list of approved experiences is available in the College of Engineering.
- Complete pre-approved 200 hours of supervised internship
- Complete the program assessment exam requirement

Aerospace Engineering Minor

Traditional Minor Program Requirements (25 units)

Lower Division Requirements

- EGR 182 - Introductory Mathematics for Engineering Applications OR
- MAT 245 - Analytical Geometry and Calculus I

- EGR 241 - Statics
- EGR 242 - Strength of Materials

Upper Division Mechanical Engineering Elective Requirements

Complete six (6) upper division units from the following:

- EGR 341 - Thermodynamics
- EGR 342 - Fluid Mechanics
- EGR 344 - Materials and Manufacturing Processes

- EGR 346 - Machine Design
- EGR 443 - Mechanical Vibrations
- EGR 444 - Mechanical Engineering Laboratory

Upper Division Aerospace Engineering Elective Requirements

Complete six (6) upper division units from the following:

- EGR 446 - Aerodynamics
- EGR 447 - Mechanics of Composite Structures
- EGR 448 - Propulsion

Upper Division Elective Requirement

Complete three (3) upper division units from the following:

- AVN 322 - Aviation Safety
- AMG 324 - Aviation Security
- EGR 335 - Data Acquisition, Design and Visualization
- EGR 445 - Thermal Design of Heat Exchangers
- FLT 328 - Aircraft Systems

Biomechanics and Rehabilitation Engineering Minor

Traditional Minor Program Requirements (26 units)

Lower Division Requirements

- BIO 153 - Anatomy and Physiology I
- BIO 153L - Anatomy and Physiology I Lab
- EGR 241 - Statics
- EGR 242 - Strength of Materials
- MAT 245 - Analytical Geometry and Calculus I

Upper Division Requirements

- EGR 305 - Engineering Statistics
- EGR 361 - Introduction to Biomechanics
- EGR 365 - Biomedical Engineering Research and Instrumentation
- EGR 461 - Rehabilitation Engineering OR
- EGR 464 - Neural Engineering
- EGR 491 - Research Project

Chemical Engineering Minor

Traditional Minor Program Requirements (32 units)

Lower Division Requirements

- CHE 115 - General Chemistry I
- CHE 115L - General Chemistry I Lab
- CHE 125 - General Chemistry II
- CHE 125L - General Chemistry II Lab
- EGR 271 - Basic Principles and Calculations in Chemical Engineering I
- EGR 272 - Basic Principles and Calculations in Chemical Engineering II
- MAT 245 - Analytical Geometry and Calculus I
- MAT 255 - Analytical Geometry and Calculus II

Upper Division Requirements

- MAT 342 - Fundamentals of Multivariable Calculus and Differential Equations for Engineers
- EGR 342 - Fluid Mechanics
- EGR 371 - Heat and Mass Transport
- EGR 473 - Chemical Reaction Engineering OR

The College of Health Science exists to transform lives through the health professions and consists of the following five departments: Allied Health Professions, Communication Sciences and Disorders, Kinesiology, Physician Assistant Studies, and Public Health Sciences.

The College is defined by its outstanding teaching, learning, service and scholarship; specialized emphasis on clinical, preventative, rehabilitative and restorative health professions; and efforts to serve as a premier institution for the intellectual and spiritual development of students, faculty, and staff. The College of Health Science will clearly and regularly support the concepts of being Biblically rooted, academically prepared, equipped to serve, and globally minded.

We take pride in our faculty commitment to teaching and learning as we prepare individuals for futures in a wide variety of professions. Furthermore, we prepare future leaders who will serve as health care, fitness, educational and leadership professionals.

The faculty and staff of the California Baptist University College of Health Science (CHS) commit to supporting CHS students, and one another, in the attainment of educational, spiritual, and vocational goals consistent with a Biblical worldview. Faculty and staff will steadfastly model the Christ-like behaviors of interactive teaching, servant leadership, and inspired scholarship aimed at improving the human condition. CHS faculty, staff, and students will be encouraged and equipped to make a significant and positive impact locally and around the world.

Faculty Information

The Department of Allied Health Professions is a multidisciplinary department dedicated to preparing students to contribute to a global society and a diverse workforce through academic and clinical training of allied health professionals. This is accomplished by providing allied health professions students with the knowledge and skills basic to the practice of their disciplines from a Christian worldview, instilling them with the fundamental attitudes of professionalism, and enabling them to function in inter-professional collaboration that emphasizes whole person care.

Physical Therapist Assistant, AS

The Associate of Science in Physical Therapist Assistant degree prepares the student for employment as a physical therapist assistant. Physical therapist assistants work under the supervision of licensed physical therapists in a wide variety of health care settings.

Admission Requirements

Associate of Science in Physical Therapist Assistant Admission Requirements

Students must meet the following requirements prior to admission to the program:

1. High School graduation or equivalency (official transcripts required)
2. Acceptance into California Baptist University
3. Minimum cumulative high school grade point average (GPA) of 3.0 or college/university grade point average (GPA) of 2.5 (official transcripts from all colleges and universities attended required)
4. A Comprehensive essay of at least 500 words that includes the following elements:
 - Why you want to become a Physical Therapist Assistant
 - Background and/or experiences related to the field
 - Short- and long-term professional goals, and
 - Reasons for choosing California Baptist University
5. Verification of at least 60 clinical hours in a physical therapy environment
6. Interview with Physical Therapist Assistant faculty and clinicians, if invited
7. Two letters of recommendation. One must be from a Physical Therapist or Physical Therapist Assistant clinician and one must be from an instructor, teacher, or professor
8. Once admitted into the program, the student must pass a criminal background check and be able to perform Technical Standards of the profession.

Traditional Associate Program Requirements (56 units)

General Requirements

- BIO 153 - Anatomy and Physiology I
- BIO 153L - Anatomy and Physiology I Lab
- BIO 163 - Anatomy and Physiology II
- BIO 163L - Anatomy and Physiology II Lab
- PSY 213 - General Psychology

Technical Requirements

- PTH 100 - Introduction to Physical Therapy
- PTH 110 - Medical Terminology for the Physical Therapist Assistant
- PTH 130 - Functional Kinesiology and Therapeutic Exercise
- PTH 140 - Basic Clinical Skills
- PTH 150 - Preparation for Clinical Practice
- PTH 170 - Physical Agents
- PTH 200 - Special Topics in Physical Therapy
- PTH 230 - Pathophysiology for the Physical Therapist Assistant

- PTH 240 - Advanced Clinical Skills
- PTH 260 - Orthopedics
- PTH 270 - Neurology
- PTH 280 - Professional Integration

Clinical Requirements

- PTH 255 - Clinical I
- PTH 265 - Clinical II
- PTH 275 - Clinical III

Radiologic Sciences, BS

A Bachelor of Science in Radiologic Science will prepare students for the profession of Radiologic Science and allow them to sit for their state, national, and Fluoroscopy boards.

Students must submit an application to the Radiologic Science Program Director and be accepted to enroll in the Bachelor of Science in Radiologic Science program.

Admission Requirements

Students must meet the following requirements prior to admission to the program:

1. High School graduation or equivalency (official transcripts required)
2. Acceptance into California Baptist University
3. A minimum 2.5 Grade Point Average (official transcripts from all colleges and universities attended required)
4. A Comprehensive essay of at least 500 words that includes the following elements:
 - Why you want to become a Radiologic Technologist
 - Background and/or experiences related to the field
 - Short- and long-term professional goals, and
 - Reasons for choosing California Baptist University
5. Verification of at least 8 hours in a radiology environment
6. Interview with Radiologic Science faculty and clinicians, if invited
7. Three letters of recommendation. One must be from a Radiology professional (Technologist or Radiologist) and one must be from an instructor, teacher, or professor
8. Once admitted into the program, the student must pass a criminal background check and be able to perform Technical Standards of the profession
9. Prerequisites:
 - Introduction to Statistics
 - Anatomy and Physiology I
 - Anatomy and Physiology II
 - First Aid and Safety (OR documented CPR and AED certification)
 - Medical Terminology
 - General Physics with Lab
 - General Chemistry
 - General Biology with Lab

Pre-Radiologic Sciences Studies

The following pre-radiologic science requisites are offered at California Baptist University:

*Requirement may be satisfied with documentation of Adult, Child, and Infant CPR with AED certification.

- BIO 146 - General Biology I with Lab
- BIO 153 - Anatomy and Physiology I
- BIO 153L - Anatomy and Physiology I Lab
- BIO 163 - Anatomy and Physiology II
- BIO 163L - Anatomy and Physiology II Lab
- BIO 173 - Medical Terminology
- CHE 102 - Fundamentals of Chemistry
- KIN 212 - First Aid and Safety *
- MAT 145 - Mathematical Methods in the Natural Sciences OR
- MAT 245 - Analytical Geometry and Calculus I
- PHY 214 - Physics I
- PHY 214L - Physics I Lab
- STA 144 - Introduction to Statistics

Traditional Major Program Requirements (64 units)

Lower Division Radiologic Science Requirements

- RAD 210 - Introduction to Radiologic Science Practice
- RAD 220 - Patient Care in Radiologic Sciences

Upper Division Radiologic Sciences Requirements

- HCA 330 - Health Information Systems
- HSC 305 - Epidemiology
- HSC 306 - Pathophysiology for Public Health
- HSC 480 - Research Methods
- RAD 320 - Principles of Imaging
- RAD 325 - Radiographic Procedures with Lab
- RAD 335 - Radiologic Procedures II with Lab
- RAD 345 - Radiologic Procedures III with Lab
- RAD 350 - Clinical Practice I
- RAD 355 - Clinical Practice II
- RAD 410 - Image Analysis
- RAD 415 - Introduction to Computed Tomography
- RAD 420 - Radiographic Medicine with Lab
- RAD 440 - Radiologic Biology and Physics
- RAD 450 - Clinical Practice III
- RAD 455 - Clinical Practice IV
- RAD 460 - Clinical Practice V

Faculty Information

The Department of Communication Sciences and Disorders houses pre-professional training programs for students interested in pursuing careers in speech-language pathology, audiology, or other related fields.

Our Bachelor of Science degree program prepares students to pursue graduate degrees in the fields of speech-language pathology and audiology. Additionally, our undergraduate program features an optional Speech-Language Pathology Assistant licensure track for students interested in entering the field with a bachelor's degree.

Our faculty are committed to providing excellent classroom and practicum instruction. Students enjoy learning about the professions through the lens of a Christian worldview and by faculty who are experts in their respective fields.

Communication Sciences and Disorders, BS

The Communication Sciences and Disorders Major is designed for students to acquire skills and competencies in the areas of speech, hearing, language, and swallowing. This program in Communication Sciences and Disorders is designed to prepare students for graduate work in Speech Language Pathology or Audiology, as well as for entering into related professions.

Satisfactory completion of CDS 495 - Speech Language Pathology Assistant Clinical Practicum is required for registration as a Speech Language Pathology Assistant with the Speech-Language Pathology and Audiology and Hearing Aid Dispensers Board of the State of California Department of Consumer Affairs.

Traditional Major Program Requirements (71 units)

Lower Division Requirements

- ANT 225 - Cultural Anthropology OR
- SOC 213 - Introduction to Sociology

- BIO 153 - Anatomy and Physiology I
- BIO 153L - Anatomy and Physiology I Lab
- CDS 101 - Introduction to Communication Disorders
- CDS 230 - Phonetics
- CDS 240 - Speech and Hearing Anatomy and Physiology
- CDS 250 - Typical and Atypical Language Development
- CHE 102 - Fundamentals of Chemistry
- HSC 100 - Introduction to the Health Science Professions
- PSY 120 - Lifespan Development for the Health Professions
- STA 144 - Introduction to Statistics

Lower Division Electives

Complete six (6) units from the following:

- ASL 115 - American Sign Language I
- HSC 104 - Survey of U.S. Health Care Delivery
- HSC 210 - Ethics in Health Care
- PSY 213 - General Psychology

Upper Division Requirements

- CDS 310 - Introduction to Audiology
- CDS 320 - Aural Rehabilitation
- CDS 330 - Speech Hearing Sciences
- CDS 340 - Clinical Methods and Procedures
- CDS 405 - Fluency Disorders
- CDS 410 - Language Disorders in Children
- CDS 420 - Articulation and Phonological Disorders
- CDS 430 - Neurogenic and Neurological Disorders
- CDS 440 - Voice and Craniofacial Disorders
- HSC 480 - Research Methods

Upper Division Elective Requirements

Complete six (6) units from the following:

*Required for registration as a Speech Language Pathology Assistant with the Speech-Language Pathology and Audiology and Hearing Aid Dispensers Board of the State of California Department of Consumer Affairs.

- CDS 400 - Special Topics in Communication Disorders
- CDS 495 - Speech Language Pathology Assistant Clinical Practicum *
- ECH 320 - Cognitive Development in Infancy and Early Childhood
- ECH 375 - Early Intervention: Early Childhood Special Education
- ECH 385 - Theories and Models for Understanding Behavior in Young Children with Disabilities
- ECH 435 - Cross Cultural Perspectives of Children including Children with Disabilities
- EDU 341 - The Exceptional Child

Department of Kinesiology

Dr. Sean Sullivan

Chair

Phone 951.552.8531

healthscience@calbaptist.edu

Faculty Information

Kinesiology focuses on the study of human movement and prepares students for career opportunities in a variety of exercise, physical activity, rehabilitation, sport, and wellness settings. CBU's Kinesiology major will provide students with knowledge, skills and competencies to work in professional fields such as athletic training, exercise, fitness, teaching, and sport management. Students receive a broad understanding of the basic and applied sciences as well as a marketable set of skills designed to enhance the health, wellness, and physical performance of the individuals they serve. This major prepares students for relevant professional certifications through the American College of Sports

Medicine (ACSM) the National Strength and Conditioning Association (NSCA), and other professional organizations, as well as for further graduate study in related disciplines.

Exercise Science, BS

The Exercise Science program is designed to prepare students for careers in exercise and rehabilitation, as well as graduate work in physical therapy and other Allied Health areas. The curriculum also prepares students for relevant professional certifications from the American College of Sports Medicine and the National Strength and Conditioning Association.

Traditional Major Program Requirements (70-72 units)

Lower Division Requirements

- KIN 101 - Orientation to the Discipline
- KIN 264 - Movement Anatomy
- KIN 274 - Applied Movement Anatomy
- PSY 213 - General Psychology

Lower Division Science and Mathematics Requirements

- BIO 146 - General Biology I with Lab
- BIO 153 - Anatomy and Physiology I
- BIO 153L - Anatomy and Physiology I Lab
- BIO 163 - Anatomy and Physiology II
- BIO 163L - Anatomy and Physiology II Lab
- CHE 115 - General Chemistry I
- CHE 115L - General Chemistry I Lab
- STA 144 - Introduction to Statistics

Lower Division Science and Mathematics Elective Requirements

Complete at least fifteen (15) units from the following:

- CHE 125 - General Chemistry II
- CHE 125L - General Chemistry II Lab
- KIN 304 - Introduction to Athletic Training
- KIN 312 - Emergencies in Sports Medicine
- KIN 353 - Care and Prevention of Athletic Injuries
- KIN 490 - Principles of Conditioning Athletes
- MAT 145 - Mathematical Methods in the Natural Sciences
- PHY 214 - Physics I
- PHY 214L - Physics I Lab
- PHY 224 - Physics II
- PHY 224L - Physics II Lab

Upper Division Requirements

- BIO 305 - Microbiology with Lab OR
- BIO upper division elective (3+ units)
- BIO 313 - Genetics OR
- KIN 393 - Applied Exercise Physiology
- KIN 300 - Nutrition Science

- KIN 312 - Emergencies in Sports Medicine OR
- KIN 332 - Lifelong Motor Development

- KIN 383 - Exercise Physiology
- KIN 433 - Sports and Activities Practicum
- KIN 473 - Research Methods and Evaluation in Kinesiology
- KIN 480 - Fitness Assessments and Exercise Prescription

Pre-Athletic Training Recommendations

Pre-Athletic Training students should take the following:

- KIN 304 - Introduction to Athletic Training
- KIN 312 - Emergencies in Sports Medicine
- KIN 353 - Care and Prevention of Athletic Injuries
- KIN 490 - Principles of Conditioning Athletes
- PHY 214 - Physics I
- PHY 214L - Physics I Lab

Pre-Physical Therapy Recommendations

Pre-Physical Therapy students should take the following:

- CHE 125 - General Chemistry II
- CHE 125L - General Chemistry II Lab
- MAT 145 - Mathematical Methods in the Natural Sciences
- PHY 214 - Physics I
- PHY 214L - Physics I Lab
- PHY 224 - Physics II
- PHY 224L - Physics II Lab

Kinesiology, BA

Traditional Major Program Requirements (54-56 units)

The Kinesiology major prepares students for careers in sport, teaching, coaching, fitness, health science related fields and graduate studies. The concentration in Physical Activity and Wellness is designed for those interested in practicing and promoting general health and wellness as it relates to physical activity and exercise. The concentration in Physical Education is designed for those interested in teaching physical education. The concentration in Sport Performance is designed for those interested in improving athletic and sport performance of physically active individuals and groups.

Lower Division Requirements

- BIO 153 - Anatomy and Physiology I
- BIO 153L - Anatomy and Physiology I Lab
- KIN 101 - Orientation to the Discipline

- KIN 108 - Swimming OR
- KIN 109 - Lifesaving
- KIN 114 - Walking and Running for Fitness
- KIN 115 - Weight Training
- KIN 212 - First Aid and Safety
- KIN 264 - Movement Anatomy
- KIN 274 - Applied Movement Anatomy

Upper Division Requirements

- KIN 302 - Contemporary Health Issues
- KIN 303 - Foundations of Kinesiology
- KIN 332 - Lifelong Motor Development
- KIN 353 - Care and Prevention of Athletic Injuries
- KIN 383 - Exercise Physiology
- KIN 454 - Behavioral Aspects of Sport
- KIN 473 - Research Methods and Evaluation in Kinesiology

Concentration Courses (16-18 units)

Students must complete all requirements in one of the following concentrations: Physical Activity and Wellness; Physical Education; Sport Performance

Physical Activity and Wellness (17 units)

- HSC 320 - Public Health Nutrition and Physical Activity
 - HSC 410 - Health Behavior Change
 - KIN 106 - 126 (2 units)*

 - KIN 390 - Sport Performance Techniques OR
 - KIN 490 - Principles of Conditioning Athletes

 - KIN 433 - Sports and Activities Practicum
 - KIN 480 - Fitness Assessments and Exercise Prescription
- *Must complete two (2) different activity courses, not including varsity sport participation, KIN 108, 109, 114, or 115.

Physical Education (18 units)

- KIN 301 - Sport Coaching and Officiating
- KIN 310 - Fundamentals of Movement and Physical Activity
- KIN 395 - Physical Activity for Early Development
- KIN 405 - Cooperative Movements in Physical Activity and Team Sport
- KIN 415 - Teaching Lifelong Physical Activity

- KIN 423 - Organizations and Administration of Physical Education

Sport Performance (16 units)

- KIN 106 - 126 (1 unit)*
- KIN 300 - Nutrition Science
- KIN 390 - Sport Performance Techniques
- KIN 433 - Sports and Activities Practicum
- KIN 490 - Principles of Conditioning Athletes
- KIN 495 - Functional Movement for Sport Performance

*Must complete one (1) additional activity course, not including varsity sport participation, KIN 108, 109, 114, or 115.

Recommended Courses for students interested in further study in Physical Therapy

Students should check with specific physical therapy schools for further course requirements.

- BIO 153 - Anatomy and Physiology I
- BIO 163 - Anatomy and Physiology II
- CHE 115 - General Chemistry I
- CHE 115L - General Chemistry I Lab
- CHE 125 - General Chemistry II
- CHE 125L - General Chemistry II Lab
- PHY 214 - Physics I
- PHY 224 - Physics II
- PSY 213 - General Psychology
- STA 144 - Introduction to Statistics

Kinesiology, BS (Online)

The Kinesiology major prepares students for careers in sport, teaching, coaching, fitness, health science related fields and graduate studies. Students have the option to choose from a variety of upper division electives to align their education with their intended career and/or post-graduate educational goals.

Online Major Program Requirements (50 units)

Prerequisites to Program

- ENG 113 - Composition
- ENG 123 - Intermediate Composition

Lower Division Requirements (11 units)

- BIO 153 - Anatomy and Physiology I
- BIO 153L - Anatomy and Physiology I Lab
- KIN 212 - First Aid and Safety

- KIN 264 - Movement Anatomy
- KIN 274 - Applied Movement Anatomy

Upper Division Kinesiology Requirements (21 units)

- KIN 302 - Contemporary Health Issues
- KIN 303 - Foundations of Kinesiology
- KIN 332 - Lifelong Motor Development
- KIN 353 - Care and Prevention of Athletic Injuries
- KIN 383 - Exercise Physiology
- KIN 454 - Behavioral Aspects of Sport
- KIN 473 - Research Methods and Evaluation in Kinesiology

Upper Division Elective Requirements

Complete twelve (12) units from the following:

- KIN 300 - Nutrition Science
- KIN 363 - Movement Experiences for Children
- KIN 393 - Applied Exercise Physiology
- KIN 404 - Movement Experiences for Middle School Students
- KIN 414 - Methods of Teaching Sport Activities
- KIN 423 - Organizations and Administration of Physical Education
- KIN 480 - Fitness Assessments and Exercise Prescription
- KIN 490 - Principles of Conditioning Athletes

Additional Program Courses (6 units)

- CST 100 - Overview of the Bible
- CST 300-400 Upper Division Christian Studies

Sport Management, BS

The Sport Management degree prepares students for administrative careers in the fields of athletics, fitness, recreation, sport, and tourism. Course work is primarily in the area of kinesiology, but also includes relevant industry-related content.

Traditional Degree Program Requirements (50 units)

Lower Division Requirements

- BIO 153 - Anatomy and Physiology I
- BIO 153L - Anatomy and Physiology I Lab
- BUS 218 - Macroeconomics
- JRN 150 - Media and Society
- KIN 101 - Orientation to the Discipline

- KIN 108 - Swimming OR
- KIN 109 - Lifesaving

- KIN 114 - Walking and Running for Fitness
- KIN 115 - Weight Training
- KIN 212 - First Aid and Safety
- KIN 264 - Movement Anatomy
- KIN 274 - Applied Movement Anatomy

Upper Division Requirements

- BUS 343 - Human Resource Management
- COM 425 - Organizational Communication
- KIN 305 - Applied Sport Management
- KIN 315 - Sport Governance
- KIN 353 - Care and Prevention of Athletic Injuries
- KIN 423 - Organizations and Administration of Physical Education
- KIN 433 - Sports and Activities Practicum
- KIN 454 - Behavioral Aspects of Sport
- PSY 388 - Industrial and Organizational Psychology

Coaching Minor

The Coaching minor is designed for students pursuing careers in primary or secondary education. This minor, coupled with an appropriate multiple or single subject matter specialization can provide students with opportunities for involvement in all types of organized athletics.

* Not available for Kinesiology majors.

Traditional Minor Program Requirements (26 units)

Lower Division Requirements

- BIO 153 - Anatomy and Physiology I
- BIO 153L - Anatomy and Physiology I Lab
- KIN 212 - First Aid and Safety
- KIN 264 - Movement Anatomy

Upper Division Requirements

- KIN 301 - Sport Coaching and Officiating
- KIN 303 - Foundations of Kinesiology
- KIN 332 - Lifelong Motor Development
- KIN 353 - Care and Prevention of Athletic Injuries
- KIN 423 - Organizations and Administration of Physical Education
- KIN 433 - Sports and Activities Practicum

Kinesiology Minor

The Kinesiology minor is designed for students pursuing careers in primary or secondary education. This minor, coupled with an appropriate multiple or single subject matter specialization can provide students with opportunities for involvement in teaching physical education and/or coaching athletic teams.

Traditional Minor Program Requirements (25 units)

Lower Division Requirements

- KIN 212 - First Aid and Safety
- KIN 264 - Movement Anatomy
- KIN 274 - Applied Movement Anatomy

Upper Division Requirements

- KIN 302 - Contemporary Health Issues
- KIN 303 - Foundations of Kinesiology
- KIN 332 - Lifelong Motor Development
- KIN 353 - Care and Prevention of Athletic Injuries
- KIN 363 - Movement Experiences for Children

- KIN 404 - Movement Experiences for Middle School Students OR
- KIN 414 - Methods of Teaching Sport Activities

Sport Management Minor

The Sport Management minor is offered for those students who wish to work in an administrative capacity within fields such as athletics, recreation, fitness, tourism, and more. Students will gain some knowledge of the Kinesiology discipline as well as basic fundamentals of business management. This is a strong undergraduate preparation for the California Baptist University masters programs in Business or in Kinesiology with an emphasis in Sport Management.

Traditional Minor Program Requirements (25 units)

Lower Division Requirements

- ACC 250 - Principles of Accounting I
- BUS 218 - Macroeconomics
- BUS 237 - Management Based on Biblical Principles
- KIN 212 - First Aid and Safety

Upper Division Requirements

- KIN 303 - Foundations of Kinesiology
- KIN 305 - Applied Sport Management
- KIN 315 - Sport Governance

- KIN 423 - Organizations and Administration of Physical Education
- KIN 454 - Behavioral Aspects of Sport

Faculty Information

The Department of Public Health Sciences is dedicated to excellence in teaching, research, and service in the areas of Health Science, Public Health, Nutrition and Food Sciences, and Health Care Administration. Our graduates will find rewarding careers serving others in the community through education, public health, healthcare administration, and a number of other health related fields. Additionally, graduates of the department are well-prepared to enter graduate school and pursue master or doctoral programs in public health, healthcare administration, nutrition sciences, and the medical professions including medicine, dentistry, and physician assistant studies. Our academic programs at both the undergraduate and graduate level prepare students to be research based, practice ready, and Christ focused.

Health Science, AS

Traditional Associate Program Requirements (32-33 units)

Lower Division Requirements

- HSC 100 - Introduction to the Health Science Professions
- HSC 104 - Survey of U.S. Health Care Delivery
- HSC 210 - Ethics in Health Care
- PSY 213 - General Psychology
- STA 144 - Introduction to Statistics

Chemistry Requirements

Complete a two-semester sequence from the following:

- CHE 102 - Fundamentals of Chemistry
- CHE 112 - Organic and Biochemistry for Health Sciences
- CHE 112L - Organic and Biochemistry for Health Sciences Lab
- OR
- CHE 115 - General Chemistry I
- CHE 115L - General Chemistry I Lab
- CHE 125 - General Chemistry II
- CHE 125L - General Chemistry II Lab

Elective Requirements

Complete twelve (12) units from the following*:

- BIO 146 - General Biology I with Lab
- BIO 163 - Anatomy and Physiology II
- BIO 163L - Anatomy and Physiology II Lab
- BIO 173 - Medical Terminology
- BIO 205 - Human Microbiology
- BIO 205L - Human Microbiology Lab
- CDS 101 - Introduction to Communication Disorders
- CDS 230 - Phonetics
- CDS 240 - Speech and Hearing Anatomy and Physiology
- CDS 250 - Typical and Atypical Language Development
- HSC 101 - Introduction to Public Health
- NFS 101 - Introduction to Nutrition and Food Sciences

Note

* Students should select required electives based on prerequisites for their planned field of study and career which may vary by institution and program. Recommended courses by field of study are as follows:

General Health Science

- BIO 146 - General Biology I with Lab
- BIO 173 - Medical Terminology
- HSC 101 - Introduction to Public Health

Communication Disorders

- CDS 101 - Introduction to Communication Disorders
- CDS 230 - Phonetics
- CDS 240 - Speech and Hearing Anatomy and Physiology
- CDS 250 - Typical and Atypical Language Development

Dental Hygiene

- BIO 146 - General Biology I with Lab
- BIO 163 - Anatomy and Physiology II
- BIO 163L - Anatomy and Physiology II Lab
- BIO 205 - Human Microbiology
- BIO 205L - Human Microbiology Lab

Nutrition and Food Science

- BIO 163 - Anatomy and Physiology II
- BIO 163L - Anatomy and Physiology II Lab
- BIO 205 - Human Microbiology

- BIO 205L - Human Microbiology Lab
- NFS 101 - Introduction to Nutrition and Food Sciences

Health Science, BS

The Health Science Major prepares students for graduate school in a variety of medical professional studies and disciplines. In addition to the requisite science core, the Health Science major incorporates a comprehensive view of the aggregate US healthcare system to prepare future healthcare system practitioners with an understanding of how the current healthcare system works, as well as how health policy is developed and implemented.

Traditional Major Program Requirements (72-93 units)

Lower Division Requirements (31 units)

- BIO 146 - General Biology I with Lab
- BIO 173 - Medical Terminology
- CHE 115 - General Chemistry I
- CHE 115L - General Chemistry I Lab
- CHE 125 - General Chemistry II
- CHE 125L - General Chemistry II Lab
- HSC 100 - Introduction to the Health Science Professions
- HSC 101 - Introduction to Public Health
- HSC 104 - Survey of U.S. Health Care Delivery
- HSC 210 - Ethics in Health Care
- MAT 145 - Mathematical Methods in the Natural Sciences
- PSY 213 - General Psychology
- STA 144 - Introduction to Statistics

Upper Division Requirements (23 units)

- BIO 305 - Microbiology with Lab
- BIO 313 - Genetics OR
- BIO 330 - Cell and Molecular Biology with Lab
- HSC 300 - Health Communication
- HSC 305 - Epidemiology
- HSC 306 - Pathophysiology for Public Health
- HSC 480 - Research Methods
- HSC 495 - Practicum OR
- HSC 499 - Health Science Capstone

Concentration Courses (18-39 units)

Students must complete all requirements in one of the following concentrations: Pre-Dental; Pre-Medicine; Pre-Pharmacy; Pre-Physician Assistant; Public Health and Population Medicine

Pre-Dental (35 units)

- BIO 148 - General Biology II with Lab
- BIO 153 - Anatomy and Physiology I
- BIO 153L - Anatomy and Physiology I Lab
- BIO 163 - Anatomy and Physiology II
- BIO 163L - Anatomy and Physiology II Lab
- CDS 240 - Speech and Hearing Anatomy and Physiology
- CHE 351 - Organic Chemistry I with Lab
- CHE 352 - Organic Chemistry II with Lab
- CHE 443 - Biochemistry I with Lab
- PHY 214 - Physics I
- PHY 214L - Physics I Lab
- PHY 224 - Physics II
- PHY 224L - Physics II Lab

Pre-Medicine (28 units)

- BIO 148 - General Biology II with Lab
- CHE 351 - Organic Chemistry I with Lab
- CHE 352 - Organic Chemistry II with Lab
- CHE 443 - Biochemistry I with Lab
- MAT 245 - Analytical Geometry and Calculus I
- PHY 214 - Physics I
- PHY 214L - Physics I Lab
- PHY 224 - Physics II
- PHY 224L - Physics II Lab

Pre-Pharmacy (39 units)

- BIO 148 - General Biology II with Lab
- BIO 153 - Anatomy and Physiology I
- BIO 153L - Anatomy and Physiology I Lab
- BIO 163 - Anatomy and Physiology II
- BIO 163L - Anatomy and Physiology II Lab
- BUS 217 - Microeconomics OR
- BUS 218 - Macroeconomics
- CHE 351 - Organic Chemistry I with Lab
- CHE 352 - Organic Chemistry II with Lab
- CHE 443 - Biochemistry I with Lab
- MAT 245 - Analytical Geometry and Calculus I
- PHY 214 - Physics I
- PHY 214L - Physics I Lab
- PHY 224 - Physics II
- PHY 224L - Physics II Lab

Pre-Physician Assistant (23 units)

- BIO 153 - Anatomy and Physiology I

- BIO 153L - Anatomy and Physiology I Lab
- BIO 163 - Anatomy and Physiology II
- BIO 163L - Anatomy and Physiology II Lab
- HSC 410 - Health Behavior Change
- HSC 420 - Health Care Policy
- NFS 310 - Community and Public Health Nutrition
- PSY 346 - Abnormal Psychology
- SPA 110 - Spanish for Health Care Professionals I

Public Health and Population Medicine (18 units)

- HSC 312 - Principles of Environmental and Occupational Health
- HSC 410 - Health Behavior Change
- HSC 412 - Health and Wellness Coaching
- HSC 420 - Health Care Policy
- NFS 310 - Community and Public Health Nutrition
- SPA 110 - Spanish for Health Care Professionals I

Healthcare Administration and Management, BS (Online)

The Bachelor of Science in Healthcare Administration and Management incorporates healthcare administration, business, leadership, and health science courses to prepare students for entry level administrative roles in all facets of the healthcare industry. This faith based curriculum prepares graduates for challenging administrative positions in a variety of health care settings, including hospitals and health systems, outpatient centers and clinics, long-term care facilities, consulting firms, pharmaceutical companies, or medical supply and equipment manufacturers. Graduates are also prepared for further education in Master level programs in Business Administration, Health/Hospital Administration, and Public Health.

Online Major Program Requirements (48 units)

Prerequisites to Program

- ENG 113 - Composition
- ENG 123 - Intermediate Composition

Lower Division Requirements

- ACC 250 - Principles of Accounting I
- HSC 104 - Survey of U.S. Health Care Delivery
- HSC 210 - Ethics in Health Care

Upper Division Requirements

- BUS 337 - Management with Biblical Foundation (meets upper division CST requirement)
- BUS 343 - Human Resource Management
- BUS 463 - Business and Organizational Management
- COM 425 - Organizational Communication

- HCA 330 - Health Information Systems
- HCA 360 - Finance and Reimbursement in Healthcare
- HCA 405 - Quality Management in Healthcare
- HSC 306 - Pathophysiology for Public Health
- HSC 316 - Public Health Promotion, Disease Prevention and Intervention
- HSC 420 - Health Care Policy
- LDR 310 - Leadership Theory
- MKT 333 - Principles of Marketing

Additional Program Course

- CST 100 - Overview of the Bible

Healthcare Administration, BS

Through the integration of healthcare specific and business coursework, taught through a Christian worldview, the Bachelor of Science in Healthcare Administration, with a minor in Business Administration, prepares students for entry level administrative roles in all facets of the healthcare industry. This faith based curriculum prepares graduates for challenging administrative positions in a variety of health care settings, including hospitals and health systems, outpatient centers and clinics, long-term care facilities, consulting firms, pharmaceutical companies, or medical supply and equipment manufacturers. Graduates are also prepared for further education in Master level programs in Business Administration, Health/Hospital Administration, and Public Health.

Traditional Major Program Requirements (48 units)

Lower Division Requirements

- BUS 217 - Microeconomics
- BUS 218 - Macroeconomics
- HSC 100 - Introduction to the Health Science Professions
- HSC 104 - Survey of U.S. Health Care Delivery
- STA 144 - Introduction to Statistics

Upper Division Requirements

- BUS 343 - Human Resource Management
- HCA 330 - Health Information Systems
- HCA 360 - Finance and Reimbursement in Healthcare
- HCA 410 - Quality Improvement in Healthcare
- HCA 450 - Healthcare Legal Issues and Ethics
- HCA 490 - Current Issues in Healthcare Administration
- HCA 499 - Healthcare Administration Capstone OR
- HSC 495 - Practicum
- HSC 300 - Health Communication

- HSC 305 - Epidemiology
- HSC 420 - Health Care Policy
- PAD 451 - Executive Leadership and Management

Minor Requirement

Students must declare and complete all requirements for the Business Administration Minor.

Nutrition and Food Sciences, BS

The Nutrition and Food Sciences major prepares students for careers in human nutrition, food science, food technology, and food management and processing. This program will also provide students with the necessary background to pursue advanced degrees in dietetics, public health, or food science and technology.

Traditional Major Program Requirements (72 units)

Lower Division Requirements

- BIO 153 - Anatomy and Physiology I
- BIO 153L - Anatomy and Physiology I Lab
- BIO 163 - Anatomy and Physiology II
- BIO 163L - Anatomy and Physiology II Lab
- BIO 205 - Human Microbiology
- BIO 205L - Human Microbiology Lab
- CHE 112 - Organic and Biochemistry for Health Sciences
- CHE 112L - Organic and Biochemistry for Health Sciences Lab
- CHE 115 - General Chemistry I
- CHE 115L - General Chemistry I Lab
- HSC 100 - Introduction to the Health Science Professions
- NFS 101 - Introduction to Nutrition and Food Sciences
- PSY 213 - General Psychology
- STA 144 - Introduction to Statistics

Upper Division Requirements

- HSC 406 - Food Safety and Consumer Protection
- HSC 410 - Health Behavior Change
- HSC 480 - Research Methods
- HSC 495 - Practicum OR
- HSC 499 - Health Science Capstone
- NFS 300 - Lifecycle Nutrition
- NFS 310 - Community and Public Health Nutrition
- NFS 315 - Experimental Foods
- NFS 320 - Nutritional Biochemistry
- NFS 400 - Special Topics in Nutrition and Food Sciences
- NFS 420 - Quantity Food Management
- NFS 455 - Medical Nutrition Therapy I

- NFS 460 - Human Nutrition Assessment Lecture
- NFS 465 - Medical Nutrition Therapy II
- NFS 475 - Advanced Human Nutrition

Public Health, BS

The Public Health major prepares students to plan, implement, and evaluate health education and promotion programs in schools, communities, and internationally. The program provides a core foundation in epidemiology, environmental health, health behavior change, disease prevention, health education methods, research methods, ethics, management, and leadership. This major allows for professional certification preparation within entities such as the National Commission on Health Education Credentialing (CHES), the National Board of Public Health Examiners (CPH), and the Registered Environmental Health Specialist (REHS). Students will be prepared for postgraduate study in public health, health management, social sciences, medicine, or other allied health professions.

Traditional Major Program Requirements (56-76 units)

Lower Division Requirements

- BIO 153 - Anatomy and Physiology I
- BIO 153L - Anatomy and Physiology I Lab
- HSC 100 - Introduction to the Health Science Professions
- HSC 101 - Introduction to Public Health
- HSC 104 - Survey of U.S. Health Care Delivery
- INH 101 - Introduction to International Health
- PSY 213 - General Psychology
- STA 144 - Introduction to Statistics

Upper Division Requirements

- HSC 305 - Epidemiology
- HSC 312 - Principles of Environmental and Occupational Health
- HSC 413 - Program Planning and Implementation
- HSC 418 - Program Evaluation
- HSC 420 - Health Care Policy
- HSC 480 - Research Methods
- INH 300 - Outbreak and Emergency Preparation and Response

Concentration Courses (15-35 units)

Students must complete all requirements in one of the following concentrations: Environmental Health; Health Education and Promotion

Environmental Health (35 units)

- BIO 146 - General Biology I with Lab
- BIO 148 - General Biology II with Lab
- BIO 305 - Microbiology with Lab

- CHE 115 - General Chemistry I
- CHE 115L - General Chemistry I Lab
- HSC 406 - Food Safety and Consumer Protection
- HSC 415 - Water and Air Quality Inspection and Management
- HSC 485 - Environmental Sampling and Analysis
- MAT 145 - Mathematical Methods in the Natural Sciences
- PAD 493 - Principles of Public Administration
- PHY 214 - Physics I
- PHY 214L - Physics I Lab

Faculty Information

The mission of the California Baptist University College of Nursing is to educate competent, responsible, caring, and professional nurses prepared from a biblical worldview to serve locally, nationally and globally; revering the human dignity of all persons created in the image of God.

The purpose of the baccalaureate program leading to a Bachelor of Science in Nursing is to provide a curriculum that will broaden the theoretical knowledge base of the learner in preparation for professional nursing practice and future graduate nursing study.

Traditional Bachelor of Science in Nursing students complete Board of Registered Nursing (BRN) approved pre-licensure courses designed to prepare the students to take the National Council Licensure Examination (NCLEX-RN), and preparing them for a seamless transition into graduate nursing. The 14-week semesters are comprised of courses scheduled in a full-time delivery mode for the theoretical and practicum content required by the BRN. Students are advised that the program represents a very intensive, full-time commitment. The BSN program is accredited by the credentialing body of the American Association of Colleges of Nursing (AACN).

The RN-BSN program has two tracks. One designed for working, licensed RNs to advance their educational level. Another for current Associate Degree Nursing (ADN) students concurrently enrolled in a program at a university or college. The programs are offered in a hybrid format.

The AACN Domains of Baccalaureate Education in Nursing guide the BSN coursework in order to prepare graduates for the role of the baccalaureate generalist nurse including: provider of care, designer/manager/coordinator of care, and member of the nursing profession. The BSN curriculum includes both direct and indirect care for individuals, families, groups, communities, and populations.

Nursing, BSN

A Bachelor of Science in Nursing will provide a curriculum that will broaden the theoretical knowledge base of the learner in preparation for an entry- level professional nursing practice and possibility of graduate nursing study.

Students must submit an application to the College of Nursing and be accepted to enroll in the Bachelor of Science in Nursing program. Coursework for credit toward the degree must be passed with a minimum grade of C or higher.

Admission Requirements

Bachelor of Science in Nursing Admission Requirements

First-time freshmen and transfer students interested in pursuing a Bachelor of Science in Nursing (BSN) are admitted to the University as pre-nursing students, and must complete the required prerequisite courses to be considered for the nursing major. Students may be selected for admission to the nursing major each fall and spring semester. Selection is made through a holistic application review.

A 30-unit LVN option is available on a space and course availability basis. California Baptist University College of Nursing has a process in place for a student to obtain credit for previous education or other acquired knowledge in the field of nursing, including military education and experience, through equivalence, challenge examinations, or other methods of evaluation.

1. Acceptance to California Baptist University. Admission standards for Undergraduate Studies at California Baptist University can be found in the Admissions section of the University Catalog
2. A minimum 3.0 cumulative Grade Point Average and 2.8 science Grade Point Average
3. Prerequisites. All prerequisites must be completed with a grade of C or higher
 - Composition
 - Intermediate Composition
 - Intermediate Algebra or Introductory Statistics

- Oral Communication
 - Lifespan Development
 - Fundamentals of Chemistry
 - Organic and Biochemistry for Health Sciences with Lab
 - Human Anatomy/Physiology with Lab (2 semesters)
 - Human Microbiology with Lab
4. Nursing Program Online Application, including transcripts, two letters of recommendation, Conduct Clearance, and Release and Waiver for

Post-Admissions Requirements:

1. Proof of Identification
2. Clearances:
 - Background Check Clearance
 - Health Clearance
 - Drug Testing
 - CPR Certification
 - Proof of Health Insurance
 - Reliable Form of Transportation with Proof of Motor Vehicle Insurance

Pre-Nursing Studies

The following pre-nursing requisites are offered at California Baptist University. It is strongly recommended that students admitted as provisional or placed on academic probation take no more than one science course during the semester.

- BIO 153 - Anatomy and Physiology I
- BIO 153L - Anatomy and Physiology I Lab
- BIO 163 - Anatomy and Physiology II
- BIO 163L - Anatomy and Physiology II Lab
- BIO 205 - Human Microbiology
- BIO 205L - Human Microbiology Lab
- CHE 102 - Fundamentals of Chemistry
- CHE 112 - Organic and Biochemistry for Health Sciences
- CHE 112L - Organic and Biochemistry for Health Sciences Lab
- COM 113 - Oral Communication

- ENG 113 - Composition OR
- ENG 113E - Composition Enriched with Lab

- ENG 123 - Intermediate Composition OR
- ENG 123E - Intermediate Composition Enriched with Lab

- MAT 115 - Intermediate Algebra OR
- STA 144 - Introduction to Statistics
- PSY 120 - Lifespan Development for the Health Professions

Nursing, RN-BSN (Online)

The RN to BSN program has two pathway options designed to complete a degree in 12-16 months, depending on transferable units. The RN-BSN Bridge pathway is for California licensed Registered Nurses and the RN-BSN Accelerated pathway is for eligible students currently enrolled in a regionally-accredited Associate Degree Nursing (ADN) program. The fully online program increases students' professional knowledge, enhances leadership and sharpens critical thinking skills. The degree completion program is an important step toward reaching your professional goals, whether you plan to continue practicing at the bedside, transition to a new specialization or pursue graduate studies. Consistent with CBU's faith-based mission, the nursing curriculum emphasizes a holistic perspective utilizing the Humanbecoming Paradigm as a nursing theory for professional practice.

I. RN-BSN Bridge

Bachelor of Science in Nursing Admission Requirements

This program is designed for California licensed Registered Nurses who hold an Associate degree in nursing who are seeking to obtain a Bachelor of Science in Nursing degree in the RN to BSN degree completion program by fulfilling the required coursework and practicum hours.

Students interested in applying to the RN-BSN program must meet the following admissions requirements:

1. Acceptance to California Baptist University. Admission standards for Undergraduate Studies at California Baptist University can be found in the Admissions section of the University Catalog.
2. An Associate's degree from an accredited institution recognized by the U.S. Department of Education and/or the Council for Higher Education Accreditation or the evaluated equivalency.
3. Current, unencumbered California Registered Nursing (RN) License
4. A minimum 2.0 Grade Point Average from an accredited college or university
5. Official sealed transcripts from all colleges and universities attended
6. Complete College of Nursing Clearances

II. Nursing, RN-BSN Accelerated Program

Admission Requirements

This program admits eligible students enrolled in a California regionally-accredited Associate Degree nursing program to the RN to BSN program. The curriculum is designed to provide a bridge for accelerated degree completion.

Students obtain eligibility to apply for the NCLEX licensing exam through their enrolled respective ADN program.*

Students interested in applying to the RN-BSN program must meet the following admissions requirements:

1. Acceptance to California Baptist University. Admission standards for Undergraduate Studies at California Baptist University can be found in the Admissions section of the University Catalog.
2. Accepted and successfully progressing in an accredited institution recognized by the U.S. Department of Education and/or the Council for Higher Education Accreditation.
3. A minimum 2.0 Grade Point Average
4. Official sealed transcripts from all colleges and universities attended.
5. Complete College of Nursing Clearances.

Prerequisite to Program

- Anatomy /Physiology with a lab, microbiology with a lab, and chemistry with a lab

Faculty Information

Our mission is to prepare a new generation of business leaders with the knowledge, real-world skills, and nurtured talents to successfully live out their purpose in the modern marketplace. We prepare our graduates to contribute to society's need for trustworthy organizational leaders who restore hope that business has a valuable role in our world. Because we are created in the image of God and He has good work for us to do, we affirm that business is to create and supply with integrity the products and services that meet the needs of people everywhere. In this pursuit, we teach our students that personal development, profit, and economic growth are at their best when they energize the creation of value in individual lives, families, neighborhoods, communities, and thriving enterprises.

The School of Business provides a variety of programs that prepare students to be competitive in the workforce. Undergraduate majors include Accounting, Business Administration, Entrepreneurship, Finance, International Business, Leadership Studies, and Marketing. Concentrations within the Business Administration major include: Entrepreneurship, Family Business Management, Finance, Management, Real Estate, Social Entrepreneurship, Strategic Business Analysis and Insights and Human Resource Management.

In addition to courses that provide students with in-depth strategic, theoretical, and leadership skills, students experience real-world application through hands-on, applied projects with local companies and non-profit organizations. Additional learning opportunities within the School of Business include its various clubs, such as the Accounting Society, Marketing Club and Investment Group, as well as events and networking opportunities throughout the academic year. All these enable students to connect with business leaders and mentors. Students can also take advantage of the school's employer database to obtain internships and working experience.

Upon graduation, many of our students can easily further their graduate studies in the School of Business with a Master of Business Administration with concentrations in Accounting, Healthcare Administration, and Management. These programs are all accredited by the Accreditation Council for Business Schools and Programs (ACBSP). The School of Business also offers the Master of Science in Information Technology Management with concentrations in Business Analytics, and Information Systems. The Business Analytics program provides each student with SAS certification upon completion of their program. Faculty Information

The School of Christian Ministries equips students to serve and lead in churches and other ministry-related organizations. The School's objective is to guide students to become biblically centered, theologically grounded, historically informed, philosophically conscious, ethically engaged, and practically equipped for the benefit of the church and the advancement of Christ's kingdom among the nations.

The School of Christian Ministries offers the Bachelor of Applied Theology (BAT) degree, a program designed to equip a new generation of pastoral leaders. The Bachelor of Applied Theology degree is fully directed, combining rigorous biblical and theological study with practical ministry experience.

The Bachelor of Arts in Christian Studies gives students a broad understanding of the Bible, biblical interpretation, Christian theology, Christian history, and Christian ministry.

The Intercultural Studies major and minor help students to think globally as they learn about cultures and people groups, for the purpose of developing passion for the nations and strategies for reaching the world with the gospel.

The Philosophy program teaches students to recognize, analyze, and engage the central issues of human existence in a historical context, emphasizing the integration of faith in academic study and Christian living. The Ethics minor equips students to understand the basis of moral thought and develop critical thinking skills related to moral evaluations.

Students who pair a School of Christian Ministries major with a second major outside SCM are eligible for the double major scholarship. With a double major, students are able to study the Bible at a deeper level, develop their theology, and integrate their faith in work and the world.

The School of Christian Ministries also directs the University Honors Program, a community of students who research, debate, and discuss the key questions of life. Students in the Honors Program replace required general education courses with more advanced seminars that explore the intersections of faith, history, science, philosophy, literature, and culture.

Applied Theology, BAT

The Bachelor of Applied Theology degree is an intensely practical degree that utilizes the basics of the Christian Studies degree as its foundation. It is designed for students who are centered in their desire to prepare for Christian ministry vocations. As a fully directed program, it will enable students to study with similarly minded people and will afford students opportunity for ministry involvement. Students must submit an application to the School of Christian Ministries and be accepted to enroll in the Bachelor of Applied Theology program.

Traditional Degree Program Requirements (124 units)

General Education Requirements

The program requirements will follow the curriculum set forth for other University programs. Specific coursework will be determined by the Dean of the School of Christian Ministries in consultation with the faculty of other Schools/Departments. Some general education requirements will be met through specific Applied Theology requirements.

Faculty Information

The School of Education offers a full range of programs in education, from early childhood to state approved credential programs leading to careers in elementary and secondary. Programs leading to a credential are approved by the Commission on Teacher Credentialing.

In addition to the Preliminary Multiple Subject and Single Subject Teaching Credentials, students may also seek additional credential programs and a master's degree through the School of Education. The Elementary Education major allows candidates to complete subject matter course work as well as the necessary credential coursework that provides the requisite knowledge and skills to teach in a multiple subject classroom. Students seeking a Single Subject Credential are required to major in the content area they plan to teach and may also declare Preliminary Single Subject Credential as their second major. Single Subject Candidates may satisfy Subject Matter Competence by completing an approved subject matter program at the University, necessary major, or by passing the appropriate state examination.

The credential programs offered by California Baptist University are state approved programs and are subject to revision at any time by state or federal law. Please contact the School of Education for more information. The University and the School of Education reserve the right to modify the teacher credentialing requirements when directed to do so by the Commission on Teacher Credentialing.

The Early Childhood Studies major/minor prepares students for careers working with young children and their families in a variety of settings including schools, hospitals, and home environments and for graduate study in related fields.

It is the mission of the Dr. Bonnie G. Metcalf School of Education of California Baptist University, a Great Commission University, to prepare professionals of high moral character and ethical behavior to serve throughout the world.

As part of the Great Commission, the faculty and staff are dedicated to their Christian responsibility outlined in Matthew 28: 19-20:

Go ye therefore, and teach all nations...and lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world.

Faculty Information

California Baptist University offers a Bachelor of Arts degree with three majors: Theatre, Music, and Music for Worship Arts and Ministry. The University offers a Bachelor of Music degree with the following majors: Commercial Performance, Composition for Stage and Screen, Instrumental Performance, Music Education, Piano Performance, Songwriting, Studio Production, and Vocal Performance. The School of Music offers three minors (Music, Theatre, and Worship Arts and Ministry), as well as eight concentrations, which may be added to most music majors to provide students with a secondary area of specialization.

The Collinsworth School of Music at California Baptist University is committed to inspiring students to the highest standards of musical craft and personal character, preparing them for success in musical professions.

With an educational environment distinguished by vibrant, interactive teaching, a prolific performance culture (featuring over 200 concerts per year), and a strong emphasis on building personal and professional character, the School of Music at California Baptist University stands as a unique scholastic institution, dedicated to providing rigorous training in the arts to equip young musicians for successful careers as performers, composers, music educators, and worship leaders.

Furthermore, the California Baptist University School of Music believes in preparing high-caliber, versatile musicians. While many institutions of higher learning center their curriculum and experiences around a limited segment of the musical sphere, California Baptist University intentionally provides hands-on training in a multitude of musical styles and genres without compromise. In addition to its comprehensive focus on Western art music, the school intentionally blends folk and jazz styles, world music, commercial music, studio and technical production, and modern and traditional church music to most effectively prepare future artists for what awaits them in the modern marketplace of professional musicians.

The Collinsworth School of Music is fully accredited by the National Association of School of Music (NASM) and is committed to the continued refinement of its educational opportunities as we strive to accomplish our mission of preparing the next generation of career musicians.

Music Education, BM

The Music Education major will prepare students for careers working in K-12 settings teaching general, choral, and instrumental music. Candidates for the Music Education major will complete the state-approved subject-matter competency requirement from the California Commission on Teacher Credentialing (CTC) through required music coursework. As a state-approved teacher preparation program, the requirements for the Music Subject Matter (MSM) Program are subject to revision at any time by state or federal law. Music Education majors will be eligible to obtain a California teaching credential, by completing the music education professional methods courses (MUS282, MUS405, MUS344/345, MUS476/479, MUS473, MUS475) with fieldwork and student teaching.

Students choosing the Music Education major must additionally be admitted into the Credential program for Single Subject Credential. Students who do not meet the credential requirements may not be able to complete the major due to accreditation requirements.

Candidates must complete all credential and state requirements to be eligible for a credential. Credential requirements can be obtained from the School of Music Music Education advisors and School of Education credential program advisors.

University Programs

Honors Program

The University Honors Program is a community of thinkers who actively seek wisdom and virtue in community. Honors students research, discuss, and debate the fundamental questions of life through advanced interdisciplinary seminars that fulfill many University general education requirements. The Honors Program is a University-wide academic program that students take in conjunction with their majors and minors.

For more information contact the School of Christian Ministries Office at 951.343.4248 or e-mail honors@calbaptist.edu.

Reserve Officer Training Corps (ROTC) Program

California Baptist University offers a Military Science and Leadership Army Reserve Officer Training Corps (ROTC) program on campus and an Air Force ROTC program through concurrent enrollment at California State University, San Bernardino. Students may also enroll in ROTC courses at another institution while completing their degree programs at California Baptist University. Representatives from other participating ROTC programs make regular visits to California Baptist University to provide information to prospective students.

Scholarships may be available for books, tuition, and fees associated with various major fields of study. For more information about the Military Science and Leadership Army ROTC Program contact the Assistant Professor of Military Science at 951.343.4773 or e-mail ROTC@calbaptist.edu. For more information about the Air Force ROTC program contact the CSUSB Aerospace Studies Department at 909.880.5440. Students interested in concurrent enrollment should contact the Office of the University Registrar at California Baptist University.

Single Subject Matter Competency Programs

California Baptist University offers a selection of subject matter competency programs for those who wish to pursue teaching credentials in single subject areas. Students planning to teach in California will need to demonstrate subject matter competency either by successfully completing the state approved subject matter program, necessary major, or by passing the California Subject Examination for Teachers (CSET). *Note: state regulations concerning test requirements are subject to change and supersede CBU catalog information.

Military Science and Leadership Army ROTC Program

The Military Science and Leadership program is designed to provide an on-campus program for qualified students in all academic majors who desire to serve as an Army officer on active duty or in a local Army Reserve or Guard unit. While students may participate in either undergraduate or graduate studies, the program requires at least two years to complete. Students who have completed at least basic training in any of the armed services may be eligible to enter the advanced course directly. Other students must complete three to six of the courses in the basic course of study or complete a thirty-day Leader's Training Course (LTC) prior to entering the advanced course. All contracted ROTC students are required to participate in an off-campus leadership laboratory one weekend each semester. Scholarships are available on a competitive basis. All ROTC students receive $400-500 per month during the final two years of the program. For more information contact the CBU Military Science Office at (951) 343-4773; Lancer Arms North #37 or visit www.calbaptist.edu/armyrotc.

Philosophy of Student Development

As a Christian institution, California Baptist University has dual responsibilities to its constituency. As an academic institution, it seeks to promote high scholastic standards, stimulate mental alertness, impart a general knowledge of the natural world and of the history and institutions of human society, and to assist students in choosing and learning an area of specialization for their life's work.

As a Christian institution, the University seeks to promote and follow the spiritual principles set forth by Jesus Christ. In acknowledging these principles, the University places special emphasis on leading students in an active pursuit of the spiritual values of life and developing leaders for the Southern Baptist churches of California and beyond.

Students at CBU are individuals involved in academic pursuits and at the same time are members of a Christian community nurturing one another in spiritual growth. The University expects students to take seriously this two-fold responsibility.

The Student Services Division is committed to the intellectual, spiritual, social, aesthetic, and physical development of California Baptist University students so that they are assisted in becoming autonomous, competent, responsible, and interdependent individuals who use their intellects and skills with wisdom and integrity.

Freedom and Responsibility

California Baptist University students are entitled to the same freedom as any other citizen of our country. It is the Policy of the University to ensure these rights, consistent with the provisions of law, acceptable tastes, and purposes and goals of the institution. When matriculation in the University requires that conditions be placed upon Student freedoms, these conditions and their rationale are clearly delineated.

At California Baptist University, the concepts of freedom and personal responsibility are inextricably bound together. The University community, like any other, functions upon the principle that all members respect and protect the rights of their fellow citizens. Students are encouraged to develop these values which represent mature, self-disciplined people who appreciate the privilege of education and are willing to accept its responsibilities.

When people choose a college, they commit themselves to its philosophy of education, policies, and regulations. Students are to demonstrate proper respect of University personnel which includes, but is not limited to, compliance with directives of University officials in the performance of their duties.

Even though students may not agree with a few rules established by the University, it is expected that they comply with them in a manner conducive to the highest moral standards and in keeping with the discipline of the academic community.

Generally, through appropriate procedures, institutional judicial measures shall be imposed for conduct which adversely affects the institution's pursuit of its educational objectives, which violates or shows a disregard for the rights of other members of the academic community, or which endangers property or persons on institution or institution-controlled property.

Responsibility for enforcement of Student Conduct Policy lies with the Dean of Students, Director of Student Conduct, and other Student Services staff. This group defines behavioral expectations and takes appropriate action in support of University Policy.

Standard of Student Conduct

In order to achieve its mission, California Baptist University expects members of the campus community to accept responsibility for their personal conduct and to encourage others within the community to do the same.

All students enrolled at California Baptist University are expected to conduct themselves in accordance with the Standard of Student Conduct, regardless of age, classification, or the number of credit hours being taken. The Standard of Student Conduct is established for the purpose of outlining expected behavior of students in the University community. The Standard of Student Conduct shall be defined as any and all policy, procedure, and/or behavioral expectation contained within the Student Handbook and the University Catalog.

If the conduct of any member of the campus community is found to be detrimental to the academic, social, and spiritual development of others within the community, the University (through its various offices and personnel) provides guidance, direction, and if necessary, judicial action.

This Standard of Student Conduct shall apply to any and all lands owned or leased by the University, as well as, to any location where a student is engaged in a University activity. Examples of such coverage include, but are not limited to, athletic teams and performing arts groups traveling to and participating in events off campus, student teaching and observation/participation, student government, recognized organizations and clubs engaging in a club event or activity, off-campus internships, international internships, international student teaching, academic extracurricular travel, faculty-led academic engagement and service-learning, clinicals/health fairs, student field practicums, student independent or directed studies, student research, community service, study abroad, International Service Projects.

Students should understand the commitment to the spirit of the University and realize that their enrollment is viewed as a willingness to abide by and accept the responsibilities of the environment.

Philosophy of Discipline

The purpose of discipline at California Baptist University is to assist in maintaining individual and community growth. Personal growth and maturity are encouraged most when each member of the University community uses self-discipline and shares the responsibility to care enough about others to confront them when appropriate. The responsibility to confront one another in a loving manner should enable inappropriate behavior to be corrected on a personal level.

Unfortunately, situations may arise which warrant a formalized judicial process. Judicial procedures are designed to provide a just and equitable process of educational discipline. While every effort is made to protect the rights of students, the University does not attempt to duplicate or to emulate court proceedings and should not be viewed as such. Student judicial procedures, student rights, and the appeal process are outlined in detail in the Student Handbook.

Enrollment and Student Services Division

The Enrollment and Student Services Division encompasses the departments of Admissions, Career Center, Community Life, Commencement, Counseling Center, Intercollegiate Athletics, Provider Food Service, Recreation, Residence Life and Housing Services, Safety Services, Spiritual Life, Student Care, Student Senate, Title IX, University Card Services, and the Wellness Center. In addition to providing general supervision of the offices that comprise the Student Services division, the Student Services Office provides services that include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Administrating student health insurance provided through the University and accepting proof of insurance (as required by University policy)
- Referring students to campus resources
- Facilitating the judicial action and non-judicial action appeals processes
- Investigating student allegations and complaints
- Reviewing and approving on-campus postings (flyers, posters, etc.)
- Any issue dealing with food services
- Title IX Office

Activities

In addition to maintaining the University's activity calendar, serving as an activity-planning resource, and assisting with the oversight of student clubs and organizations, the Community Life Office plans and implements campus activities, educational programs, cultural programs, and seminars that reflect the Christian values of the institution.

University Student Senate

The University Student Senate is committed to the development of the student body and serves as a formal conduit through which student-related concerns, views, and interests can be communicated to University Officials.

Campus Housing

The Residence Life Office strives to promote the mission of California Baptist University by providing an on-campus living environment that is conducive to scholarship, personal growth, and development. Accordingly, living in residence at CBU carries with it a distinctive set of privileges and responsibilities. Students who reside on campus live in a community with their peers and are entrusted with the responsibility to challenge and support each other in a respectful, cooperative, and communicative fashion. This environment provides students with enriching experiences, which may help to promote healthy interpersonal relationships.

Students interested in campus housing should consult the Office of Residence Life.

Career Center and Student Employment

The Career Center serves as a connection between education and career by providing students opportunities and resources for professional development, networking, and experience. The goal of the Career Center staff is to equip students with the professionalism necessary to excel in their respective careers and become effective servant-leaders for Christ upon graduation, both locally and globally.

The Career Center provides students with varied opportunities for professional development and career exploration through programing that is both campus-wide and major specific. Career Center staff conducts classroom presentations, workshops, seminars, and provides office walk-in hours to assist and instruct students in their professional development. In addition, the Career Center arranges opportunities for students to interact and network with potential employers through career fairs and employer presentations.

Clubs and Organizations

Clubs play an important role on the California Baptist University campus by encouraging students to pursue interests, develop leadership skills, create meaningful relationships, and enhance academic achievements. A list of chartered clubs and organizations as well as club and organization policy and procedures are available in the Community Life Office and on InsideCBU.

Intercollegiate Athletics

The Athletic Department provides education for the body, mind, and spirit of each student-athlete at California Baptist University. Under the direction of the athletic director, CBU offers a comprehensive athletic program with staff who address NCAA compliance, communications, development, athletic training, strength and conditioning, sports medicine, academic advising, facilities and event management, marketing and fan engagement, ticketing and sales, and media production. In addition to encouraging Christ-like competition by all participants, CBU coaches diligently strive to educate students and provide an environment in which students experience athletic, academic, and personal success.

Intramural Sports

California Baptist University is committed to the overall educational experience. Intramural sports play an integral part in this experience in the following ways:

- Encourage students to work together in pursuit of individual and team goals;
- Provide students an enjoyable way to interact with others;
- Offer students avenues to relieve stress or anxiety;
- Help students begin an attitude of lifelong physical fitness.

The University's intramural sports program maintains a full schedule of athletic and recreational activities throughout the academic year. Activities include a variety of seasonal competitions between organized teams, tournaments, individual competitions, and non-athletic events.

First Year Experience (FYE)

First Year Experience is designed to assist new Students with the transition to university life and the California Baptist University community through a University Success course. This course is required of all unmarried, full-time undergraduate Students who are first-semester freshmen and under twenty (20) years of age. Students who have completed a similar course and/or completed a full semester of transferable coursework at another institution are not required to enroll in the FYE course.

Recreation Center

The Recreation Center, is a state-of-the-art fitness and recreation facility. The Recreation Center offers members of the campus community a wide range of personal fitness and group exercise opportunities. This facility is equipped with a number of recreation features including a state-of-the-art cardio and weight room, racquetball courts, a gymnasium with basketball and volleyball courts, group exercise rooms, a rooftop track and soccer field, men's and women's locker rooms, and lounge spaces located throughout the facility.

Safety Services

California Baptist University maintains a Department of Safety Services to enhance the safety and security of the campus community. In addition to staffing the Welcome Pavilion and patrolling school properties, the department provides twenty-four (24) hour assistance with emergencies, crime and injury reporting, safety escorts, and education of the campus community on safety and security practices.

Community and Emergency Notification

The University has developed a multimedia system to immediately notify students, faculty, staff, and visitors of any emergency circumstance or serious situation that poses a credible threat to the safety and security of the campus community. Components of this system include:

- A siren/verbal warning system capable of projecting audible messages across open areas of the main campus.
- CBU Alert--an "opt-in" system capable of transmitting and delivering messages to all subscribed email and cellular telephone addresses on file with the University.*
- All University-issued email addresses.

*Students must "opt-in" to receive these messages.

Parents or guardians of students enrolled at CBU may also be added through the student's account.

Any or all parts of this system may be activated in response to any specific incident.

For instances when there is no immediate threat to the safety of the campus community, but it is desirable to provide information for educational or crime prevention purposes, email distribution is used to disseminate relevant facts and measures to be implemented or considered.

Vehicle Registration

Students who operate a vehicle on campus must register for a parking permit with the Department of Safety Services. Parking permits are issued for the current school year. Drivers are expected to comply with the University traffic and safety regulations and non-compliance may result in the issuance of a citation and/or suspension of parking and/or driving privileges on campus. Copies of the California Baptist University Vehicle Code are available in the Student Handbook.

International Student Services

The Office of International Student Services (ISS) assists international students in transitioning into the CBU community, exploring American culture, and understanding U.S. immigration regulations. ISS ensures that students understand institutional expectations, provides support services, processes immigration documents, plans and implements activities that promote campus awareness and appreciation for cultural understanding and experience, and assists students in becoming integrated into the CBU community.

Spiritual Life

California Baptist University is committed to the biblical teaching of the Christian faith. As a result, the University has sought since inception to evidence the values of Christian living in the lives of students, staff, and faculty as they live out the Christian ethics of love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control. Though students are not required to be Christians, the University encourages students to grow in their relationships with God by exploring the gospel and expressing the Christian faith in a variety of ways.

As a University committed to the Great Commission, the University provides opportunities for spiritual growth and formation through the Spiritual Life Office. The mission of the Spiritual Life Office is "Investing in lives to develop followers of Jesus."

California Baptist University requires students to take Bible-based courses in Christian studies. However, the University also offers students many opportunities to explore and express the Christian faith. Students are encouraged to participate in ways unique to personal needs and interests through regularly scheduled times of spiritual emphasis, Bible studies, worship gatherings, evangelism, ministry teams, community service, and missions.

Compassion Ministries

By putting faith into action, students learn the significance of demonstrating the love of Christ in the context of the gospel. Participating in urban service projects for a day or a weekend, working with the homeless, participating in on campus serve projects, or serving the local community gives students the opportunity to make a difference in the lives of others in the name of Jesus.

Chapel

The California Baptist University community gathers regularly for worship, fellowship, Christian growth, and spiritual encouragement. Chapel services vary from Bible preaching to inspirational sharing; but three (3) principles guide the worship-planning process. First, Chapel services will demonstrate a richness of biblical theology to direct the hearts and minds of worshipers to the glory of God, the preeminence of Christ, and the power of the gospel. Second, Chapel programming and personnel will represent the cultural and ethnic differences of the CBU community to serve as a reminder that God calls all people groups to worship Him through a relationship with Christ. Third, worship music will be stylistically diverse to accommodate the variety of worship styles represented by the campus community.

Chapel services are organized, coordinated, and implemented by the Dean of Spiritual Life and the Director of Chapel. Occasionally, as deemed appropriate by a University Officer, members of the campus community are recognized for notable accomplishments during Chapel. Holidays, cultural programs, and other forms of recognition and/or expression are not included as part of Chapel programming; such events may be coordinated through the Community Life Office.

Discipleship Ministries

Students of California Baptist University have opportunities to grow in their relationships with Christ through discipleship and mentoring in the context of weekly small groups, weekly large-group meetings, regularly-scheduled conferences, and other events that encourage spiritual growth. The weekly gatherings involve Bible-based teaching that cover various topics pertinent to students wherever they may be in their spiritual life. Students have an opportunity to grow within this structured discipleship program that also encourages and trains them to have their own personal ministry that they can take with them after graduation.

Third Culture Kid (TCK) Ministry

At CBU, TCKs are American students who spent most or all of their developmental years outside of the United States. Although they are Americans by birth, they often do not feel connected to American/Californian culture or the culture of the American University. The TCK Ministry comes alongside and supports TCKs to assist them in bridging cultural gaps they encounter during their time at CBU so that they can grow socially, spiritually, and academically.

Mobilization

In cooperation with the International Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention and various missions organizations, International Service Projects (ISP) create opportunities for students to participate in the "Great Commission" (Matthew 28:19-20) so that they might gain a global vision for the cause of the gospel as well as cross-cultural experience through service learning. ISP teams have served in more than fifty (50) countries since 1997. Participation in ISP is open to California Baptist University students who meet membership requirements, successfully complete the application and interview process, fulfill fundraising obligations, and are in good academic and behavioral standing with the University. The service-learning application and selection process is coordinated by the Mobilization area of the Spiritual Life Office and takes place during the fall semester.

Engagement. Teams of California Baptist University students serve internationally for approximately three (3) weeks during the summer months. Each team is led by a University official or other approved member of the University community. The ministry focus may vary depending upon the outreach strategy of the selected area.

Immersion. Teams of California Baptist University students serve internationally for approximately eight (8) weeks during the summer months. Ministry focus varies depending on the outreach strategy of the selected area(s). Summer of Service was established in 2010, and in 2017 was rebranded to Immersion.

Encounter. Teams of California Baptist University students serve internationally for approximately two (2) weeks during the summer months. Each team is led by a University official or other approved member of the University community. Encounter was launched in 2018. The projects differ depending upon the service opportunities of the selected area.

Student Support

The Student Support Office includes Student Care, University Card Services, and University Commencement. Additionally, this office oversees the University events calendar, assessment initiatives for the Student Services division, and a variety of other campus-based programs and initiatives. The Student Support Office is located in Lancer Plaza.

Student Care

Student Care coordinates campus-based resources and support for Students who experience difficulties (e.g. extended hospitalization, health issues, personal crises, loss of an immediate family member, etc.) that significantly impact the ability to navigate college life or continue enrollment in courses. The Student Care staff assist Students in communication with faculty and staff in situations that require an extended absence from campus. Student Care is located within the Student Support Office in Lancer Plaza.

Student Health Insurance

California Baptist University contracts with UnitedHealthcare Student Resources to provide student healthcare insurance. Requirements, eligibility, and cost related to student health insurance are determined by student enrollment status.

International students are required to enroll in the student insurance plan.

Traditional undergraduate students enrolled for seven or more units are automatically charged for medical insurance provided by the University - unless proof of medical insurance is submitted through the online waiver accessed at www.calbaptist.edu/healthinsurance. Proof of insurance must be submitted prior to the "last day to drop a class with refund" as indicated in the University Calendar, during the first semester of attendance of each academic year. Students who do not submit proof of medical insurance by the deadline will be enrolled in the plan. Once a student is enrolled, the charge is non-refundable. Students enrolled in less than seven units are not eligible to enroll in the plan.

Dependent Coverage for spouse and children of students enrolled on the plan is available for an additional cost. Questions about student health insurance can be directed to University Card Services.

Information regarding the student health insurance plan provided by CBU may be accessed at www.calbaptist.edu/healthinsurance. Students who have questions regarding the student health insurance plan, after reviewing the information provided online, are encouraged to contact University Card Services for assistance. University Card Services is located in the Student Support Office in Lancer Plaza.

Student ID Cards

The CBU ID Card (CBU Card) enables access and commerce across campus for current CBU students, staff, and faculty. Cards must be carried at all times and presented to university officials upon request. New and replacement cards may be obtained in University Card Services, located in the Student Support Office in Lancer Plaza.

Student Meal Plans

University Card Services and Provider work closely together to create dining options that meet the needs of the CBU community.

Meal Plans consist of two parts:

- Meal Swipes can be used to obtain a full meal.
- Dining Dollars are a pay-as-you-go option that will work similar to an ATM debit card. Dining Dollars may be used to obtain a full meal or individual items and are accepted at any of the campus dining locations.

Undergraduate residential students must purchase a meal plan. Graduate residential students and commuter students are not required to purchase a meal plan but may choose from all the plans offered. Meal Plans are sold by the semester. Unused Meal Swipes and Dining Dollars do not rollover from semester to semester. Additional meal plan information may be found on the University Card Services website. University Card Services is located in the Student Support Office in Lancer Plaza.

University Commencement

The University Commencements staff coordinates all University commencement activities, which includes regalia distribution, graduate photos, event scheduling, and event ticketing. Commencement ceremonies occur at the conclusion of the fall, spring, and summer semesters. Grad Finale is an "open house style" event designed to provide Students who are eligible to participate in commencement exercises graduation-related information and items including academic regalia (caps and gowns, hoods [for master's and doctoral degrees], and tassels). Current information can be found on the University Commencement website. The University Commencement department is located in the Student Support Office in Lancer Plaza.

Title IX

California Baptist University is committed to providing a learning, working and living environment that promotes personal integrity, civility and mutual respect in an environment free of discrimination on the basis of sex, which includes all forms of sexual misconduct.

Sex discrimination violates an individual's fundamental rights and personal dignity. CBU considers sex discrimination and sexual misconduct in all forms to be a serious offense. Sexual misconduct includes, but is not limited to: sexual harassment, domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, sexual violence, and stalking by employees, students, or third parties.

CBU does not unlawfully discriminate on the basis of sex in its educational programs and activities. This policy extends to employment with and admission to the University, as well as access to facilities, financial aid and courses.

Per Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, "No person in the United States shall, on the basis of sex, be excluded from participation in, be denied benefit of, or be subjected to discrimination under any education program or activity receiving federal financial assistance." For more information regarding Title IX, please visit: <https://calbaptist.edu/about/title-ix>

Wellness Center

The California Baptist University Wellness Center, located at 3626 Monroe Street, houses the CBU Health Center and the CBU Counseling Center. The goal of the Wellness Center staff is to provide effective health, wellness, and counseling services that promote academic and personal success.

Student Health Center

The Health Center is available to all members of the campus community. To help maintain a healthy campus environment, students are encouraged to visit the student health center at the onset of illness symptoms and other health-related concerns. Health Center staff can address most conditions that are treated in an urgent care facility.

The Health Center is operated in cooperation with Riverside Medical Clinic that provides staffing and insurance billing services. In addition to accepting student health insurance (UnitedHealthcare Student Resources) provided through California Baptist University, most PPO insurances and HMO insurances (that name Riverside Medical Clinic as their primary medical group) are accepted at the Health Center. Kaiser Permanente Health Plans are not accepted at the Student Health Center. The Health Center has reasonable walk-in rates for all CBU community members beginning at $23. For students, faculty, and staff needing ongoing care and prescriptions for pre-existing conditions, it is recommended they visit their primary care physician.

For days and hours of operation, please see The Health Center for current information.

Call 951.321.6520 to schedule an appointment. Appointments are required for all routine well- and/or preventative-services visits. Walk-ins are welcome.

Counseling Center

The Counseling Center offers a full range of counseling assistance as members of the campus community strive to become more effective, productive, and comfortable with University life. The primary mission of the Counseling Center is to provide professional and compassionate care for students, faculty and staff with a Christ-centered approach and biblically-focused world view.

Counseling is provided by Marriage Family Therapist interns and associates. All counseling is provided under the supervision of fully licensed therapists. Issues that can be addressed with a counselor include, but are not limited to:

- Addiction & Substance Abuse
- Anger
- Anxiety
- Depression
- Divorce
- Family Conflict
- Grief
- Identity & Self Image
- Life Transitions
- Relationships

Counseling is confidential except where limited by law. These limitations include any plan to harm others or self along with issues of child and/or elder abuse.

The Counseling Center is available to students, faculty, staff, and immediate family members (spouses and dependents under the age of 19). Typically, appointments will be scheduled within one (1) week of initial contact. Walk-in appointments are available for urgent situations. Call 951.689.1120 or visit the Counseling Center website for additional information.

Admission to the Traditional On-Campus Program

When to Apply

The University implements a rolling admissions practice. A high school senior or a college transfer student may apply any time before the beginning of each semester. Prospective students are encouraged to complete the application process at least four weeks prior to the start of their intended semester of enrollment. Completing the application process early will permit other offices on campus such as Financial Aid, Residents Life, and Academic Advising to communicate with the prospective student in a timely manner.

Application Procedures

To be considered for admission students are required to submit the following documents:

- A completed Application for Admission.
- A $45.00 non-refundable fee.
- Official high school transcripts sent directly to the Office of Undergraduate Admissions from your high school.
- Official transcripts from all previously attended colleges and universities.

When an applicant has submitted all the required documents, an evaluation will take place and a decision rendered.

Admission Guidelines

First-time Freshmen

Students who have completed less than 24 units of transferable college credit must complete the Admission Requirements for First-time Freshmen. Status may be evaluated based on high school transcripts, SAT, ACT or CLT scores, and college transcripts, if applicable. Students will be admitted with one of the following academic standings and may take up to 18 credit units their first semester.

Honors

Honors classification will be granted to those applicants who meet the criteria for the Trustee's, President's or Dean's merit scholarships.

Standard

Standard classification will be granted to those applicants with a minimum GPA of 2.5 who are not eligible for the Trustee's, President's or Dean's merit scholarships.

Provisional

Provisional classification may be granted to those applicants who do not meet the Standard entrance requirements but are approved by the Admissions and Re-entry Committee. Students admitted on Provisional status may be required to enroll in the Student Success Class.

Denial

Denial may occur when an applicant does not qualify for admission in the above categories. California Baptist University also reserves the right to deny admission to applicants who are antagonistic with the philosophy and purpose of the University.

Appeals

Appeals on any decision regarding admission should be made in writing and addressed to the Admission and Re-entry Committee in care of the University. All appeals will be heard by the Committee. The appeals may include a personal interview and additional academic transcripts. Once the appeal is reviewed, the Committee will render a final decision.

The Admissions and Re-entry Committee will review students who do not meet the requirements for Standard admission. Upon review of the student's file, one of the following decisions will be rendered: Standard Admission, Provisional Admission, or Denial.

Transfer Students

Students who graduated high school at least one year ago and have, or will have, completed 24 or more transferable units from an accredited college or university recognized by the U.S. Department of Education and/or the Council for Higher Education Accreditation will be evaluated on the basis of their official college transcripts. It is highly recommended that transfer students submit their high school transcript to aid in placement and the meeting of competency requirements. Students may be admitted with one of the following academic standings and may take up to 18 credit units their first semester:

Honors

Honors at entrance may be granted to those applicants with a minimum cumulative GPA of 3.0 for all transferable college work.

Standard

Standard entrance may be granted to those applicants with a minimum cumulative GPA of 2.0 for all college work.

Provisional

Provisional entrance may be granted to those applicants who do not meet the Standard entrance requirements but may be approved by the Admissions and Re-entry Committee. Students admitted on Provisional status may be required to enroll in Academic Success Seminar (GST 060).

Denial

Denial may occur when an applicant does not qualify for admission in the above categories. A college transfer student may be denied admission if he or she is on academic suspension or dismissal from another college. California Baptist University also reserves the right to deny admission to applicants who are antagonistic with the philosophy and purpose of the University.

Appeals

Appeals on any decision regarding admission should be made in writing and addressed to the Admission and Re-entry Committee in care of the University. All appeals will be heard by the Committee. The appeal may include a personal interview and additional academic transcripts. Once reviewed the Committee will render a final decision.

The Admissions and Re-entry Committee may review students who do not meet the requirements for Standard admissions. Upon review of the student's file one of the following decisions will be rendered: Standard Admission, Provisional Admission, or Denial.

Home Educated Students

California Baptist University welcomes applications from home educated/schooled students. Home educated/schooled students are subject to the same admissions requirements as public or private high school students, which are listed under the Application Procedures section. A General Education Diploma (GED) or State Proficiency Exam may be submitted in lieu of high school transcript if none is available. Students with a verifiable cumulative Grade Point Average (GPA) are eligible to qualify for all merit scholarships.

Readmit

Students who have attended California Baptist University but have discontinued enrollment for one or more semesters must be approved to readmit to the University. Students must submit an Application to Readmit form, pay the required Readmit application fee and provide all official transcripts from all other institutions attended since last enrolled at California Baptist University. Additional documents or an interview may be required to readmit. Required department clearances must be obtained prior to the start of the semester the student is seeking to readmit.

Students whose applications for readmission are approved will enter under the catalog current at the time of readmission and will be subject to the admissions and degree requirements outlined in that catalog. The University is not responsible for providing courses or programs that have been discontinued.

Conditional Accepted Student

A conditional accepted student is defined as a traditional undergraduate student who is working toward a degree at California Baptist University. Students offered a Conditional Acceptance may be eligible to enroll in no more than nine (9) units but not less than six (6) units for one semester. This status applies to the first semester at the University only. Upon successful completion of the "conditional" semester the student may continue enrollment as a traditional student.

Successful completion is defined as a minimum GPA of 2.0 with no D's or F's in any of the classes taken as a conditional student.

Special Students

A Special Student is defined as a student who is not working toward a degree at California Baptist University. Students offered Special Student status are eligible to enroll for up to 30 semester units. To continue beyond 30 units the student must meet admission requirements for Standard status.

Application Procedure

To be considered for admission, Special Students are required to submit the following documents:

- A completed Special Student Application for Admission
- A $45.00 non-refundable fee

Special Students who later decide to have their units apply toward a degree at California Baptist University must formally make application for traditional student standing with the Office of Undergraduate Admissions. When an applicant has submitted all the required documents, an evaluation will be made, and a decision rendered.

Audit Students

An Audit Student is defined as a student who is not taking classes at California Baptist University for credit. For more information on auditing a class please see the Academic Information section of this catalog.

Application Procedure

To be considered for admission, Audit Students are required to submit the following documents:

- A completed Special Student Application for Admission
- A $45.00 non-refundable fee

When an applicant has submitted all the required documents, an evaluation will be made, and a decision rendered.

International Baccalaureate Credit

Students who score four (4) or higher on a higher level (HL) International Baccalaureate (IB) exam will receive three units of lower division credit for the equivalent course. For more information on International Baccalaureate please see the Academic Information section of the catalog.

Online Programs of Study were established for the specific purpose of serving the needs of an increasing number of adult and non-traditional students seeking higher education. Online Programs are developed in a fully online format at the undergraduate, graduate, and doctoral levels. All programs incorporate a Christian perspective. The Online Programs are designed and delivered in a year-round semester format to accelerate students toward graduation.

When to Apply

The University implements a rolling admissions practice. Prospective students are encouraged to complete the application process at least four weeks prior to the start of their intended session. Online Programs offer two eight-week sessions every semester, providing six admission start dates per year.

Application Procedures

To be considered for admission students are required to submit the following documents:

- A completed Application for Admission submitted online at <https://www.cbuonline.edu/apply>.
- Official transcripts from previously attended colleges and universities, submitted to Admissions.
*An official high school transcript or the equivalent is required for applicants with fewer than twenty-four (24) completed units.

Student Status

Applicants for Online Programs will be considered according to the following classifications:

Standard

Applicants who submit official high school transcripts showing a minimum cumulative grade point average of 2.5 and (if applicable) official college or university transcripts showing a minimum cumulative grade point average of 2.0 (based on a 4.0 scale).

Conditional

Applicants who met standard admission requirement but are missing official transcripts or other documentation may be admitted on a conditional basis.

Provisional

Applicants who do not meet standard entrance requirements may be granted provisional admission under conditions set by the Admissions and Re-entry Committee.

Special Student

Applicants offered Special Student status are eligible to enroll for up to 6 units per session. To continue beyond a total of 18 units the student must meet regular admission requirements. (NOTE: Special Students are not eligible for financial aid.)

Denial

Denial may occur when an applicant does not qualify for admission in the above categories. California Baptist University also reserves the right to deny admission to applicants who are antagonistic with the philosophy and purpose of the University.

Appeals

Appeals on any decision regarding admission should be made in writing and addressed to the Admission and Re-entry Committee in care of the University. All appeals will be heard by the Committee. The appeals may include a personal interview and additional academic transcripts. Once the appeal is reviewed, the Committee will render a final decision.

The Admission and Re-entry Committee will review students who do not meet the requirements for Standard admission. Upon review of the student's file, one of the following decisions will be rendered: Standard Admission, Provisional Admission, or Denial.

Readmit

Students who have attended California Baptist University but have discontinued enrollment for one or more semesters must be approved to readmit to the University. Students must submit an Application to Readmit form, pay the required Readmit application fee, and provide all official transcripts from all other institutions attended since last enrolled at California Baptist University. Additional documents or an interview may be required to readmit. Required department clearances must be obtained prior to the start of the semester the student is seeking to readmit.

Students whose application for readmissions are approved will enter under the catalog current at the time of readmission and will be subject to the admissions and degree requirements outline in that catalog. The University is not responsible for providing courses or programs that have been discontinued.

Audit Students

An Audit Student is defined as a student who is not taking classes at California Baptist University for credit. For more information on auditing a class, please see the Academic Information section of this catalog.

International Undergraduate Admissions

Authorization

California Baptist University is authorized under Federal law to enroll non-immigrant alien students.

When to Apply

Application and the completion of the file for a particular term must be made according to the following deadlines. The closing dates for receiving international student applications and all supporting documentation are earlier than for standard applications due to the additional time needed to process documents through SEVIS.

Session	Deadline
Fall Semester	July 1
Spring Semester	November 1

Application Procedure

To be considered for admission, international students must submit the following:

1. A completed International Student Application for Admission
2. A $45.00 non-refundable fee
3. Official transcripts
 - The University must receive sealed copies of all academic records (including transcripts, mark sheets and grade reports, as well as graduation certificates, diplomas and/or completion certificates) from secondary schools, showing dates of attendance, courses taken and grades received. Transfer applicants are required to submit all official college transcripts from all colleges/universities attended and accompanying documentation. Electronic official transcripts and digital official transcripts sent from a school administrator may be accepted. All records must be accompanied by a certified English translation.

Transcripts must be sent directly from the educational institution to CBU. Transcripts received by CBU from a third party (including the applicant) are unofficial and cannot be used for an application file.

4. Essay or Personal Statement

- Submit a personal statement (minimum 3-5 paragraphs) responding to the following question:
"What interests you the most about CBU and how can our programs, faculty, and location help you achieve your future goal?"

Financial Documentation

Though an admission decision can be provided before financial documents are submitted, international students must submit proof of financial support before an I-20 will be issued. Documentation verifying the applicant's ability to meet financial obligations (tuition, fees, books, room and board, personal expenses and health insurance) for the first year is required by the US Bureau of Citizenship and Immigration Services.

Students must send the following items before an I-20 will be issued:

- The exact amount designated to the applicant for educational purposes.
- Completion of the Affidavit of Financial Support (Sponsor Form).

Language Proficiency

Applicants applying from non-English speaking countries must demonstrate English proficiency in order to ensure a successful experience at CBU. English proficiency can be demonstrated in one of the following ways:

- A recent official test score report with a minimum 71 IBT on the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL). CBU's TOEFL institution code is 4094.
- A recent official test score report with a minimum 5.5 on the International English Language Testing System (IELTS).
- A recent official test score report with a minimum 48 on the Pearson Test of English (PTE).
- A recent official exam score of a B2 (160-180), C1 (180-200), or C2 (200-230) on the Cambridge English Assessment Exam.
- An official test score with a minimum of 430 on the Evidence-Based Reading and Writing section of the Scholastic Aptitude Test (SAT).
- An official test score with a minimum of 16 on the English section of the American College Testing Program (ACT).
- Completion of 24 transferable units from an accredited institution in the US with a GPA of 2.0 and the CBU course equivalent of English composition, ENG113.

Options for applicants that do not meet the English requirement: Applicants who have not demonstrated English proficiency may be granted joint/conditional admission into the undergraduate and Intensive English Program (IEP), CBU's English as a Second Language program. Applicants who are granted joint admission will receive a form I-20 which states they have been admitted to the undergraduate program and will receive English language instruction at CBU through IEP.

All students from non-English speaking countries, upon arrival to CBU, are required to take a university placement test to ensure proper English proficiency for academic success.

Admissions Status

Standard

Standard entrance may be granted to those applicants with a minimum GPA of 2.5 and a TOEFL of 71 IBT. Students admitted under Standard status may take up to 15 units their first semester.

Joint

Joint entrance may be granted to those applicants with a minimum GPA of 2.5 but who do not meet the minimum language proficiency requirement; students will be granted admission to the Intensive English Program and the traditional undergraduate program. After completion of the Intensive English Program, students admitted under Joint status may take up to 12 units in their first semester of the traditional undergraduate program.

Denial

Denial may occur when an applicant does not qualify for admission in the above categories. California Baptist University also reserves the right to deny admission to applicants who are antagonistic with the philosophy and purpose of the University.

Intensive English Program (IEP)

The Intensive English Program (IEP) is a full-time, pre-academic and bridge program which fosters cross-cultural exchange by providing English as a Second Language (ESL) instruction to non-English speaking students in preparation for study at CBU. ESL takes place in a classroom setting, collaborating with International Student Services (ISS) on co-curricular activities outside of the classroom.

Further information on the IEP course progression and ESL courses can be located in the Academic Programs section of this catalog.

Financial Aid

The Purpose of Financial Aid

California Baptist University coordinates and provides financial assistance to students who may otherwise be unable to attend for financial reasons. Financial aid at California Baptist University is administered in accordance with federal, state, and institutional policies. Although every effort is made to provide assistance to as many students as possible, it is important students understand they and their family bear the principal responsibility for meeting educational costs. A federal application is used in determining eligibility for various types of financial aid, including federal, state, and institutional programs.

Various scholarships, grants, work programs, and loans are available for eligible students. These forms of financial assistance are categorized as follows: federal programs, state programs, institutional programs, and private scholarships. Specific information on each of these sources of financial aid is available on the Financial Aid section of the California Baptist University website.

Applying for Financial Aid

Students desiring to apply for federal, state, or need-based institutional aid are required to complete a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) each year. This form is available online at studentaid.ed.gov. The Renewal FAFSA can also be done online at studentaid.ed.gov. All applicants are required to create a FSA ID. A FSA ID gives students access to Federal Student Aid's online systems and can serve as one's legal signature.

Completion of the FAFSA will generate a Student Aid Report (SAR) which is sent directly to the student by the federal government. This report provides information regarding the student's Expected Family Contribution (EFC). The Financial Aid Office will receive the FAFSA information electronically provided that the student listed California Baptist University (school code 001125) on the FAFSA. Generally, the amount of financial aid offered is based on the financial need of the student as determined by the results of the FAFSA. Financial need is defined as the difference between the total cost of attending school (tuition, fees, room, board, books, supplies, and other allowable living expenses) and the Expected Family Contribution (EFC) as determined through the Federal Methodology Need Analysis. A student whose EFC exceeds the cost of attendance may still qualify for financial aid.

Requirements for Awarding

Financial aid funds are limited and are offered on a priority basis. Priority for the academic year will be given to students who are approved for admission and complete their financial aid file by March 2. A completed financial aid file consists of the following documents:

- Results of the FAFSA.
- If requested by the Financial Aid Office, prior year federal tax forms or transcripts from parents and students may be required. This is accompanied by a verification web form. Verification is processed electronically through the University's Student Forms system on InsideCBU.
- Any additional documents required by federal or state agencies.

- All requested documents must be submitted as soon as possible, but no later than 14 days prior to the close of the term.

To qualify for a financial aid offer, undergraduate students must be enrolled in at least six (6) units of degree applicable coursework for half-time status, at least nine (9) units of degree applicable coursework for three-quarter time status, and at least twelve (12) units of degree applicable coursework for full-time status. If enrolled less than half time, students may still be eligible for a portion of their Federal Pell Grant.

Applicants for the Cal Grant programs must file a FAFSA; new applicants must also submit a GPA verification form no later than the deadline established by the California Student Aid Commission (March 2). New applicants who fail to meet this deadline each year are not eligible to receive a Cal Grant.

Applicants for the Dream Act must complete the Worksheet for California Dream Act by the March 2 deadline. Additional documentation may be required. Please visit www.csac.ca.gov for details.

Students who are approved for admission and have completed their financial aid file after the priority deadline will still be considered for financial aid. However, options for preferred aid programs may be limited. The evaluation of a completed financial aid file will result in a Financial Aid Award Offer for eligible students.

Student Rights and Responsibilities

Financial Aid Offer

The Financial Aid Offer is issued to a student after all requested documents are submitted to the Financial Aid Office. Grants and scholarships will be accepted for the student, with the exception of Cal Grant B and Cal Grant B Access, or unless the Financial Aid Office is notified of the student's decision to decline the aid. Acceptance of loan proceeds must be actively confirmed as outlined in the aid offer instructions before funds will be disbursed to the student's account. Participant scholarship recipients may be required to sign a separate agreement before the scholarship will be disbursed.

Students are required to notify the Financial Aid Office of changes in financial, residency or academic status. Changes of this nature will be reviewed and adjustments may be made to the student's Financial Aid Offer. Changes based on marital status may be allowed up to the first day of the academic year.

Students have the opportunity to have their financial aid decision reviewed and explained by their Financial Aid Counselor by requesting an appointment.

Disbursement

Generally, a student's total financial aid offer is divided equally between the Fall and Spring semesters. Federal and state grants, institutional and private scholarships, and student loans will be credited directly to the student's account. Direct loan funds, subsidized and unsubsidized, and Parent PLUS loan disbursements are sent directly to the University.

College seniors attending one semester during their last academic year (graduating early) or attending an additional semester (senior year totaling 3 semesters) are subject by federal regulations to have some sources of Financial Aid prorated based on federally mandated calculations.

Withdrawal from the University

Withdrawal from the University (all classes) during any period of enrollment, whether official or unofficial, may necessitate the return of federal financial aid.

Pursuant to federal regulations (CFR 668.22), a refund calculation will be performed to determine the amount, if any, of Title IV aid (Pell Grant, SEOG, Direct loans, Perkins loans) earned by the student for their attendance up to the date of withdrawal.

The withdrawal process begins with the completion of an official Petition to Withdraw form that is available in the Office of Admissions. Please refer to the Academic section of this catalog for further details of the process.

Unofficial withdrawals encompass those students who fail to initiate and/or complete the official withdrawal process as noted above.

If a student ceases to attend all classes without proper notification to the Office of Admissions or the Office of the University Registrar, the University will consider it an unofficial withdrawal and a refund calculation will be performed to determine the amount of Title IV aid earned and the amount to be returned to the Title IV programs. The student is responsible for any resulting balance owed to the University.

All students who borrow federal student loans and cease at least half-time attendance at the University are required to complete exit counseling at www.studentloans.gov.

Satisfactory Academic Progress - Undergraduate Students

Federal regulations require California Baptist University to establish, publish, and apply standards of Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) for financial aid eligibility. The purpose of measuring and enforcing these standards is to ensure financial aid recipients' progress towards graduation. Students who fail to meet the satisfactory academic progress requirements become ineligible to receive financial aid until they are in compliance with these requirements. To be eligible for financial aid, a student must be in good academic standing, making satisfactory progress toward the completion of a certificate or degree, within a maximum time frame. Students are evaluated annually following the Spring semester of the academic year to ensure the minimum standards are met. Students failing to meet the minimum standards will progress through the aid statuses defined as follows:

Financial Aid Suspension

Status assigned to a student who fails to make Satisfactory Academic Progress by the end of the academic year. The student is no longer eligible to receive financial aid. The student has the right to appeal the suspension. Aid is terminated until student's written appeal is submitted and approved.

Financial Aid Probation

Status assigned to a student who received a Financial Aid Suspension and submitted an appeal which has been approved, allowing the student's aid to be reinstated for a probationary term. The student must complete their probationary term successfully or their aid will be terminated.

It is the responsibility of the student to notify the Financial Aid Office of any status changes, grade changes, summer or winter term classes. If a student has a grade change or takes summer or winter term classes the student must notify the Financial Aid Office. Once the Financial Aid Office has been notified and the student has provided appropriate documentation, the Financial Aid Office can review and reassess the student's financial aid eligibility and Satisfactory Academic Progress status. If a student proves to be meeting Satisfactory Academic Progress due to additional degree applicable classes or a grade change, the student will no longer be subject to SAP suspension and their financial aid will be reinstated. The Financial Aid Suspension status will become void for the term in these situations.

Measure of Progress

Qualitative Measure

Students must maintain a minimum cumulative grade-point average (GPA) of 2.0. GPA's are reviewed at the end of the academic year. Students failing to achieve a minimum 2.0 GPA are given a Financial Aid Suspension status. The student is eligible to appeal the suspension.

If the appeal is approved, the student must continue to earn a minimum 2.0 session GPA to continue making satisfactory progress toward a cumulative 2.0 GPA. A 2.0 session GPA is the minimum standard measurement for continuing progress. The student will need to earn higher than 2.0 session GPA(s) to correct a deficiency.

Students on Financial Aid Probation failing to earn the minimum 2.0 session GPA will be returned to a Financial Aid Suspension status. The student will not be eligible to receive financial aid until the cumulative GPA is raised to a 2.0

Quantitative Measure

Student must successfully complete a minimum of 67 percent of units in which they enroll. Unit completion is reviewed at the end of the academic year.

Grades of F, W (Withdraw), and I (Incomplete), do not demonstrate satisfactory course completion. Challenge exams and audited courses are not considered. Transfer credit that has been officially accepted to complete program requirements will demonstrate satisfactory course completion for quantitative measure (unit requirement). All transfer credit received from other recognized entities will affect the 2.0 GPA qualitative measure requirement of Satisfactory Academic Progress.

Students initially failing to complete 67 percent of their enrolled cumulative units will be given a Financial Suspension. The student is eligible to appeal the suspension.

If the appeal is approved, the student is placed on Financial Aid Probation and must continue making satisfactory progress in each subsequent term according to a specific plan of action determined for the student to reach the minimum qualitative requirement of 67 percent. The student must complete all units attempted within the subsequent term with a minimum GPA of 2.0.

Students on Financial Aid Probation failing to achieve prescribed unit requirement plan in a subsequent term will be given a Financial Aid Suspension. The student will not be eligible to receive financial aid until the successful completion of 67 percent of enrolled unit requirement is achieved.

Maximum Time Frame Measure

Financial Aid recipients will no longer be eligible for aid upon reaching 150 percent of the number of credits needed to complete their degree. The measurement includes all accepted transfer units as well as units completed at California Baptist University. For example, if your published program length is 124 units, you will exceed the maximum time frame when you surpass 186 units.

Readmitting Students

A readmit student that does not have the minimum required GPA for their program will need to refer to the Satisfactory Academic Progress - Traditional Undergraduate Students, portion of this catalog. Students may need to submit a written appeal for approval of a term of Financial Aid Probation. Once the student's written appeal is submitted and approved the student's aid will be reinstated for the probationary term.

Withdrawals and Cancellations

Withdrawal from the semester after the first day of classes counts as a semester attended when determining overall maximum unit completion and minimum unit completion, unless the student drops all classes and does not receive W grades for the given semester. Cancellation of registration on or before the first day of classes does not count as a semester attended when determining maximum unit completion and minimum unit completion. Students must complete their exit counseling at www.studentloans.gov upon ceasing attendance between terms.

Repeated Courses

Financial aid will be given for the course in which a student has not received a passing grade. Once a student has passed the course, they may not receive financial aid to retake the course. Repetition of a passed course will not count toward the student's enrollment status for financial aid purposes.

Concurrent Enrollment

Students attending California Baptist University and another college or university concurrently are eligible for aid at California Baptist University based on the coursework and GPA acquired at California Baptist University only.

Leave of Absence

If a student is approved for a Leave of Absence during the academic year, it is the student's responsibility to meet with the financial aid office to adjust aid appropriately. If the student has borrowed Federal Direct Loans, repayment will begin after six months of less than half time enrollment. A student must complete exit counseling at www.studentloans.gov upon ceasing attendance between terms.

Unusual Enrollment History

The U.S. Department of Education has made efforts to prevent fraud and abuse in the Federal Pell Grant and Student Loan Program by identifying students with an unusual enrollment history (UEH). A UEH Flag indicates whether the student has an unusual enrollment history with regard to receiving Pell Grant funds and/or Direct Loans and is intended to address possible fraud and abuse in the Title IV student aid programs. ALL UEH flags must be reviewed by the University before a student can receive any Federal Student Aid. The University must review ALL UEH student's official transcripts from all schools that they have attended over the past four years, and in some cases may go back further, before a student is cleared to receive any Federal Student Aid.

The specific enrollment pattern of concern to the U.S. Department of Education is where the student attends an institution long enough to receive Title IV credit balance funds, leaves without completing the enrollment period, enrolls at another institution, and repeats the pattern of remaining just long enough to collect another Title IV credit balance without having earned any academic credit.

Some students who have an unusual enrollment history have legitimate reasons for enrollment at multiple institutions. However, such an enrollment history requires a review to determine whether there are valid reasons for the unusual enrollment history.

Appeal Process

Before filing an appeal for reinstatement of financial aid, it is important that students seek assistance from a Student Success Coach to explore ways of eliminating unit deficiencies and to establish a realistic plan towards graduation. At the time of termination, the Financial Aid Office will provide the student with instructions on how to appeal. A copy of the appeal form can be obtained from the Financial Aid Office. When filing an appeal, the student must provide a full explanation, along with documentation, verifying the circumstances that led to the inability to meet the minimum progress requirements. It is important that a definite plan towards graduation is established. An Academic Success Plan should be completed with the assistance of a Student Success Coach and submitted along with the letter of appeal. Should the appeal be approved, it is important that the Academic Success Plan be realistic as the ability to adhere to the plan will be closely monitored. Failure to follow the courses and units outlined may be used as a basis for future denial of financial aid.

If the Appeal is Denied

Students that do not have their appeals approved will receive information regarding other alternatives available to them. Some options include:

1. Continuing enrollment at California Baptist University without any financial assistance
2. Continuing enrollment at California Baptist University with the assistance of private loans. The Financial Aid Office can provide the student with information on these loans.
3. Taking a leave of absence from California Baptist University to make up a portion or all of the deficient units at a Community College. In this case a student will have to file an additional appeal to have aid reinstated once the student has completed the required units and demonstrated the ability to continue at California Baptist University without having incurred any additional deficiencies. The Financial Aid Office recommends that the student speak with Student Success Coach to ensure that any classes taken elsewhere will count towards the student's program.

Institutional Financial Aid Programs for Online Students

Common Requirements for Institutional Programs

With regard to institutional financial assistance, the following common requirements have been established for all students enrolled in Online Programs of study:

1. All scholarships are applied directly to a student's account. No cash distributions are made directly to the scholarship recipient. Scholarships are not transferable to any student other than the recipient.
2. In order to maintain aid eligibility, students receiving any financial aid must maintain satisfactory academic progress, as stated in this catalog.
3. Institutional scholarships are limited and may not be awarded if all available funds have been appropriated.
4. Students must submit all requested documents as soon as possible, but no later than two weeks prior to the end of each Fall semester, Spring semester, and Summer semester.
5. All awards are based on full-time enrollment of twelve (12) units per semester or session. Students enrolled for less than twelve (12) units are eligible to receive aid, prorated accordingly.
6. All institutional aid is tuition-based. If a student receives additional non-institutional tuition-based aid (such as Cal Grant), the amount of tuition-based aid may need to be reduced so the total tuition-based aid does not exceed the cost of tuition.

Institutional Financial Aid Programs for Traditional Undergraduate Students

Common Requirements for all Institutional Aid

1. Students applying for institutional aid are encouraged to apply for other forms of grant-based aid available through federal and state programs.
2. Institutional aid is applied to tuition, fees, and on-campus room and board charges only. Institutional aid consists of grants and scholarships from California Baptist University and is not to exceed the total cost of tuition, fees, and on-campus room and board.
3. Institutional aid is applied directly to a student's account. No cash distributions are made directly to the recipients. Institutional aid is not transferable to students other than the recipient.
4. Institutional aid recipients must maintain at least half-time enrollment in order to remain eligible. For financial aid purposes, half-time enrollment is defined as six (6) units.
5. Institutional aid will be prorated based on the student's enrollment status.
6. University Residency Requirements apply to all students who receive institutional aid. Please refer to the Student Handbook (section 81) for details.
7. Students receiving institutional aid must maintain Satisfactory Academic Progress as stated in this catalog. Students receiving participation scholarships may remain eligible at the discretion of the department.
8. Institutional aid is coordinated and adjusted with other forms of aid and cannot exceed a student's direct cost. If a student is a Cal Grant recipient, institutional aid cannot exceed the student's calculated need per California Student Aid Commission policy.
9. Institutional aid may not be applied to travel/study abroad programs conducted by the University. This does not include the field practicum requirement for Intercultural Studies.
10. Students concurrently enrolled in other institutions are eligible for California Baptist University institutional aid based only on the units being taken at CBU.
11. Institutional aid is awarded for the Fall and Spring Semesters only, unless otherwise indicated.
12. Individual departments may award scholarships for Fall, Spring, or Summer. Eligibility requirements, semesters of availability and amount of aid offered is at the discretion of the department. Students receiving "tuition discount," through their Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) cannot get other institutional aid. Students can only receive the MOU or institutional aid, whichever is greater.

Academic Scholarships - Traditional Programs

Merit Scholarships

Award amounts are listed for students enrolling for the first time at California Baptist University. Merit scholarship policy is established and approved at the highest administrative levels of the University and the scholarships are awarded yearly by entering class. Please note a merit scholarship will never increase for a current student based upon an increased grade point average or increased scholarship amounts of a new entering class. A merit scholarship will remain the same for the student's entire time at the University, provided minimum GPA requirements are met.

Please note: Students are subject to the scholarship policies as outlined in the catalog of the year in which they entered CBU. Students taking a leave of absence from CBU will be subject to their original catalog scholarship policies upon reentering the University. Exceptions to this clause are at the sole discretion of the University.

Merit scholarships fall into two categories:

- First Time Freshman
- Transfer Student

New students are considered first time freshmen if they have under 24 college units from an accredited college or university recognized by the U.S. Department of Education and/or the Council for Higher Education Accreditation.

New students are considered transfer students if they have completed 24 or more units from an accredited college or university recognized by the U.S. Department of Education and/or the Council for Higher Education Accreditation.

First Time Freshman Merit Scholarships

First Time Freshman Merit Scholarships are awarded based on the student's final high school cumulative weighted GPA. Students are placed into one of four Merit Scholarship Tiers:

- Trustee's Scholarship ($15,500) 4.0 GPA and above
- President's Scholarship ($14,500) 3.9 - 3.99 GPA
- Dean's Scholarship ($13,500) 3.3 - 3.89 GPA
- Director's Scholarship ($9,000) 2.95 - 3.29 GPA

Procedure

- Potential recipients must submit final official high school transcripts to the Undergraduate Admissions Office.
- Students must complete a FAFSA and submit all requested financial aid paperwork to the Financial Aid Office should they wish to be considered for need-based sources of financial aid.

Director's Scholarship

Eligibility

- The Director's Scholarship is a merit-based scholarship designed to attract and retain students of exceptional academic ability.
- The scholarship is available only to entering freshmen
- The scholarship is renewable annually provided a minimum 2.0 cumulative GPA is maintained.
- If student's cumulative GPA is below the minimum 2.0 requirement when reviewed at the end of each spring semester, the student will not retain the Director's Scholarship.
- Once the scholarship is lost, it cannot be restored.

Award

- A recipient may receive up to $ 4,500 per semester for the Fall and Spring Semesters
- Scholarships will be awarded initially upon approval from the Admissions Office and are renewable annually as long as eligibility is maintained.

Dean's Scholarship

Eligibility

- The Dean's Scholarship is a merit-based scholarship designed to attract and retain students of exceptional academic ability.
- The scholarship is available only to entering freshmen.
- The scholarship is renewable annually provided a minimum 2.0 cumulative GPA is maintained.
- If the cumulative GPA is below the minimum 2.0 requirement when reviewed at the end of each spring semester, the student will not retain the Dean's Scholarship.
- Once the scholarship is lost, it cannot be restored.

Award

- A recipient may receive up to $6,750 per semester for the Fall and Spring semesters.
- Scholarships will be awarded initially upon approval from the Admissions Office and are renewable annually as long as eligibility is maintained.

President's Scholarship

Eligibility

- The President's Scholarship is a merit-based scholarship designed to attract and retain students of exceptional academic ability.
- The scholarship is available only to entering freshmen.
- The scholarship is renewable annually provided a minimum 2.0 cumulative GPA is maintained.
- If the cumulative GPA is below the minimum 2.0 requirement when reviewed at the end of each spring semester, the student will not retain the President's Scholarship.
- Once the scholarship is lost, it cannot be restored.

Award

- A recipient may receive up to $7,250 per semester for the Fall and Spring semesters.
- Scholarships will be awarded initially upon approval from the Admissions Office and are renewable annually as long as eligibility is maintained.

Trustee's Scholarship

Eligibility

- The Trustee's Scholarship is a merit-based scholarship designed to attract and retain students of exceptional academic ability.
- The scholarship is available only to entering freshmen.
- The scholarship is renewable annually provided a minimum 2.0 cumulative GPA is maintained.
- If the cumulative GPA is below the minimum 2.0 requirement when reviewed at the end of each spring semester, the student will not retain the Trustee's Scholarship.
- Once the scholarship is lost, it cannot be restored.

Award

- A recipient may receive up to $7,750 per semester for the Fall and Spring semesters.
- Scholarships will be awarded initially upon approval from the Admissions Office and are renewable annually as long as eligibility is maintained.

Transfer Merit Scholarships

Transfer student Merit Scholarships are awarded based on the earned cumulative GPA for 24 or more units at a college or University recognized by the U.S. Department of Education and/or the Council for Higher Education Accreditation. Students are placed into one of four Merit Scholarship Tiers:

- Transfer Platinum Scholarship ($10,500) 3.75 GPA and above

- Transfer Gold Scholarship ($9,500) 3.5 - 3.74 GPA

VA Yellow Ribbon Program Scholarship

Description

- The Yellow Ribbon GI Education Enhancement Program is a provision of the Post-9/11 Veterans Education Assistance Act of 2008. The program provides for an agreement between California Baptist University and the Department of Veterans Affairs to award scholarships to qualified VA students to fund tuition and fees that exceed benefits available under the Post 9/11 GI Bill® (Chapter 33). Under the agreement, VA will match CBU's scholarship contribution.

Eligibility

- Student must qualify for the Post-9/11 GI Bill® through Veterans Affairs and elect to receive benefits under the Post-9/11 GI Bill® program.
- Students must qualify for Yellow Ribbon program benefits as defined by the Post-9/11 GI Bill® and Yellow Ribbon GI Education Enhancement Program.

Award

- Recipients may receive varying amounts to be determined by semester enrollment, tuition, and fee charges.
- Yellow Ribbon Scholarships are offered in lieu of CBU funded aid, including previously offered CBU funded academic or other institutional scholarships. However, Yellow Ribbon recipients will remain eligible to receive specific participation scholarships, in addition to the Yellow Ribbon Scholarship. The specific participation scholarships are as follows: athletics related, music, theater, speech/debate, Bachelor of Applied Theology program. The combination of these specific participation scholarships and Yellow Ribbon scholarships will only be funded up to direct charges and books and will not be refundable. If veteran benefits expire prior to graduation, academic or other institutional scholarships may be reinstated as long as academic renewal requirements have been met.
- Recipients will be awarded in the current and subsequent academic years in which the University participates in the Yellow Ribbon Program and the student maintains continued enrollment, conduct, and attendance.
- CBU's undergraduate Yellow Ribbon Scholarship award shall not exceed $10,000 for any given academic year.

Procedure

- Students who qualify for the Post-9/11 GI Bill® and the Yellow Ribbon Program as determined by their VA Certificate of Eligibility should apply directly with the Veterans Resource Center, Office of Student Success.

Policy

- Students who utilize VA Chapter Benefits for tuition and fees at CBU may have their institutional scholarship aid reduced to direct costs. Institutional aid is not refundable and VA Chapter Benefits will be applied to tuition and fees first.

Federal Financial Aid Programs for Undergraduate Students

Common Requirements for All Federal Programs

1. All students applying for federal aid must complete a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). It must be valid and have an official EFC.
2. Federal aid recipients must be a U.S. citizen, permanent resident, or eligible non-citizen.
3. Federal aid recipients must not be in default of a student loan and must not owe for an over payment of any federal educational grant.
4. Federal aid recipients must maintain satisfactory academic progress according to institutional standards as stated in this catalog.
5. Students concurrently enrolled at other institutions will only be eligible to receive financial aid for registered units at California Baptist University, unless there is an approved consortium agreement.

Note: Federal programs are subject to change at any time.

Federal Pell Grant

Description

- The Federal Pell Grant is a federally funded, need-based grant available to undergraduate students as determined annually by the U.S. Congress.

Eligibility

- Eligibility for the Federal Pell Grant is determined by the federal government according to a formula developed by the U.S. Department of Education and approved annually by Congress.
- Students must submit a FAFSA to determine eligibility. Students will be notified of eligibility via the Student Aid Report (SAR).
- If a student has less than 100% of Pell Grant eligibility for the year, then the maximum amount that can be awarded is added to their first term. Any remaining eligible amount is added their subsequent term.
- Students enrolled less than half time may qualify for a portion of their Pell Grant.

Award

- Award amounts vary based on the annual amount approved by Congress and the student's eligibility based on the FAFSA.

Federal Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grant (FSEOG)

Description

- The Federal Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grant is a federally funded, need-based, campus-based grant designed to supplement other sources of financial aid for students who qualify for additional assistance.

Eligibility

- Eligibility is determined by a student's expected family contribution (EFC). Students with the lowest EFC will be awarded first. Priority will be given to students with completed financial aid files. Availability is limited.

Award

- In general, the award is up to $2,000 per year, divided equally among fall and spring semesters of enrollment.
- The semester award amount will be prorated for less than half-time enrollment.

Federal Work Study Program

Description

- Federal Work Study (FWS) is a federally funded, need-based, campus-based work program designed to assist undergraduate and graduate students desiring a job on campus to earn money for their educational expenses.

Eligibility

- Eligibility is determined by a student's financial need as determined by the results of the FAFSA. Availability is limited.

Award

- FWS funds are not disbursed separately to the student, nor applied to the student's account; they are included in the student's regular paycheck. Work Study awards indicate a maximum amount for which a student is eligible. Student's earnings will be monitored each pay period and counted toward their eligibility.
- FWS earnings will not negatively impact FAFSA determined financial aid eligibility in subsequent years.

Procedure

- Students obtain an employment application from Career Services. The application is reviewed by Financial Aid for FWS eligibility. Once employment is obtained, FWS will be applied. FWS amounts are based on hours worked and financial need as determined by the FAFSA.

Federal Direct Loan

Description

- The Federal Direct Loan is a low-interest loan available to students who have financial need as determined by the results of the FAFSA. The loan is made to the student by the US Department of Education through the Direct Loan Program. Students should refer to www.nslds.ed.gov regarding payment details and servicer information for their Direct Loan repayments. Interest rates are subject to change upon congressional and presidential action.

Federal Subsidized Direct Loan Interest Rates - No interest accrues while the student is enrolled in school at least half-time and repayment begins six months after graduating, leaving school, or dropping below half time enrollment.

Federal Unsubsidized Direct Loan Interest Rates - Interest begins accruing after the first disbursement. The student is responsible for any interest accrued but can defer the interest with the principle of the loan. Unsubsidized loans have a fixed interest rate calculated yearly based upon the ten year Treasury note index, plus an add-on determined by congress. The interest rate is capped at 9.5%.

Eligibility

- Students are allowed subsidized loans for 150% of the published time frame for the program of study, up to the aggregate loan limit.
- Eligibility is determined by a student's financial need and grade level.
- First-time borrowers and transfer students must complete entrance counseling before any funds will be disbursed. Upon graduation or whenever a recipient ceases to be enrolled, exit counseling must be completed.
- When a refund is applicable, funds will be disbursed electronically directly to the student's preassigned account or via paper check if necessary.

Award

- See following chart for eligibility amounts.

Annual and Aggregate Loan Limits

Federal Parent Loan for Undergraduate Students (PLUS)

Description

- Federal PLUS loans are available to credit worthy parent borrowers. Loans are made by the U.S. Department of Education. Repayment of PLUS loans begins within 60 days after final disbursement is made to the school unless the borrower requests a loan deferment. Fixed interest rates are determined yearly by Congress, not to exceed 9%. Updated interest rate information is made available at studentaid.gov.

Eligibility

- Eligibility is dependent upon the amount of other financial aid a student receives. Federal PLUS loans are not need-based; however, when added to the student's financial aid, the total may not exceed the student's cost of attendance.

Award

- Under the federal PLUS loan program, a parent may be eligible to borrow up to the difference between University costs and other aid received each academic year.

Note: Additional Direct Loans may also be available for dependent students whose parents do not qualify for a PLUS loan. A PLUS application must have been denied by the US Department of Education, prior to a dependent student receiving any additional unsubsidized loan.

State Financial Aid Programs

Common Requirements for State Programs

- Eligibility is determined by a student's financial need as determined by the results of the FAFSA and cumulative GPA. Please consult the Financial Aid Office for further information regarding eligibility and funding levels.

Award

- Based on eligibility, Cal Grant A funds are awarded for tuition and fees only.
- Amounts are determined annually by the state legislature and administered by the California Student Aid Commission.
- Students interested in pursuing a Teaching Credential may be eligible for a 5th year Teaching Credential extension. Please see the Financial Aid Office for further information.

Cal Grant B

Description

- The Cal Grant B is a state-funded, need-based grant that provides tuition and fee assistance and an access allowance to students from low-income families.

Eligibility

- Eligibility is determined by a student's financial need as determined by the results of the FAFSA and cumulative GPA. Please consult the Financial Aid Office for further information regarding eligibility and funding levels.

Award

- Cal Grant B first-year, full-time recipients receive an access allowance only. The access allowance may vary according to state funding levels. In subsequent years, a Cal Grant B recipient enrolled full-time receives tuition and fee assistance in addition to the access allowance. The tuition and fee assistance award may vary according to state funding levels.
- Cal Grant B first-year recipients who are receiving the access portion only may be eligible to receive the California Baptist University Cal B Assistance grant. The California Baptist University Cal B Assistance is awarded only during the first year of a Cal Grant B award and should not exceed $7,412.
- Amounts are determined annually by the state legislature and administered by the California Student Aid Commission.
- Students have the option to apply the access portion of their Cal Grant B to their outstanding balance on their student account, or the student can request a personal receipt of the funds prior to the funds disbursing to use for educational purposes such as books and supplies. Students may contact the Financial Aid Office for more information regarding the access portion of their Cal Grant B.

Policy for Student Accounts

All student account charges are due and payable by the Payment Due Date. To maintain enrollment, students must complete payment and agree to the terms and conditions of the Tuition and Fee Agreement, in addition to meeting all academic and standard of conduct requirements. The University expects students to cover all charges for the current semester before advancing to a future semester.

California Baptist University offers three payment options to assist students in covering tuition and fee charges. Students may choose to make a payment, set-up a monthly payment plan, and/or use financial aid to cover their balance. International, Special Admit, and Professional Development Students are required to pay their balance in full each semester by the Payment Due Date.

Students who remain enrolled past the last day to drop with refund must cover all charges incurred in accordance with the Policy for Refund of Tuition, Fees, Room, and Board Charges. If a balance exists, a hold will be placed on the student account preventing release of diploma, and future registration until the balance is paid in full with verified funds.

Payment Due Dates

All students should pay their balance by close of business day on the Payment Due Date to avoid a Late Payment Fee.

University Approved Payment Options

Option 1 (Student Account Payment)

California Baptist University accepts the following forms of payment:

Online Payments - Online check payments and credit/debit card payments are accepted online through InsideCBU. Visa, MasterCard, American Express, and Discover are accepted with a convenience fee. Online check payments are accepted with no additional cost. Foreign Currency Payments processed by Convera formerly known as Western Union Business Solutions are also accepted online.

Check Payments - Check payments can be made in the Student Accounts Office or mailed to California Baptist University; Attention: Student Accounts; 8432 Magnolia Avenue, Riverside, CA 92504. The student ID number should be listed on the check. All payments must be received in the Student Accounts Office by the Payment Due Date.

Option 2 (Monthly Payment Plan)

The monthly payment plan enables students to pay all or part of their semester charges in four monthly installments without interest. Payments are due on the 5th of the month. A $35 per semester enrollment fee is required. Re-enrollment by the Payment Due Date is required each semester. Please see the InsideCBU Student Accounts tab for more information.

Option 3 (Financial Aid)

Financial aid includes scholarships, grants, federal loans, and alternative loans. Students are encouraged to register and meet all financial aid requirements at their earliest opportunity. Financial Aid must be awarded and accepted by close of business day on the Payment Due Date. Please see the financial aid section of this catalog for more information.

Tuition and Fee Agreement

All students are required to submit a Tuition and Fee Agreement electronically through InsideCBU. The agreement outlines the student's financial responsibility for covering all student account charges. Students are encouraged to read the agreement and contact the Student Accounts Office with any questions prior to submission.

Delinquent Accounts

All student account charges are due and payable by the payment due date. Failure to make payments of any indebtedness to the University when due, including, but not limited to, tuition, housing or rental charges, student loans, laptop fees, special fees, library or parking fines, is considered sufficient cause, until the debt is settled with verified funds, to bar the student from classes, to record no grades on transcript, to withhold diploma, to dismiss the student, and to hold all records as the University deems necessary. At the completion of each semester, accounts with an outstanding balance are considered delinquent. Interest is charged on all delinquent accounts at a rate of .03% computed daily or 10% per year. In the event an account is turned over to a collection service, the cost of the service and reasonable attorneys' fees will be added to the account. Returning students will not be permitted to register for classes if a balance appears on their account.

Policy for Refund of Tuition, Fees, Room and Board Charges

The Student Accounts Office will automatically process tuition refunds for all eligible students. Tuition refunds are calculated from the date of official withdrawal. A withdrawal is considered official when a completed Petition to Withdraw Form has been submitted to the Admissions Office and processed by the Office of the University Registrar, Financial Aid, and Student Accounts.

Ceasing to attend does not constitute an official withdrawal from a course or from the University. However, a Title IV-unofficial withdraw may be processed, as required per federal regulations, which may necessitate the return of federal financial aid.

California Baptist University expects to deliver instruction to its students through its traditional in-person and online formats. By attending the University, students acknowledge this expectation and understand that the University may be compelled to modify course instruction formats due to circumstances or events beyond the University's reasonable control such as acts of God, acts of government, war, disease, social unrest, and accidents. As such, students attending the University assume the risk that circumstances may arise that mandate the closure of the campus or place restrictions upon the University's delivery of instruction. By attending the University, each student understands and agrees that they will not be entitled to a refund or price adjustment for the cost of course instruction if their courses are required to be provided in a modified format which the University deems appropriate under such circumstances.

Refer to the Financial Aid and Academic Information sections in this catalog for additional information regarding withdrawals.

Tuition, room, and board charges may be refunded or credited per the following schedules:

Graduation Requirements

Graduation Under a Particular Catalog

Students must adhere to graduation requirements listed in the catalog in effect at the time of enrollment into the University. From an academic perspective, a student may choose to use any catalog subsequent to the catalog in effect at the time of enrollment into the University, provided the catalog chosen is not expired. The graduation requirements under student's chosen catalog remain in effect for the student until degree completion or catalog expiration of six years, whichever comes first. All students re-admitted to programs at California Baptist University after officially or unofficially withdrawing, or any lapse of enrollment of more than one semester, will be placed under the catalog current at the time of re-admission and will be subject to the degree requirements outlined in that catalog. The University is not responsible for providing courses or programs which have been discontinued.

At the University's discretion, policies, tuition and fees, and other information may change annually and will apply to all students. Updates regarding current policies, tuition and fees, and other information are available from the Office of Academic Advising, Office of the University Registrar, Student Accounts, Student Services, and other University offices.

Graduation Check List (Bachelors)

Students should review their InsideCBU degree guide on a regular basis to evaluate progress toward graduation. To be considered for graduation, students must:

- Complete all academic requirements for the major, minor, and/or concentration, consistent with the catalog under which student enrolled at the University or subsequently selected
- Complete at least 124 semester units of credit, at least 39 of which must be upper division (300 level and 400 level courses)
- Complete at least 36 units at California Baptist University, at least 30 of which must be upper division (300 level and 400 level courses)
- Earn a cumulative grade point average of at least 2.0 overall with no grade below C- in the major field of study
- Complete all general education requirements
- Complete and submit a graduation application for planned graduation date
- Satisfy all financial obligations to the University
- Be in good academic standing (not suspended or academically disqualified) at the time of completion

Approval for Graduation

Students should submit an application for graduation upon successful completion of ninety (90) or more earned units. Once the application is submitted, the University Registrar will complete a degree evaluation and audit, verifying the student's eligibility to graduate, which qualifies the student to participate in commencement ceremonies. To avoid a

Late Graduation Application fee, Graduation Applications must be submitted by the application deadline. Students submitting applications after the degree posting date will be required to apply for the next eligible degree date. Student's inability to complete degree requirements by the designated degree posting date may require re-application and an additional fee.

Space within each commencement exercise is limited. Students submitting a Late Graduation Application may participate in the immediate commencement on a space availability basis. However, although student's degree will post upon completion of degree requirements, the student may be deferred to the subsequent commencement ceremony.

Graduation Honors

Honors are awarded to baccalaureate degree students according to the following cumulative grade point average: Cum Laude, 3.50; Magna Cum Laude, 3.70; Summa Cum Laude, 3.90. Post-baccalaureate students (Second Major/Second Degree) are not eligible for graduation honors.

Honors are awarded to associate degree students according to the following cumulative grade point average: Honors, 3.50; High Honors, 3.70; Highest Honors, 3.9. To be eligible for graduation honors, associate degree students must have completed at least 30 units of coursework at California Baptist University of which 18 units or more must be letter grades.

Honors announced at the commencement ceremony represent the cumulative grade point average at the completion of the semester prior to the semester of the degree posting. Degrees and honors awarded in the ceremony are conditional upon completion of all course requirements in accordance with university policies.

Degree Posting Dates

The University posts degrees three times each year, regardless of the specific date all work is completed. All degree requirements must be met prior to the posting date. The three approximate posting dates are at the end of the regular fall semester (last day in December), the end of the regular spring semester (first Friday in May), and the end of the regular summer semester (last day in August). Degrees completed between posting dates will be posted at the next scheduled date.

Once the degree is posted, no changes will be made to the transcript.

English Writing Proficiency

All students must demonstrate proficiency in writing standard English. They may do so by earning at least a C- (or demonstrating comparable writing competence) in both ENG 113 - Composition and ENG 123 - Intermediate Composition (or ENG 113E and 123E). Students are placed in composition courses based on high school English grades, SAT/ACT/CLT scores and/or transfer coursework. Students wishing to challenge their placement may take an English placement exam one time prior to the last day to add a course in their first semester of enrollment at CBU. Students are required to enroll in the composition requirements until successfully completed. No student is eligible to graduate unless the Office of the University Registrar's official records show the English proficiency requirements have been met.

Requirement for Units Completed at California Baptist University

Students seeking a bachelor's degree are required to complete 36 units at California Baptist University, of which at least 30 units must be taken at the upper division level (300 level and 400 level courses). Students seeking an associate degree are required to complete 30 units at California Baptist University.

General Education

The General Education curriculum consists of 40-55 units of coursework designed to provide the student with a strong and diverse academic preparation. In keeping with the ideal of a liberal arts education, the general education curriculum provides students with a broad exposure to the world of ideas and the arts to secure a foundation for students to successfully move into their major of study. In addition, a decidedly Christian perspective is integrated into the requirements and afford the student an opportunity to develop a Christian worldview.

Upper Division

Students must complete a minimum of 39 units of upper division coursework for graduation of which at least 30 units must be completed at California Baptist University. Upper division requirements can only be fulfilled with courses at the 300 and 400 (Junior and Senior) level. Lower division units cannot be used to fulfill upper division requirements. Upper division requirements for which a student receives an academic variance must be replaced by upper division electives. Students seeking substitutions and exemptions must submit an Academic Variance Form for approval.

Majors and Minors

When completing a major and minor, twenty-four (24) units must be unique to the major, of which at least eighteen (18) must be upper division. Nine (9) upper division units must be unique to the minor. Coursework for credit toward a major, minor, or concentration must be passed with a minimum grade of C- and an overall average in the major or minor of 2.0 or higher. Certain disciplines may also require a minimum grade of C (2.0) in the lower-division prerequisites. Science courses with virtual labs may not meet major requirements.

Double Major

Students who wish to concurrently complete two majors may do so by meeting the following conditions:

1. Students complete all of the required courses listed in the catalog for both majors;
2. Not more than four (4) upper division courses may be common to both majors; and
3. Twenty-four (24) units must be unique to each major, of which at least eighteen (18) units must be upper division.

Second Major

Students who previously earned a baccalaureate degree at another institution and wish to complete an additional major at California Baptist University must complete all requirements for the major as listed in the catalog current at the time of enrollment into the University. The student must complete the regular graduation application process. Students completing a second major will receive a certificate of completion. No certificate is granted for an additional minor.

Additional Major or Minor

Students who previously earned a baccalaureate degree at California Baptist University may complete an additional major or minor by completing all requirements for the major or minor, as listed in the catalog current at the time of readmission to the University. For an additional major, a minimum of twenty-four (24) units must be unique to the major and at least eighteen (18) units must be upper division. Nine (9) upper division units must be unique to the minor. The student must complete the graduation re-application process. Students completing an additional major will receive a certificate of completion. No certificate is granted for an additional minor.

Second Degree

Students seeking a second baccalaureate degree must complete a minimum of thirty (30) distinct units in a second area of major studies. Twenty-four (24) of these units must be at the upper division level (300 level and 400 level courses). A minimum of 154 total units are required for graduation with a second degree. All general education (if different from first degree), prerequisites, supporting courses, and departmental requirements for each major and degree, including units completed at California Baptist University, must be completed.

Electives

An elective course is one which a student takes because of personal interest and is used to fulfill overall degree requirements. Electives may be taken from the regular University courses offered in each department. Students should plan carefully and complete prescribed coursework first to avoid a scenario in which more than 124 semester units are necessary in order to graduate.

Academic Policies

Transfer Restrictions

A maximum of 100 semester units may be accepted in transfer toward fulfilling bachelor degree requirements. Within these 100 units, no more than thirty (30) upper division units may be transferred and no more than ninety (90) lower division units may be transferred. A maximum of thirty (30) semester units is allowable from examinations (AP, CLEP, DANTES, IB). A maximum of eighteen (18) units may be accepted in transfer at the lower division level for college transcript completion of a Basic Peace Officer Standards Training (POST) certificate. A maximum of 45 semester units may be accepted in transfer toward fulfilling associate degree requirements.

The University will evaluate previous college work to determine its relationship to the requirements of California Baptist University. Only coursework completed with a grade of C- or better will be accepted in transfer. Lower division units and units from institutions that do not offer a baccalaureate degree will not be accepted for upper division credit. California Baptist University does not accept transfer work that was not designated as baccalaureate degree-applicable by the issuing institution.

All coursework completed at other institutions will be computed into the California Baptist University cumulative grade point average regardless of course transferability.

Advanced Placement Credit

Students who score three (3) or higher on an Advanced Placement (AP) exam will receive three units of lower division credit for the equivalent course. For the most current AP score information contact the Office of the University Registrar or visit InsideCBU. More information about the AP Program is available on the College Board website at www.apcentral.collegeboard.com.

College Level Examination Program (CLEP) and DSST

Students wishing to receive credit for CLEP or DANTES Single Subject Tests (DSST) must provide to the University an official transcript issued by the College Board or by DSST. It is the student's responsibility to seek clarification of degree requirements before taking an examination. Examinations may not be repeated within six months of the testing date. Additional information about acceptable CLEP and DSST exams and scores is available on InsideCBU.

For the most current CLEP score information, contact the Office of the University Registrar or visit InsideCBU. Check the CLEP website at www.collegeboard.com/clep for testing locations.

Enrollment at Other Institutions

In order to ensure that coursework is transferable to California Baptist University, enrolled California Baptist University students who wish to complete coursework at other institutions and apply this work toward degree requirements at California Baptist University should receive prior approval from the Office of the University Registrar. Coursework completed at another institution without securing California Baptist University's prior approval for the course(s) may not be accepted as transferable. Additional information and appropriate forms are available on InsideCBU.

Credit Hour

California Baptist University defines a credit hour as a minimum of 45 hours of engaged learning time over the duration of a term. This engaged learning time may be in face-to-face meetings, in a prescribed lab or internship/practicum setting, in synchronous or asynchronous online learning activities, hybrid courses, or in independent reading, research, or writing activities.

Course Load

The standard academic load for undergraduate students is 12-18 units. A student may be approved to register for more than eighteen (18) units if the student has 1) a 3.0 cumulative GPA, 2) a minimum 3.0 California Baptist University session GPA in the preceding semester, 3) no outstanding incomplete course work, and 4) is in good academic standing. Permission for overload is granted on a semester-by-semester basis.

Classification of Students

At the beginning of each semester all students are officially classified in the following manner:

Freshman	Any student who has less than 30 semester units
Sophomore	Any regular student who has earned 30-59 semester units
Junior	Any regular student who has earned 60-89 semester units
Senior	Any regular student who has earned 90 or more semester units
Graduate	Any regular student who has completed a bachelor's degree and is studying in a post-baccalaureate credential or certificate program, a master's program, or a doctoral program.

Scholastic Regulations

An undergraduate student must maintain scholastic standards to remain enrolled at California Baptist University. A student must earn a minimum cumulative grade point average (GPA) of 2.0 to graduate.

Academic Probation

A student who does not maintain a minimum cumulative GPA of 2.0 or who does not earn a minimum semester GPA of 1.7 will be placed on Academic Probation. A student on Academic Probation will be required to meet with an Academic Advisor to adjust their schedule and develop a course plan. In addition, the student may be required to participate in Academic Course on Excellence (GST 061). A student who earns a minimum cumulative GPA of 2.0 and a minimum semester GPA of 1.7 during the probationary semester will no longer be on Academic Probation. A student on Academic Probation who does not achieve a minimum cumulative GPA of 2.0 in the probationary semester but does earn a 2.3 semester GPA will continue on Academic Probation.

Academic Suspension

A student who fails to earn a 2.0 cumulative GPA and a 1.7 semester GPA OR a 2.3 semester GPA during the probationary semester will be placed on Academic Suspension. Additionally, a student who fails all academic courses during any given semester will immediately be placed on Academic Suspension. To continue enrollment at California Baptist University, a student on Academic Suspension must appeal to and be approved by the Admissions and Re-entry Committee. If approved to continue, a student will be placed on Academic Probation, may be required to participate in Academic Course on Excellence (GST 061), and will be held to the restrictions and requirements of the Academic Probation status.

Academic Disqualification

A student who is suspended for a second consecutive semester will be academically disqualified and may not enroll at California Baptist University for at least one semester. To regain academic qualification, a student must demonstrate the educational skills and motivation necessary to be academically successful. Requirements to demonstrate the necessary skills and motivation will be outlined in each student's appeal decision letter and may include completing 9-12 community college units of academic coursework in a single semester, earning a 2.3 semester grade point average or better. A student who has demonstrated academic success may then appeal to the Admissions and Re-entry Committee for readmission to California Baptist University under Academic Probation status. A student may need to readmit to the University prior to enrolling (see Satisfactory Academic Progress in the Financial Aid section and Readmit in the Traditional On-Campus Admissions section).

Following the close of each semester, a letter of notification will be sent to each student who has a change in academic status. All appeals related to the above regulations should be directed to the Chair of the Admissions and Re-entry Committee in compliance with dates detailed in the letter.

Student Grievances

A student wishing to express concerns or grievances about academic matters involving coursework or interactions with instructors should first contact the instructor involved so that there is opportunity for each to address the specific student concerns. If the student feels unable to approach the instructor directly or does not believe the issue has been fully resolved with the instructor, the student should contact the Department Chair or Dean of the School or College having oversight of that course. If issues remain unresolved at these levels, the student should appeal to the Dean of Academic Persistence and Support.

For disputes involving conduct prohibited under the University's Title IX Policy, students, staff, and faculty are expected to promptly notify the Title IX Coordinator for proceedings consistent with the Title IX Policy.

Academic Dishonesty

Please refer to the California Baptist University Student Handbook, Honor Code.

Credit/No Credit Courses

A student may take up to twelve (12) units of coursework on a "credit/no credit" basis in lieu of a letter grade. ENG 113, 113E, 123, and 123E (English Composition) may not be taken on a "credit/no credit" basis, and not more than two (2) courses in general education may be taken on a "credit/no credit" basis.

Only one course may be taken per semester on a "credit/no credit" basis. All courses in the student's major or minor field must be taken for a letter grade.

Students must choose this grading option during the Add/Drop Period. In order to receive credit for work completed on a "credit/no credit" basis, the work must be equivalent to a C- grade or better. The grade of "credit" does not affect the GPA calculations; a grade of "no credit" has the same effect on the GPA calculation as a failing grade.

Pass/Fail

Some courses are graded on a "pass/fail" basis. The grade of "pass" does not affect the GPA calculations; a grade of "fail" has the same effect on the GPA calculation as a failing grade.

Incomplete Grade Policy

Students may only request an Incomplete from the instructor of the course in cases of extreme and unforeseen emergencies. Students are responsible to request the Incomplete prior to the end of the semester in which the student is taking the course. If the Incomplete grade is not changed to a passing grade within six weeks of the end of the session, term, or semester, the grade automatically becomes an F and credit for the course may be obtained only by repeating the course. Students who receive an Incomplete will not be eligible for semester honors (Provost's or President's Honor Roll). An Incomplete grade may adversely affect students receiving financial aid.

Satisfactory Progress Grade Policy

Students may only request a grade of Satisfactory Progress (SP) for courses that include a requirement of fieldwork, student teaching, and/or observation hours for completion of the course and that requirement cannot be completed within the semester for which the student was enrolled into the course. Students may only petition faculty members for a SP grade when the student is unable to complete the fieldwork during the semester due to conditions outside of the student's control. If a grade of SP is not raised to a passing grade within twelve (12) months of the issuance of the SP grade, the grade automatically becomes an F and credit for the course may be obtained only by repeating the course. An SP grade may not be used to extend the six-week time frame of an Incomplete Grade.

Examinations/Make-up Tests

In the case of serious illness or unforeseen emergency, the student is responsible to communicate with the instructor of the course in which the test was missed as soon as practicable and arrange for a make-up test with the instructor. Make-up tests are at the discretion of the individual instructor.

Repeating Courses for Grade Replacement

For grade replacement to apply, the course must have been originally taken at California Baptist University and repeated at California Baptist University. Courses that may be repeated multiple times for credit are not eligible for grade replacement. Tuition will be charged for the repeated units. (See Financial Aid for information regarding use of student aid to pay for repeated courses.) Students may not repeat a course once their degree has posted.

Courses may only be repeated one time for grade replacement. The second grade earned will be used in GPA calculations regardless of which grade is higher. If a grade of C- or higher is not earned when the course is repeated, the student may repeat the course again; however, subsequent grades will not replace the grade from the first repetition. Subsequent grades will be used in GPA calculations.

Grade Changes

Students who believe a grade has been recorded in error have the responsibility to initiate a grade change request with the instructor within 30 days of the final grade being recorded. Requests may be made for grade changes based on computation and recording errors. Otherwise, grades are final at the completion of the course. No grade changes will be permitted once the degree has been posted.

Student Academic Appeals

Any appeal for a grade change must be accompanied by appropriate documentation to demonstrate the grade was incorrectly recorded or determined. The grade appeal must include documentation that one or more of the following occurred: (1) The instructor made an error in calculating the final grade; (2) The final grade was based on criteria or standards at variance with the course syllabus; (3) The final grade was based on factors other than student achievement or performance. Failure to address one or more of these three reasons is a basis for rejection of that appeal. Students must recognize that they bear the burden of proof in the grade appeal process and that a grade appeal will not be successful without appropriate documentation.

Students wishing to appeal a grade should follow the below regular order of contacts and timelines.

Instructor Appeal

An initial grade appeal should be made directly to the instructor. The student is encouraged to submit a written statement to the instructor clearly specifying the grounds upon which the student disputes the instructor's academic decision.

- Grade appeals for Fall semester courses must be filed by February 1 of the Spring semester immediately following the completion of the disputed course.
- Grade appeals for Spring or Summer semester courses must be filed by October 1 of the Fall semester immediately following the completion of the disputed course.

Department Chair or Dean Appeal

If the student is dissatisfied with the instructor's response, or the instructor does not respond to a grade appeal within 30 days, the student may then appeal the instructor's academic decision to the appropriate Department Chair or Dean of the School or College having oversight of that respective instructor and course. The appeal should be submitted within 30 days of instructor decision or non-response.

Dean of Academic Persistence and Support

If the student is dissatisfied with the decision rendered by the Department Chair or Dean of the School or College, the student may submit an appeal within 30 days of the previous decision for possible mediation. Appeals should be submitted to the Dean of Academic Persistence and Support. Upon receipt of the appeal, copies of the student's supporting evidence associated with the appeal will be obtained and an attempt will be made to mediate a resolution between the student, the faculty, and the Department Chair or Dean.

Student Academic Appeals Committee

If the appeal is unable to be resolved through mediation within 30 days, the student may request the appeal be submitted to the Student Academic Appeals Committee. The student's request must be in writing and specify the student's rationale for contesting the decision rendered by the Department Chair or Dean, as well as include all supporting evidence. Upon submission of a timely request, the Student Academic Appeals Committee will convene and render a recommendation within 15 days.

The Student Academic Appeals Committee will convene and review all written documentation and evidence. The committee will receive the responses from previous appeals and have the discretion to request additional information prior to the committee meeting from the student, instructor, chair, or dean. The committee will make its recommendation based solely on the documentation submitted. Students are not permitted to attend the meeting or present before the committee.

Vice President of Academic Affairs and Provost

Following the Student Academic Appeals Committee meeting, the committee will make a formal recommendation to the Vice President of Academic Affairs and Provost regarding a resolution. Within 15 days of receiving the recommendation, the Vice President may (1) accept the recommendation, (2) reject the recommendation and issue an independent decision, or (3) request the committee conduct additional investigation and re-review the initial recommendation.

The Vice President/Provost's decision is final and not subject to further appeal.

Quality of work in a course is indicated as follows:

Grade of A	Indicates the highest quality of work and is reserved for outstanding achievement
Grade of B	Indicates superior work done in a sustained and intelligent manner
Grade of C	Indicates average university-level work satisfactorily performed
Grade of D	Indicates the lowest passing grade
Grade of F	Indicates a failing grade
Grade of CF	Indicates a failing chapel grade
Grade of P	Indicates a passing grade
Grade of CP	Indicates a passing chapel grade
Grade of CR	Indicates work attempted under the "Credit/No Credit" grading option and was completed at the C-level or better
Grade of NC	Indicates work attempted under the "Credit/No Credit" grading option that was completed below the C- level
Grade of W	Indicates a withdrawal from the class
Grade of I	Indicates incomplete work
Grade of AU	Indicates the course was audited and not taken for academic credit
Grade of SP	Indicates satisfactory progress in an ongoing course. (Thesis, Project, Student Teaching)
Grade of IP	Indicates the course is in progress
Grade of NR	Indicates no grade has been recorded

Course Grade	Quality Points	Course Grade	Quality Points
A	4.0	D-	0.7
A-	3.7	F	0.0
B+	3.3	CF (Chapel Fail)	0.0
B	3.0	P (Pass)	0.0
B-	2.7	CP (Chapel Pass)	0.0
C+	2.3	CR (Credit)	0.0
C	2.0	NC (No Credit)	0.0
C-	1.7	W (Withdrawal)	0.0
D+	1.3	I (Incomplete)	0.0
D	1.0	SP (Satisfactory Progress)	0.0

Semester Honors

Each semester the University awards the President's Honor Roll and the Provost's Honor Roll to students who achieve academic excellence. In order to qualify for the President's Honor Roll a student must earn a session GPA of 4.0 while taking a minimum of 12 units of graded coursework (not P/F, CR/NC, AU, etc.) and maintaining satisfactory scholastic standing. In order to qualify for the Provost's Honor Roll a student must earn a session GPA of at least 3.6 while taking a minimum of 12 units of graded coursework (not P/F, CR/NC, AU, etc.) and maintaining satisfactory scholastic standing. All courses taken during a given semester must be successfully completed; any failing grade (including chapel fail and NC) or Incomplete will disqualify the student for semester honors. Post-baccalaureate students are not eligible for semester honors. Students will not be eligible for the Provost's or President's Honor Roll if they elect to Petition for an Incomplete. Semester honors will be posted on the transcript.

Grade Reports

Grade reports are available to students through InsideCBU upon the completion of the semester. Students may view grades by accessing their Degree Guide in InsideCBU. The University does not release any grade information to any person other than the requesting student without the written permission of the student.

Change of Personal Information

Students are expected to file a Student Information Change form with the Office of the University Registrar promptly upon a change of any personal information, including but not limited to student's address, telephone number, or name. If a student does not receive University notices because of an incorrect or outdated address, the student will still be held responsible for the information provided. Students can access the Student Information Change Form on InsideCBU.

Classification and Numbering of Courses

The first digit of the course number indicates the year level of the course: 100-first undergraduate year; 200-second undergraduate year; 300-third undergraduate year; 400-fourth undergraduate year; 500/600-master's level; 700-doctoral level.

University level courses without a year designation are designated by 000.

Course Cancellations and Format Changes

California Baptist University expects to deliver instruction to its students through its traditional in-person and online formats. By attending the University, students acknowledge this expectation and understand that the University may be compelled to modify course instruction formats due to circumstances or events beyond the University's reasonable control such as acts of God, acts of government, war, social unrest, and accidents. As such, students attending the University assume the risk that circumstances may arise that mandate the closure of the campus or place restrictions upon the University's delivery of instruction. Further, all courses at California Baptist University are subject to cancellation, meeting day and time changes, or format changes for reasons such as low enrollment, curriculum updates, or staffing. Students will be notified of course cancellations and schedule changes via their California Baptist University LancerMail account.

Study Abroad

Students may receive academic credit for overseas study tours offered by California Baptist University or authorized Study Abroad programs. A maximum of 18 units per semester may be earned for Study Abroad. Non-academic tours will not be considered for academic credit. All students wishing to receive Study Abroad credit must attend a Study Abroad Information Session and process their Petition to Study Abroad prior to the trip's departure. Study Abroad petitions are available from the Director of Academic Engagement. Students will be assessed a Study Abroad per unit tuition rate for tours offered through California Baptist University. Student's participating in other authorized study abroad programs will be assessed for the cost of the program.

Requirements to participate in Study Abroad include:

- First-time freshmen must have completed two semesters of course work at California Baptist University
- Transfer students must have completed one semester of course work at California Baptist University
- Students must be in good standing with Financial Aid, Student Accounts, and Student Services
- Students must meet any minimum GPA requirements established by California Baptist University's study abroad partners

Directed Study and Independent Study

Directed Study will be limited to those courses which are listed in the catalog as part of the University's regular curriculum. Independent Study is limited to original coursework not included in the University's regular curriculum. Approval for the arrangement must include the faculty member, Dean/Department Chair, and University Registrar. In addition to regular tuition, a per credit unit Directed or Independent Study fee will be assessed. Students begin the process by coordinating their request for Directed or Independent Study with a Student Success Coach. A Student Success Coach, in collaboration with the appropriate faculty member, completes and submits the form to the Dean/Department Chair and University Registrar for approval.

Following are California Baptist University's Directed and Independent Study guidelines:

- Junior or Senior academic standing

- 3.0 or better grade point average
- Limit of four (4) units of directed study or independent study in any given semester
- A maximum of nine (9) units of directed study or independent study may be applied toward degree requirements

Internship

An internship is a form of experiential learning that integrates knowledge and theory learned in the classroom with practical application and skills development in a professional setting. Internships provide students the opportunity to gain valuable applied experience and make connections in professional fields they are considering for career paths while giving employers the opportunity to guide and evaluate talent.

Students may enroll in an internship for academic credit at the upper division level with approval and signatures from the faculty member, Dean/Department Chair, and University Registrar. Students are responsible for locating their own internship experience prior to enrollment and are encouraged to utilize the Career Services office for assistance in the process. Minimum enrollment requirements include a 2.0 cumulative GPA and sophomore status.

Internships must be completed within the semester in which both the enrollment and the internship experience occur. Retroactive credit may not be granted for internships previously completed. For current Internship enrollment information, please see InsideCBU Internships.

Challenging a Course for Credit or Exemption

A student wishing to challenge a course by examination or certification should consult the Office of the University Registrar for information. Not all courses offered at California Baptist University may be challenged by exam or certification, and determinations will be made by the appropriate academic dean or department chair.

Students wishing only to be exempt from a course requirement, but not wishing to receive university credit, will be billed the exemption by exam or exemption by certification fee, and no credit will be earned. The exemption by exam fee will be assessed whether or not the exam is successfully passed.

Students who wish to receive credit for the challenged course and who successfully pass the exam will be charged the appropriate tuition and a grade of "Credit" will appear on the transcript. If the exam is not passed, the student will only be charged the exemption by exam fee and nothing will appear on the transcript.

Courses previously attempted at California Baptist University or another institution may not be challenged. Challenge exams may be attempted only once per course and should be completed prior to the add/drop dates. Credit and tuition costs for coursework completed by exam will appear in the semester that the exam is passed. Students may not exceed 30 units of degree credit by challenge exams including AP, CLEP, and DSST, IB, and California Baptist University exams.

Auditing a Course

Students do not earn academic credit for audited courses. Audited courses cannot be applied toward degree requirements. Audited courses appear on the student's transcript and are indicated by an AU in lieu of a credit-bearing grade.

Students may only register to audit a course during the first two weeks of the semester, pending available space in the desired course. Regular withdrawal policies apply to audited coursework.

Post Baccalaureate Credit

Post baccalaureate credit for a course taken as an undergraduate student must be requested prior to the posting of the bachelor's degree. The following criteria must be met in order to grant credit:

- Course(s) were not used to complete a bachelor's degree, second major, minor, emphasis, or concentration
- Student was classified as a Senior (90.0+ units) when courses were completed

Privacy of Student Records

In compliance with the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (FERPA), a student's confidential academic record is available for inspection by the student. See the Office of the University Registrar for further information regarding academic records.

FERPA permits the University to disclose certain information ("Directory Information") without the Student's consent. All other information, including grades, class schedules, tuition charges and fees, grade point average, etc. is confidential and the access is restricted to those persons or agencies defined in FERPA.

Please see Student Handbook for additional information.

Registration Change, Withdrawal, and Attendance Policies

Completion of the registration process constitutes a contract and obligates the student for full payment. The student must complete the appropriate process to add, drop, or withdraw from a course. Students may seek assistance with the registration process, including adding, dropping, and withdrawing from courses, from their Student Success Coach. Students should consult the University Calendar and their Coach for add, drop, and withdraw dates.

A student may submit an appeal to add, drop, or withdraw from a course after the respective period has closed. Approval of such appeals will be granted only in extreme cases where extenuating circumstances are evident and can be substantiated. Contact a Student Success Coach for information on the add and drop appeal process. Contact the Dean of Academic Persistence and Support to initiate an appeal to withdraw from a course after the Withdraw period.

Attendance requirements for each course are defined by the instructor and are outlined in the syllabus. Participation is of paramount importance, and excessive absence may negatively affect the final grade.

Additional information is available for students at InsideCBU Attendance and Withdraw Policies or through a Student Success Coach.

Adding a Course

During the initial Add period a student may add a course to their schedule of courses. Students are responsible for additional charges that may be accrued due to added courses.

Dropping a Course

During the initial Drop period a student may drop a course from their schedule of courses. Ceasing to attend a course does not constitute a drop from the course. Tuition charges are refunded for dropped courses and no grades will appear on the transcript. Dropping a course could result in the reduction of financial aid, including previously awarded aid, which could result in an increase to the student account balance.

Dropping All Courses in a Semester or Session

Students requesting to drop all courses in a semester or session must complete a Petition to Withdraw form prior to the end of the Drop period (see University Calendar), and follow the process defined within that form. Tuition charges are refunded for dropped courses and no grades will appear on the transcript. Ceasing to attend courses does not constitute a drop of courses (see Ceasing to Attend section).

Dropping all courses could result in the reduction of financial aid, including previously awarded aid, which could result in an increase to the student account balance. Refer to the Financial Aid and Student Accounts sections in this catalog for additional information regarding the effects of completing an official withdrawal.

Withdrawal from the University

Students are considered withdrawn from the university if they drop or withdraw from all courses in the current semester after participating in a course on or after the first day of the semester. Students requesting official withdrawal from the University must complete a Petition to Withdraw form and follow the process defined within that form.

Withdraw from a Course

During the initial Withdraw period a student may withdraw from a course from a scheduled course. Ceasing to attend a course does not constitute a withdrawal from the course. Tuition is charged for withdrawn courses and a grade of W will appear on the transcript. W grades do not impact GPA.

Withdraw from All Courses in a Semester or Session

Students requesting to withdraw from all courses in the current semester or session must complete a Petition to Withdraw form and follow the process defined within that form. Semester or Session withdrawal, if initiated prior to the last day of the Semester or Session, will result in grades of W for all courses that have not concluded. Ceasing to attend courses does not constitute an official withdrawal from the University. However, ceasing to attend all courses may result in Return to Title IV financial aid processing, as required per federal regulations.

Refer to the Financial Aid and Student Accounts sections in this catalog for additional information regarding the effects of completing an official withdrawal.

Ceasing to Attend

A student who stops attending a course for which they are officially registered, without following the drop or withdraw procedures outlined above, will receive a calculated grade in that course consistent with the requirements of the course syllabus.

Ceasing to attend all courses may result in Return to Title IV financial aid processing, as required per federal regulations. Refer to the Financial Aid and Student Accounts sections in this catalog for additional information regarding the effects of ceasing to attend without providing notification to the University according to the official withdrawal process.

Leave of Absence

A student who needs to take a leave of absence with plans to return to the University should complete and submit a Petition for Leave of Absence. If approved, a student may leave the University for one semester and return at the conclusion of the leave without completing the readmit process. A student who does not return at the conclusion of the leave will need to complete the readmit process to return to the University at a later date.

Administrative Discretion

The University reserves the right to disqualify, discontinue, exclude, or involuntarily withdraw any student from the University at the discretion of the Provost, the Vice President for Enrollment and Student Services, Dean of Students, or designee.

California Baptist University is concerned about the well-being of all students. Behavior that demonstrates that the student's well-being may be in jeopardy, interferes with the educational efforts of other students, puts fellow students or the institution at risk, or conflicts with California Baptist University's mission to educate all students may result in an administrative withdrawal from the institution.

Office of the University Registrar

The Office of the University Registrar maintains the student's official academic record and assists students with transcripts, letter requests, degree and enrollment verifications, and other requests related to the student's enrollment. The Office of the University Registrar also maintains articulation agreements, completes official evaluation of previous college work, reviews requests for concurrent enrollment transfer approvals, reviews academic variances, processes all applications for graduation, reviews the academic record for final degree completion, and posts completed degrees.

Academic Services

- Annie Gabriel Library
- Student Success Coaching and Advising
- Office of Student Success
 - Disability Services
 - University Tutoring Center
 - University Writing Center
 - Veterans Resource Center

Annie Gabriel Library

The staff, resources, and services of the Annie Gabriel Library enhance the quality of the academic experience available at California Baptist University by supporting the instruction, learning, and research activities of its students and faculty. In addition to the more than 400,000 books (including 280,000 eBooks) in its collection, the library currently provides access to more than 45,000 full-text journal titles through its online databases and subscriptions. Students and faculty can access books, journals, reference resources, videos, and music through the library catalog (OneSearch Catalog), which is available along with many other resources and services through the library Web page. The Annie Gabriel Library houses computer workstations and provides access to the campus wireless network. It participates in local, regional, and national information networks that increase its resource-offerings to the California Baptist University community through its interlibrary loan programs. It houses special collections and archives devoted to Southern Baptist History, Holocaust Studies, Hymnology, and California Baptist University History.

Student Success Coaching and Advising

The Office of Academic Advising assists students with course registration, degree planning, graduation checks, program changes, various academic appeals, and with goal setting as students seek to live their purpose. Student Success Coaches work in cooperation with academic departments and other student support offices to ensure the best possible assistance is provided to students navigating their programs of study and the university. Coaches are available by appointment, walk-in, chat, email, or phone.

Office of Student Success

The Office of Student Success (OSS) hosts a variety of academic support services and resources. OSS includes California Baptist University's University Tutoring Center, University Writing Center, Disability Services Office, and the Veterans Resource Center.

Disability Services

The Disability Services Office is committed to providing support services to achieve equal access to the education experience. Disability Services (DS) approves and coordinates accommodations and services for Students with documented disabilities to help Students acquire skills essential to achieve academic success. Services may include note taking, extended testing time, a quiet testing environment, academic support, and auxiliary aids, i.e., Interpreter, readers/scribes for exams, and textbooks in alternate format.

University Tutoring Center

The University Tutoring Center (UTC) provides additional instruction and academic resources in order to help CBU students succeed in their coursework.

University Writing Center

Writing Center coaches are trained to cultivate purpose-driven writers, communicators, and influencers. They are here to help students develop the necessary process and strategies to become more rhetorical writers, who communicate clearly and persuasively. While they are not editors, the coaches provide useful resources and help students to recognize areas for improvement.

Veterans Resource Center

Strategically located next to the US Army Reserve Officer Training Corps (ROTC) office and Office of Student Accounts, the Veterans Resource Center is co-located with the Office of Student Success to provide ready access to tutoring, testing, and Disability Services. The Veterans Resource Center (VRC) is committed to providing a supportive environment and a committed campus culture to all Student veterans and their dependents. The VRC is devoted to assisting veterans with their transition to post-secondary education. Using veteran educational benefits, VRC staff will process course certification to the Department of Veterans Affairs in a timely and efficient manner. The VRC is dedicated to providing Student veterans/dependents a place to study, relax, fellowship with other veterans, increase peer mentorship, and offer computer access with complimentary printing.

The VRC maintains records for each identified veteran. A record of transfer work is kept on file and the Veterans Affairs (VA) is notified of the transfer work accepted for each veteran.

California Baptist University (CBU) is a participating Concurrent Admissions Program (ConAp) institution, and military credit or experience may provide some equivalency credit in accordance with the American Council on Education (ACE) guidelines.

At the beginning of their first term at CBU, new student veterans and dependents must provide a written request to the CBU School Certifying Official (SCO) to initiate reporting of verification of enrollment and academic progress to the appropriate VA regional office. Continuing students are not required to submit written request to the SCO. Any changes in enrollment or attendance should be reported to the SCO. Satisfactory progress must be maintained as specified in the Scholastic Regulations Section under Academic Policies.

Students who qualify for the Post-9/11 GI Bill® may also qualify for the VA Yellow Ribbon Program Scholarship, details are found within the Financial Aid scholarship opportunities.

Student veterans/dependents requesting their classes be certified under Chapter 33 (Post 9/11 GI Bill®) are required to submit a certificate of eligibility from the VA to the SCO. Student veterans under Chapter 31 Veterans Readiness and Employment (VR&E) case manager should forward a Purchase Order Authorization via Tungsten network directly to the SCO. For a period of ninety (90) days from the beginning of each term, students under Chapters 31 or 33 will not incur any penalty, including the assessment of late fees, the denial of access to classes, libraries, or other institutional facilities, or be required to secure additional financial resources to meet the student's financial obligation which results from delayed VA disbursement.

Student veterans and dependents receiving educational benefits under Chapters 30, 31, 33, 35, and 1606 are required to submit a Student Statement of Responsibility form every semester if they plan to use VA educational benefits at CBU. Students can fill out the form electronically located in the CBU Veterans page, visit www.calbaptist.edu/veterans. Once submitted, the form will go to the veteran's email address. Student veterans and dependents are encouraged to call the VRC for confirmation of receipt.

GI Bill® is a registered trademark of the US Department of Veterans Affairs (VA). For more information about VA educational benefits, visit www.gibill.va.gov.

Military Tuition Assistance

California Baptist University Online Programs are available to active-duty service members of all branches of the Armed Forces through CBU's participation in the Department of Defense Military Tuition Assistance (TA) Benefit Program. For additional information, go to <https://www.cbuonline.edu/students/militarytuitionassistance>.

Other Resources

The OSS also facilitates/coordinates review of Academic Appeals and provides administrative support for the Alpha Chi National Honor Society.

ACC 311 - Intermediate Accounting II

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring & Online

This course has an emphasis on property, equipment, intangible assets, corporations, long-term investments in equity securities, long-term liabilities, accounting for pensions, leases, error corrections, analysis of financial statements, income taxes and financial reporting.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): ACC 310

ACC 320 - Cost Accounting

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring & Online

This course covers budgeting, standard costs, analysis of variances, job order and process accounting, profit centers, capital budgeting, and managerial controls.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): ACC 310

ACC 330 - Governmental and Non-profit Accounting

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring & Online

Covers municipal, school, university, hospital, church, and other forms of governmental and non-profit organizational accounting. Types of funds discussed are general, revenue, capital projects, enterprise, debt service, and others.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): ACC 311

ACC 345 - Managerial Accounting

Units: 3

When Offered: Online

Introduction to managerial accounting concepts and principles, focusing on the development and application of costing concepts as they apply to manufacturing environments. This includes the collection and reporting of cost data used for planning, controlling and decision-making in a business environment.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

ACC 350 - Financial Accounting I

Units: 3

When Offered: Online

A study of accounting principles relating to non-current assets and liabilities emphasizing the measurement and valuation of property, plant and equipment, other long-term assets, and current and long-term liabilities. Emphasis is also placed on the accounting aspects of the operations of sole proprietorships, partnerships and corporations. (This course does not meet the requirements for upper division accounting units within the accounting major).

Grade Type: Letter Grade

ACC 351 - Financial Accounting II

Units: 3

When Offered: Online

A continuation of the study of accounting principles relating to non-current assets and liabilities emphasizing the measurement and valuation of property, plant and equipment, other long-term assets, and current and long-term liabilities. Emphasis is also placed on the accounting aspects of the operations of sole proprietorships, partnerships and corporations.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): ACC 350 (This course does not meet the requirements for upper division accounting units within the accounting major)

ACC 410 - Advanced Accounting

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall & Online

A study of business combinations and consolidation accounting, including the accounting relationships between parent and subsidiary business entities, the processing of intercompany transactions, and elimination entries. Additional topics may include recording foreign currency exchange transactions, translations of foreign subsidiary financial statements and partnership accounting.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): ACC 311

ACC 420 - Accounting Information Systems

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall & Online

A study of accounting and processing controls for automated accounting systems, and developing and implementing an automated accounting system.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): ACC 311 and CIS 270

ACC 430 - Federal Income Tax Accounting

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall & Online

Covers the theory of tax accounting with practical applications to individuals, proprietorships, partnerships, corporations, and fiduciary organizations.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): ACC 251

ACC 470 - Auditing

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring & Online

A study of the attest function performed by independent public accountants. Topics include management assertions, fundamental principles (formerly generally accepted auditing standards), tests of controls and substantive procedures for the accounting cycles, and report forms and opinions. Various techniques are used to study auditing concepts and practices and may include preparing problem sets, analyzing case studies, and performing simulated audit procedures.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): ACC 410

ACC 480 - Accounting Ethics

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall

This course focuses on the ethical and professional responsibilities of CPAs in public and private practice. Ethical reasoning, corporate governance, decision making and ethical frameworks will be examined to provide a base of understanding. The AICPA Code of Professional Conduct and other professional standards will be studied as they apply to the practice of accounting.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): Senior status

ACC 491 - Internship in Accounting

Units: 1-3

When Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer

Under faculty supervision, the student will work in an accounting firm, or in a business, governmental entity or non-profit organization in an accounting area. This is an opportunity for field experience in applying accounting coursework and principles.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): Permission of the Dean

AIR 090 - Leadership Laboratory

Units: 0

When Offered: As offered

Open only to enrolled Air Force ROTC cadets. Cadets must be concurrently enrolled in aerospace studies courses. Designed to allow students to apply leadership techniques and military skills taught in the classroom and to develop their confidence as future military officers.

This course offered through concurrent enrollment at California State University, San Bernardino.

Grade Type: Pass/Fail

AIR 101 - The Air Force Today I

Units: 0.67

When Offered: As offered

Examines the roles and ethical standards expected of an Air Force officer. Presents the opportunities and benefits of being an Air Force officer.

This course offered through concurrent enrollment at California State University, San Bernardino.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

AIR 102 - The Air Force Today II

Units: 0.67

When Offered: As offered

The Air Force organization, structure, and mission with emphasis on the basic skills used by military officers.

This course offered through concurrent enrollment at California State University, San Bernardino.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

AIR 103 - The Air Force Today III

Units: 0.67

When Offered: As offered

Further analysis of ethical standards expected of an Air Force officer with an emphasis on group dynamics.

This course offered through concurrent enrollment at California State University, San Bernardino.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

AIR 201 - The Development of Air Power I

Units: 0.67

When Offered: As offered

Development of air power technology and tactics from 1900 through the Vietnam War and its impact on military thought.

This course offered through concurrent enrollment at California State University, San Bernardino.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

AIR 202 - The Development of Air Power II

Units: 0.67

When Offered: As offered

Development of air power technology and tactics from the Vietnam War to present and its impact on military thought.

This course offered through concurrent enrollment at California State University, San Bernardino.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

AIR 203 - The Development of Air Power III

Units: 0.67

When Offered: As offered

In-depth discussion of values and public expectations as they relate to military officers.

This course offered through concurrent enrollment at California State University, San Bernardino.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

AIR 301 - Air Force Leadership and Management I

Units: 2

When Offered: As offered

Principles and functions of management and leadership. Introduction to "Total Quality Management."

This course offered through concurrent enrollment at California State University, San Bernardino.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

AIR 302 - Air Force Leadership and Management II

Units: 2

When Offered: As offered

"Quality Air Force" initiatives, procedures, and applications.

This course offered through concurrent enrollment at California State University, San Bernardino.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

AIR 303 - Air Force Leadership and Management III

Units: 2

When Offered: As offered

Ethics in modern society and the military, including the "Standards of Conduct" and the principles of modern war.

This course offered through concurrent enrollment at California State University, San Bernardino.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

AIR 401 - National Security Forces in Contemporary American Society I

Units: 2

When Offered: As offered

Forces and issues that influences policy decisions and application of military force. The impact of the executive branch and Congress on military operations.

This course offered through concurrent enrollment at California State University, San Bernardino.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

AIR 402 - National Security Forces in Contemporary American Society II

Units: 2

When Offered: As offered

Geopolitical influences on U.S. political decision making and the use of military force.

This course offered through concurrent enrollment at California State University, San Bernardino.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

AIR 403 - National Security Forces in Contemporary American Society III

Units: 2

When Offered: As offered

Basic knowledge necessary for effective military leadership including consideration of legal issues and the military judicial system.

This course offered through concurrent enrollment at California State University, San Bernardino.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

ALH 301 - Global Health Engagement Seminar

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

This seminar is the first half of the Global Health Engagement sequence. Students will prepare for a summer global engagement practicum through class lectures and a research paper. Cultural awareness and sensitivity as well as an understanding of global health are key components of this class. Students are required to take this course prior to completion of the global health engagement practicum.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): HSC 100

ALH 401 - Global Health Engagement Practicum

Units: 3

When Offered: Summer

The purpose of the global health engagement practicum is to provide students with an opportunity to expand the level of understanding of what it takes to be an international health care professional, and to gain new insight about the commitment it takes to follow the path to becoming an international health care provider. Students will have the opportunity to travel abroad, working with partners in healthcare and health related fields.

Repeatable: May be repeated once for credit

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): ALH 301

ALH 405 - Grant Writing

Units: 3

When Offered: As offered

An examination of the skills required to locate funding opportunities and write and submit grant applications and reports for health promotion and education programs. The course is designed to help students to gain experience and practice in finding grant money and applying for grants to undertake community health projects.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

ASL 115 - American Sign Language I

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall, Spring, & Online

An introductory course designed for students with no previous experience using ASL. Beginning with the alphabet, students will learn the basic components of ASL-fingerspelling, vocabulary, grammar and syntax, expressive and receptive skills, along with Deaf culture and social etiquette.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

ASL 125 - American Sign Language II

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall, Spring, & Online

This course is for students who possess a functional knowledge of fingerspelling, vocabulary formation, placement and directionality. Acquaintance with current and historical aspects of Deaf culture and social etiquette is also assumed. In this course students will refine their expressive and receptive skills, while broadening their understanding of the Deaf world. Must pass with a C- or better to continue in ASL 215.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): ASL 115

ASL 215 - Intermediate American Sign Language I

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall

Students will be introduced to advanced language and vocabulary development with special emphasis placed on sentence construction and expressive skills. The course will provide further development of conversational techniques and use of ASL in normal everyday situations such as the location of items around the home, complaints, making suggestions and requests, and exchanging personal information through life events. This course will also expand the study of Deaf cultural issues. Must pass with a C- or better to continue in ASL 225.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): ASL 125

ASL 225 - Intermediate American Sign Language II

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

This course will introduce students to the art of hand shape storytelling and legends within the Deaf community. This section will include the grammatical use of ASL in sign movements conveyed and modified in the language, how and when to use facial movements; and how body, head and eye movements are used in phrasing and agreement. In this section, students will learn to sign everyday information through description and identification of things and talking about weekend events. Class emphasis will be on expressive and receptive skills.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): ASL 215

ASL 307 - Deaf Ministry

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall, Spring

Demographic and congregational studies suggest that only a fraction of the deaf population has been effectively evangelized in their own primary language. Students will learn practical methods of communicating the gospel to the deaf population using a cultural-linguistic model for deaf ministry.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

ASL 315 - Deaf Studies

Units: 3

When Offered: As offered

An interdisciplinary introduction to the concepts, issues and literary genre of the deaf-world. This course emphasizes the Deaf community as a cultural linguistic people group and the centrality of ASL, heritage and traditions, and values in this community. From a literary and theoretical view, the course locates the field of Deaf Studies within the broader field of Disability Studies by analyzing intersections and differences between the two.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

ASL 325 - American Sign Language Linguistics

Units: 3When Offered: As offered

This course offers a comparative analysis of linguistic properties and tendencies of American Sign Language and English. General topics of study include an overview of the historical evolution of sign languages, leading into contemporary thought on phonology, morphology and syntax of ASL. Students will also explore regional and dialectical linguistic variations that occur within sub-communities such as Black, Hispanic and Asian Deaf communities.

Grade Type: Letter GradePrerequisite(s): ASL 225ASL 415 - American Deaf Culture*Units: 3*When Offered: As offered

This course explores the history, traditions and issues of Deaf American culture from its 18th century European origins to contemporary multicultural USA. Utilizing a multilayered approach to learning-lecture, readings, case study, film study, contextual experience and classroom debate-students will analyze the complex web of influences and issues-linguistic, political, economic, educational, religious, medical and social-that form what we commonly refer to as "culture."

Grade Type: Letter GradeASL 425 - Introduction to Interpreting for the Deaf*Units: 3*When Offered: As offered

To be an effective interpreter one needs high levels of skill in the languages being interpreted. This course is full of challenging exercises with videotaped source materials that make ASL skills strong and flexible and prepares students to move on to more advanced skills. Helpful theoretical introduction for each topic, study questions and comprehension sections called "Get to Know the Signer," make these materials a thorough, powerful learning tool.

Grade Type: Letter GradePrerequisite(s): ASL 225ANT 200 - Special Topics in Anthropology*Units: 3*When Offered: As offered

An in-depth seminar on a selected topic within Anthropology.

Repeatable: Course is repeatable for credit with a change in topicGrade Type: Letter GradePrerequisite(s): ANT 225 or BEH 100ANT 225 - Cultural Anthropology*Units: 3*When Offered: Fall, Spring

A general survey of Cultural Anthropology from a behavioral, cognitive, and material perspective and viewed as a social science, focuses on cultural factors that affect human behavior, including a brief overview of the four major fields of anthropology. Topics include cultural change, language, family, religious practices, economic subsistence patterns, and political power systems.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

ANT 315 - Health and Holistic Healing

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall, Spring

This course provides students with a greater perspective of the ways in which various cultures engage with and understand health and illness. Students will gain understanding of the political and economic structures embedded within health systems.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

ANT 320 - Ethnomedicine

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring (even years)

A general survey to the field of medical anthropology, with a special focus on ethnomedicine. Topics covered include cross-cultural views of human health, disease and illness, healing, and ideologies of the body. Theoretical and methodological approaches used by medical anthropologists are also taught as they shed light on different ethnomedical systems. Special focus will be on reading ethnographic materials from Western and non-Western settings to explore how health, illness, and healing are culturally shaped and mediated.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): ANT 225, BEH 100, or permission of the Dean

ANT 325 - Physical Anthropology and Archaeology

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

A general survey of Physical Anthropology, including evolutionary theory, the primate fossil record, primatology, human variability, and genetics. The history, methods, and theories of archaeology are also considered - covering all eras of the human past, from prehistoric to modern times.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

ANT 340 - Theory in Anthropology

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall (odd years)

This course addresses anthropological theory in a historical context and explores how the discipline has developed over time. Theories of culture are the main focus, though archeological, physical, and linguistic anthropological theories are discussed. Approaches to understanding human behavior from cognitive, material, and behavioral approaches are central.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): ANT 225 or BEH 100

ANT 350 - Language and Culture

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

An examination of the relationship between culture and language including a basic understanding of language, the development of language, linguistic aspects of culture and how the symbiosis of language and culture affect individuals, groups and nations.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

ANT 360 - Globalization and Culture

Units: 3When Offered: Spring (even years)

This course explores the nature of globalization from multiple perspectives, but especially as evidenced in increasingly dynamic national and ethnic identities, (im)migration, economic disparity, and social systems. Students consider how various cultural elements (including gender ideologies, family systems, religious practices, and economic and political traditions) have been affected as a result of globalization. Using comparative methods alongside anthropological and historical theories, students engage in an interdisciplinary approach to understanding globalization.

Grade Type: Letter GradeANT 399 - Independent Study*Units: 3*When Offered: As offered

An opportunity for students who have demonstrated the ability to do independent work to pursue in depth a topic of particular interest.

Grade Type: Letter GradePrerequisite(s): ANT 225 or BEH 100ANT 400 - Special Topics in Anthropology*Units: 3*When Offered: As offered

An in-depth seminar on a selected topic within Anthropology.

Repeatable: Course is repeatable for credit with a change in topicGrade Type: Letter GradeANT 410 - Economic and Political Anthropology*Units: 3*When Offered: Spring (odd years)

This course will examine patterns of subsistence (economics) and social organization and control. Focusing on case studies and theoretical perspectives in anthropology regarding economics and political systems, students will explore the meaning and function of various approaches to subsistence and social organization. Using the comparative perspective (ethnology), students will also critically assess democracy as it is contextualized among various people groups to consider various forms of political engagement and shape their own views of how cultural groups employ these patterns of culture.

Grade Type: Letter GradeANT 430 - Culture and Personality*Units: 3*When Offered: Fall

This course focuses on the interaction between personal patterns of behavior and social influences, paying particular attention to media influence and a history of social and psychological perspectives. Students will consider the dynamic between environment and heredity (nature/nurture) as they explore several facets of human behavior.

Grade Type: Letter GradePrerequisite(s): ANT 225 or BEH 100ANT 450 - Family and Gender Studies

Units: 3When Offered: Fall (odd years)

This course explores a diversity of family systems, both modern and historic. Focusing on case studies and theoretical perspectives in anthropology, students will explore the tangible roles family and gender play in everyday life throughout the world. Using the comparative perspective (ethnology), students will shape their perspectives about family and gender through the exploration of cultural groups and the extent to which they employ dynamic family and gender roles.

Grade Type: Letter GradeANT 460 - Religion and Culture*Units: 3*When Offered: Fall (even years)

This course examines an anthropological approach to religion and magic, and its relationship to symbolism, myths, sacred spaces, and rituals. This course investigates anthropological theories of religion providing a multicultural analysis of numerous forms of religious expression. Additionally, this course will examine the subject of "religion" as it intersects with economics, politics, gender, secularism, and post-colonialism.

Grade Type: Letter GradeAPT 192 - Foundations for Ministry*Units: 3*When Offered: Fall

This course is an introduction to the expectations of the Bachelor of Applied Theology program. Emphasis is given to spiritual foundations for ministry, including personal and church discipleship. Attention is given to models of discipleship and the student's development of a personal strategy of discipleship.

Grade Type: Letter GradePrerequisite(s): Bachelor of Applied Theology majorAPT 292 - Theology of Pastoral Ministry*Units: 3*When Offered: Spring

This course is an introduction to the practical ministry responsibilities inherent in the role of a pastor. Emphasis is given to the normal functions of the pastor in the observance of the ordinances, wedding, counseling, and conflict management. Emphasis is also given to challenges confronting contemporary pastors in providing pastoral leadership and care for congregations.

Grade Type: Letter GradeAPT 293 - Supervised Church Ministry Internship I*Units: 2*When Offered: Spring

A more intensive application of APT 292 in the Applied Theology program. The student will progressively have the opportunity to focus on the accomplishment of ministry in a specific ministry context, while continuing to integrate various elements of a semester's study.

Grade Type: Letter GradePrerequisite(s): APT 292APT 352 - The Pastor as Worship Leader

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

The Pastor as Worship Leader is a study of the role of the pastor as it applies to the facilitation of worship in the local church. Emphasis will be given to the theology, history, purpose, function, and application of worship, various musical and ministry styles of corporate worship, practical worship ministry and leadership structures, and an empathetic examination of the worship artist, musician, and leader.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

APT 365 - Doctrine of the Church

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall

This course examines key biblical passages related to the church, overviews major historical positions of the church, and assesses related models of pastoral leadership, ministry, and preaching. The emphasis of the course is to help students develop a biblical and practical theology of the church.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

APT 371 - Christian Theology I

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall & Online

An expanded study of the biblical doctrines of God, humanity, and sin.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): Bachelor of Applied Theology or Christian Studies major

APT 372 - Christian Theology II

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring & Online

An expanded study of the biblical doctrines of salvation, the person of Christ, the church, and last things.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): Bachelor of Applied Theology or Christian Studies major

APT 392 - Supervised Church Ministry Internship II

Units: 2

When Offered: Fall

A more intensive application of APT 293 - Supervised Church Ministry Internship I in the Applied Theology program under the guidance of a University supervisor. The student will progressively have opportunities for ministry involvement, mentoring, and ministry skill development. The emphasis of the course is for the student understanding of the priority and implementation of evangelism and missions in the ministry of the church.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): APT 293

APT 393 - Supervised Church Ministry Internship III

Units: 2

When Offered: Spring

A more intensive application of APT 392 - Supervised Church Ministry Internship II in the Applied Theology program under the guidance of a University supervisor. The student will progressively have opportunities for ministry involvement, mentoring, and ministry skill development. The emphasis of the course is upon development of communication skills in preaching and teaching of the Bible.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): APT 392

APT 452 - Advanced Biblical Preaching

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall

This course prepares students in communicating the truth of the ancient Scriptures to modern people. It explores the variations of crafting of expository sermons. The course will examine how sermons can be constructed to reflect the genre of the biblical literature: narrative, poetry, psalms, history, prophecy, parable, apocalyptic, and epistles.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): CST 451

APT 482 - Pastoral Leadership

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring & Online

Pastoral Leadership is an intensive study of the leadership role of the pastor in relation to the nature of the church, leadership models, leadership challenges, and practical leadership strategies.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

APT 490 - Reading Seminar

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall

This course seeks to help advanced theology students focus their attention on major figures, writings, and doctrines in theology. The student will read a major work (or excerpts) of representative theologians such as Augustine, Martin Luther, John Calvin, Jonathan Edwards, Dietrich Bonhoeffer, Carl Henry, and John Stott. Particular attention will be given to the writings, teachings, influence, as well as the theological systems linked to each theologian.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

APT 492 - Supervised Church Ministry Internship IV

Units: 2

When Offered: Fall

A more intensive application of APT 393 - Supervised Church Ministry Internship III in the Applied Theology program under the guidance of a University supervisor. The student will progressively have opportunities for ministry involvement, mentoring, and ministry skill development. The emphasis of the course is the development of leadership skills.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): APT 393

APT 495 - Senior Exegesis Seminar

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

This capstone course for the Applied Theology program is designed to demonstrate student competence in research/writing and in biblical exegesis utilizing interpretive tools, the biblical languages, theological reflection, and practical application to the global and local Church. The student will integrate the various elements of the program into a personal and practical theology/philosophy of Christian ministry.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): APT 492

ARC 120 - Design Communication

Units: 4

When Offered: Spring

The course will establish a base of design concepts and knowledge with an introduction to references and ideas to foster independent inquiry. The course will introduce graphic communications through a series of two dimensional exercises; developing foundational skills.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): CAVAD major

ARC 122 - Design Fundamentals

Units: 4

When Offered: Fall

The course will establish a base of design concepts and knowledge with an introduction to references and ideas to foster independent inquiry. The course will develop foundational appreciation and skills for effective three-dimensional (3D) visual expression through graphic representation.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): Architecture or Interior Design major

ARC 200 - Special Topics in Architecture

Units: 1-3

When Offered: As offered

This course will focus on various studio and lecture courses, which explore and present selected topics in architecture and design.

Repeatable: May be repeated for credit with change in topic

Grade Type: Letter Grade

ARC 210 - Design Studio I

Units: 6

When Offered: Fall

The studio explores and develops conceptual strategies for basic formal and spatial design, emphasizing the role of ordering principles and of fundamental architectonic elements in the implementation of design intentions. Students also will be introduced to foundational processes for developing design projects through the application of formal analytical vocabulary, diagramming, drawing methods and conventions, and three-dimensional modeling.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): ARC 122 and CAVAD major

ARC 212 - Design Studio II

Units: 6

When Offered: Spring

The studio focuses on conceptualization and implementation of architectural ideas in response to environment, landscape, site and enclosure, as applied to a specific program and building type. Students will continue to develop the foundational design processes introduced in previous studios, and will be introduced to the role of rigorous precedent analysis in the generation of architectural ideas.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): ARC 210

ARC 220 - Computer Modeling

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

The course will be an advanced course to develop an awareness and understanding of the role of Building Information Modeling in the student's ability to study design ideas and present those ideas in the various design disciplines. Emphasis will be on the relationship of computer graphics with the design process.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): ARC 120 and CAVAD major

ARC 240 - Architectural History I

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall

The course will cover formal, theoretical, material, pragmatic and conceptual aspects of architecture, cities and art, examined in relation to their cultural contexts, from pre-history to circa 1400.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

ARC 242 - Architectural History II

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

The course will cover formal, theoretical, material, pragmatic and conceptual aspects of architecture, cities and art, examined in relation to their cultural contexts, from circa 1400 to the present.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

ARC 280 - Materials and Methods

Units: 4

When Offered: Fall

Introduction to materials and methods of the construction of buildings emphasizing the integration of design and technology. Includes comprehensive introduction to the construction of buildings and their systems, materials and methods, and their implications on building sustainability and design decision-making. Common construction methods and details are introduced. Material applications in structural and non-structural building components are explored. CAD and BIM systems are used to develop construction documents for a case study building. Skills developed include analysis of building form and function, understanding design and material selection interrelationships, and communication of ideas through drawing.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): Architecture major

ARC 310 - Design Studio III

Units: 6

When Offered: Fall

The studio focuses on conceptualization and implementation of architectural ideas throughout the process of pre-design, programmatic development, site design, and building design. Emphasis will be placed on architectural design as an interpretation and accommodation of various human activities through the exploration of program, perception, scale, proportion, life-safety code and accessibility requirements. Students will continue to develop the design processes introduced in previous studios.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): ARC 212

ARC 312 - Design Studio IV

Units: 6

When Offered: Spring

The studio draws upon the three previous courses in the studio sequence, emphasizing the integrative nature of architectural design. Students will develop and demonstrate their abilities to conceptualize and implement building designs that bring together basic design principles, structural and envelope systems, environmental systems, programmatic and building service systems and egress, through the design of housing.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): ARC 310

ARC 350 - Architectural Theory I

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall

The purpose of this course is to enable students to understand the formation and context of various architectural ideas. This course on architectural theory provides students with a means to propose and navigate architectural discourse as a part of their development as architects.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): ARC 242, ART 241, or 242

ARC 370 - Professional Preparation

Units: 2

When Offered: Spring

Professional Preparation provides an introduction to the profession of architecture through 1) exploration of the structures of practice including how an office functions and expectations of internship experience; 2) exploration of a critical position of the student in relationship to their design work resulting in the craft of portfolio production; 3) development of professional skills and documents required to obtain a job in professional practice setting; and 4) examination of leadership skills as applied within an architectural practice setting.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

ARC 380 - Thermal Environmental Systems

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall

This course deals with the thermal and environmental processes which effect buildings and how the designer responds to or manipulates the thermal environment. It is necessary for the architect to understand those processes, the human response to them and the impact of them. The class will be organized around the why, what and how of these issues and processes.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): PHY 115

ARC 385 - Luminous and Sonic Environmental Systems

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

The course deals with those building elements that pertain to the visual and aural conditioning for the purposes of human use and comfort. The basic principles of light (natural and electrical) and acoustical systems, their integration with other building systems and the impact on the aesthetics of design will be stressed. Plumbing and electrical systems also will be presented. The sustainability of various systems will be explored.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): CAVAD major

ARC 393 - Structural Systems I

Units: 4

When Offered: Fall

Introductory course in statics and strengths of materials for architects. The course provides both qualitative understanding and quantitative understanding, but places a specific focus on the conceptual relationships between structure and form. Topics include static systems, tension and compression, bending and shear stress, combined stresses, strain, cross-sectional considerations, and the physical behavior of structural materials and systems. Additionally, this course integrates the above material with design studio processes via course projects and course format.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): MAT 145 or 245

ARC 400 - Special Topics in Architecture

Units: 1-3

When Offered: As offered

The course will focus on various studio and lecture courses, which explore and present selected topics in architecture and design.

Repeatable: May be repeated for credit with change in topic

Grade Type: Letter Grade

ARC 410 - Design Studio V

Units: 6

When Offered: Fall

This course is an advanced design studio that assumes a high level of proficiency in design process and representation, as well as in other content areas developed in previous studios. This studio focuses on the conceptualization and implementation of comprehensive architectural design. Students will be expected to draw upon all previous coursework in order to thoroughly develop a project from a detailed program.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): ARC 312

ARC 412 - Design Studio VI

Units: 6

When Offered: Spring

The studio is an advanced design studio that promotes the critical, creative and innovative exploration of environmental, human and tectonic factors associated architectural design process and design thinking.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): ARC 410

Pre- or Co- Requisite(s): ARC 480

ARC 460 - International Design Seminar

Units: 4

When Offered: Spring

The course offers students an opportunity to learn, discuss, and analyze historical and contemporary architecture theory, criticism, and design principles on location. Raises and addresses architectural questions of composition, society, politics, and environment. Students may only earn credit for either ARC 460 or 561.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

ARC 462 - International History and Theory Seminar

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring, Summer

The course covers the detailed history of architecture and urban development in the host city, from its founding to the present. Offered only abroad.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Pre- or Co- Requisite(s): ARC 312

ARC 464 - International Architecture Seminar

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring, Summer

The course offers students an opportunity to experience and discuss the development of non-American built environments. Focused on studying architecture in concert with, and through the lens of an allied field of study, the course examines contemporary phenomena in the built environment and its relationship with its inhabitants.

Repeatable: May be repeated for a maximum of six (6) units

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): Permission of the Dean

ARC 464G - International Architecture Seminar

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring, Summer

The course offers students an opportunity to experience and discuss the development of non-American built environments. Focused on studying architecture in concert with, and through the lens of an allied field of study, the course examines contemporary phenomena in the built environment and its relationship with its inhabitants. Students registered in this section will participate in a global practicum experience during which the skills learned throughout the semester will be applied in an international setting. Offered only abroad.

Repeatable: May be repeated for a maximum of six (6) units

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Fee: Additional trip fee(s)

Prerequisite(s): Permission of the Dean

ARC 480 - Advanced Sustainable Systems

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

This course will explore the history, goals, methods of design, quantification, and holistic integration of sustainable systems in architecture. Specific topics include design strategies for energy reduction, passive heating and cooling, comparative energy modeling, photovoltaic systems, envelope design, life cycle analysis, and sustainable vernacular architecture. Through readings, lectures, research, and projects, students will develop the theoretical framework and technical skills to implement fundamental sustainable strategies in architectural design and to evaluate their impact.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): ARC 380

ARC 491 - Architecture Internship

Units: 1-3

When Offered: As offered

The purpose of this course is to expose students to the profession of architecture in a professional office setting, familiarize students with a professional working environment, prepare students for future employment and allow students to start their AXP process.

Repeatable: May be repeated for a maximum of six (6) units

Grade Type: Pass/Fail

Prerequisite(s): ARC 370

ARC 492 - Architecture Integrated Experience

Units: 1-3

When Offered: As offered

This course serves as an alternate to an architectural internship. The purpose of this course is to expose students to the profession of architecture by becoming aware of and having the opportunity to practice the skill sets needed to be a successful architect in the workplace. Further this course aims to prepare students for future employment and allow students to start their AXP process.

Grade Type: Pass/Fail

Prerequisite(s): ARC 370

ARC 493 - Structural Systems II

Units: 4

When Offered: Fall

Introduction to and application of a systems approach of structural design and analysis of buildings for architects. Topics include considerations of steel, concrete, timber, and long-spans structures. Introduction to structural analysis including introduction to typical structural analysis computer programs. Integration of course material with design studio processes via course projects and course format.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): ARC 393

AVN 110 - Introduction to Aviation

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall

A survey of the U.S. aviation industry, including the history of aviation, attributes of an aviation professional, career planning, certification, airports, airspace, air traffic control, and navigational aids.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

AVN 200 - Special Topics in General Aviation

Units: 3

When Offered: As offered

Designed to allow a student to engage in directed in-depth study on issues associated with general aviation.

Repeatable: May be repeated once for credit

Grade Type: Letter Grade

AVN 210 - Aviation Meteorology

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

An in-depth study of aviation weather, including temperature, atmospheric pressure, wind and moisture, stability, turbulence, clouds, air masses, fronts, thunderstorms, and icing. A study of weather charts, weather reports, and forecasts.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

AVN 300 - Aviation Research, Writing and Communication

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall

A review of techniques necessary to complete a research project on an aviation topic, including data collection techniques, literature review procedures, data analysis, proper structure of reports, American Psychological Association (APA) formatting, and the manuscript submission process.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

AVN 310 - Aviation Law and Regulations

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

An in-depth study of various U.S. federal aviation regulations and legislation affecting the aviation industry, including 14 CFR Parts 1, 25, 61, 67, 91, 121, 139, 175, and NTSB Part 830. An examination of the international aviation environment, such as standards and recommended practices promulgated by the International Civil Aviation Organization.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

AVN 322 - Aviation Safety

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

An introduction to the safety regulations, requirements, and environment in the U.S., including an in-depth examination of Safety Management Systems (SMS).

Grade Type: Letter Grade

AVN 390 - Leadership in Aviation

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall

This course studies the many aspect of leadership in aviation. Various theories of leadership will be studied through study at the tactical, operational, and strategic levels. Multiple examples will be studied along with studying timeless principles of leadership. Past as well as current leaders will be studied to assess their success and failures. The student will be challenged to develop their personal aspects of leadership to prepare them to be leaders in aviation.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

AVN 400 - Special Topics in Commercial Aviation

Units: 3

When Offered: As offered

Designed to allow a student to engage in directed in-depth study on issues associated with commercial aviation.

Repeatable: May be repeated one (1) time for credit

Grade Type: Letter Grade

AVN 490 - Aviation Internship I

Units: 1-3

When Offered: As offered

This course provides students the opportunity to perform an internship in the profession of aviation.

Repeatable: May be repeated for a maximum of three (3) units

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): Permission of the Department Chair

AVN 491 - Aviation Internship II

Units: 1-3

When Offered: As offered

This course provides students the opportunity to perform an internship in the profession of aviation.

Repeatable: May be repeated for a maximum of three (3) units

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): AVN 490 and permission of the Department Chair

DSP 330 - Dispatch I

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall

An in-depth study analyzing large aircraft weight and balance and performance charts, high-speed aerodynamics, instrument approach plates and high altitude enroute charts. An introduction to 14 CFR 121 and 117 regulations applicable to domestic and flag carriers will be covered. An analysis of aviation weather will be conducted including interpreting charts and weather theory. This course will prepare students for the ADX FAA knowledge test. Students must be age 21 to receive permission to enroll.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Fee: Additional lab fee

Prerequisite(s): AVN 210, 310, and FLT 119 and permission of the Department Chair

DSP 430 - Dispatch II

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

In-depth study of airline cross-country flight operations. This course will analyze performance limitations including applying MELs and CDLs, runway analysis charts, NOTAMs, PIREPs, RVR reports, operations around hazardous weather, and weight and balance considerations unique to large transport aircraft. Students will be expected to apply weather theory knowledge, aircraft system limitations and airline operation objectives to successful plan flights. Students will be introduced to airline quality FAA approved Air Carrier Operation Specifications and Dispatch Operating Manuals. Students must be age 21 to enroll.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): DSP 330

DSP 497 - Dispatch III

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

Thoroughly integrating knowledge from Instrument Ground School, Turbine Systems, Aviation Laws and Regulations, Aviation Human Factors, Aviation Meteorology and Dispatch I and II, students will apply practical dispatch knowledge and techniques in accordance with 14 CFR 65 Appendix A. Advanced weather theory, aerodynamics, systems knowledge, and airline economic/operation practices will prepares students for the FAA Dispatch Practical Exam. Students must be age 21 to receive permission to enroll.

Repeatable: Yes

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Fee: Additional lab fee

Prerequisite(s): FLT 410

Pre- or Co- Requisite(s): DSP 430

FLT 116 - Private Pilot Ground

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall, Summer

An in-depth study of airframes and aircraft systems, aircraft instruments, safety, aerodynamics, stability, physiology, weather, airports, airspace, emergency operations, ground reference maneuvers, charts and publications, and the principles of pilotage, dead-reckoning, as well as radio and electronic methods of navigation as applied to cross-country flight planning to prepare the student for the FAA private pilot knowledge test.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Fee: Additional lab fee

FLT 117 - Private Flight I

Units: 2

When Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer

First of two flight training courses that lead to Airplane Single Engine Land Private Pilot certificate. This course culminates in the airplane solo.

Grade Type: Pass/Fail

Fee: Additional lab fee

Prerequisite(s): Permission of Department Chair

FLT 118 - Private Flight II

Units: 2

When Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer

Second of two flight training courses that lead to Airplane Single Engine Land Private Pilot certificate.

Grade Type: Pass/Fail

Fee: Additional lab fee

Prerequisite(s): FLT 117

FLT 119 - Instrument Pilot Ground

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall, Spring

An in-depth study of aircraft instruments, preflight and aircraft systems, navigation, holding, approaches, emergencies, and weather reports and forecasts. Prepares student for the FAA instrument rating knowledge test.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Fee: Additional exam fee

Prerequisite(s): FLT 116 and 117

FLT 140 - Time Building Flight Lab I

Units: 1

When Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer
Time Building Flight Lab.

Repeatable: May be repeated one (1) time for credit

Grade Type: Pass/Fail

Fee: Additional lab fee

Prerequisite(s): FLT 117 and permission of the Department Chair

FLT 214 - Instrument Flight I

Units: 2

When Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer

First of two flight training courses that lead to Airplane Single Engine Land Instrument Pilot rating.

Grade Type: Pass/Fail

Fee: Additional lab fee

Prerequisite(s): FLT 118

FLT 215 - Commercial I and Instrument I Airplane Pilot Lab

Units: 1

When Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer

This lab is designed with two purposes. It will be an introduction to Instrument flight and a time building course for the commercial rating. Students will split their time on solo cross countries to build flight time as well as dual flights with their instructor to learn basic instrument flight maneuvers. Fifty flight hours.

Grade Type: Pass/Fail

Fee: Additional lab fee

Prerequisite(s): FLT 118 and permission of the Department Chair

FLT 216 - Instrument Flight II

Units: 2

When Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer

Second of two flight training courses that lead to Airplane Single Engine Land Instrument Pilot rating.

Grade Type: Pass/Fail

Fee: Additional lab fee

Pre- or Co- Requisite(s): FLT 214

FLT 224 - Modern Avionics and Navigational Aids

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall, Spring

An in-depth study of the modern avionics and navigation aids available to pilots, including NEXTGEN, ADS-B, and Garmin 500, 600, and G1000 units, and Aspen Evolution PFD1000.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

FLT 240 - Time Building Flight Lab II

Units: 1

When Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer

Time Building Flight Lab.

Repeatable: May be repeated one (1) time for credit

Grade Type: Pass/Fail

Fee: Additional lab fee

Prerequisite(s): FLT 117 and permission of the Department Chair

FLT 301 - Advanced and Commercial Airplane Pilot Ground

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

An in-depth study of aerodynamics, instruments, engines, and systems of multi-engine aircraft.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): FLT 311, 312, and permission of Department Chair

FLT 311 - Commercial Pilot Ground

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

An in-depth study of aerodynamics, instruments, engines and systems, airports, air traffic control, and airspace, FARs, performance and weight and balance, aeromedical factors, aviation weather, navigation and flight operations. Prepares students for the FAA Commercial Pilot knowledge test.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Fee: Additional exam fee

Prerequisite(s): FLT 119 and 214

FLT 312 - Commercial Flight I

Units: 2

When Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer

First of two flight training courses that lead to Airplane Single Engine Land Commercial Pilot certificate.

Grade Type: Pass/Fail

Fee: Additional lab fee

Prerequisite(s): FLT 216

FLT 313 - Commercial Flight II

Units: 2

When Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer

Second of two flight training courses that lead to Airplane Single Engine Land Commercial Pilot certificate.

Grade Type: Pass/Fail

Fee: Additional lab fee

Prerequisite(s): FLT 312

FLT 314 - Commercial Multi Engine Flight

Units: 1

When Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer

Flight training course that leads to Airplane Multi Engine Land Commercial Pilot certificate.

Grade Type: Pass/Fail

Fee: Additional lab fee

Prerequisite(s): FLT 313 and permission of the Department Chair

FLT 315 - Flight Instructor Pilot Ground

Units: 3When Offered: Spring

An in-depth study of the practical application of flight training skills, including the principles of learning and communication, instructional methods, techniques, and media. Students will prepare a training syllabus and conduct ground lessons. Prepares students for the FAA Flight/Ground Instructor knowledge test.

Grade Type: Letter GradeFee: Additional exam feePrerequisite(s): FLT 311 and permission of Department ChairFLT 318 - Certified Flight Instructor Lab*Units: 1*When Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer

Flight instruction leading to the Certified Flight Instructor (CFI).

Grade Type: Pass/FailFee: Additional lab feePrerequisite(s): FLT 216 and 315FLT 319 - Certified Flight Instrument Instructor Lab*Units: 1*When Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer

Flight instruction leading to the Certified Flight Instrument Instructor (CFII).

Grade Type: Pass/FailFee: Additional lab feePrerequisite(s): FLT 318FLT 326 - Human Factors*Units: 3*When Offered: Spring

A review of the psychological human factors that affect aviation, including individual and organizational factors, and technology-induced errors. Includes common human errors and detection and recovery skills. The chain of events leading up to an aircraft accident are examined in light of specific aircraft accidents.

Grade Type: Letter GradeFLT 328 - Aircraft Systems*Units: 3*When Offered: Fall

An in-depth study of aircraft systems, including engine, fuel, electric, hydraulic, pneumatic, flight control, and computer systems and displays.

Grade Type: Letter GradeFLT 340 - Time Building Flight Lab III*Units: 1*When Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer

Time Building Flight Lab.

Repeatable: May be repeated one (1) time for creditGrade Type: Pass/Fail

Fee: Additional lab fee

Prerequisite(s): FLT 117 and permission of the Department Chair

FLT 350 - Airplane Aerodynamics

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall

This course studies the physical principles of airplane aerodynamics. Course involves examining the factors affecting aircraft performance, stability and control, and special flight conditions often experienced by commercial pilots of fixed-wing aircraft. Emphasized is stall/spin awareness and recovery, and commercial aircraft design and construction issues. This course will deal primarily with low speed aerodynamics or incompressible flow; includes a section on high-speed aerodynamics toward the end of the course.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

FLT 410 - Turbine Systems

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

An in-depth study of turbine systems and turbine aircraft performance.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

FLT 419 - Multi-Engine Instructor Pilot Lab

Units: 1

When Offered: As offered

Flight instruction leading to the Multi-Engine Instructor certificate.

Grade Type: Pass/Fail

Fee: Additional lab fee

Prerequisite(s): FLT 315

FLT 420 - Crew Resource Management

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall

An in-depth study of the complex multi-crew environment, including methods to enhance efficiency via a focus on interpersonal communication, leadership, and decision making. Designed to minimize accidents associated with human error.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

FLT 421 - Mission Aviation

Units: 3

When Offered: As offered

An in-depth study of missionary aviation including piloting in third world countries, cross cultural communication, missionary support, raising support, etc.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

FLT 422 - Turbine Transition Lab

Units: 1

When Offered: As offered

Flight instruction in turbine-powered aircraft and simulator.

Grade Type: Pass/Fail

Fee: Additional lab fee

Prerequisite(s): FLT 314 and permission of the Department Chair

FLT 430 - Airline Prep

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall

Introduces the students to the policies, procedures, work practices, operating practices, and expectations for pilots in the airline industry.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

FLT 440 - Advanced Aircraft Systems

Units: 3

When Offered: As offered

The course provides simulator training in propulsion systems for turbo-propeller aircraft and jets along with basic operation and control of interrelated aircraft systems including use of a Flight Management System (FMS). The course also includes high altitude physiology, airspace, weather considerations, and Crew Resource Management (CRM).

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Fee: Additional course fee

Pre- or Co- Requisite(s): FLT 410 and 420

FLT 495 - Advanced Aerodynamics

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

This course will survey the theory of airplane performance and flight characteristics. The course will provide in class instruction and practical laboratory work in both a simulator and aircraft to quantitatively document aircraft performance, and stability and control. Flight test data reduction and reporting techniques will conclude the learning objectives as students will report on the results of their tests and evaluations of the aircraft.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Fee: Additional course fee

Prerequisite(s): EGR 446 or FLT 350, and Senior status

AIS 305 - Flight Attendant I

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall

An introduction to the role of the flight attendant as a required crew member. Safety responsibilities, customer service, public speaking, crew resource management, and basic emergency medical care are covered in this course.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): AVN 110

AIS 405 - Flight Attendant II

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

This course will present the federal regulations that pertain specifically to flight attendants, as well as the role of inflight services in the management of an airline, flight attendant training requirements, work environment expectations, schedule bids, seniority, small group interaction, and domestic versus international flight attendant roles and expectations.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Fee: Additional lab fee

Prerequisite(s): AIS 305

AIS 495 - Flight Attendant Capstone

Units: 3

When Offered: As offered

A capstone course for the Aviation Inflight Services major, this capstone will include training for the flight attendant.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): AVN 110

AMG 320 - Fixed Base Operations

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall (odd years)

A study of the practical issues associated with managing, operating, and marketing a fixed base operation (FBO).

Grade Type: Letter Grade

AMG 324 - Aviation Security

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall (even years)

An in-depth examination of security regulations, requirements, and environment in the U.S., including the role of the Department of Homeland Security in ensuring aviation security.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

AMG 330 - Airport Management I

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall (odd years)

An in-depth study of 14 CFR P139, Airport certification. Prepares students for the Airport Certified Employee (ACE) Operations exam offered by the American Association of Airport Executives.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Fee: Additional lab fee

AMG 332 - Airport Management II

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring (even years)

An in-depth study of airport finance and administration, planning, construction, environmental, operations, security, maintenance, communications and community relations. Prepares students for the Certified Member (C.M.) exam offered by the American Association of Airport Executives.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Fee: Additional lab fee

Prerequisite(s): AMG 330

AMG 423 - Airport Planning and Design

Units: 3When Offered: Spring (even years)

An in-depth study of planning, including data collection, forecasting, master planning, and environmental issues. Also includes an in-depth study of airside design, including airport capacity, pavement design, runway and taxiway design criteria, FAR Part 77 criteria, and landslide design, including ground access, curbside requirements, and traffic flow.

Grade Type: Letter GradePrerequisite(s): AMG 330AMG 424 - Business Aviation Management*Units: 3*When Offered: Fall (even years)

An in-depth study of business aviation, including transportation needs analysis, aircraft acquisition methods, aviation department management, operations, maintenance, and safety.

Grade Type: Letter GradeFee: Additional course fee (TRAD only)AMG 426 - Airline Management*Units: 3*When Offered: Spring (odd years)

Introduces the airline industry, including the history and unique aspects of the industry. Provides an in-depth study of the structure of airlines, including route planning, fleet selection, maintenance requirements, passenger services, marketing, and pricing.

Grade Type: Letter GradeFee: Additional course fee (TRAD only)AMG 452 - Aviation Finance and Consulting*Units: 3*When Offered: Spring (odd years)

Introduces aviation-specific financial management principles, including financial document analysis, financial ratios, forecasting, financing, asset management, as well as an overview of the consulting industry, including an in-depth study of the many aspects of consulting, such as RFPs, RFQs, and the bid process. Uses spreadsheet, presentation, word processing and internet search tools to analyze financial reports, calculate ratios, solve financial problems, and respond to RFPs and RFQs.

Grade Type: Letter GradeFee: Additional course feePrerequisite(s): ACC 250 and CIS 265AMG 499 - Aviation Management Capstone*Units: 3*When Offered: Spring

Provides a senior culminating experience for aviation management majors.

Grade Type: Letter GradePrerequisite(s): Senior statusUAS 115 - Introduction to Unmanned Aerial Systems

Units: 3When Offered: Fall (odd years)

This course will provide students with insight into the Unmanned Aerial Systems (UAS) industry through the introduction of UAS history, systems elements, regulatory system, COA (Certificate of Approval) process, operations, geospatial data, automation and autonomy, safety assessments, detect, sense and avoid, sensors and payloads, human factors, and the future of UAS.

Grade Type: Letter GradeUAS 215 - Small Unmanned Aerial Systems Flight Lab*Units: 1*When Offered: Spring (even years)

Several stages of flight simulation and actual flight will include EP (external pilot) training, FPV (first person view), and programming the autopilot for autonomous flight.

Grade Type: Pass/FailFee: Additional lab feePrerequisite(s): UAS 115UAS 325 - Medium Unmanned Aerial Systems Operations I*Units: 3*When Offered: Fall (even years)

The course will be a blend of academics and simulator sorties on a specific unmanned aerial system command and control system for medium size UAS and beyond line of site (BLOS) operations. The academics and simulator sorties will include preflight operations, normal command and control, recovery, and emergencies including lost link, lost communications, loss of power, and loss of battery power to mention a few of the aspects. The class will include simulators that allow the student to practice what they have learned in the academics throughout the course culminating in scenario-based training of several operational missions.

Grade Type: Letter GradeFee: Additional course feePrerequisite(s): UAS 215UAS 326 - Medium Unmanned Aerial Systems Operations II*Units: 3*When Offered: Summer

The course will be a blend of academics, simulator sorties, and flight training/sorties on a specific unmanned aerial system command and control system for medium size UAS and beyond line of site (BLOS) operations. The academics, and simulator/flight sorties will include preflight operations, normal command and control, recovery, and emergencies including lost link, lost communications, loss of power, and loss of battery power to mention a few of the aspects. The class will include simulator and flight training that allow the student to practice what they have learned in the academics throughout the course culminating in scenario-based training of several operational missions.

Grade Type: Letter GradeFee: Additional course feePrerequisite(s): UAS 325UAS 400 - Special Topics in UAS*Units: 1*When Offered: As offered

Current topics in unmanned systems.

Repeatable: May be repeated for a maximum of four (4) units with change in topic

Grade Type: Letter Grade

UAS 415 - Unmanned Aerial Systems Mission Planning

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall

Students will learn how to operate any Unmanned Aerial Systems (UAS) platform that uses a Piccolo autopilot system. This course will prepare the student by going over crew positions, user interface of piccolo command center and viewpoint, normal and emergency operations, and mission planning.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Fee: Additional course fee

Prerequisite(s): UAS 215

UAS 425 - Large Unmanned Aerial Systems Operations

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring (odd years)

The course is a blend of academics and simulator sorties on a specific unmanned aerial system command and control system for large size UAS and beyond line of site (BLOS) operations.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

BEH 097 - Research Assistant

Units: 0

When Offered: As offered

This course is designed to provide students a deeper understanding of the behavioral and social sciences by participating in the scientific research process under the individualized mentorship of faculty. Students enrolled in this course will gain valuable insight into the entire research process (conceptualization, measurement development, participant recruitment, data collection, entry, analysis, as well as write-up and dissemination, as applicable), preparing them to engage with the professional fields of behavioral and social sciences and to conduct their own independent research.

Repeatable: May be repeated for credit

Grade Type: Pass/Fail

BEH 100 - Survey of the Behavioral Sciences

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall, Spring

This course introduces the student to the primary Behavioral Sciences of Anthropology, Psychology, Sociology and Christian Behavioral Sciences. The course addresses human beings and behavior from the distinctive theoretical perspectives of each of these behavioral sciences. General subject areas include theory and methodology of Behavioral Science research, human biology and behavior, personality and human development in a socio-cultural context, behavior in the context of ethics and values, and social and cultural change.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

BEH 200 - Special Topics in Behavioral Sciences

Units: 1-3

When Offered: As offered

An in-depth seminar on a selected topic within the Behavioral Sciences.

Repeatable: May be repeated for credit with change in topic

Grade Type: Letter Grade

BEH 250 - Reading and Writing in the Behavioral Sciences

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer, & Online

In this course, students learn to write formal manuscripts using APA style. They also learn to read, understand, and critically evaluate behavioral science research as presented in academic journals and conferences. Learners in this course build foundational skills needed to succeed in their future courses.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

BEH 290 - Introduction to Research Methods

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall, Spring, & Online

This course provides a comprehensive overview of both quantitative and qualitative research methods used in behavioral science research, along with an understanding of the ethical considerations and other challenges involved in good research design. Additional topics include measurement, sampling, and qualitative and quantitative data analysis.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): BEH 250

BEH 333 - Epistemology and Worldview

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall, Spring, & Online

This course examines the basic models of integrating the Christian faith and modern behavioral sciences, including the development of Biblical examples of worldview and epistemology. Emphasis is placed upon the student's development of a personal theory of integration.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

BEH 334 - Cultural Social Service Engagement Practicum

Units: 3

When Offered: As offered

This practicum incorporates instruction to prepare students for a cultural engagement through class lectures and a research paper. Cultural awareness and sensitivity as well as an understanding of a biblical worldview of social problems are key components of instruction. Additionally, the practicum provides an opportunity to travel, working with social service providers in a non-profit organization within a culturally diverse area.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Fee: Additional trip fee(s)

Prerequisite(s): ANT 225, BEH 100, PSY 213, or SOC 213

BEH 334G - Global Social Service Engagement Practicum

Units: 3

When Offered: As Offered

This practicum incorporates instruction to prepare students for their summer global engagement through class lectures and a research paper. Cultural awareness and sensitivity as well as an understanding of a biblical worldview of global social problems are key components of instruction. Additionally, the practicum provides an opportunity to travel abroad, working with social service providers in a non-profit organization within the host country. Students registered in this section will participate in a global practicum experience during which the skills learned throughout the semester will be applied in a global setting. Additional fees will apply.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): ANT 225, BEH 100, PSY 213, or SOC 213, and permission of the Dean

BEH 350 - Statistics for the Behavioral Sciences

Units: 4

When Offered: Online

Introduction to descriptive statistics and probability, probability distributions, estimation, tests of hypotheses, chi-square tests, regression analysis, and correlation with applications in the behavioral sciences. Course emphasizes selection, application, and interpretation of appropriate statistical tests. Includes laboratory applications of statistical software to behavioral science data.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): BEH 290, and MAT 115 or higher

BEH 383 - Statistics and Research Methodology I

Units: 4

When Offered: Fall, Spring

This course introduces the various quantitative and qualitative methodologies utilized in behavioral science research. Also included are the collection, treatment, and interpretation of data in research and testing using a statistical analysis application.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Lecture: 3 hours Lab: 3 hours

Prerequisite(s): BEH 290, and either MAT 115 or STA 144

BEH 385 - Statistics and Research Methodology II

Units: 4

When Offered: Fall, Spring

This course presents some of the more complex quantitative and qualitative methodologies utilized in behavioral science research. It builds on the various concepts of quantitative research, qualitative research, data collection, analysis, and interpretation introduced in previous courses. This course continues the development of student proficiency with basic and intermediate functions of a statistical analysis application.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Lecture: 3 hours Lab: 3 hours

Prerequisite(s): BEH 383

BEH 391 - Intermediate Statistics with Computer Applications

Units: 4

When Offered: Online

Using a statistics software application, this course will examine applied statistics emphasizing correlational methods such as multiple regression and factor analysis, as well as analysis of variance and covariance for analyzing experimental data. Laboratory activities involve selecting the appropriate statistical tests, interpreting the results, and scientific report writing.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): BEH 350

BEH 399 - Independent Study

Units: 1-3When Offered: As offered

An opportunity for students who have demonstrated the ability to do independent work to pursue in depth a topic of particular interest.

Grade Type: Letter GradeBEH 400 - Special Topics in Behavioral Science*Units: 1-3*When Offered: As offered

An in-depth seminar on a selected topic within the Behavioral Sciences.

Repeatable: May be repeated for credit with change in topicGrade Type: Letter GradeBEH 440 - Field Experience*Units: 3*When Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer

A practical application of field experience for students in community or campus responsibilities for the Anthropology, Behavioral Science, Psychology, or Sociology majors in a field placement under professional supervision.

Grade Type: Pass/FailFieldwork: 120 hoursFee: Additional exam fee (TRAD only)Prerequisite(s): ANT 225, PSY 213, or SOC 213 and permission of the DeanBEH 480 - Capstone*Units: 3*When Offered: Fall, Spring

This course provides students the opportunity to integrate and demonstrate learning from their major, evaluate their own strengths and weaknesses, and demonstrate an understanding of the integration of a Christian worldview and their major field of study. Students will evaluate their personal goals, calling and purpose as well as develop skills to move toward successful and fruitful participation in multiple levels of community, including graduate school and careers.

Grade Type: Letter GradeFee: Additional testing feePrerequisite(s): Senior statusBIO 101 - Orientation to the Discipline*Units: 1*When Offered: Fall, Spring

This course is designed to introduce students to the basic skills necessary for academic success in the discipline of Biology and to provide students with an overview of professions in which the major may be applied.

Grade Type: Pass/FailBIO 114 - General Botany with Lab*Units: 4*When Offered: Spring

A study of the physiology, morphology, reproduction, and a survey of the plant kingdom, including fungi, algae, liverworts, mosses, ferns, gymnosperms and angiosperms. Emphasis will be placed on the development, reproduction, and the relevance of plants to humans.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Lecture: 3 units Lab: 1 unit

Fee: Additional lab fee

BIO 143 - Principles of Biology

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer, & Online

An introductory course in biological principles intended for non-majors. Emphasis on scientific method, chemistry of life, interpretation of data, morphology and physiology of animals and plants, genetics, and current biological problems. Meets the general education requirement for natural sciences.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

BIO 143L - Principles of Biology Lab

Units: 1

When Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer, & Online

Laboratory exercises in biology emphasizing basic scientific principles used in biology.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Fee: Additional lab fee

Pre- or Co- Requisite(s): BIO 143

BIO 146 - General Biology I with Lab

Units: 4

When Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer

Topics covered include cell structure and function, genetics, reproduction, and development of animal systems.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Lecture: 3 units Lab: 1 unit

Fee: Additional lab fee

BIO 148 - General Biology II with Lab

Units: 4

When Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer

Includes organismal biology of animals and plants, their behavior, ecology, evolution, and adaptations.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Lecture: 3 units Lab: 1 unit

Fee: Additional lab fee

BIO 153 - Anatomy and Physiology I

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer, & Online

This course is designed for professional nursing and general college students. Included are a general survey of human histology and the study of structure and function of organ systems of the human body, including the integumentary, skeletal, muscular, endocrine, and nervous systems. Structure and function of sensory organs are also included in the course. Should be taken with Anatomy and Physiology I Lab .

Grade Type: Letter Grade

BIO 153L - Anatomy and Physiology I Lab

Units: 1

When Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer, & Online

A laboratory experience designed to illustrate and reinforce topics covered in BIO 153 Anatomy and Physiology I. Included is the detailed study of cells, tissues, the structure and function of the skeleton, the muscles, and the nervous and endocrine systems of the human body using laboratory experience and demonstration.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Fee: Additional lab fee

Pre- or Co- Requisite(s): BIO 153

BIO 163 - Anatomy and Physiology II

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer

A continuation of BIO 153 - Anatomy and Physiology I. Included is the study of structure and function of the circulatory (blood, heart, blood vessels, and circulation), lymphatic, immune, respiratory, urinary, and reproductive systems. Should be taken with BIO 163L - Anatomy and Physiology II Lab.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): (Recommend: BIO 153)

BIO 163L - Anatomy and Physiology II Lab

Units: 1

When Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer

A laboratory experience designed to illustrate and reinforce topics covered in Anatomy and Physiology II. Included is the study of circulatory, lymphatic, immune, respiratory, urinary, and reproductive systems using laboratory experience and demonstration.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Fee: Additional lab fee

Pre- or Co- Requisite(s): BIO 163

BIO 173 - Medical Terminology

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall, Spring

The analysis of the Greek and Latin components of medical and biological terms with the objective of developing skills in word recognition and word building.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

BIO 200 - Topics in Biology

Units: 1-4

When Offered: As offered

This class deals with research projects and topics of current or historical interest which are not normally covered in other established courses. Content variable from year to year.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

BIO 204 - Microbiology for Engineers

Units: 2When Offered: Fall

This course covers the basic science of environmental microbiology using an integrated lecture and laboratory approach. Topics covered include basic microbiological concepts, classification of organisms, chemical composition of life (carbohydrates, nucleic acids, proteins, and lipids), the cell (Prokaryotes, Eukaryotes, cell membrane, organelles), cell biology, types of pathogenic organisms, causes of microbial disease, energy and metabolism, Eubacteria, Fungi, algae, viruses, bacterial growth, microbial environments (earth, air, water, extreme), detection, enumeration, and identification.

Grade Type: Letter GradeFee: Additional lab feePrerequisite(s): CHE 115 and 115LBIO 205 - Human Microbiology*Units: 3*When Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer

A study of microorganisms with special emphasis on bacteria and viruses in the human environment. Should be taken with Human Microbiology Lab.

Grade Type: Letter GradeBIO 205L - Human Microbiology Lab*Units: 1*When Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer

This laboratory experience is meant to demonstrate and reinforce topics covered in Human Microbiology. Students will gain hands-on experience in various microscopy, staining, and culture techniques that will be applied to the identification and classification of various microorganisms.

Grade Type: Letter GradeFee: Additional lab feePre- or Co- Requisite(s): BIO 205BIO 302 - Ecology with Lab*Units: 4*When Offered: Spring

The study of the interrelations of plants and animals in relation to the environment. Field study and local ecology are emphasized.

Grade Type: Letter GradeFee: Additional lab feePrerequisite(s): BIO 114, 143, or 146BIO 305 - Microbiology with Lab*Units: 4*When Offered: Fall, Spring

A general survey of microorganisms with an emphasis on bacteria. The study includes morphologic characteristics, growth, reproduction, metabolism, genetics and taxonomy of bacteria; a general survey of viruses, fungi, protozoans and algae; and microbiology of food, water, soil and industry. Mechanisms of pathogenesis and control of microorganisms of human relevance will also be introduced.

Grade Type: Letter GradeLecture: 3 units Lab: 1 unit

Fee: Additional lab fee

Prerequisite(s): BIO 146 or 153. (Recommend: High school Chemistry or CHE 102)

BIO 313 - Genetics

Units: 4

When Offered: Fall, Spring

The principles of genetics including Mendelian, nature of genetic materials, chromosome mechanics, genetic recombination, and gene action. Emphasis will be placed on the transmission of genetic factors.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): BIO 146

BIO 316 - Comparative Anatomy with Lab

Units: 4

When Offered: As offered

A comparative study of the functional anatomy of the vertebrates; laboratory dissection of representative vertebrates (spiny dogfish, mud puppy, cat).

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Lecture: 3 units Lab: 1 unit

Fee: Additional lab fee

Prerequisite(s): BIO 148

BIO 324 - Developmental Biology with Lab

Units: 4

When Offered: Fall, Spring

Descriptive and experimental study of the vertebrate embryonic development.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Lecture: 3 units Lab: 1 unit

Fee: Additional lab fee

Prerequisite(s): BIO 146

BIO 330 - Cell and Molecular Biology with Lab

Units: 4

When Offered: Fall, Spring

An examination of the structure, ultrastructure, organization, and functions of cells, with emphasis on bioenergetics, membranes, organelles, genes and gene regulation, genetic control of cell division and differentiation, structure and function of biological macromolecules, particularly nucleic acids and proteins. Mechanisms of DNA replication and repair, transcription and translation will be studied, in addition to bacteriophage and eukaryotic virus biology, mobile genetic elements and genetic engineering.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Lecture: 3 units Lab: 1 unit

Fee: Additional lab fee

Prerequisite(s): BIO 146 and 148. (Recommend: CHE 125 and 125L)

BIO 344 - Vertebrate Physiology with Lab

Units: 4

When Offered: Spring

Principles of physiology and the function of vertebrate organ systems with emphasis on human.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Lecture: 3 units Lab: 1 unit

Fee: Additional lab fee

Prerequisite(s): BIO 148, CHE 115, and CHE 115L

BIO 353 - Advanced Human Anatomy and Physiology I with Lab

Units: 4

When Offered: Fall

This course is designed for students with a primary interest in careers in medicine, dentistry, and other allied healthcare professions, and graduate education in biological sciences and biochemistry. Included is the detailed study of histology and structure and function of the integumentary, skeletal, muscular, nervous and endocrine systems, correlated by laboratory experience and demonstration. Lab will incorporate current selected relevant peer-reviewed scientific literature and problem-based learning to facilitate students' introductory knowledge of common pathologies, diagnoses, and treatment, along with integration of virtual human cadaver (anatomage) and advanced physiology equipment.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Lecture: 3 units Lab: 1 unit

Fee: Additional lab fee

Prerequisite(s): BIO 146, 148, CHE 125 and 125L

BIO 363 - Advanced Human Anatomy and Physiology II with Lab

Units: 4

When Offered: Spring

This course is a continuation of BIO 353 and includes the detailed study of the cardiovascular system, respiratory system, immune and lymphatic systems, gastrointestinal system, urinary system, and reproductive systems, correlated with laboratory experience and demonstration. Lab will incorporate current selected relevant peer-reviewed scientific literature and problem-based learning to facilitate students' introductory knowledge of common pathologies, diagnoses, and treatment, along with integration of virtual human cadaver (anatomage) and advanced physiology equipment.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Lecture: 3 units Lab: 1 unit

Fee: Additional lab fee

Prerequisite(s): BIO 353

BIO 380 - Biology Seminar

Units: 1

When Offered: Fall, Spring

This course will introduce and reinforce the skills necessary to perform biological research including discussions of the scientific method, literature research, reading scientific journal articles, analyzing scientific data, reporting research findings in both written and visual formats, critiquing original research, and science ethics. It will also explore field work opportunities available for students. Each student will be required to present a research proposal and/or locate and prepare all necessary documents for entering an internship, field work, or research opportunity.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): Biology major

BIO 399 - Independent Study

Units: 3

When Offered: As offered

An opportunity for students who have demonstrated the ability to do independent work to pursue in depth a topic of particular interest.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

BIO 400 - Invertebrate Zoology with Lab

Units: 4

When Offered: As offered

Particular attention is given to taxonomy, morphologic adaptations, ecology, reproduction, and evolutionary relationships of invertebrates.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Lecture: 3 units Lab: 1 unit

Fee: Additional lab fee

Prerequisite(s): BIO 146 or 148

BIO 412 - Topics in Biology

Units: 1-4

When Offered: As offered

This class deals with research projects and topics of current or historical interest which are not normally covered in other established courses. Content variable from year to year.

Repeatable: May be repeated for a maximum of twelve (12) units with change in topic

Grade Type: Letter Grade

BIO 425 - Cancer Biology

Units: 4

When Offered: Spring

The overall goal of this course is to increase the student's awareness of the molecular, cellular, and genetic mechanisms that lead to cancer formation. This course specifically focuses on the regulation of signal transduction pathways, cell cycle entry and progression, programmed cell death, and ultimately the behavior of cancer cells as they metastasize leading to a terminal disease. Lecture with discussion.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): BIO 146, and 330 or CHE 443

BIO 430 - Laboratory Techniques in Molecular Biology

Units: 2

When Offered: Spring

This laboratory-based course is designed for each student to gain a fundamental knowledge of molecular biology techniques that are regularly used in a research lab setting.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Fee: Additional lab fee

Prerequisite(s): BIO 330 and CHE 443

BIO 435 - Proteomics, Genomics, and Bioinformatics with Lab

Units: 4

When Offered: Spring

This course introduces students to concepts in molecular and genetic basis of cellular processes and the inferences made of these processes through genome and protein database analysis and modeling. Emphasis will be placed on theoretical and experimental approaches used to gain insights in genome structure and function through the use and application of web-based bioinformatics tools developed from advances in the human genome project.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Fee: Additional lab fee

Prerequisite(s): BIO 330 or CHE 443

BIO 440 - Pharmacology with Discussion

Units: 4

When Offered: Fall

This course will introduce the student to basic and clinical pharmacology as related to the promotion of health and alleviation of disease. The course will consider drug absorption, distribution, metabolism, elimination, and pharmacodynamic effects on the human body. Prescription drug classification, function and uses will be introduced with emphasis on the impact medically prescribed drug classification, function and uses will be introduced with emphasis on the impact medically prescribed drugs will have on the patient. Students will increase their understanding of drug design and action, as well as their understanding of disease and pharmacotherapeutic treatment.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): BIO 330, and either 344, 353, or both 153 and 163

BIO 489 - Immunology and Molecular Pathogenesis with Lab

Units: 4

When Offered: Spring

This course is designed for upper division biology students, particularly those enrolled in the pre-medical and pre-health sciences. Various aspects of the immune system, including the cellular, molecular, and physiological aspects of innate and antibody and cell-mediated adaptive immunity, as they relate to pathogenesis will be covered in the course.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Fee: Additional lab fee

Prerequisite(s): BIO 146 and 148. (Recommend: BIO 305 and 330)

BIO 490 - Senior Research in Biology

Units: 1-4

When Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer

This class focuses on laboratory research projects and topics of current or historical interest that are not normally covered in other established courses. Content varies from year to year, and determined by both instructor and student's interest.

Repeatable: May be repeated for a maximum of eight (8) units

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): BIO 148, Sophomore status, and permission of the Department Chair

BIO 491 - Internship in Biology

Units: 1-4

When Offered: As offered

Under the advisement of a faculty member and supervising professional, the student will work or otherwise actively participate in a work/volunteer setting related to their major in Biology. This can be in an industrial, research, healthcare, or other approved setting. Variable (1-4) units can be earned in any one semester.

Repeatable: May be repeated for a maximum of six (6) units

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): Biology major and Junior or Senior status

BIO 499 - Biology Capstone

Units: 2

When Offered: Fall, Spring

This course is designed to be a culminating exercise for students to reflect upon, evaluate, and assimilate knowledge and experience they have gained by participating in a research or internship opportunity prior to this course. Students will prepare a presentation (both written and oral) that will focus on that experience.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): Biology or Biomedical Sciences major and Junior status

BUS 101 - Introduction to Business

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall, Spring

Introduces students to various business disciplines, provides an overview of each function's role in an organization and explores the various career opportunities available within each of these disciplines.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

BUS 200 - Special Topics in Business

Units: 3

When Offered: As offered

This course offers a concentration upon a specific topic in the field of business. The topic varies by semester. It may be taken multiple times with change in topic.

Repeatable: May be repeated for credit with change in topic

Grade Type: Letter Grade

BUS 212 - Economics, Life, and Society

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall, Spring

A fascinating exploration of current topics affecting our daily lives, including standard of living, poverty and inequality, healthcare, education, work and labor, housing, family structure, financial and credit markets, food and agriculture, energy, trade and globalization, and environmental concerns, through an integrated lens of economics, politics, social structures, and ethics, by introducing the historical background, asking critical questions, evaluating information, and developing grounded worldviews.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

BUS 217 - Microeconomics

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall, Spring, & Online

This course studies economic behavior at the individual level. Topics include decision-making processes of households and firms, supply and demand, elasticity, and marginal analysis. Market structure and public policy are examined to evaluate their impact on economic welfare and the allocation of scarce resources.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

BUS 218 - Macroeconomics

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall, Spring, & Online

This course offers a common sense approach to economics, covering basic economic laws and how they apply to our world and everyday life. The course focuses on the overall economy and economic theories that offer explanations for its fluctuations and changes. Also, the course is designed to give the student a sufficient grounding in the terminology, basic concepts, and issues of economics to stimulate interest in further study and provide background in business.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

BUS 237 - Management Based on Biblical Principles

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall, Spring

In this course students learn to identify and apply effective management and leadership behaviors based on principles found in the Bible. This course will equip each student with skills in making biblically-informed choices in realistic business scenarios.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

BUS 291 - International Business Practicum Prep I

Units: 1

When Offered: Fall

This class is designed to prepare students for their international internship. It focuses on developing a four year career road-map, career counseling, and developing goals for the students international business internship program.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Fee: Additional practicum fee

BUS 292 - International Business Practicum Prep II

Units: 1

When Offered: Spring

This class is designed to prepare students for their international internship. It focuses on building the tools a student needs to be successful for finding the career of their choice. Students will develop a resume and cover letter, build a Linked-in profile, update career goals, and engage in a mock interview.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Fee: Additional practicum fee

Pre- or Co- Requisite(s): BUS 291

BUS 303 - Business Finance

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall, Spring, & Online

This course provides an introduction to the principles of financial management. It includes an overview of financial management, financial analysis and control, capital investment decisions, raising funds and cost of capital, sources of long-term funds and cash management principles.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): ACC 250 or 350, and CIS 270

BUS 315 - Business Statistics

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall, Spring, & Online

This course includes the assembling and presentation of statistical data, probability distributions, sampling techniques, and statistical analysis. A project with practical problem solving is required.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): CIS 270, and MAT 115 or STA 144

BUS 334 - International Business

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall, Spring, & Online

An introduction to international business which will expose students to major international business issues, including international trade, cultures, economics, marketing, and communication issues of multinational corporations.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

BUS 337 - Management with Biblical Foundation

Units: 3

When Offered: Online

A study of management and decision-making principles with a strong emphasis on integrating a biblical foundation. Key biblical principles of business and administration are studied.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

BUS 341 - Operations Management

Units: 3

When Offered: Online

The course focuses on the systematic planning, design, and operations of the business process that ultimately impacts the management of production and the delivery of goods and services to end-users. Particular emphasis will give an overview of the business processes, and outlines and supports the understanding of how a business operates. The topics of the course will cover the tactical and strategic sourcing relationships of resources including supply aspect, purchasing, procurement, forecasting, inventory control, quality, sustainability, work-in-process, and negotiations that provide management with the tools to deliver goods and services to end-users.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

BUS 343 - Human Resource Management

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring & Online

This is a survey of the principles and practices involved in supervising employees and administering personnel programs. It includes the study of human resource planning, recruitment, selection, training and development, and compensation and benefits.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

BUS 345 - Nonprofit Management

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall

This course will provide a comprehensive overview of the key topics nonprofit leaders encounter daily. Topics include: the governance and management of nonprofit organizations, the scope and structure of the nonprofit sector, leadership of nonprofits (including church and faith-based organizations), management, fundraising, earned income strategies, financial management, lobbying and advocacy, managing international and global organizations, and social entrepreneurship.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

BUS 349 - Communication Strategy in Management

Units: 3

When Offered: Online

A study of communication theory applied to organizational management and leadership. Students will develop, practice, and apply skills and techniques of communication strategy essential to external and inter-organizational communication, interpersonal and group communication, and written and oral communication.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

BUS 352 - Global Supply Chain Management

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring & Online

The course focuses on the design and management of global supply chain systems that vary in size, thus aiding in the understanding of how to develop assets and configure processes in a firm's supply chain that enable the firm to develop operational competencies that are aligned with competitive strategies to manage the global supply chain. Particular emphasis will focus on the processes that facilitate the structure, development, and management of a global supply chain.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

BUS 356 - Business Communication

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall, Spring

This course emphasizes individual, interpersonal and intercultural communication concepts. Special emphasis is placed on the various functions of communication concepts in a business environment.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

BUS 358 - Business Law

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall, Spring, & Online

This course covers the law of sales, employment, contracts, negotiable instruments, agency and partnerships, corporations, insurance, real and personal property, estates, and bankruptcy.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

BUS 359 - Intellectual Property Law

Units: 3

When Offered: As offered

The course will examine technology policy, patent law, trademark law, copyright law, trade secrets, intrusions on privacy and other personal rights, biotechnology, e-commerce, important contract issues for technology companies, tort liabilities for physical and economic harms, antitrust and anticompetitive conductor.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

BUS 363 - Microfinance

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring (odd years)

This course examines microfinance as a business oriented tool to help alleviate global poverty so that sustainable, systematic change might occur. Students will define and explore the growing practice of microfinance and its impact here in the United States and around the world. Emphasis is on using microfinance tools, business strategies, and innovation to address the social and economic problems.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

BUS 374 - Entrepreneurial Finance

Units: 3

When Offered: As offered

An overview of financial principles as they apply to the entrepreneurial environment. Topics covered include an introduction to the financial environment for entrepreneurs, development of business and financial plans, organizing and financing a new venture, measuring and evaluating financial performance, obtaining financing, creating value, and structuring for growth. Additional topics will be included as applicable to the entrepreneurial environment.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): BUS 303

BUS 380 - Business Analytics Visualization and Strategy

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall (odd years)

This course teaches strategies for visual analyses of business data to inform business strategies across a variety of industries. Students will learn how to create and interpret charts, graphs, infographics, interactive dashboards and communicate the visual insights to customers and employers. A variety of visualization tools will be used for practice and preparation for industry certifications, e.g. SAS, Tableau, GIS.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): BEH 290, BUS 315, CJS 481, EGR 305, or STA 144

BUS 381 - Spatial Analytics in Business

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall, Spring (even years)

This course trains students in developing spatial analyses for business decisions and strategy across a variety of industries, e.g. business, logistics, real estate, healthcare, marketing analytics, finance. Students will learn how to perform market and customer segmentation, identify patterns in consumer behavior and how they change over time, and others. This course prepares towards SAS, Tableau, GIS certification and is ideal for students who wish to have careers requiring analytics, strategy and/or consulting.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): BEH 290, BUS 315, CJS 481, EGR 305, or STA 144

BUS 391 - International Business Practicum Prep III

Units: 1

When Offered: Fall

This class is designed to prepare students for their international internship. It focuses on building the tools a student needs to be successful in finding the career of their choice. Students will refine their cover letter, resume, and Linked-In profiles. In addition, students will complete a mock-interview and attend a career fair. Students will also select and familiarize themselves with their chosen international internship location.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Fee: Additional practicum fee

Pre- or Co- Requisite(s): BUS 292

BUS 392 - International Business Practicum Prep IV

Units: 1When Offered: Spring

This class is designed to prepare students for their international internship. It focuses on building the tools a student needs to be successful in finding the career of their choice. Students will learn standards of etiquette and behavior for traveling abroad, be prepared with financial understanding for the internship, complete the internship application and pre-departure orientation and understand the internship location, industry, and logistics.

Grade Type: Letter GradeFee: Additional practicum feePre- or Co- Requisite(s): BUS 391BUS 393 - International Business Internship Practicum*Units: 3*When Offered: Summer

This course facilitates student learning and professional development while students participate in an 8-week international internship. It provides a framework for students to reflect on and analyze the specific skills gained throughout their international internship. This course also supports student self-awareness and personal growth in a cross-cultural context.

Grade Type: Letter GradePrerequisite(s): BUS 392BUS 398 - Study Abroad*Units: 3*When Offered: As offered

Under faculty supervision, the student will study abroad in a business emphasis area. This is an opportunity for students to learn business principles in a non-U.S. setting and to explore varying world views.

Grade Type: Letter GradeFee: Additional trip fee(s)Prerequisite(s): Permission of the DeanBUS 399 - Independent Study*Units: 3*When Offered: As offered

This course provides for individual study, seminar, and internship approaches to the study of business. Experimental education is encouraged. Student consulting to small businesses is often undertaken.

Grade Type: Letter GradeBUS 400 - Special Topics in Business*Units: 3*When Offered: As offered

This course offers a concentration upon a specific topic in the field of business. The topic varies by semester.

Repeatable: May be repeated for a maximum of twelve (12) units with change in topicGrade Type: Letter GradeBUS 435 - Leadership in Organizations*Units: 3*When Offered: Spring (even years)

This course examines the basic concepts, theories, nature and practices of leadership and leadership behavior. A major assumption of the course content is that there is a difference between management and leadership, a difference succinctly characterized in the observation. "Lead people; manage things." An emphasis on integrating biblical principles and leadership will also be studied. Real-world applications are done through extensive case studies. Students completing this course for credit may not also earn credit for LDR 310.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

BUS 440 - Quantitative Business Analysis

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall, Spring, & Online

This course explores quantitative methods utilized in business decision-making, with an emphasis placed on problem solving and evaluation, as well as applications in marketing, finance, accounting, and operations. Topics may include decision analysis, linear programming, forecasting techniques, statistical process control, and inventory models. A project with practical problem solving is required.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): BUS 315

BUS 452 - Logistics Planning and Controlling

Units: 3

When Offered: Online

The course focuses on management techniques with analytical framework needed to solve problems associated with a firm's logistics planning and control. The course covers the core competencies to manage the planning, implementing, controlling, and distributing of goods and services for a firm. This course will address topics of production planning and scheduling, inventory management, and the design and management of supply and distribution networks.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

BUS 454 - International Management

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

This course examines the role of the manager in the international management environment and explores the foundation of international management, the role of culture in managing internationally, and international organizational behavior issues with a focus on managing international risk and strategic planning in all areas of management.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): BUS 334

BUS 457 - Negotiation and Conflict Resolution

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall

The course incorporates "real world" negotiation cases, practical bargaining tactics, as well as personal and interpersonal negotiation skills development. Students will complete several negotiation self-awareness instruments and develop a negotiation skills strategy. This course emphasizes the stages of negotiation, bargaining, power structure, and cultural differences at the individual, team, and organizational levels. The course emphasizes the various functions of negotiation theory, conflict resolution, and best practices across multiple industries, such as business, law, education, engineering, psychology, entertainment, and public administration.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

BUS 463 - Business and Organizational Management

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall, Spring, & Online

This course is the study of management theories and the functional concepts of leadership, planning, and decision making. Special emphasis is placed on quality issues, globalism, diversity, ethics, productivity, motivation, skill development, and human resource management. An emphasis on integrating biblical principles and leadership will also be studied.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

BUS 464 - Family Business Management

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring (odd years)

The study of the unique issues faced by family owned and operated businesses. Theoretical foundations, differences between family and non-family firms, generational differences, succession, estate planning, family meetings, conflict management strategies, and boards of directors will be discussed.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

BUS 474 - International Business Finance

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

Interpretation of finance principles from an international perspective. Topics include overview of the international monetary system, balance of payments, world financial markets and institutions. Additionally, management issues for multi-national firms are covered, including cost of capital, multinational cash management, and tax issues.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): BUS 303

BUS 475 - Project and Team Management

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall & Online

This course focuses both on general management theory and specific project and team practices useful in the rapidly shifting environment of technology. Particular emphasis is given to the range of diverse techniques required to meet the challenges of managing teams to the successful completion of technology projects in the contemporary workplace. A comprehensive project will be completed in a group setting using Project Management theory and techniques.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

BUS 480 - Business Models and Analytics

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall (even years)

This course teaches business models to explore and predict specific applied business environments, e.g. customer retention, consumer decisions, sales forecasting, text analytics, etc. Concepts combine application of business models and strategy for marketing, finance, production, process, and managerial targets. This course is ideal for students who prepare for careers requiring analytics, strategy and/or consulting and prepares for industry certifications, e.g. SAS, Tableau, GIS.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): BEH 290, BUS 315, CJS 481, EGR 305, or STA 144

BUS 481 - Design Thinking in Business Analysis

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring (odd years)

This course teaches how to develop business analytics that improve customer experiences and meet employers' expectations. Students will learn design thinking strategies to identify hidden customer needs, define problems and opportunities, elicit and gather project requirements. They will then practice aligning these user needs with analytics models and tie them into a winning business strategy. This course is ideal for students who prepare for careers requiring analytics, strategy, and/or consulting for a variety of industries.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): BEH 290, BUS 315, CJS 481, EGR 305, or STA 144

BUS 485 - Business Policy and Strategy

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall, Spring, & Online

This is an integrative study of senior management functions using advanced case analysis, focusing on general management and decision making. Topics include setting objectives; implementing, supporting, and controlling organization-wide policies; developing strategies to achieve objectives; setting standards for measuring performance; evaluating and reformulating policies in response to change; and fulfilling leadership responsibilities.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): BUS 303, 463 or ENT 462, and MKT 333

BUS 489 - Business Practicum

Units: 1-3

When Offered: As offered

Students will apply business knowledge to collaboratively complete a designated project for an outside organization.

Repeatable: May be repeated for a maximum of six (6) units

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): Permission of the Dean

BUS 491 - Internship in Business

Units: 1-3

When Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer

Under faculty supervision, the student will be assigned to a business or non-profit organization in an emphasis area (Business Technology, Marketing, Management). This is an opportunity for field experience in applying business principles.

Repeatable: May be repeated for a maximum of six (6) units

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): Permission of the Dean

BUS 496 - Foundations of Business Management

Units: 3

When Offered: As offered

This is a foundational course for all MBA students. It is designed to ensure all MBA students have the knowledge and skills required to be successful in the MBA program. Students will be required to demonstrate competency in finance, global business, economics, organizational behavior, operations management, human resources, ethics, and law. This course will also help students bridge the scholar-practitioner divide through teaching research and critical thinking skills needed to be successful in the program.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): Permission of the MBA Program Director

BUS 497 - Organizational Dynamics of the New Millennium

Units: 3

When Offered: As offered

The course examines evidence based principles, methods, and techniques found useful in designing, managing, and leading a 21st century organization. Topics include motivation, productivity, organizational design, corporate culture, benefits and rewards, decision making, stress, conflict, diversity, ethics, groups, teams, and power and politics.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): Permission of the MBA Program Director

CHE 101 - Orientation to the Discipline

Units: 1

When Offered: Fall, Spring

This course is designed to introduce students to the basic skills necessary for academic success in the discipline of Chemistry and to provide students with an overview of professions in which the major may be applied.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): Declared Major in Chemistry, Biochemistry and Molecular Biology, or Forensic Chemistry

CHE 102 - Fundamentals of Chemistry

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer, & Online

A review of fundamental topics in chemistry including units of measurements, classifications of matter, atomic and molecular structure, bonding, the periodic table, chemical reactions, solutions, gases, and energy.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

CHE 112 - Organic and Biochemistry for Health Sciences

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer

A survey of Organic and Biochemistry topics with special emphasis on metabolic processes and applications to medicine and health. Should be taken with CHE 112L - Organic and Biochemistry for Health Sciences Lab.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): CHE 102, or 115 and 115L

CHE 112L - Organic and Biochemistry for Health Sciences Lab

Units: 1

When Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer

A laboratory experience designed to illustrate and reinforce topics covered in Organic and Biochemistry for Health Sciences and introduce students to laboratory experiments and equipment that are foundational to the study of these disciplines.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Fee: Additional lab fee

Pre- or Co- Requisite(s): CHE 112

CHE 115 - General Chemistry I

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall, Spring

A study of inorganic chemical systems including properties of atoms, molecules and ions, composition of matter, solutions, stoichiometry, thermochemistry, gas laws, electronic structure of elements, chemical bonding and molecular geometry. Course content is presented at a level required for Chemistry and related science majors.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Lecture: 3 units

Prerequisite(s): CHE 102 or high school chemistry

CHE 115L - General Chemistry I Lab

Units: 1

When Offered: Fall, Spring

A laboratory experience designed to illustrate and reinforce topics covered in General Chemistry I and introduce students to laboratory practices, experiments and equipment that are foundational to the study of Chemistry.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Fee: Additional lab fee

Pre- or Co- Requisite(s): CHE 115

CHE 125 - General Chemistry II

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer

A continuation of CHE 115 - General Chemistry I including the study of inorganic chemical systems including liquids and solids, solutions, colloids, kinetics, equilibria, acid-base chemistry, thermodynamics, electrochemistry, and nuclear chemistry. Course content is presented at a level required for Chemistry and related science majors.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Lecture: 3 units

Prerequisite(s): CHE 115 and 115L

CHE 125L - General Chemistry II Lab

Units: 1

When Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer

A laboratory experience designed to illustrate and reinforce topics covered in CHE 125 - General Chemistry II and continue to introduce students to laboratory practices, experiments, and equipment that are foundational to the study of Chemistry.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Fee: Additional lab fee

Prerequisite(s): CHE 115L

Pre- or Co- Requisite(s): CHE 125

CHE 200 - Special Topics in Chemistry

Units: 1-3

When Offered: As offered

Various appropriate topics of different concentrations are offered each time. Student involvement in selection of topics is strongly encouraged.

Repeatable: May be repeated one (1) time for credit with change in topic

Grade Type: Letter Grade

CHE 230 - Introduction to Molecular Modeling

Units: 1

When Offered: Spring

The development of computer-generated models to investigate quantitative information about structures, reactivities, and stabilities of molecules.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): CHE 115 and 115L

CHE 321 - Quantitative Chemical Analysis with Lab

Units: 4

When Offered: Fall

A survey of separation and quantitation principles and methods.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Lecture: 3 units Lab: 1 unit

Fee: Additional lab fee

Prerequisite(s): CHE 125 and 125L

CHE 341 - Advanced Inorganic Chemistry with Lab

Units: 4

When Offered: Spring (even years)

A study of electronic structure of atoms, bonding and structure of molecules, coordination chemistry, an overview of the chemistry of the elements, the periodic table and periodic trends, transition metal chemistry, including ligand field theory, organometallic chemistry, including catalytic reactions and solid state chemistry.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Lecture: 3 hours Lab: 4 hours

Prerequisite(s): CHE 125, 125L, and MAT 245

CHE 351 - Organic Chemistry I with Lab

Units: 4

When Offered: Fall, Spring

An integrated mechanistic study of the nomenclature, chemical, and stereochemical properties of aliphatic hydrocarbons.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Lecture: 3 units Lab: 1 unit

Fee: Additional lab fee

Prerequisite(s): CHE 125 and 125L

CHE 352 - Organic Chemistry II with Lab

Units: 4

When Offered: Fall, Spring

A continuation of CHE 351 covering the major aliphatic and aromatic functional groups. Includes an introduction to spectroscopy.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Lecture: 3 units Lab: 1 unit

Fee: Additional lab fee

Prerequisite(s): CHE 351

CHE 399 - Independent Study

Units: 1-3

When Offered: As offered

This course of study is offered to afford the superior student an opportunity to explore independently subject matter not already offered in the catalog.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

CHE 400 - Special Topics in Chemistry

Units: 1-3

When Offered: As offered

Various appropriate topics of different concentrations are offered each time.

Repeatable: May be repeated one (1) time for credit with change in topic

Grade Type: Letter Grade

CHE 400L - Special Topics Lab

Units: 1

When Offered: As offered

This laboratory course will be offered in conjunction with the special topics course to provide instruction with hands on experience. Topic varies for different semesters.

Repeatable: May be repeated for credit with change in topic

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Fee: Additional lab fee

Concurrent Requisite(s): CHE 400

CHE 415 - Physical Chemistry I

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall

A study of thermodynamics, kinetic molecular theory, and kinetics of chemical systems.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): CHE 125, 125L, and MAT 255. (Recommended: MAT 342 or 343)

CHE 416 - Physical Chemistry II with Lab

Units: 4

When Offered: Spring (odd years)

A study of quantum mechanics, molecular structure, and spectroscopy.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Lecture: 3 hours Lab: 4 hours

Fee: Additional lab fee

Prerequisite(s): CHE 125, 125L, and MAT 255

Pre- or Co- Requisite(s): CHE 230

CHE 443 - Biochemistry I with Lab

Units: 4When Offered: Fall, Spring

A survey of the chemical reactions in living systems. Attention given to enzymes.

Grade Type: Letter GradeLecture: 3 units Lab: 1 unitFee: Additional lab feePrerequisite(s): CHE 351CHE 444 - Biochemistry II with Lab*Units: 4*When Offered: Fall

A continuation of CHE 443 - Biochemistry I with Lab including a detailed look at DNA, transcription, translation, protein synthesis, lipid metabolism (e.g., cholesterol synthesis) and amino acid and nucleic acid metabolism.

Grade Type: Letter GradeFee: Additional lab feePrerequisite(s): CHE 443CHE 470 - Instrumental Analysis*Units: 4*When Offered: Spring

This course is a study of instrumental methods of analysis including spectroscopic, chromatographic, and electrochemical techniques with emphasis on the theory, design, and applications of various instruments.

Grade Type: Letter GradeLecture: 2 units Lab: 2 unitsFee: Additional course feePrerequisite(s): CHE 321CHE 475 - Forensic Chemistry with Lab*Units: 4*When Offered: Fall

This course builds on the students' criminalistics and chemistry foundation to study advanced topics in forensic chemistry. Topics studied are in the areas of: metrology including statistics, quality control, and sampling; chemical foundations including equilibria, partitioning, and instrumentation; drugs and poisons; combustion including explosives and firearms; and materials including colorants, polymers, inks, paints, fibers, and paper.

Grade Type: Letter GradeLecture: 3 units Lab: 1 unitFee: Additional lab feePrerequisite(s): CHE 470 and SCI 205CHE 480 - Chemistry Research Seminar*Units: 1*When Offered: Fall

An introduction to performing chemistry research including discussions of the scientific method, literature research, reading scientific journal articles, analyzing scientific data, reporting research findings in both written and visual formats, critiquing original research, and science ethics. A research proposal will be written by each participant.

Grade Type: Letter GradePrerequisite(s): Chemistry or Biochemistry and Molecular Biology major and Junior or Senior status

CHE 485 - Forensic Chemistry Major Capstone

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

This course is designed to be a culminating exercise for students to reflect upon, evaluate, and assimilate knowledge and experience they have gained by participating in a laboratory-based research experience, related hands-on opportunity, or composing a senior thesis. In addition, students will have an opportunity to prepare for professional interviews.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): CHE 475 and Senior status

CHE 490 - Senior Research in Chemistry

Units: 1-4

When Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer

The focus of this class is an independent laboratory research project that the student undertakes under the direction of a faculty member who acts as a research advisor. Content varies from year to year and is determined by both instructor's and students' interests.

Repeatable: May be repeated for a maximum of four (4) units

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): CHE 125, 125L, and permission of the Department Chair

CHI 115 - Mandarin Chinese I

Units: 3

When Offered: As offered

An introduction to the sound system and grammar of Chinese with emphasis on speaking, reading, writing and listening comprehension. Classes are conducted in Chinese as much as possible. Students will learn Pinyin system and practice simplified Chinese characters. The class also will contain discussions on Chinese customs and cultural background, which are essential in understanding the language.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

CHI 125 - Mandarin Chinese II

Units: 3

When Offered: As offered

A continuation of CHI 115 - Mandarin Chinese I will continue to be conducted in Chinese as much as possible. Students will practice more on the sound system, and continue to study the grammar of Chinese with emphasis on speaking, reading, writing and listening comprehension. They will learn and practice simplified Chinese characters. The class will contain discussions on Chinese customs and cultural background, which are essential in understanding the language.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): CHI 115

CBS 200 - Special Topics in Christian Behavioral Science

Units: 1-3

When Offered: As offered

An in-depth seminar on a selected topic within Christian Behavioral Science.

Repeatable: May be repeated for credit with change in topic

Grade Type: Letter Grade

CBS 303 - Marriage and Family in the Christian Community

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall, Spring

A comparison of Marriage and Family systems in Biblical and American cultural perspectives. The course will contrast and compare the foundations of marriage in Western Culture and the Judeo-Christian worldview. Family roles and relational development will also be addressed. Marital adjustment including finances, marital sexuality, communication and parenting will be presented from a Biblical approach.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

CBS 350 - Lifespan Development and Discipleship

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

This course examines the relationship between human development as it is understood within the Behavioral Sciences and Discipleship as formation, transformation, and reformation within the Judeo-Christian theologies. The content draws on comparisons between Behavioral Science theories of lifespan in comparison with Theological perspectives on learning and maturity in relationship to mental and spiritual health. It further examines development as a biological, cognitive, relational, and spiritual process that moves toward maturity and wisdom in the context of life and life-to-life family, congregation and peer relationships.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

CBS 399 - Independent Study

Units: 1-3

When Offered: As offered

An opportunity for students who have demonstrated the ability to do independent work to pursue in depth a topic of particular interest.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

CBS 400 - Special Topics in Christian Behavioral Science

Units: 1-3

When Offered: Fall, Spring

An in-depth seminar on a selected topic within Christian Behavioral Science. The course will introduce students to the historical and contemporary literature and issues related to the selected topic as well as encourage critical thinking. Specifically, consideration will be given to the differences between a secular and biblical view of the selected topic.

Repeatable: May be repeated one (1) time for credit with change in topic

Grade Type: Letter Grade

CBS 403 - Congregation and Community

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall

An overview of Christian congregation and community from theological and behavioral science perspectives. Subjects include the function and purpose of Christian Institutions including the household and congregation as a place of discipleship, worship, fellowship and relational reconciliation. Secondary institutions will include Christian media, economics, law and education. The impact of the shift from Christian nationalism to post-Christian America will be addressed.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

CBS 415 - Biblical Wisdom and Human Behavior

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall

A comprehensive examination of the principles for living found in the Biblical Wisdom literature. The principles will be applied to several areas of human behavior including personality development, abnormality and mental health, cognition, emotions, marriage and family life, authority, work, financial management, and citizenship. The implications for personal choices, parenting, counseling, teaching and ministry will be thoroughly considered.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

CBS 420 - Behavioral Implications of Theology

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

Examination of the behavioral, cognitive, and affective implications of specific doctrinal beliefs. Systematic theology is interpreted as a basis for understanding human behavior. Subjects include bibliology (Bible), theology (God), soteriology (salvation), hamartiology (sin), ecclesiology (church), and anthropology (man), with particular attention to application in Christian education and counseling.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

CBS 423 - Models of Christian Counseling

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

An examination of current Christian-oriented counseling approaches toward the development of a personal integrated model of counseling that is distinctly Christian. The models will be considered in light of the essentials of a biblical theology of counseling. Further attention will be given to understanding the differences between clinical and congregational approaches to counseling.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): BEH 333

CBS 433 - Foundations of Pastoral Counseling

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall (odd years)

This course will introduce the student to ministerial counseling at the relational, theological and practical levels. The student will understand the place of counseling in ministry and discipleship and will be exposed to the major areas of counseling that is found in a religious and congregational context. In addition, the student will be exposed to the integration of theology and Behavioral Science theory and methods to both compare and contrast these approaches.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

CBS 499 - Senior Project: Christian Behavioral Science

Units: 3

When Offered: As offered

A special project paper to be researched and written during the senior year that addresses a specific focus of Christian Behavioral Science. This course cannot be taken if more than two other courses in major are not completed. The format is a guided-study under the direction of at least two professors from the College of Behavioral and Social Sciences. The final project will approximate a journal article and should be of such content and format to be submitted for publication.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Fee: Additional course fee

Prerequisite(s): Permission of the Dean

CST 100 - Overview of the Bible

Units: 3

When Offered: Online

A general survey of the Hebrew Bible and the Christian writings (New Testament) with special emphasis to the religious and national life of the Hebrew people, the life of Jesus, and the development of the early church. An Online Program requirement for Online Degree Programs only.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

CST 110 - Old Testament Survey

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall, Spring

A survey of the books of the Old Testament and their theological contribution to the overall storyline of the Bible. Attention is also given to the historical and cultural context of ancient Israel. Fulfills general education requirement for non-Christian Studies majors.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

CST 130 - New Testament Survey

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall, Spring

A survey of the books of the New Testament and their contributions to the overall storyline of the Bible. Special attention is given to the life of Jesus and the development of the early church in their historical, cultural, and theological settings. Fulfills general education requirement for non-Christian Studies majors.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

CST 200 - Special Topics in Christian Studies

Units: 3

When Offered: As offered

An examination of specific areas of Christian studies such as theology, Bible, missions, hermeneutics, Christian philosophy, etc.

Repeatable: May be repeated for credit with change in topic

Grade Type: Letter Grade

CST 210 - Pentateuch and Former Prophets

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall & Online

This class examines the books of Genesis - Kings (as listed in the Hebrew canon) with special attention given to the theological contributions each book provides for the overall shape of the Old Testament. The historical background of Israel and the Ancient Near East will also be considered. Core requirement for Applied Theology or Christian Studies majors.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

CST 220 - Latter Prophets and Writings

Units: 3When Offered: Spring & Online

This class examines the books of Isaiah - 2 Chronicles (as listed in the Hebrew canon) with special attention given to the theological contribution each book provides for the overall shape of the Old Testament. The literary structure of each book and the cultural background of Israel and the Ancient Near East will also be considered. Core requirement for Applied Theology or Christian Studies majors.

Grade Type: Letter GradeCST 230 - Jesus and the Gospels*Units: 3*When Offered: Fall & Online

An investigation of the testimony provided by the Gospels concerning the life of Jesus of Nazareth, with special attention given to the critical issues prompted by such study. Core requirement and prerequisite for upper division Gospel courses (CST 330, CST 331) for Christian Studies majors.

Grade Type: Letter GradeCST 240 - Paul and the Early Church*Units: 3*When Offered: Spring & Online

An introductory consideration of the incidents, individuals, and issues included in the historical, epistolary, and apocalyptic portions of the New Testament. Core requirement and prerequisite for upper division Pauline courses (CST 440, CST 441) for Christian Studies majors.

Grade Type: Letter GradeCST 300 - History of Baptist Thought*Units: 3*When Offered: Fall, Spring, & Online

An examination of Baptist history and doctrine with respect to other Christian denominations and non-denominational churches. Attention will be given to the global impact of Baptists through local church renewal, promotion of religious liberty, participation in missions, and biblical fidelity. CST 350 - Biblical Interpretation

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall, Spring, & Online

A historical and theoretical consideration of interpretative methodology as illustrated by and applied to selected texts from various portions of the biblical materials. Core requirement for Christian Studies majors and minors.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): Previous Biblical Studies coursework

CST 360 - Church History

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall, Spring, & Online

A survey of the development of the Christian church from the close of the New Testament period to the present time, with special attention to the origin of various denominations. Core requirement for Christian Studies majors and minors.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

CST 370 - The Christian Faith

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall, Spring

An exploration of the biblical truths of Scripture, God, humanity, sin, Jesus, the Holy Spirit, salvation, the Christian life, the church, and the life to come. Students will examine each major doctrine and understand its place in the biblical story.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

CST 381 - Christian Missions

Units: 3

When Offered: Online

An examination of the issues faced by today's Christian missionaries, including divine call, recruitment, theological issues, cultural problems, political involvement, methodology, and indigenization. Student involvement in missions-related activities is expected.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

CST 383 - Ministry with Youth

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring (odd years)

This class focuses on foundational issues related to adolescents with application to the local church. Student involvement in youth ministry is expected.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): Previous Biblical Studies coursework

CST 399 - Independent Study

Units: 1-3

When Offered: As offered

An opportunity for students who have demonstrated the ability to do independent work to pursue in depth a topic of particular interest. Courses listed in the catalog may not be taken as independent study.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

CST 400 - Special Topics in Christian Studies

Units: 3

When Offered: As offered

An examination of specific areas of Christian studies (theology, Bible, missions, etc.).

Repeatable: May be repeated for credit with change in topic

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): Previous Biblical Studies coursework

CST 410 - Special Topics in Old Testament

Units: 3

When Offered: As offered

An examination of specific area(s) of Old Testament study.

Repeatable: May be repeated for credit with change in topic

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): Previous Old Testament coursework

CST 411 - Special Topics in New Testament

Units: 3

When Offered: As offered

An examination of specific area(s) of New Testament study.

Repeatable: May be repeated for credit with change in topic

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): Previous New Testament coursework

CST 412 - Special Topics in Theology

Units: 3

When Offered: As offered

An examination of specific area(s) of Theology.

Repeatable: May be repeated for credit with change in topic

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): Previous Theology coursework

CST 413 - Special Topics in Church History

Units: 3

When Offered: As offered

An examination of specific area(s) of Church History.

Repeatable: May be repeated for credit with change in topic

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): Previous Church History coursework

CST 414 - Special Topics in Christian Ministry

Units: 3

When Offered: As offered

An examination of specific area(s) of Christian Ministry.

Repeatable: May be repeated for credit with change in topic

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): Previous Christian Ministry coursework

CST 425 - Christian Social Ethics

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall & Online

This course will explore perennial social ethics issues as they relate to Christian faith and life. Topics include key social problems, the Church's historical responses to those issues, and the biblical teachings with regard to core Christian doctrines (e.g., creation, fall, redemption, image of God, neighbor love). Standard models of Christian engagement in society with respect to the individual believer, the local church, and the global Christian Church will also be considered.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): 3 units of Biblical Studies coursework

CST 451 - Biblical Preaching

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring & Online

A study of the basic principles for preparing and delivering biblical sermons, with an emphasis on the writing, delivery, and analysis of expository sermons.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): Previous Biblical Studies coursework

CST 460 - Biblical Theology

Units: 3

When Offered: Online

An introduction to the Bible's theological and canonical formation, major themes, and overall story with a specific emphasis on the relationship between the Testaments.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

CST 480 - Pastoral Ministry and Leadership

Units: 3

When Offered: Online

A study of the practical duties of the modern pastor, with emphasis given to problems arising in the performance of regular pastoral duties as well as those created by the environment.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

CST 490 - Supervised Ministry

Units: 3

When Offered: As offered

A course of supervised in-service training in a local church. Active participation in Christian ministry is expected (minimum 9 hours weekly) under supervision of a Field Supervisor.

Grade Type: Pass/Fail

Prerequisite(s): Junior or Senior status, and permission of the Dean

CST 491 - International Missions Practicum

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring, Summer

Allowing Christian Studies credit for participation in International Service Projects, an extended missions experience designed to acquaint students with the implementation of mission principles in an international context. No more than three (3) units may apply to general education.

Repeatable: May be repeated one (1) time for credit with change in topic

Grade Type: Pass/Fail

Prerequisite(s): Permission of the Dean

CMD 495 - Senior Comedy Showcase

Units: 1

When Offered: Spring

Senior students prepare and perform representative comedic material developed by them through their course of study, culminating in a public performance. The public showcase will feature the work of all graduating seniors combined into one evening's performance, under faculty direction.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): Senior status and permission of the Department Chair

CDS 101 - Introduction to Communication Disorders

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall, Spring

This is an introductory course that is designed to meet the requirements of the American Speech-Language-Hearing Association's (ASHA) knowledge standards in the areas of normal processes, communication disorders, and clinical application. Students will demonstrate a basic knowledge of common speech, language, and hearing disorders, including etiologies, characteristics, prevention, assessment, and intervention.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

CDS 230 - Phonetics

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall, Spring

Phonetics is the study of the sounds that make up language. Both phonetic theory and practical phonetic analysis will be studied. Students in this course will learn how to transcribe English (and some non-English) sounds using the International Phonetic Alphabet. They will also learn how the sounds of language are produced and how to use software that generates sonograms - visual representations of the sounds. The analysis of sonograms is a useful clinical as well as prominent research tool.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): CDS 101

CDS 240 - Speech and Hearing Anatomy and Physiology

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall, Spring

This course introduces students to the anatomy and physiology relevant to the production of speech, perception of sound, and swallowing process. Students will learn the structures, muscles and functions of respiration, phonation, articulation, sound perception, and swallowing. This knowledge of normal human anatomy and physiology is the foundation upon which the study of speech, hearing and swallowing disorders is built.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): BIO 153

CDS 250 - Typical and Atypical Language Development

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall, Spring

This course is designed to provide undergraduate students a thorough understanding of language development from birth through adulthood. Students will first learn the cognitive, motor, perceptual, and social bases of language, and how development in these domains influences language development. Students learn the domains of language and how these domains interrelate to form a complete language system. Finally, language development through school-age, adolescence and adulthood will be covered, including literacy development.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

CDS 310 - Introduction to Audiology

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall, Spring

This course introduces students to the profession of audiology and provides an overview of auditory function and the basic principles of audiologic assessment.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

CDS 320 - Aural Rehabilitation

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall, Spring

In this course students will study the effects of hearing loss on perceptual, cognitive, communicative, educational, occupational, social, and emotional aspects of life for all age ranges. Students will be able to identify common intervention techniques and build proficiency in the application of assessment tools, and developing recommendations for rehabilitation for infants through adults.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): CDS 310

CDS 330 - Speech Hearing Sciences

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall, Spring

This course provides a brief review of the anatomy and acoustics relevant to the production of speech and perception of sound. Students will then learn the scientific principles driving the processes of respiration, phonation, articulation, and sound perception. This course explores many scientific concepts and theories that explain how humans produce and perceive speech. Clinical measures and imaging techniques of respiration, phonation, articulation, hearing, and brain function will be covered. Clinical application of concepts and theories will be covered heavily.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): CDS 230 and 240

CDS 340 - Clinical Methods and Procedures

Units: 3When Offered: Fall, Spring

This is a comprehensive course that will prepare students for clinical practicum courses and, ultimately, clinical practice. Students will learn the entire clinical practice, including taking and giving referrals, taking case histories, assessing/ treating patients, and writing documentation. Students will also learn coding and billing for private insurance, Medicaid and Medicare. Navigating ethical issues, protecting PHI, maintaining licensure, establishing professional networks, and managing a case load will also be covered.

Grade Type: Letter GradePrerequisite(s): CDS 250CDS 400 - Special Topics in Communication Disorders*Units: 3*When Offered: As offered

This course will teach advanced topics in specialized communication disorders areas such as articulation, fluency, voice and resonance, receptive and expressive language, hearing, swallowing, cognitive aspects, social aspects, and communication modalities. The specific topic will be announced each semester offered.

Repeatable: May be repeated for a maximum of twelve (12) units with change in topicGrade Type: Letter GradePrerequisite(s): CDS 101 and 230CDS 405 - Fluency Disorders*Units: 3*When Offered: Fall, Spring

The course will cover the nature, theories, etiology, assessment and management of fluency disorders from preschool children through adults. Students will also be introduced to etiologies, assessment and management of neurogenic dysfluency. Students will be introduced to application of various assessment and treatment strategies with clients across the age span and across settings.

Grade Type: Letter GradePrerequisite(s): CDS 240CDS 410 - Language Disorders in Children*Units: 3*When Offered: Fall, Spring

This course is designed to provide undergraduate students an introduction to language disorders in young and school-age children. Students learn receptive and expressive language development and disorders in children, analysis of the components of language and how each component is involved in language disorders. This course covers the basic principles of language assessment and intervention, and the unique presentations and treatments for various sub-groups of children with language impairment.

Grade Type: Letter GradePrerequisite(s): CDS 250CDS 420 - Articulation and Phonological Disorders*Units: 3*When Offered: Fall, Spring

The purpose of this course is to provide speech development of typical and atypical children and theoretical bases of phonology and phonetics describing speech sound disorders. Students will learn the basics of assessment and treatment in articulation and phonological disorders. Students will learn about various aspects of articulation and phonological disorders including anatomy and physiology of articulation, characteristics of different kinds of speech production disorders, phonetic and phonemic assessment and treatment approaches.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): CDS 230

CDS 430 - Neurogenic and Neurological Disorders

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall, Spring

This is an introductory level course designed to acquaint students with the basics of neuroanatomy and neurophysiology and related communication disorders. Students will learn the etiologies, symptoms and treatment methods for the aphasia, RHD, apraxia, dysarthria, TBI and dementias. Effective counseling methods for this population of patients and their families will also be covered.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): CDS 240

CDS 440 - Voice and Craniofacial Disorders

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall, Spring

This course will begin with a brief review of the anatomy and physiology of the head and neck. Students will then learn about underlying conditions that cause structural communication disorders including but not limited to vocal fold pathology and craniofacial disorders. Students will be introduced to assessment and management of the speech, voice and resonance disorders that occur in structural communication disorders.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): CDS 240

CDS 491 - Internship in Communication Disorders

Units: 1-4

When Offered: As offered

Under the advisement of a faculty member and supervision of communication disorders profession, the student will work or otherwise actively participate in a community-based communication disorders setting.

Repeatable: May be repeated for a maximum of six (6) units

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): Communications Disorders major, and Junior or Senior status

CDS 495 - Speech Language Pathology Assistant Clinical Practicum

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall, Spring

The course has a three-fold objective: 1) to provide a minimum of 126 hours of supervised undergraduate clinical practicum; 2) to provide students with understanding of the scope of roles and responsibilities, laws and regulations, ethics, and other related issues of employment as a Speech-Language Pathology Assistant; 3) to self-review and assess their attainment of professional experience in the College of Health Science.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Fee: Additional clinical practicum fee

Prerequisite(s): CDS 340, 410, 420, and permission of the Department Chair

COM 113 - Oral Communication

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall, Spring, & Online

This course is designed to introduce the process of public communication and to help develop and refine the skills of oral communication.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

COM 200 - Special Topics in Communication Studies

Units: 3

When Offered: As offered

Concentration upon a specific topic in the field of communication arts. Topic varies for different semesters.

Repeatable: May be repeated for credit with change in topic

Grade Type: Letter Grade

COM 210 - Forensic Workshop

Units: 1-3

When Offered: Fall, Spring

A participation class in forensics. Students compete in intercollegiate events. Majors may take a maximum of eight (8) units as part of the Communications Program. Communications minors may take a maximum of four (4) units. Students should consult their advisor in the Communication Arts Department to determine how many units per semester are allowed since the program is offered on a continuing basis.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

COM 250 - Introduction to Communication Studies

Units: 3

When Offered: Online

An introduction to the basic concepts of communication and skills necessary to communicate in a variety of contexts. Emphasis on communication traditions, views, and techniques are used in interpersonal, group, public, intercultural, and mass communication situations.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

COM 306 - Small Group Communication

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall & Online

This course examines the dynamics in communication within small groups. Students will learn effective critical thinking and problem solving skills for use when working in small groups.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

COM 308 - Interpersonal Communications

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall, Spring & Online

This class examines the dynamics of the two-person communication process. Students will study the development of self-concept, self-disclosure, perception, listening, and feedback as they affect the communication process. Non-verbal communication, attitudes, beliefs, and values will also be explored.

COM 310 - Forensic Workshop

Units: 1-3When Offered: Fall

A participation class in forensics. Students compete in intercollegiate events. Majors may take a maximum of eight (8) units as part of the Communications Program. Communications minors may take a maximum of four (4) units. Students should consult their advisor in the Communication Arts Department to determine how many units per semester are allowed since the program is offered on a continuing basis.

Grade Type: Letter GradeCOM 333 - Oral Interpretation and Readers Theatre*Units: 3*When Offered: Fall, Spring, & Online

Analysis and oral presentation of literature in a way that is vivid, compelling, and dramatic. This class will help the student to perfect skills in dramatic reading, reading of scripture, and finding and preparing literature for oral presentation.

Grade Type: Letter GradeCOM 340 - Rhetoric and Persuasion*Units: 3*When Offered: Spring & Online

This course is designed to develop advanced analysis of communication artifacts using theories of rhetoric and persuasion. The course discusses and makes use of rhetorical theorists from classical and contemporary traditions through the lens of compliance gaining. A focus will be on understanding human persuasion in everyday life, as well as in scholarly perspective.

Grade Type: Letter GradeCOM 375 - Legal, Ethical, and Social Foundations of Communication*Units: 3*When Offered: Online

Explores philosophical and theoretical foundations of ethics in communication and public relations. Emphasis is placed on rhetorical, cultural, interpersonal, and organizational contexts of communication studies. Ethical dilemmas in communication studies and public relations are analyzed from a Christian worldview and theoretical perspective.

Grade Type: Letter GradeCOM 399 - Independent Study*Units: 3*When Offered: As offered

An opportunity for students who have demonstrated the ability to do independent work to pursue in depth a topic of particular interest.

Grade Type: Letter GradeCOM 400 - Special Topics in Communication Studies*Units: 3*When Offered: Fall, Spring

Concentration upon a specific topic in the field of communication arts. Topic varies for different semesters.

Repeatable: May be repeated for credit with change in topicGrade Type: Letter Grade

COM 401 - Argumentation and Debate

Units: 1-3

When Offered: Fall

A study of the principles and models of argumentation and debate, the basic theories, strategies, and processes by which a student may present an effective argument, as well as their application to business and interpersonal communication as well as ministry. The course provides practical experience in forming arguments, defending a position, using evidence to build a case, refutation, and analysis of arguments. Special emphasis given to the principles of Parliamentary Debate. Only three (3) units may be applied to major.

Repeatable: May be repeated for a maximum of eight (8) units

Grade Type: Letter Grade

COM 403 - Communication Theory

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall & Online

This course is designed to introduce theories in the academic field of communication studies. The focus of the course will be on recognizing human communication theories in everyday life, and being able to critically examine situations in multiple cultural contexts based on those theories. Connections will be made between these theories and the prominent theories of related fields.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

COM 405 - Rhetorical Criticism

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring & Online

This course is designed to develop advanced analysis of communication artifacts using rhetorical theory. The course discusses and makes use of rhetorical theorists from classical and contemporary traditions to better understand cultural artifacts from various contexts. Application to various non-communication related fields will be explored.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

COM 410 - Forensic Workshop

Units: 1-3

When Offered: Fall, Spring

A participation class in forensics. Students compete in intercollegiate events. Majors may take a maximum of eight (8) units as part of the Communications Program. Communications minors may take a maximum of four (4) units. Students should consult their advisor in the Communication Arts Department to determine how many units per semester are allowed since the program is offered on a continuing basis.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): COM 210

COM 420 - Strategic Communication and Global Engagement

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall (even years) & Online

In this course students will analyze and evaluate the historical, economic, social, cultural, and political forces of globalization in the context of media. A strong focus will be on modern and contemporary world cultures and on current issues in the globalization of media forms and information technologies. Historical contexts and pressures at work within the contested terrain of globalism will be examined. Students will understand the development of global communication and media networks as these have evolved, expanded, and make up globalization. In addition, students will closely examine the role of digital media and global activism.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

COM 425 - Organizational Communication

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring & Online

Examination of the nature and process of communication in modern organizations, including theories, change strategies, internal personnel relations, and conflict management, as they relate to organizational cultures.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

COM 430 - Communication Research and Methods

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring (even years) & Online

Explores basic methodologies of communication research, including experiments, surveys, focus groups, field observations, content analysis, and rhetorical and critical analyses. These methodologies and the theoretical and ethical assumptions underpinning them are examined as ways of posing questions and getting answers about human communication. Each student will write papers based on a research project including problem definition, literature review, data gathering and analysis and reporting.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

COM 435 - Gender and Communication

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall

This class examines gender from both a secular and biblical perspective through an examination of rhetoric, interpersonal communication, and media. Students will learn what gender is, how society and biology impact what gender is, and how gender impacts their own communication and the communication of others.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

COM 440 - Digital Trends in Communication

Units: 3

When Offered: Online

Exploration of emerging trends in digital media, providing an opportunity for students to understand, deploy, and reflect upon digital communication trends. A theoretical survey of past, current, and predicted future trends and research on the impact of these communication technologies.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

COM 450 - Internship in Communication Studies

Units: 1-3

When Offered: Fall, Spring

Under faculty supervision, the student will be assigned to a position, utilizing principles of communication studies acquired and employed throughout their university experience. This internship provides an opportunity for investigating and participating in field experience with a practitioner of the trade, giving depth and breadth to their understanding of communication studies as a whole.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): Permission of the Department Chair

COM 451 - Internship in Communication Studies

Units: 1-3

When Offered: Fall, Spring

Under faculty supervision, the student will be assigned to a position, utilizing principles of communication studies acquired and employed throughout their university experience. This internship provides an opportunity for investigating and participating in field experience with a practitioner of the trade, giving depth and breadth to their understanding of communication studies as a whole.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): COM 450 and permission of the Department Chair

COM 499 - Communication Senior Capstone

Units: 3

When Offered: Online

An in-depth, student-centered experience that requires the integration of theory and practical experience in communication studies. Students will select a sub-discipline of communication studies to create a project that will identify an issue, problem, information gap, or creative endeavor in which the student will explore, research, and evaluate in a final paper.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): Permission of the Program Director

CIS 265 - Information Systems Essentials

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall, Spring, & Online

This is an introduction to the essential computer software tools used in the modern information society. Students will be introduced to software applications such as word processing, presentations, spreadsheets, databases, and email. Project-based learning activities will provide hands-on experiences for students to practice and apply the skills to real-world situations. Students will integrate these tools in a comprehensive project.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

CIS 268 - Computer Programming Languages

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

In this course concepts of computer programming languages are presented. Attention is given to the common constructs of programming languages as well as a structured approach to program development. The programming language may change from semester to semester.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

CIS 270 - Business IT Application

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall, Spring, & Online

This course develops essential math and computer skills necessary in today's market and business environment. Students will learn and practice the Microsoft Office suite application packages: Word, Excel, and PowerPoint. They will build essential math skills that support upper division requirements and integrate with computer software applications. Students will take the examination and have the opportunity to earn the Microsoft Office Specialist (MOS) Excel Analyst certification and digital badge.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Fee: Additional course fee

CIS 369 - Intermediate Computing

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall (odd years)

This is a hands-on computer lab and lecture course covering the current office productivity software Advanced Microsoft Office applications. This course will give students knowledge of the practical business applications of the spreadsheets, word processing, database management and presentation software.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): CIS 265

CIS 465 - Essentials of Geographic Information Systems

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall

The course provides an overview of the theoretical foundation and applied use of Geographic Information Systems (GIS). At the conclusion of the course, students will have working knowledge of GIS and their appropriate application in various disciplines and organizational settings. The historical development of innovative and collaborative geographic information tools that assist with managing the challenges associated with positional data will also be introduced. Students will demonstrate acquired knowledge via application of the fundamental and principal concepts of geographical information systems by completing a series of lab assignments and a culminating research project.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

CIT 320 - Enterprise Architecture

Units: 3

When Offered: Online

Alignment of business and technology models is a tactical business objective that supports all business strategies meant to improve the value chain in service-driven organizations. The focus of enterprise architectures is to facilitate this alignment by identifying the main components of an organization or a sub-set of it (such as its information systems), and the ways in which these components work together. The components include staff, business processes, technology, information, as well as financial and other resources. This course gives an introduction to enterprise architecture frameworks (EAFS) that may be used to catalog and document enterprise components to help inform, guide, and constrain choices in business, IS or IT solutions development.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

CIT 330 - Project Management

Units: 3

When Offered: Online

The students will learn the theoretical and practical aspects of project management. Topics include organizational theory, group behavior, project management skills, case studies, personal and group productivity tools, management of distributed work, stakeholders, consultants, and knowledge management. Students will also learn software development team configuration and maintenance; software project documentation; communication in a software project (reporting and presentations); project management tools; advanced life cycle models; measurement, metrics and control; testing; systems integration; maintenance; systems development automation.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

CIT 340 - System Analysis and Design

Units: 3When Offered: Online

This course begins with business functional analysis and ends with object oriented information systems design. Students are introduced to tools and techniques enabling effective analysis, design and documentation of an information system. The student learns formal methodologies that form the basis of object-oriented systems engineering practices. Models that focus on the articulation of business functions, integrating process, data and behavioral abstractions form the core of formal methods in systems development using the unified modeling language (UML).

Grade Type: Letter Grade

CIT 350 - Foundations of Information Systems

Units: 3When Offered: Online

This course provides an understanding of information systems and their use in achieving strategic advantage in business practice. This class explores the technology itself, focusing on the primary business application of the technology, what problems it can address, and the organizational importance of these systems for remaining competitive in a global economy. Students will become familiar with the wide range of business processes that must be managed effectively for success. The class demonstrates the many types of information systems supporting business processes and a study of how technology, especially information technology, can be used as an essential component of linking technology policy with corporate strategy and identifying technology options that will ensure the most effective execution of organizational strategy.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

CIT 360 - Legal and Ethical Practices in Information Technology

Units: 3When Offered: Online

This course offers extensive and topical coverage of the legal, ethical, and societal implications of information technology. Students will learn about issues such as file sharing, infringement of intellectual property, security risks, internet crime, identity theft, employee surveillance, privacy, compliance, social networking, and ethics of IT corporations. Students will gain an excellent foundation in ethical decision making for current and future business managers and IT professionals.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

CIT 370 - Database Design and Processing

Units: 3When Offered: Online

This course is a comprehensive introduction to data management in organizations. It establishes the data management foundation for the computing major. Topics include conceptual and logical data modeling, entity relationship and relational data modeling, and database design and implementation using the SQL programming language.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

CIT 380 - Computer and Network Security

Units: 3When Offered: Online

This course will provide the student with the knowledge of modern computer and network security procedures, the ability to recognize attacks, and best practices process countermeasures. Students will also learn how to process the authentication, identification, data secrecy, data integrity, authorization, access control, computer viruses, and general network security procedures. This course will also cover secure e-commerce and applications of public key methods, digital certificates, and credentials.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

CIT 440 - Web Application Development

Units: 3

When Offered: Online

The course will introduce concepts in programming web application servers. We will study the fundamental architectural elements of programming web sites that produce content dynamically. The primary technology introduced will be java servlets and java server pages (JSPS), but we will also cover the related topics as necessary so that students may build significant applications. Such topics include: http; html and xml; JavaBeans; design patterns (e.g., abstract factories and model-view-controller); tag libraries (JSTL); relational databases (MYSQL and JDBC); object-relation mapping tools; security (including SSL); Ajax; web services (SOAP, WSDL and UDDI); frameworks; internationalization; scalability and performance issues.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

CIT 450 - E-Commerce Systems Development

Units: 3

When Offered: Online

This course introduces students to the fundamentals of microsoft.net framework, the asp.net web development environment, and C# programming. It also covers xml web services, SQL server database and Microsoft web server IIS (internet information services). Students study how to develop powerful web sites and web applications that access databases using dynamic, server-side programming in C#. They also learn how to deploy such applications over various servers.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): CIT 440

CIT 460 - Business Networking

Units: 3

When Offered: Online

Provides students with the ability to assess the needs of an organization and select, develop, integrate, and administer the appropriate solution. Specifically, students will be proficient in the technical aspects of a network, including installation, maintenance, monitoring, resource management, user management, and performance issues; have working knowledge in common operating systems including installation, configuration, scripting, user and resource management, troubleshooting and the use of common system utilities; and they will be able to evaluate, analyze, design, manage, administer and troubleshoot networks.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

CIT 465 - Advanced Business Networking

Units: 3

When Offered: Online

In Advanced Business Networking students will acquire the ability to assess the IT needs of an organization and select, develop, integrate, and administer appropriate solutions. Specifically, students will be proficient in the technical aspects of wireless networking, network operating systems, in-depth TCP/IP networking, voice and video over IP, network security, troubleshooting network problems ensuring integrity and availability, and network management.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): CIT 460

CIT 470 - Information Processing Systems

Units: 3

When Offered: Online

Today's organizations are complex systems spanning a variety of corporate functions aimed at achieving a range of objectives. Its environment is subject to globalization and to the effects of the "era of information". Its management is therefore exposed to a formidable task of analyzing huge amounts of time-critical information and, nonetheless, it is expected to always make the right decisions at the right times. Conveniently, a range of technologies and products cumulatively known as business intelligence (BI) come to the rescue.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

CSC 200 - Special Topics

Units: 1-4

When Offered: As offered

This course offers a concentration upon a specific topic in the field of computer science. The topic varies by semester.

Repeatable: May be repeated for credit with change in topic

Grade Type: Letter Grade

CSC 311 - Compiler Design and Languages

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall

Introduction to concepts and considerations of modern compilers and programming languages. Language translation, types and declaration, and abstraction mechanisms are studied. Both functional and object-oriented programming paradigms are explored through examination of several programming languages.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): EGR 227

CSC 312 - Algorithms

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

Algorithms are the heart of any computer software; they define the procedure for accomplishing a data-intensive task. This course establishes terms and methods for talking about algorithms, examines some of the basic algorithms for sorting, searching and other fundamental tasks, and explores more advanced algorithms in bioinformatics and other fields.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): EGR 227

CSC 313 - Graphics and Visual Computing

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

This course explores issues related to the production and the analysis of imagery and visual representations. Computer graphics are introduced from basic concepts through rendering and animation. Visualization of data is presented. Computer Vision and Image Processing is presented both mathematically and practically with an emphasis on creating image manipulation programs in a high-level language.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): EGR 227

CSC 400 - Special Topics

Units: 1-4

When Offered: As offered

This course offers a concentration upon a specific topic in the field of computer science. The topic varies by semester.

Repeatable: May be repeated for credit with change in topic

Grade Type: Letter Grade

CSC 411 - Social and Professional Issues in Computing

Units: 2

When Offered: Spring

The Christian worldview provides a framework within which the complicated ethical and social issues of computing can be considered. This course will guide students through an examination of several key ethical questions in computing, using Biblical principles as a guide.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

CSC 412 - Intelligent Systems

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

Intelligent systems is concerned with the design and analysis of autonomous agents that perceive their environment and make rational decisions. This course introduces the basic definitions and issues in Artificial Intelligence and Machine Learning. Students will create reasoning systems in software and explore their capabilities in dealing with new knowledge. Ethical issues in Intelligent Systems will be presented and examined from a Christian perspective.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): EGR 225, 227, and 305

CSC 413 - Information Security and Computer Forensics

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall

This course provides an introduction to the field of Security in computing. Topics include common security standards and policies, cryptography and information security, access controls, attacks and countermeasures, and computer forensics.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): EGR 222

CSC 414 - Theory of Computation

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall

Computer scientists use hardware and software components to solve problems; this course encompasses the theoretical basics that underlie them. Automata, languages and grammar, language processing, computability and complexity theory will be examined in detail. Important topics will be explored using a combination of conceptual work and coding exercises.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): CSC 311 and EGR 225

CON 105 - Introduction to Construction Management

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall

This course will explore fundamental concepts related to the theory and practice of construction management. The course includes an overview of the construction industry, job market, common project management tools, basic materials and methods of construction, risk management challenges, sustainable operations, and leadership skills required to direct a construction company and project activities.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

CON 205 - Plan Reading and Estimating

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

Plan Reading and Estimating introduces students to construction plan reading and interpretation of residential and commercial projects. With a basic understanding in plan reading, students will apply estimating processes and learn cost engineering terminologies. Students will learn how to conduct quantity surveys from residential and commercial plans and understand the principles of unit price cost estimating.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

CON 215 - Computer-Aided Drafting and Design

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall

This course introduces students to construction visualization, graphical geometry and analysis in construction, sketching applications, computer-aided design, and fundamentals of building information modeling.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

CON 310 - Construction Materials and Methods

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall

This course explores information about construction materials and methods. The following concepts are presented in this course: (a) site investigation; (b) construction materials characteristics and costs; (c) construction methods; (d) equipment types and uses; and (e) equipment production rates and cost.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

CON 315 - Building Information Modeling

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall, Spring

This course introduces students to the application of Building Information Modeling (BIM), both as a product and a process. BIM is a new approach to the built environment as a building project delivery platform in which digital representation of a building process is used to facilitate the exchange and interoperability of information. This course introduces students to the various benefits of improved design quality, reduction in design errors, improved field productivity, reduction in conflicts, and their associated changes as it relates to manufacturing cost and time.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): CON 215 or EGR 122

CON 325 - Construction Company Financial Management

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

This course introduces students to practices in accounting and financial management for the construction industry. Students analyze and apply concepts related to managerial accounting, project controls, financial statement analysis, work in progress, lending, sureties, risk management, and taxes for construction companies and project teams.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): ACC 250

CON 330 - Construction Safety

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

Introduces students to the various causes of construction accidents and adopted strategies to prevent worksite injuries and illnesses with an emphasis on OSHA standards.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

CON 340 - Building Structures

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

Building Structures introduces students to the types and nature of structural systems including material basics as it relates to: wood, steel, and concrete.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): EGR 241

CON 350 - Project Delivery, Law and Contracts

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

This course provides fundamental knowledge for the documentation, administration, and successful delivery of construction projects through the application of industry standard project delivery methodologies. The course will also introduce students to various aspects of construction contracts in respect to project delivery, construction law and ethics.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

CON 415 - Emerging Technologies in Construction

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

This is a project-based course that provides an opportunity for students to apply state-of-the-art technologies to explore solutions to contemporary technological and managerial challenges in the modern construction industry. Students in this course will utilize their knowledge about computerized simulation and modeling technologies such as Building Information Modeling (BIM), scanning technologies, and virtual reality (VR) or augmented reality (AR) technologies to address design and management challenges on construction projects.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): CON 315

CON 430 - Advanced Estimating

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall

This course introduces students to advanced concepts in construction estimating/cost engineering, including but not limited to the creation of estimating spreadsheets and application of labor, material and equipment calculations. The use of cost estimating databases, what distinguishes between direct and indirect construction costs, bid proposal preparation and various computer applications.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): CON 205

CON 460 - Construction Planning and Scheduling

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

Construction Planning and Scheduling introduces students to theory and application of construction scheduling to control the acquisition, movement, storage, utilization of workers, material, and equipment with emphasis given to the Critical Path Method (CPM).

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Pre- or Co- Requisite(s): CON 430

CON 470 - Mechanical Electrical and Piping Construction

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall

This course advances student knowledge of mechanical, electrical, and piping (MEP) systems in construction. Students examine principles of code, design, and materials and methods related to the MEP trades. Students perform applied MEP exercises related to examination of plans and specifications, requests for information, submittals, shop drawings, clash detection, and construction coordination.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

CON 490 - Computer Based Capstone Design

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

This course explores professional practice as a constructor, requiring an understanding of the working and contractual relationship among all participants in any project process. Students will be required to participate in a "real" construction situation involving all aspects of managing a project; from initial planning to completion, including budgets, estimating, scheduling, financing and creating contracts and other construction forms as necessary. Case studies will be utilized to develop critical thinking skills.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): CON 460

Pre- or Co- Requisite(s): CON 430

CJS 113 - Introduction to Criminal Justice

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall, Spring, & Online

A survey of the U.S. system of criminal justice. The history and philosophy of criminal justice administration in America, description of its social and political institutions, and overviews of major issues in the discipline are covered.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

CJS 321 - Courts and Criminal Procedures

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall, Spring

A study of the judiciary in the criminal justice system; structure of the California and federal court systems; prosecution; criminal defense, right to counsel; pre-trial release; grand juries; adjudication process; types and rules of evidence; appeals and sentencing.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

CJS 331 - Police Systems and Practices

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall, Spring

An opportunity to analyze the police profession; organization and administration of law enforcement systems; the police role in a democracy; police discretion; police subculture and ethics; police stress; police-community interaction; current and future issues.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

CJS 341 - Minorities and the Criminal Justice System

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall, Spring, & Online

Students will critically examine the charges of direct and indirect institutional racism within the totality of the criminal justice system. Students will also analyze society's response to crime, cultural, economic and political differences.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

CJS 350 - Emergency Management

Units: 3

When Offered: Online

This course will cover the principles of emergency management as practiced in the state of California, as well as the County, State and Federal Government. Chief components of the course are the establishment of protocols and procedures, planning and preparedness, intergovernmental responsibilities, developing a response, and mitigating disasters and recovery.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

CJS 355 - Information Management

Units: 3

When Offered: Online

This course examines the use of technology in the management of criminal justice data and systems. The course studies trends in the use of modern technology in the administration of management and personnel data. Lastly, the course examines potential unintended consequences of the use of technology in criminal justice management.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

CJS 360 - Historical Perspectives of Criminal Justice

Units: 3

When Offered: Online

The course offers an introduction to the historical study of crime and the administration of justice throughout human history, especially in the United States. The course highlights both changes in criminal behavior and the different ways that societies have sought to deter, punish and rehabilitate.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

CJS 400 - Special Topics

Units: 1-3

When Offered: As offered

An examination of a specific issue in the field of Criminal Justice.

Repeatable: May be repeated for credit with change in topic

Grade Type: Letter Grade

CJS 401 - Crime and Delinquency

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall & Online

A study of the traditional and theoretical schools of criminology. Theories relating to individual abnormality and theories relating to cultural influences are examined. Theories of the causes of delinquency and data on delinquent behavior including gangs, minor and major criminal actions, and methods of correction are also covered.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

CJS 402 - Hate Crime

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall

This course explores the problem of hate crime, which can be defined as criminal acts motivated by an extreme bias of hate. The course will focus on hate crimes as a specific type of criminal activity and will address various efforts to prevent these crimes and to hold offenders accountable.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

CJS 403 - Mass Media, Culture, and Crime

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

This course explores and analyzes the treatment of crime, criminals, victims and the criminal justice system in news, entertainment, and social media. The course attempts to explain changes over time by examining the history of these treatments. Lastly, the course analyzes the real effect of these messages on contemporary life, law, and culture.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

CJS 421 - Narcotics

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall

This course will examine the role of narcotics and drugs in the U.S. criminal justice system and the impact of drugs on crime. This course will address issues related to the history of drugs in society; narcotics' legal and regulatory, social and political context; patterns and drugs of abuse; and strategies of enforcement and rehabilitation.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

CJS 441 - Fundamentals of Criminal Investigation and Report Writing

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

Students will study investigation theory; collection and preservation of evidence; importance of field notes and offense reports; sources of information; interview and interrogation; use of forensic science; and case and trial preparation.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

CJS 472 - Terrorism and Homeland Security

Units: 3

When Offered: Online

This course will cover the detailed study of terrorism, counter terrorism, terrorist personalities, and terrorist groups, including types, tactics, and trends on a worldwide scale as well as domestically. The course also examines the unique challenges posed by the government's war on terrorism and commitment to homeland security. The issues of prevention, civil liberties, and nation building will be examined.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

CJS 481 - Statistics for Criminal Justice Law Enforcement

Units: 3

When Offered: Online

An introduction to elementary statistical methods commonly used in criminological and criminal justice research. Students will obtain sufficient statistical knowledge that they can use to read and understand the professional criminological literature that uses statistical methods. It will also prepare students to use elementary statistical methods in their own research in graduate school or in their professional careers, and it will help students build the statistical background necessary for the study of more advanced statistical topics.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): Criminal Justice Administration major

CJS 485 - Methods of Research for Criminal Justice

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall & Online

The course examines scientific approaches to the study of criminal justice. Students will learn how to research and study crime using the scientific method. Students will be exposed to various research methods and designs, which will be illustrated with criminological examples and exercises. Finally, the students will calculate and interpret measures of central tendency, dispersion, and association.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

CJS 496 - Institutional and Community Corrections

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall, Spring

This course provides a survey of the historical, philosophical, and legal bases of correctional procedures and institutions and an examination of current problems and innovations. It examines the increasing task of managing persons who have been arraigned or have been sentenced to prisons and various correctional facilities in America. The nature of the institutional environment, issues of community-based policing, and the administrative concerns of safety and efficiency are also included.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

CJS 497 - Comparative Criminal Justice

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring & Online

The functions, institutions, and operations of U.S. and foreign criminal justice systems are compared. Comparisons are made between countries similar to the U.S., such as Canada and Great Britain, as well as those which are quite different, such as Asian or Arabic countries. The underlying concepts of law enforcement, judicial and correctional processes will be studied in current and historic perspectives.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

CJS 499 - Senior Project

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

A senior capstone course designed to demonstrate the competence of Criminal Justice majors in the discipline and assess their research and writing skills. The portfolio produced by the student in completion of this project must conform to the departmental guidelines for Senior Projects.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): CJS 485 and Senior status

CYB 220 - Security by Design

Units: 3

When Offered: Online

This course explores the theoretical and practical aspects of basic security design fundamentals as they relate to the analysis, design, development, and implementation of Information System components. Topics covered include separation of domains, isolation, encapsulation, least privilege, simplicity of design, testing, documentation, minimization of implementation, deployment, maintenance, fail safe defaults, fail secure, modularity, layering, least astonishment, open design, usability, and reverse engineering.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): EGR 121

CYB 390 - Database Security

Units: 3

When Offered: Online

This course equips students with a comprehensive knowledge and understanding of how database systems are managed along with the issues and solutions associated with protecting the associated data assets. Topics covered include relational databases, NoSQL databases, object based vs. object oriented, database vulnerabilities, indexing, inference, aggregation, polyinstantiation, hashing and encryption, masking, database access controls, information flow, database security models, SQL Injection, inference and aggregation security issues, and common DBMS vulnerabilities.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): CIT 380 and STA 144

CYB 410 - Defensive Security

Units: 3

When Offered: Online

This course explores the theories, concepts, and methodologies related to the analysis and assessment of the cybersecurity needs and vulnerabilities of the organization. Students are equipped with the knowledge of the various options available to mitigate threats within a system. Topics covered include network mapping, network security techniques and components, cryptography, malicious activity detection, countermeasures, trust relationships, defense in Depth (layering), OS and application patching, vulnerability scanning and windows, social engineering, and analytical tools.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): CIT 380, CYB 220, NAM 320, and STA 144

CYB 420 - Offensive Security

Units: 3

When Offered: Online

This course equips students with the knowledge and skills necessary to take an offensive position in regards to cybersecurity and the organization. Topics covered include penetration testing, ethical hacking, honeypots, false ports and services, false directories, attacker identification, network entry point notifications, subversion, and tarpitting.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): CIT 380, CYB 220, NAM 320, and STA 144

CYB 430 - Computer Forensics

Units: 3

When Offered: Online

This course equips students with the knowledge and skills necessary to successfully navigate the cybersecurity incident response lifecycle. Topics covered include response preparation, incident detection, data collection, data analysis, remediation, and legal compliance.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): CIT 380, EGR 121, NAM 320, and STA 144

CYB 440 - Cybersecurity Management

Units: 3

When Offered: Online

This course explores the theories, concepts, and methodologies related to organizational security. Students will be equipped with the knowledge and skills required for success regarding the following topics: component procurement, identity management, risk management, cybersecurity planning, security program management, and security operations.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): CIT 380

CYB 470 - Network Defense

Units: 3

When Offered: Online

This course explores the methodologies, tools, and techniques necessary to protect network and communications assets from cyber related threats. Students will be equipped with the knowledge and skills required for success in regards to the following topics: implementing IDS/IPS, implementing firewalls and VPNs, defense in depth, honeypots and honeynets, network monitoring, network traffic analysis, minimizing exposure, network access control, DMZs/proxy servers, network hardening, mission assurance, network policy development and enforcement, network operational procedures, and network attacks.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): CIT 380, 460, and STA 144

CYB 480 - Essential Tenets of Cybersecurity

Units: 3

When Offered: Online

This course explores the theoretical and practical aspects of the core tenets of cybersecurity in order to prepare students with the knowledge and skills necessary to secure information resources, perform threat assessments, and mitigate risks. Topics include security and risk management, asset security, security engineering, communications and network security, identify and access management, security assessment and testing, security operations, and software development security.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): CYB 410 and 420

CYB 495 - Cybersecurity Capstone

Units: 3

When Offered: Online

This course provides the opportunity to integrate knowledge and demonstrate skills obtained throughout the program in the form of an enterprise level cybersecurity related project, which involves a risk assessment of an organization's current cybersecurity posture and noting the results in the form of findings, discussion, and recommendations. The course culminates with a final report/paper and presentation.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): CYB 390, 410, 420, 440, and 470

DSC 423 - Enterprise Data Communications

Units: 4

When Offered: Fall

This course explores state-of-the-art computer communication infrastructure from protocols and protocol architecture to organizational management issues. Special focus areas from TCP/IP Internet communication, protocol design, wireless data networking, to networked applications are studied. The emphasis is on business managers and implementers to design, realize and operate advanced networks that provide efficient and reliable services to users. Topics include data science, data communications, application software, networking, and organization management theory.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): Permission of the Department Chair

DSC 450 - Data Mining

Units: 3

When Offered: Summer

This course examines at the entire knowledge discovery process. The focus on cutting edge, interesting data mining techniques that can be used in a wide variety of settings (business, science, web analytics, etc.). Topics include algorithmic details, implementation issues, advantages and disadvantages, and many examples of data mining. We will also include the newest topics, such as big data methods and deep learning. The course is a practical, hands-on course, covering knowledge discovery entails, the different groups of algorithms and their usefulness and shortcomings. The course culminates in a real-world project accomplished with open-source tools.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): Permission of the Department Chair

DES 101 - Design Technology Applications I

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall, Spring

This is an introduction to the essential computer software tools used in the modern production of information society, with a focus on the workflow and productions native to design oriented tasks utilized in design and allied design professions. Students will be introduced to foundational design software applications - including Adobe Photoshop, Illustrator, and InDesign - and will be introduced to other workflow applications such as word processing, presentations, spreadsheets, databases, and email. Project based learning activities will provide hands-on experiences for student to practice and apply skills to real-world situations.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

DES 110 - Creativity: Process and Purpose

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall, Spring

This course provides an introduction to creativity through discussion and project-based learning. The course provides overview and practice of creative processes (e.g. ideation, research, empathy, proto-typing, etc), in-depth discussion of the theological foundations for creativity, and practice for developing creative habits.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

DES 200 - Special Topics in Design

Units: 1-3

When Offered: As offered

This course will focus on various studio and lecture courses, which explore and present selected topics in design.

Repeatable: May be repeated for a maximum of six (6) units with change in topic

Grade Type: Letter Grade

DES 310 - Creativity: Collaboration and Context

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall, Spring

This course builds on a foundational understanding of creativity's process and purpose. The aim of the course is for students to apply these foundations to the act of completing interdisciplinary creative projects in context.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Fee: Additional course fee

Prerequisite(s): DES 110

DES 350 - Fellowship of Faithful Creatives

Units: 1

When Offered: Fall, Spring

This course focuses on the intersection of Christian faith and Creative Practice as it relates to the creative person, the creative process, the creative product, and a Christian creative purpose.

Repeatable: May be repeated for a maximum of six (6) units

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Fee: Additional course fee

DES 400 - Special Topics in Design

Units: 1-3

When Offered: As offered

This course will focus on various studio and lecture courses, which explore and present selected topics in design.

Repeatable: May be repeated for a maximum of six (6) units with change in topic

Grade Type: Letter Grade

DES 491 - Design Internship

Units: 1-3

When Offered: As offered

The purpose of this course is to expose students to their respective design profession in a professional office setting, familiarize students with a professional working environment, and prepare students for future employment.

Repeatable: May be repeated for a maximum of three (3) units

Grade Type: Pass/Fail

DES 498 - Portfolio

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall, Spring

This is an interdisciplinary course where students will focus on their portfolios and final presentation specific to their industry. Standards in presentation and expectations will be examined to set guidelines for the student's efforts in portfolio building. The goal of this course is for the student to finish with a strong, cohesive and compelling portfolio of student work. This course should focus on presentation beyond the capstone projects required for graduation.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

ECH 320 - Cognitive Development in Infancy and Early Childhood

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall & Online

This course describes how the cognitive processes of thought, perception, attention, and problem-solving develop in infants and young children. Students will have the opportunity to explore the value of active learning in the development of knowledge, the specific ways in which children construct knowledge, and the theoretical models that support cognitive development at home and in school.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

ECH 340 - Perceptual-Motor Development in Infancy and Early Childhood

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall & Online

This course explores the concept of active learning and its importance to children's construction of knowledge through perception and movement, essentials of every learning experience.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

ECH 350 - Social and Emotional Development in Infancy and Early Childhood

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring & Online

This course introduces students to the process through which a child develops a sense of self within a socio-cultural system. Students will learn the significance of a supportive interpersonal environment for personality development. They will evaluate theories of emotional and personality development in infants and young children. They will describe the effects of social and emotional development on learning.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

ECH 360 - Early Childhood Curriculum

Units: 3

When Offered: Online

This course provides an introduction to the theory and practice of curriculum development in early childhood educational settings. Students will examine the principles involved in planning, implementing and evaluating developmentally appropriate curriculum in all developmental domains. Course content will emphasize the teacher's role in providing educational experiences that foster optimal growth and development of the individual child.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

ECH 365 - Assessment of Young Children including Children with Disabilities

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring & Online

Assessment procedures for use with infants, toddlers, and preschool children with disabilities. Includes information on basic assessment issues and concerns, specialized assessment instruments for particular developmental domains, and recommended procedures for assessing young children with mild to moderate disabilities. Students will become familiar with a wide range of assessment approaches and understand how assessment results can be used in curriculum planning and program evaluation for general and special education.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

ECH 370 - Spiritual Development in Young Children

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring & Online

This course will explore spiritual development in young children from a biblical perspective including the role of Scripture in spiritual formation. Students will learn how to facilitate effectively the spiritual growth of children through a comprehensive understanding of the process of spiritual formation.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

ECH 375 - Early Intervention: Early Childhood Special Education

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall & Online

Students will reflect on current trends and research in early intervention, including instructional content and practice for young children with disabilities. Students will apply and synthesize knowledge of early childhood intervention practice and research through analysis of videotapes and case studies as well as field work experiences.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

ECH 385 - Theories and Models for Understanding Behavior in Young Children with Disabilities

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring & Online

Students will examine theories of learning as they apply in special education, particularly as they apply to behavior management in young children with disabilities. Principles of applied behavior analysis will be used in a case study.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

ECH 395 - Learning Environments for Young Children including Children with Disabilities

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall & Online

Students will investigate learning environments for young children including home learning, hospital intervention programs, childcare centers, public school environments, and residential programs. They will examine the characteristics of model learning environments and how to plan for non-disabled children as well as children with various types of disabilities.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

ECH 415 - Consultation and Collaboration in Early Childhood Intervention

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring & Online

Students will examine the role of the early childhood intervention specialist as a member of interdisciplinary teams through readings, observations, interviews with professionals and family members. They will acquire skills in working with interdisciplinary team members.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): Senior status

ECH 425 - Low Incidence Disabilities in Young Children

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall

Through fieldwork and interaction with professionals from the community, students will become familiar with the particular needs of young children with low incidence disabilities and their families.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): Senior status

ECH 435 - Cross Cultural Perspectives of Children including Children with Disabilities

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall & Online

Students will investigate how issues of culture affect beliefs and relationships among professionals and families with young children including children with disabilities and how multiple perspectives can affect child outcomes. Students will choose an area of interest to investigate using problem-based learning and present the result of their research to class members.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

ECH 440 - STEM Curriculum Integrated with the Arts

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring & Online

This course will provide an introduction to the theory and practice of curriculum development in Pre-K settings with a specific focus on STEM integrated with the Arts. Students will learn how to design, implement and evaluate developmentally appropriate programming (DAP) as well as the educator's responsibility in providing experiences that cultivate development of the whole child.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): ECH 320, 340, and 350

ECH 455 - Research Seminar in Early Childhood including Early Childhood Intervention

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring & Online

Students will gain understanding of research in the area of early childhood intervention. Using the topic of inclusion as a focus, students will read and critique research in the areas of special education policy, professionals' beliefs and relationships, family concerns, issues of culture, and child outcomes. In addition, students will write an integrative research review in an area of interest, and they will orally present their review to class members.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): Senior status

ECH 460 - Adult Supervision

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall & Online

This course is a study of the methods and principles of supervising teachers, assistant teachers, student teachers, parents and volunteers in early childhood and child development classrooms. Emphasis is on the role of administrators and classroom teachers who function as mentors to new personnel while simultaneously addressing the needs of administrative concerns, other staff, children and parents. Practical experience is attained in verbal and written communication. Attention is given to the role of communication as the conduit for establishing good interpersonal relations. This course is designed to be in alignment with the California Child Development Permit training requirements which state a Master Teacher must have a minimum of two (2) units in adult supervision.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): ECH 320, 340, and 350

ECH 461 - Administration of Early Childhood Programs I

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall & Online

This course involves an introduction to management skills and administrative responsibilities pertaining to the successful operation of care and educational environments for early childhood programs. Emphasis is on the administration of programs for infants, toddlers, preschool, and school-age children. Content areas include: child and program development, adult supervision and management, family and community relationships, human resources development, business and fiscal management, and technological skill development. This course satisfies the Child Development Permit Requirement for Site Supervisor and Program Director Levels.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Pre- or Co- Requisite(s): ECH 460

ECH 462 - Administration of Early Childhood Programs II

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring & Online

This course examines the dynamics of management behavior and responsibilities, and the communication process within the organization. It includes the essentials of curriculum design, and its implementation and maintenance through systems of professional staff accountability. Quality program standards are reviewed and their link to professional growth planning and development are addressed. Presented as the foundation for effective management is skill building in leadership, teamwork, time management, sensitivity toward diversity, and advocating for the principles of developmentally appropriate practices. This course satisfies the Child Development Permit Requirement for Site Supervisor and Program Director Levels.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): ECH 461

ECH 495 - Practicum in Early Childhood and Intervention

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall, Spring

This course is a practicum that includes observation, participation, and teaching in the early childhood setting from birth through transitional kindergarten. Emphasis is on program planning including assessment for children in early childhood education and early childhood intervention. This course meets the requirements of the California Child Development Permit, Core Areas: Child Growth and Development, Child, Family and Community and Programs and Curriculum.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): Permission of the Dean and Senior status

ECH 498 - Early Childhood Studies Portfolio

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall, Spring

This capstone course serves to assess student learning in the Early Childhood Studies program. Students will draw on their work in early childhood studies classes to provide evidence of developing skills, knowledge and dispositions for becoming an early childhood educator.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Fee: Additional portfolio fee

Prerequisite(s): Senior status

EDU 101 - Professional Educator Series I: The Student Experience

Units: 1

When Offered: Fall

This course introduces future educators to the Elementary Education major at CBU, as well as the teaching profession. The class will focus on developing their professional identities, open-mindedness, empathy and compassion, and legacy/future minded thinking and actions. Additionally, the class will focus on developing a desire for life-long learning, as well as a strengthening their commitments to educating and enriching the lives of children, families, schools, communities and the world.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

EDU 102 - Professional Educator Series II: The Community Context

Units: 1

When Offered: Spring

This course will explore the community context of learning. Specifically, students will learn more about issues of diversity, equity and social justice. This course also includes a service learning component that will address a community-identified concern and need.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): EDU 101

EDU 200 - Special Topics in Education

Units: 3

When Offered: As offered

Concentration upon a specific topic in the field of education. Topic varies for different semesters.

Repeatable: May be repeated for credit with change in topic

Grade Type: Letter Grade

EDU 300 - American Public School

Units: 3

When Offered: Online

Exploring the educational paradigm historically and philosophically, students survey curriculum practices, teacher effectiveness, learner needs of the public schools, and classroom management to understand the challenges of teaching today. Emphasis is placed upon cultural diversity and a dynamic society.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

EDU 302 - Growth, Development, and Learning

Units: 3

When Offered: Online

This course is a study of human growth and development during the first two decades of life. Emphasis is placed on how teachers apply theoretical foundations of the learning process, cultural forces affecting behavior, testing, grouping of students, and inclusion. A certificate of clearance is required prior to engaging in fieldwork. Prerequisite for all other education courses.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Fieldwork: 15 hours required

EDU 307 - Technology in the Classroom

Units: 2

When Offered: Fall

Students will examine and apply various instructional theories and technologies to enhance student engagement and achievement. Students will demonstrate proficiency in various computer, web, and mobile device applications for the K-12 classroom and evaluate their relative effectiveness in relation to student achievement. A required course for all credential candidates.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

EDU 341 - The Exceptional Child

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall, Spring, & Online

The nature, determinants, adjustments, and problems of persons who have cognitive gifts and talents, cognitive delays, physical disabilities, learning disabilities, and who have emotional or behavior disorders will be studied in conjunction with appropriate educational interventions in the mainstream classroom and other settings. The course will acquaint students with (a) characteristics and needs of children with disabilities that affect learning, (b) methods of assessing disabilities, (c) components of the Individual Education Program (IEP), (d) instructional strategies and material, (e) positive behavior support, (f) special needs of families of learners with disabilities, (g) agencies and professional supporting learners with disabilities, and (h) legislation, including Public Law 94-142, IDEA (Part B and Part H), the American Disabilities Act (ADA), and the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 ("Section 504"), as well as subsequent amendments relevant to special education.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Fieldwork: Ten hours of fieldwork is required. A certificate of clearance is required prior to engaging in fieldwork.

EDU 399 - Independent Study

Units: 3

When Offered: As offered

An opportunity for students who have demonstrated the ability to do independent work to pursue in depth a topic of particular interest.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

EDU 400 - Special Topics in Education

Units: 3

When Offered: As offered

Concentration upon a specific topic in the field of education. Topic varies for different semesters.

Repeatable: May be repeated for credit with change in topic

Grade Type: Letter Grade

EDU 401 - Oral Language Development, Instruction, and Assessment

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall

Students will learn all aspects of language development, including syntax, morphology, semantics, phonology, and pragmatics from birth to adulthood. Additionally, students will learn about pedagogical instructional methods to enhance students' receptive and expressive vocabularies. Finally, students will learn how children learn to communicate in general, and in English specifically, while emphasizing individual patterns of communication development and dialectical usage.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): Pre-Elementary Education major

EDU 405 - Teaching Math and Science

Units: 3When Offered: As offered

This course prepares future teachers to meet the California State requirements for the Multiple Subject Credential in math and science and to equip diverse students with knowledge and methodologies necessary for the successful integration and teaching of these subjects. This course consists of the study of current best practice techniques and curriculum development used in teaching mathematics and science in the public schools. Emphasis is placed on effective instructional methods and evaluation procedures. Hours of observation and participation in Math and Science classrooms are required with the purpose of providing students with opportunities to apply methods learned in this course to public school settings.

Grade Type: Letter GradePrerequisite(s): Credential program acceptance and EDU 409

EDU 407 - Reading and Writing in the Content Areas

Units: 3When Offered: As offered

Focusing on the attainment of skills as a teacher of literacy, this course requires students to demonstrate content reading and writing competencies, such as determining reading readiness, applying readability formulas, evaluating textbooks, and developing strategies for vocabulary, critical thinking, and comprehension. Focus is placed on the preparation of lessons using PAR: pre-reading, assistance during reading and reflection after reading. Students are also introduced to beginning reader strategies.

Grade Type: Letter GradeFieldwork: 20 hours of fieldwork requiredPrerequisite(s): Credential program acceptance, EDU 409, 411, and 497

EDU 409 - Educational Psychology

Units: 3When Offered: As offered

This course will equip candidates to appraise the relationship between the theories and practices of human development and teaching and learning methods. Specifically, candidates will examine the manner in which world view perspectives of developmental forces impact classroom policies and procedures. The role of assessment in determining student needs and designing appropriate pedagogical strategies will also be emphasized. This course will solidify understanding of the strengths-based approach to making the pedagogical decisions required in the TPA process.

Grade Type: Letter GradeFieldwork: 4 hours of fieldwork is required

EDU 410 - Elementary Methods

Units: 3When Offered: Fall

This course examines various research-based instructional techniques, planning strategies, methods, and assessment practices for the elementary schools, both public and private. Ten (10) hours of structured observation is required, equally divided between primary and upper elementary grade classrooms.

Grade Type: Letter GradePrerequisite(s): EDU 409 and 415

EDU 411 - Theories and Methods of Teaching Diverse Students

Units: 3When Offered: As offered

This course will equip candidates with the theories and practices connected to working with diverse student populations. Candidates will examine the manner in which societal and cultural forces have impacted current perspectives of equity especially as they relate to special needs and English language learning students. The role of assessment in determining student needs and designing appropriate pedagogical strategies will also be emphasized. This course will solidify understanding of the strengths-based approach to making adaptations required in the TPA process.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Fieldwork: 10 hours of fieldwork is required

Prerequisite(s): Credential program acceptance, EDU 409, 410, and ETC 407

EDU 411G - Theories and Methods for Teaching Diverse Students

Units: 3

When Offered: As offered

This course will equip candidates with the theories and practices connected to working with diverse student populations. Candidates will examine the manner in which societal and cultural forces have impacted current perspectives of equity especially as they relate to special needs and English language learning students. The role of assessment in determining student needs and designing appropriate pedagogical strategies will also be emphasized. This course will teach candidates how to implement culturally responsive practices with a strengths-based approach to making adaptations required in the TPA process. Students registered in this section will participate in a global practicum experience during which the skills learned throughout the semester will be applied in an international setting. Students may only earn credit for EDU 411 or EDU 411G.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Fieldwork: 10 hours within the semester and extended fieldwork composed of 12 days in the global setting.

Fee: Additional course fee

Prerequisite(s): Credential program acceptance, EDU 409, 410, and ETC 407, and permission of the Advisor

EDU 412 - Teaching Language Arts and Social Studies

Units: 3

When Offered: As offered

This course prepares future teachers to meet the California state requirements for the Multiple Subject Credential and to equip students with knowledge and skills necessary for the successful teaching of these subjects. It is a study of the scope, the organization, and the instructional procedures used to teach social studies and language arts. Students learn how to design and develop interdisciplinary units of study, how to write and assess instructional objectives, and how to organize and integrate social studies and language arts instruction for diverse learners in the public classroom.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Fieldwork: 20 hours of fieldwork is required

Prerequisite(s): Credential program acceptance, EDU 409, and 411

EDU 413 - Disability Studies for General Education Teachers

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall

This course will introduce new teachers to the history of disability through the ages, the relevance of current educational policies to inclusion, technology in the inclusive classroom, intersectionality and its influence upon inclusive practices, working with families, and issues of transition from school to the post-school world. Furthermore, students will learn about the ethical framings of disability and strategies for effectively teaching and including students with disabilities in the general education classroom. Grounded in a disability studies framework, this course encourages students to examine their beliefs about disability and the influence of historical and cultural meanings of disability upon their work as teachers. Students will also learn how to create dynamic and inclusive classroom cultures, getting to know students, selecting appropriate instructional, lesson planning and assessment strategies (UDL, MTSS, RTI), co-teaching, IEPs, 504 plans, IDEIA, and promoting an inclusive school culture.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): EDU 415 and Elementary Education major

EDU 415 - Equity and Diversity in American Public Education

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

Students will explore the demographic shifts in American life and schools throughout the late 20th and early 21st centuries, and examine the impact of these shifts on education. This course will equip candidates with the theories and practices connected to working with diverse student populations. Candidates will examine the manner in which societal and cultural forces have impacted current perspectives of equity, especially as they relate to educating children and young adults from diverse cultures, ethnicities, religions and races, children and young adults with learning disabilities and those who are English language learners and/or emergent bilingual students.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): EDU 102 and Pre-Elementary Education major

EDU 416 - Pedagogical Approaches to Literacy Acquisition

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

This course will focus on pedagogical approaches to emergent through fluent literacy acquisition. Teacher candidates will learn about word recognition (decoding/phonics, sight words, high frequency words, structural analysis), comprehension (explicit/literal, implicit/inferential, and evaluative), vocabulary, spelling, writing and fluency instruction. This course will also examine various research-based assessment practices for elementary school teachers.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Practicum: 5 weeks of fieldwork are required

Prerequisite(s): EDU 401, 410, and Elementary Education major

EDU 416L - Pedagogical Approaches to Literacy Acquisition Lab

Units: 1

When Offered: As offered

This course is a one (1) credit lab course that will prepare our multiple subject and education specialist credential candidates for the Reading Instruction Competence Assessment (RICA), which is a state-required exam.

Grade Type: Pass/Fail

Prerequisite(s): EDU 416

EDU 422 - Teaching Social Studies to Diverse Learners

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

This course is a study of the scope, organization and instructional procedures used to teach social studies. Students will learn how to design and develop interdisciplinary units of study, how to write and assess instructional objectives suitable for a diverse student population, and learn how to organize and integrate language arts instruction in the public school classroom. These units and lessons must follow state adopted curriculum standards and frameworks. Various teaching strategies will be demonstrated and experienced during the class periods including SDAIE strategies for English Language Learners. Therefore, students will have a variety of lesson plan models to use in the classroom. Students will work in collaborative groups to complete portions of class work. Each course objective is designed to meet a portion of the Teacher Preparation Expectations for certification in the state of California.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Fieldwork: Required and includes 10 hours of fieldwork and participation activities

Prerequisite(s): EDU 410 and Elementary Education major

EDU 425 - Teaching Math to Diverse Learners

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

Studies the current best practice techniques and curriculum development used in teaching mathematics and science in the public schools. Emphasis is placed on effective instructional methods and evaluation procedures. A minimum of 10 hours of observation and participation in Math elementary classrooms is required with the purpose of providing students with opportunities to apply methods learned in this course to public school settings. This course provides opportunities for candidates to apply and evaluate the theories and methods studies in education coursework through intense fieldwork observation and lesson preparation within the subject areas of mathematics and science. Integrated lesson planning and unit development with appropriate assessment will be a strong component of course content. This course is also designed to provide opportunity to demonstrate the use of critical thinking and informed decision making concerning teaching and learning.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): EDU 410 and Elementary Education major

EDU 435 - Teaching Science to Diverse Learners

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall

Studies the current best practice techniques and curriculum development used in teaching science in the public schools. Emphasis is placed on effective instructional methods and evaluation procedures. A minimum of 10 hours of observation and participation in science classrooms is required with the purpose of providing students with opportunities to apply methods learned in this course to public school settings.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): EDU 410 and Elementary Education major

EDU 440 - Classroom Management and Ethics

Units: 3

When Offered: As offered

This course explores the context and best practices of teacher ethics and classroom management. The course equips students to navigate the implicit and explicit ethical dilemmas inherent in the routine decisions teachers make every school day in a manner consistent with the profession's code of ethics. The course also equips students with a variety of classroom management and ethics strategies and techniques to optimize the learning environment for all students.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Fieldwork: 10 hours of fieldwork is required

Prerequisite(s): Credential program acceptance

Pre- or Co- Requisite(s): EDU 409

EDU 442 - Language Arts and Content Literacy Instruction for Diverse Learners

Units: 4

When Offered: Fall

This course is a study of the scope, organization and instructional procedures used to teach language arts/content area literacy, English language learners and students who are struggling with their literacy development. Students will learn how to design and develop interdisciplinary units of study, how to write and assess instructional objectives suitable for a diverse student population, and learn how to organize and integrate language arts instruction in the public school classroom. These units and lessons must follow state adopted curriculum standards and frameworks. Various teaching strategies will be demonstrated and experienced during the class periods including SDAIE strategies for English Language Learners. Students will work in collaborative groups to complete portions of class work. This course focuses on preparing elementary school teacher candidates to identify the challenges and support related to academic language within the content areas. In addition, the course prepares teacher candidates to use content-based literacy strategies (e.g. reading, writing, speaking, and listening) to facilitate learning of content area subject matter for the full range of learners in the classroom. This course will also examine various research-based assessment practices for elementary school teachers.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): EDU 416 and Elementary Education major

EDU 450 - Bilingual Issues and Methods

Units: 3

When Offered: As offered

This course provides an in-depth study of the legal, ethical, social, and cultural issues surrounding the field of bilingual education. Students will study and develop methods of delivering academic content in English in order to provide bilingual students with equal access to the curriculum.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

EDU 490 - Subject Area Specialization

Units: 3

When Offered: As offered

Working almost exclusively in small groups or one-on-one with the instructor, students focus only on the strategies and methods designed specifically for their subject area. In addition to the hours of observation required, divided equally between middle school and high school, students in this course will teach three mini lessons, which are directly supervised by a master teacher, visit Open house night, sit in on a parent teacher conference, and tutor students.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): Credential program acceptance, EDU 407, 409, 411, and 497

EDU 490E - Subject Area Specialization: English

Units: 3

When Offered: As offered

Students learn research-based methodologies that are specific to English content area instruction. Students engage with relevant information from textbooks, experts, and professional journals associated with English and secondary instruction. In addition, students participate in fieldwork hours that take them into both middle and high schools.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): EDU 407, 409, 411, 497 and permission of the Program Director

EDU 490H - Subject Area Specialization: History or Social Science

Units: 3

When Offered: As offered

Students learn research-based methodologies that are specific to History or Social Science content area instruction. Students engage with relevant information from textbooks, experts, and professional journals associated with History or Social Science and secondary instruction. In addition, students participate in fieldwork hours that take them into both middle and high schools.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): EDU 407, 409, 411, 497 and permission of the Program Director

EDU 490L - Subject Area Specialization: Health

Units: 3

When Offered: As offered

Students learn research-based methodologies that are specific to Health content area instruction. Students engage with relevant information from textbooks, experts, and professional journals associated with Health and secondary instruction. In addition, students participate in fieldwork hours that take them into both middle and high schools.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): EDU 407, 409, 411, 497 and permission of the Program Director

EDU 490M - Subject Area Specialization: Math

Units: 3

When Offered: As offered

Students learn research-based methodologies that are specific to Math content area instruction. Students engage with relevant information from textbooks, experts, and professional journals associated with Math and secondary instruction. In addition, students participate in fieldwork hours that take them into both middle and high schools.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): EDU 407, 409, 411, 497 and permission of the Program Director

EDU 490P - Subject Area Specialization: Physical Education

Units: 3

When Offered: As offered

Students learn research-based methodologies that are specific to Physical Education content area instruction. Students engage with relevant information from textbooks, experts, and professional journals associated with Physical Education and secondary instruction. In addition, students participate in fieldwork hours that take them into both middle and high schools.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): EDU 407, 409, 411, 497 and permission of the Program Director

EDU 490S - Subject Area Specialization: Science

Units: 3

When Offered: As offered

Students learn research-based methodologies that are specific to Science content area instruction. Students engage with relevant information from textbooks, experts, and professional journals associated with Science and secondary instruction. In addition, students participate in fieldwork hours that take them into both middle and high schools.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): EDU 407, 409, 411, 497 and permission of the Program Director

EDU 490U - Subject Area Specialization: Music

Units: 3

When Offered: As offered

Students learn research-based methodologies that are specific to Music content area instruction. Students engage with relevant information from textbooks, experts, and professional journals associated with Music and secondary instruction. In addition, students participate in fieldwork hours that take them into both middle and high schools.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): EDU 407, 409, 411, 497 and permission of the Program Director

EDU 490V - Subject Area Specialization: Visual Art

Units: 3

When Offered: As offered

Students learn research-based methodologies that are specific to Visual Art content area instruction. Students engage with relevant information from textbooks, experts, and professional journals associated with Visual Art and secondary instruction. In addition, students participate in fieldwork hours that take them into both middle and high schools.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): EDU 407, 409, 411, 497, and permission of the Program Director

EDU 490W - Subject Area Specialization: World Languages (Spanish)

Units: 3

When Offered: As offered

Students learn research-based methodologies that are specific to World Languages content area instruction in Spanish. Students engage with relevant information from textbooks, experts, and professional journals associated with Spanish instruction at the secondary level. In addition, students participate in fieldwork hours that take them into both middle and high schools.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): EDU 497 and permission of the Program Director

EDU 497 - Secondary Methods

Units: 3

When Offered: As offered

This course examines various research-based instructional techniques, planning strategies, methods, and assessment practices for the secondary schools, both public and private. Structured observation is required, equally divided between the middle school and high school classroom. This course will introduce the California TPA process.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): Credential program acceptance

Pre- or Co- Requisite(s): EDU 409

EDU 498 - Student Teaching and Seminar

Units: 14

When Offered: As offered

Teaching experience in a school setting under the guidance of a University supervisor with a cooperating teacher in the school. Open to general education or dual credential teacher candidates who have completed the course, testing, and document requirements.

Grade Type: Pass/Fail

Prerequisite(s): Permission of the Program Director

Concurrent Requisite(s): EDU 499

EDU 499 - Student Teaching Portfolio

Units: 1

When Offered: As offered

Teaching candidates complete the TPA portfolio as a comprehensive assessment of the Teacher Performance Expectations. Students are required to take this course concurrently with EDU 498 - Student Teaching and Seminar.

Grade Type: Pass/Fail

Prerequisite(s): Permission of the Program Director

Pre- or Co- Requisite(s): EDU 498

ETC 407 - Technology and Learning

Units: 3

When Offered: As offered

Candidates will examine and apply various instructional theories and technologies to enhance student engagement and achievement. Candidates will demonstrate proficiency in various computer, web, and mobile device applications for the K-12 classroom and evaluate their relative effectiveness in relation to student achievement.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

SPE 446 - Applied Behavior Analysis

Units: 3

When Offered: As offered

This course focuses on developing an educational approach to supporting positive academic and social behaviors in the classroom and community using the principles of Applied Behavior Analysis (ABA). Specifically, students will be presented with the concepts of reinforcement, punishment, stimulus control, shaping and, fading as they are applied to increasing or decreasing academic and social behaviors. Students will also be presented with information regarding functional assessment, behavior support plans and laws (federal and state) governing behavioral issues related to individuals with special needs.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): Credential program acceptance, EDU 341, and 409

SPE 448 - Technology and Moderate to Severe Disabilities

Units: 3

When Offered: As offered

This course discusses the use of technology for education and support of students with moderate to severe disabilities. Particular focus will be placed on students with autism spectrum disorder. Completion of a college level technology course is recommended.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): Credential program acceptance, EDU 341, and 409

SPE 455 - Consultation, Collaboration, and Effective Interventions

Units: 3

When Offered: As offered

This course will focus on the basic aspects of effective communication between special education professionals and others involved in the education and care of individuals with disabilities, including parents and family members. Special education teachers will acquire methods for effective team-building, knowledge of community resources, and advocacy. They will learn how to promote self-advocacy for persons in special education.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Fieldwork: 10 hours of fieldwork required

Prerequisite(s): Credential program acceptance, EDU 341, and 409

SPE 458 - Assessment and Interventions

Units: 4

When Offered: As offered

This course will provide candidates with an advanced theoretical foundation related to the distinct characteristics of mild/moderate disabilities. Candidates will use information regarding characteristics of individuals with mild/moderate service needs to develop instructional interventions that honor and support the unique characteristics of these individuals. The course consists of three components: (a) a clinical component in which CBU candidates will work directly with elementary students on a regular basis; (b) a face-to-face component in which CBU candidates engage in the course content directly with the course the professor unless otherwise specified; (c) an online component in which CBU candidates engage in online learning experiences designed to introduce, reinforce, or expand the candidates knowledge and skills.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): Credential program acceptance, EDU 341, and 409

SPE 468 - Teaching Students with Moderate to Severe Disabilities: Instructional Strategies

Units: 3

When Offered: As offered

Instructional strategies for students with moderate/severe disabilities. Includes assessment, curriculum adaptations, curriculum delivery, and program evaluation. Topics include functional academics, communication skills, behavioral issues, and accessing the core curriculum.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): Credential program acceptance, EDU 341, and 409

SPE 469 - Teaching Students with Moderate to Severe Disabilities: Community Integration

Units: 3

When Offered: As offered

Integrating students with moderate or severe disabilities into the community. Includes social networks, social skills, community based instruction, movement, mobility, and specialized health care.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): Credential program acceptance, EDU 341, and 409

SPE 490 - Diagnostic and Remedial Techniques in Reading

Units: 4

When Offered: As offered

This course will focus on the various causes of reading disabilities, including severe visual and phonological dyslexia; formal and informal methods for diagnosing reading problems; and the application of the results of assessment in IEP design. Instruments such as the Wide Range Achievement Test, Informal Phonics Inventory, Fry's High Frequency Sight Word Test, the Johns Informal Reading Inventory, and the Woodcock Reading Inventory will be covered. Students will also examine various instructional procedures, strategies, and materials for remediating reading disabilities in students in special education and mainstream classrooms. A clinical practicum is included.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): Credential program acceptance, EDU 341, 409, and 416

SPE 498 - Student Teaching in Special Education

Units: 15

When Offered: As offered

Teaching experience in a special education school setting under the guidance of a University supervisor with a cooperating teacher in the school. Open to teacher candidates who have completed the course, testing, and document requirements.

Grade Type: Pass/Fail

Prerequisite(s): Permission of the Program Director

EGR 101 - Engineering from a Christian Worldview

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall

The course serves as an introduction to the exciting field and vocation of engineering and the value of engineering education. This course includes guest lectures describing various engineering disciplines, team-based introductory projects, community service, and weekly readings that focus on how to be successful as an engineering student. The weekly readings include topics on self-discovery, goal setting, work-life balance, and understanding the teaching/learning process. A course emphasis includes Christian perspectives on purpose, integrity, and service as they relate to the vocation of engineering. This is the first course required of all students considering engineering as a major. Note: This is a required course for Engineering, Computer Science, and Construction Management Majors.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Pre- or Co- Requisite(s): ICS 105

EGR 102 - Introduction to Engineering Design

Units: 4

When Offered: Spring

Introduction to fundamental techniques used in engineering design and analysis. Different models of the design process will be examined. A collaborative team oriented design project will be undertaken.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

EGR 103 - Engineering Service I

Units: 1-3

When Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer

Taking engineering out into the community through service. Activities important to the community will be addressed by teams of engineering students. Intended to stimulate ideas of engineering design classes. 30 hours of service required per unit.

Repeatable: May be repeated for credit

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Pre- or Co- Requisite(s): EGR 101 or 102

EGR 106 - Introduction to Engineering Design - Energy Systems

Units: 1

When Offered: Spring

A broad overview of fundamentals and applied concepts of energy used in engineering design and analysis. Energy issues related to sources, generation, delivery, conversion, efficiency and the environment will be discussed. Basic design calculation problems dealing with thermodynamics and heat transfer principles will be examined. This course is for the students with approved design experience.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): Permission of the Department Chair

EGR 121 - Introduction to Computer Programming in C++

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall, Spring, & Online

Introduction to computer science. Covers problem solving methods and algorithm development, modern programming methodologies, and fundamentals of high-level block structured language using C++.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): EGR 181 or MAT 115

EGR 122 - Visualization Languages I

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall, Spring

Engineering is a discipline which requires the effective communication of visual information as part of persuasion or education. Excel (beginning and advanced techniques), and a CAD program will be covered to assist in that process for a real current engineering problem of interest. For example this might include the utilization of solar power in Riverside County to address energy consumption concerns. This course lays the foundation for future courses which have elements of data and information presentation.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

EGR 124 - Visualization Languages - Excel

Units: 1

When Offered: Fall, Spring

Beginning through advanced level of Excel will be covered to assist real engineering problems and data analysis. This course lays the foundation for future courses which have elements of data and information presentation. This course is for the students with approved AutoCAD course and experience.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): Permission of the Department Chair

EGR 181 - Elementary Mathematics for Engineering Applications with Lab

Units: 4

When Offered: Fall

This is a four unit course that prepares the engineering student for EGR 182. There is no prerequisite. This course will include instruction in the following areas: graphs, linear equations, polynomials, factoring, functions, roots and radicals, quadratic equations and inequalities, graphing relations and functions, polynomial and rational functions, inverse, exponential and logarithmic functions, systems of equations and inequalities, matrices and determinants, as well as sequences and series.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

EGR 182 - Introductory Mathematics for Engineering Applications

Units: 4

When Offered: Fall, Spring

This course will provide an overview of the salient math topics most heavily used in the core sophomore-level engineering courses. These include trigonometry, vectors, complex numbers, sinusoids and harmonic signals, systems of equations and matrices, derivatives, integrals, differential equations and Fourier series within the context of an engineering application. These concepts will be reinforced through extensive examples of their use in the core engineering curriculum. Students may only earn credit for either EGR 182 or EGR 182L.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): EGR 181 or MAT 115

EGR 182L - Introductory Mathematics for Engineering Applications Lab

Units: 1

When Offered: Fall, Spring

This lab course will focus on engineering applications of the math topics covered in EGR 182 and MATLAB programming skills. The lab sessions include experiments of mechanical and electric systems involving math topics most heavily used in the core sophomore-level engineering courses, such as algebraic, trigonometry, vectors and complex numbers, sinusoids and harmonic signals, and derivatives. Students may only earn credit for either EGR 182 or EGR 182L.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): Permission of the Department Chair

EGR 192 - Engineering Seminar I

Units: 1

When Offered: Fall, Spring

Different speakers of importance to the engineering profession will make presentations. Included are area engineering leaders and professionals as well as nationally recognized contributors to the profession of engineering. A two page '4MAT' response which includes a one page executive summary will be required.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

EGR 221 - Data Structures

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring & Online

Develops discipline in program design, style, debugging, testing. Examines linked data structures, trees, introduction to graphs, and recursion.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): CIS 268 or EGR 121

EGR 222 - Software Engineering

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall

Overview of the software development process. Includes requirements, design, construction, and testing of software. Software project planning. Analysis, architecture, and design of software systems using UML. Evaluating designs. Implementing designs using appropriate data structures, frameworks, and APIs.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): CIS 268 or EGR 121

EGR 223 - Software Engineering Approach to Human Computer Interaction

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

Design, implementation and evaluation of user interfaces. Usability engineering. Task analysis, user-centered design, and prototyping. Conceptual models and metaphors for user interfaces.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): EGR 222

EGR 225 - Discrete Structures I

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall

Introduces the foundations of discrete mathematics as they apply to computer science, focusing on providing a solid theoretical foundation for further work. Topics include functions, relations, sets, simple proof techniques, Boolean algebra, propositional logic, digital logic, elementary number theory, and the fundamentals of counting.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

EGR 226 - Operating Systems and Networking

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

Introduces the fundamentals of operating systems including processes, memory, scheduling, input/output together with the basics of networking protocols.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): EGR 222

EGR 227 - Data Structures and Analysis

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

Fundamental data structures for implementation and analysis. Techniques for solving problems by programming. Analysis for complexity and performance trade-offs. Topics include object oriented design, debugging, abstract data types (ADTs), recursion, big-O notation, interfaces, inheritance, and encapsulation, linked lists, stacks, queues, hash tables, heap, trees, searching, sorting.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): EGR 222

EGR 231 - Circuit Theory I

Units: 4

When Offered: Fall

Linear circuit elements, sources, Kirchhoff's laws, mesh and node equations, Thevenin and Norton equivalent circuits, resistive network analysis, sinusoidal steady-state analysis, power, transient analysis of simple circuits.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Pre- or Co- Requisite(s): EGR 182 or MAT 245

EGR 232 - Circuit Theory II and Design

Units: 4

When Offered: Spring

Analysis of networks and systems by transform and state-variable methods, two-port networks, topology, network functions, application of convolution, network synthesis, filter design. An analog design project requiring a written report, poster and presentation will be required.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): EGR 231

EGR 234 - Digital Logic Design

Units: 4

When Offered: Fall

Boolean algebra, number systems and representations, analysis and design of combinational and sequential logic circuits, minimization, small and medium scale integrated devices, programmable logic and simulation of digital circuits.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): MAT 115 or higher

EGR 241 - Statics

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall, Spring

Study of forces, moments, free-body diagrams, friction, equilibrium, first and second moments of lines, centers of pressure, mass and gravity, and moments of inertia.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): EGR 182 or MAT 245

EGR 242 - Strength of Materials

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall, Spring

Introduction of stress and strain, stress transformations, analysis of stresses, strain, and deflections in axial members, beams, and torsional shafts. Analysis of pressure vessels.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): EGR 241, and either 182 or MAT 245

EGR 251 - Surveying

Units: 4

When Offered: Fall

A study of the science and art of relative spatial measurements for engineering purposes. Special emphasis is placed on the theory of errors, use of modern surveying instruments, and field practice in transit-tape traversing, leveling and route surveying. In addition, engineering graphing techniques and software are introduced.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

EGR 252 - Transportation

Units: 3

When Offered: As offered

Introduction to transportation engineering with an emphasis on highway design. Topics include transportation demand and planning, aerial photography, environmental impact statements, horizontal and vertical alignment, earthwork, volumes, and design of flexible and rigid pavements.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): EGR 251 and MAT 255

EGR 254 - Materials Engineering

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

Study of the mechanical and physical properties of construction materials. Introduction to concrete mix design.

Laboratory experiments include the measurement of strains using mechanical gauges and electrical resistance strain gauges; behavior and failure to ductile and brittle materials subjected to axial or bending forces; introduction to creep, impact and stability of columns. A design project is required, as well as written reports.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

EGR 256 - Principles of Environmental Engineering and Science

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

Introductory study of environmental engineering principles, including chemistry, microbiology, ecosystems, material and energy balances, nutrient cycles, risk assessment, risk management, sustainability, water treatment, wastewater treatment, air pollution, solid and hazardous waste, noise pollution, and radiation protection.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): CHE 112, or both 115 and 115L

EGR 261 - Fundamentals of Bioengineering I

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall

The two semester "Fundamentals of Bioengineering" course sequence introduces students to the broad field of Bioengineering and to principles, some basic engineering skills and techniques used in the profession. The course introduces broad topics in cellular and physiological principles and diverse biomedical engineering fields such as bioinstrumentation, bioimaging, biomechanics, biomaterials, and biomolecular engineering.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): EGR 182 or MAT 245

EGR 262 - Fundamentals of Bioengineering II

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

This course is a continuation of EGR 261 with application emphasis, by covering biomechanical, bioelectrical, physiological and computer modeling aspects of the field. The course covers some of the mechanical, computer modeling and electrical aspects of the field, particularly as related to the human cardiovascular system.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): EGR 261

EGR 263 - Introduction to 3D Computer Aided Design

Units: 2

When Offered: Fall

This course introduces students to three dimensional (3D) computer aided design (CAD) using Solidworks software. Students will learn to create sketches, extrusions, revolutions, and holes. Design considerations for 3D printing and/or rapid prototyping will be included.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

EGR 271 - Basic Principles and Calculations in Chemical Engineering I

Units: 2

When Offered: Fall

An introduction to concepts used in chemical engineering calculations including chemical process variables and conservation principles of mass applied to various chemical systems.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): MAT 245

Pre- or Co- Requisite(s): CHE 115 and 115L

EGR 272 - Basic Principles and Calculations in Chemical Engineering II

Units: 2

When Offered: Spring

A continuation of EGR 271 - Basic Principles and Calculations in Chemical Engineering I including conservation principles of energy applied to various chemical systems and the application of basic thermodynamic principles.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): EGR 271

Pre- or Co- Requisite(s): CHE 125 and 125L

EGR 281 - Introduction to Industrial and Systems Engineering

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall

Gateway to the Bachelor of Science in Industrial and Systems Engineering. A combination of plant tours, laboratory experiences, and lecture are used to introduce the philosophy, subject matter, aims, goals, and techniques of industrial and systems engineering.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

EGR 291 - Special Topics or Research Project

Units: 1-3

When Offered: Fall

This special registration permits the completion of lower division degree requirements for transfer or other students, program requirement changes, or other special circumstances in which students have partial but not full credit toward a specific degree requirement. It also provides the opportunity for recognition of supervised academic experiences that are not included in traditional curriculum. Registration requires approval by the dean and sponsoring faculty member. The determination of degree credits is at the time of registration.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): EGR 101 and permission of the Dean

EGR 296 - Project or Research Experience

Units: 0-3

When Offered: Summer

This course provides the opportunity for recognition of supervised academic experiences that are not included in traditional curriculum. Students are provided with the opportunity to work on projects overseen by the faculty in order to gain experience in engineering.

Repeatable: May be repeated for a maximum of six (6) units

Grade Type: Pass/Fail

Prerequisite(s): Permission of the Department Chair

EGR 301 - Engineering from a Christian Worldview

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall

The course serves as an introduction to the exciting field and vocation of engineering and the value of engineering education. This course includes guest lectures describing various engineering disciplines, team-based introductory projects, community service, and weekly readings that focus on how to be successful as an engineering student. The weekly readings include topics on self-discovery, goal setting, work-life balance, and understanding the teaching/learning process. A course emphasis includes Christian perspectives on purpose, integrity, and service as they relate to the vocation of engineering. This is the first course required of all students considering engineering as a major. Note: This is a required course for Engineering, Computer Science, and Construction Management Majors.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Pre- or Co- Requisite(s): ICS 105

EGR 302 - Engineering Design and Documentation

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall, Spring

Team design of industrial or self-designed projects. Requires the design and development of a process or product with oral and written reports. Includes a review and analysis of professional papers.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Pre- or Co- Requisite(s): EGR 305

EGR 303 - Engineering Service II

Units: 1-3

When Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer

Taking engineering out into the community or a cross cultural setting through service. Intended to stimulate ideas of engineering design classes could be taken in conjunction with the ISP or study abroad option. Fulfills the requirement of EGR 103 for upper division transfers. 30 hours of service required per unit.

Repeatable: May be repeated for credit

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): Junior status

EGR 304 - Leadership Cohort

Units: 1

When Offered: Spring

Preparation for a lifetime of leadership as an engineer. Small group discussion format, with opportunities for student facilitated discussions. Topics include: leadership in organizations, emotional intelligence, the psychology of small group dynamics and team performance, global perspectives of engineering. Written executive summaries as part of a "4MAT" like response will be required prior to discussion.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): Permission of the Department Chair

EGR 305 - Engineering Statistics

Units: 2

When Offered: Fall, Spring

An introduction to the primary statistical and probabilistic models used in the collection and interpretation of engineering data. The focus is on summary techniques, regression models, and application of the central limit theorem, confidence intervals, hypothesis tests, and analysis of variance.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): MAT 245

EGR 306 - Internship Preparation

Units: 1

When Offered: Fall

Designed to prepare you for the official internship during your junior summer. Discussion and development of the individual's priorities for their learning contract. Topics include: resume and internship writing, finding an internship, how you will be assessed as an intern, the psychology of the workplace, different types of bosses and working on teams, and the different types of work environment.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

EGR 321 - Computer Organization

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall

Study of organization and structuring of the major hardware and software components of computers. Includes mechanics of information transfer and control within a digital computer system. Introduces machine instruction sets and assembly language programming.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): EGR 234

EGR 322 - Microcontroller System Design

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

Design of hardware and software for embedded systems using a modern microcontroller. Covers hardware interfacing including memory system design, interrupt interfacing, and use of internal and external peripheral devices. Emphasis is placed on assembly language programming of the microcontroller including device drivers, exception and interrupt handling, and interfacing with higher-level languages. Laboratory exercises require assembly language programming and hardware design.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): EGR 321

EGR 323 - Software Requirements and Analysis

Units: 4

When Offered: Spring

This course covers techniques for discovering and eliciting requirements using languages and models for representing requirements, analysis, and validation techniques, including need, goal, and use case analysis, requirements in the context of system engineering, and requirements documentation standards. With a focus on traceability, human factors, and requirements management, software change requests become manageable. Quality assurance, verification, inspections, and reviews of the requirements proceed using statistical approaches to quality control.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): EGR 222

EGR 324 - Engineering Economics

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall, Spring

Economic concepts of supply, demand, and production; cost-benefit analysis and break-even analysis; return on investment; analysis of options; time value of money; management of money; economic analysis, accounting for risk applied to the engineering process.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

EGR 325 - Database Systems

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

Overview of current database technologies with an emphasis on relational database technology. Introduction to database design, entity relationship diagramming, structured query language, and stored procedures.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): EGR 222

EGR 326 - Software Design and Architecture

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

An in-depth look at software design. Study of design patterns, frameworks, and architectures. Survey of current middleware architectures. Component based design. Measurement theory and appropriate use of metrics in design. Designing for qualities such as performance, safety, security, reusability, reliability, etc. Measuring internal qualities and complexity of software. Evaluation and evolution of designs. Basics of software evolution, reengineering, and reverse engineering.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): EGR 327

EGR 327 - Software Construction

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall

Coverage of software construction fundamentals including minimizing complexity, anticipating change, and constructing for verification. Discussion will include best practices like patterns, object orientated programming and agility. Management of the construction process and accounting for practical considerations will also be examined.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): EGR 222 and 227

EGR 328 - Numerical Methods for Computing

Units: 2

When Offered: Spring

The course introduces numerical methods for computing using standard Numerical Libraries. Students will solve matrix equations with decompositions, including LU and QR. The Singular Value Decompositions are covered in depth as the foundation for Natural Language Processing.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): MAT 255

EGR 329 - Computer Architecture

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall

Introduces students to the organization and architecture of computer systems, beginning with the standard von Neumann model and then moving forward to more recent architectural concepts. Introduction to assembly language programming.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): EGR 121 and 225

EGR 331 - Signals and Systems

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall

Characterization of linear systems by impulse response, convolution, transfer function. Study of linear differential equations and linear difference equations as models. Study of continuous and discrete signals including filters and their effects. Uses transform methods including Fourier series and transforms, FFT, Laplace transforms and Z transforms. Includes computer problems. Assumes familiarity with MATLAB computer software.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): EGR 232 and MAT 255

EGR 332 - Communication Systems

Units: 3

When Offered: As offered

Introduction to principles of modern communication systems with an emphasis on digital data transmission. Pulse amplitude and pulse code modulation are covered. Digital techniques of delta modulation and time division multiplexing are presented. The basics of AM, FM, and PM transmitters and receivers are treated along with noise effects, filtering, threshold effects and phase-locked loops. Common carrier, fiber optic, satellite and television systems are outlined. Local and Wide area networks are explored in depth.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): EGR 331

EGR 333 - Electronics I

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall

Study of electronic devices and basic circuit configurations. Topics covered include amplifier basics, diodes, field effect transistors, and bipolar junction transistors. Includes lab problems.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): EGR 232

EGR 334 - Electronics II

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

Study of integrated-circuit amplifier design techniques, differential amplifiers, frequency response, feedback, and operational amplifiers. Special topics may include CMOS digital logic circuits, output stages and power amplifiers, filters, and oscillators. Includes lab problems.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): EGR 333

EGR 335 - Data Acquisition, Design and Visualization

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall

Design and implementation of computer-assisted data acquisition (DAQ) systems and computer controlled instrumentation. Designs are implemented and visualized as virtual instruments using the LabVIEW Graphical Programming Language.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): EGR 232

EGR 341 - Thermodynamics

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall

Thermodynamic properties, heat and work, first and second laws, processes, ideal and nonideal cycles.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): Both CHE 115 and 115L, and PHY 203, 214, or EGR 272

EGR 342 - Fluid Mechanics

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

Introductory concepts of fluid motions, fluid statics, control volume forms and basic principles, and applications basic principles of fluid mechanics to problems in viscous and compressible flow.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Pre- or Co- Requisite(s): MAT 342 or 343

EGR 343 - Dynamics

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall

Kinematics and kinetics of particles and rigid bodies including Newton's Second Law, work energy methods, impulse-momentum, central and oblique impact.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): EGR 241, MAT 255, and PHY 201

EGR 344 - Materials and Manufacturing Processes

Units: 4

When Offered: Fall

Properties of the principal families of materials used in mechanical engineering design with an introduction to the manufacturing processes used to convert these materials into finished products. Application of statistics and probability to material properties and manufacturing. Laboratory experiments in strength of materials, property of materials, and manufacturing processes.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): EGR 242

EGR 346 - Machine Design

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall

The fundamentals of machine elements in mechanical design. Includes the analysis of components under static and fatigue loadings, and the analysis, properties, and selection of machine elements such as shafts, gears, belts, chains, brakes, clutches, bearings, screw drives and fasteners.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): EGR 242

EGR 351 - Structural Analysis I

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall

Application of fundamental analysis concepts to the behavior of civil engineering structures and structural components. Analysis of statically determinate and indeterminate structures using classical methods such as Slope Deflection and Moment Distribution. Introduction to a typical Structural Analysis Computer Programs.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): EGR 242

EGR 352 - Structural Design I

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

Principles of the design of steel structures. Design includes axial tension and compression members, flexural members, beam-columns, connections and composite design. LRFD methods are used.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): EGR 351

EGR 353 - Soil Mechanics

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall

The study of index, mechanical and hydraulic properties of soils. Soil identification, compaction, shear strength, consolidation, vertical stress distribution, and flow through porous media. Principles of laboratory identification and testing of soils. Site investigation and in situ testing.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): EGR 254

EGR 354 - Soil and Foundation Engineering

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

A continuation of EGR 353. Lateral earth pressures, retaining wall design, elastic stress distribution, settlement, and bearing capacity of foundation systems. Sizing of shallow and deep foundation systems.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): EGR 353

EGR 355 - Dynamics and Vibration

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall

This course covers the topics of kinetics and kinematics of a particle and rigid body. The topics under kinematics and kinetics include: force and acceleration, work and energy, and impulse and momentum. The course also covers free and forced vibrations for undamped and damped systems. On an application level, students work with a computerized model using Matlab/Simulink.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): EGR 241

EGR 356 - Hydrology

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

Introduction to surface and ground water hydrology: hydrologic cycle, precipitation, evaporation, infiltration, groundwater flow, well hydraulics, runoff, rainfall-runoff relationships, uniform flow in open channels, streamflow measurements, hydrologic routing, hydrologic modeling, hydrologic probability, and applications.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): MAT 245

EGR 361 - Introduction to Biomechanics

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall

The course introduces biomechanical principles and their application from a quantitative and rehabilitation perspective. Primary topic areas will include kinematics and kinetics of human movement including modern measurement techniques in human movement science. A model-based description of the mechanical behavior of biological tissues and how biomechanical and neural factors interact in human movement will also be introduced. Labs will provide the student with an understanding of fundamental techniques used in biomechanical analyses and rehabilitation engineering design and development.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): BIO 153 and EGR 242

EGR 363 - Biofluid Mechanics and Relevant Technologies

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall

Introduces the basic principles of fluid mechanics and applies them to key functions of the human body. Students will learn topics such as Poiseuille flow, Bernoulli's equation, and Ohm's Law analogy and how they relate to cardiovascular physiology, prosthetic heart valves, and aqueous humor dynamics relevant to Glaucoma. Medical Devices and sensors relating to fluid flow will be covered as well as basic Heat Transfer and Thermodynamics. Course includes a weekly laboratory session that includes both hands-on experimental measurements and computer-based numerical modeling of fluid flow using MATLAB.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): EGR 382, and either 262 or PHY 203

EGR 364 - Bioimaging

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

Medical imaging techniques have become important tools for monitoring of diseases and understanding of the molecular aspects of living organisms. This course provides a broad-based overview of major imaging techniques used in biomedical patient care and research. Imaging techniques covered include x-ray, computed tomography (CT), ultrasound, nuclear medicine (PET), and magnetic resonance imaging (MRI). The underlying physics, image formation theories and selected applications are lectured.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): EGR 382

EGR 365 - Biomedical Engineering Research and Instrumentation

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

This course focuses on laboratory research projects and topics of current interest that are not normally covered in other established courses. Students are expected to be actively engaged in the research and design activity by performing experiments, simulations, or related lab tasks and also by conducting literature review for a project. Through participation in experimental/engineering designs, students will learn how to collect and generate data for papers, posters, and presentations to be used in a professional seminar or journal articles. Content varies from year to year, and are determined by both instructor and student interest.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): Permission of the Department Chair

Concurrent Requisite(s): EGR 305

EGR 367 - Machine Learning for Bioengineering

Units: 2

When Offered: Fall

Machine learning uses interdisciplinary principles of linear algebra, statistics, probability theory, optimization techniques, and computer programming to construct useful patterns of data and make accurate predictions. Machine learning is becoming prominent, with various applications in the field of biomedical engineering. This course will introduce students to the fundamental theories and algorithms for machine learning. Through this course, students will explore various machine learning algorithms (Bayesian classification, linear/nonlinear regression, logistic regression, support vector machines, principal component analysis, and deep learning) and learn how to implement them using Python.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): EGR 262 and 382

EGR 371 - Heat and Mass Transport

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall

Study of fundamental heat and mass transfer principles including conduction, forced and free convection (including the application of boundary layer concepts), radiation, and diffusion. It will include the analysis and computation of heat transfer, mass transfer, temperature, and concentration profiles in systems with simple geometries. Estimation and use of local and overall heat and mass transfer coefficients will be covered.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): EGR 272, 342, and MAT 342

EGR 372 - Chemical Engineering Thermodynamics

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

The fundamentals and applications of thermodynamic properties and processes with a focus on multi-component systems including phase equilibria, nonideal solution behavior, and chemical reaction equilibria. Turbines, compressors, power plants, refrigeration cycles.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): EGR 272, MAT 342, CHE 415, and PHY 203

EGR 372 - Chemical Engineering Thermodynamics

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

The fundamentals and applications of thermodynamic properties and processes with a focus on multi-component systems including phase equilibria, non-ideal solution behavior, and chemical reaction equilibria. Analysis and design of process equipment and systems using thermodynamics.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): EGR 272, 341, and MAT 342

Pre- or Co- Requisite(s): PHY 203

EGR 373 - Materials Engineering and Selection

Units: 2

When Offered: Spring

An introduction to the properties and processing of metals, polymers, and other materials. The influences of crystal structure, bonding, and electronic structure on physical and mechanical properties are examined. Causes and control of various types of corrosion are explored.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): CHE 125 and 125L

EGR 374 - Separations

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

Study of separation processes including continuous contact, staged, and batch processes. Separations by phase addition/creation, barrier, interaction with solids, and external field or gradient will be examined.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): EGR 371

Pre- or Co- Requisite(s): EGR 372

EGR 381 - Operations Research I: Deterministic Methods

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall

Introduction to linear programming; transportation and assignment problems; dynamic programming; integer programming; nonlinear programming.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): MAT 115 or higher

EGR 382 - Applied Differential Equations and Linear Algebra

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall, Spring

An introduction to ordinary differential equations is complemented with the tandem presentation of elementary linear algebra, inclusive of vector spaces, matrices, systems of linear equations, and eigenvectors and eigenvalues. Theory and solution methods for differential equations, including numerical approximations, are presented along with engineering-related applications. MATLAB is used for computer-based methods.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): EGR 121 and MAT 255

EGR 383 - Quality Control

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall

Quantitative aspects of statistical quality control (process control, acceptance sampling by attribute and by variable, rectifying inspection), quality assurance and the management of QC/QA functions.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): EGR 305

EGR 384 - Human Factors and Ergonomics

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

Physiological systems and psychological characteristics; ergonomics; anthropometry; effects of the physical environment on humans; occupational safety and health; work methods.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

EGR 386 - Operations Research II: Probabilistic Methods

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

An introduction to ordinary differential equations is complemented with the tandem presentation of elementary linear Stochastic processes; Markov chains; queuing theory and queuing decision models; probabilistic inventory models.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): EGR 305

EGR 390 - Internship

Units: 1

When Offered: As offered

A required internship with industry, research, non profit or other experience with a minimum of 200 hours of supervised work. A learning contract signed by the student and supervisor is required at the beginning and an executive summary written by the student and signed by the supervisor is required at completion.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): EGR 306

EGR 392 - Engineering Seminar II

Units: 1

When Offered: Spring

Different speakers of importance to the engineering profession will make presentations. Included are area engineering leaders and professionals as well as nationally recognized contributors to the profession of engineering. Short reflection papers are required and will be included in your electronic portfolio. May serve as EGR 192 credit for upper division transfer students.

Repeatable: May be repeated for credit

Grade Type: Letter Grade

EGR 400 - Special Topics in Engineering

Units: 3

When Offered: As offered

This course offers a concentration upon a specific topic in the field of engineering. The topic varies by semester.

Repeatable: May be repeated for credit with change in topic

Grade Type: Letter Grade

EGR 400 - Special Topics in Engineering

Units: 1-3

When Offered: As offered

This course offers a concentration upon a specific topic in the field of engineering. The topic varies by semester.

Repeatable: May be repeated for a maximum of eighteen (18) units with change in topic

Grade Type: Letter Grade

EGR 401 - Capstone Design

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall

The first of a two course senior capstone design sequence. Various design topics may be discussed including equipment design, the design of process systems, and economics. Student teams select a project which may involve company sponsorship, and proceed through the design methodology introduced in earlier design classes, incorporating appropriate engineering standards and multiple realistic constraints. Every project has a 'customer' which requires the generation of a customer spec. During the sequence students provide detailed schedules for building a prototype system or designing a process and present weekly progress reports. They also produce technical specifications, undergo a preliminary design review (PDR), and build a working prototype system if appropriate.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): EGR 302 or 352

EGR 402 - Capstone Design and Presentation

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

A continuation of EGR 401 - Capstone Design. Further development of the project will take place and will involve testing as appropriate. Teams will develop proper documentation for their projects and will appropriately communicate and present the results of their project. A final presentation is given to the public which could include members of the engineering advisory council. The presentation will be recorded and included as a part of students' senior portfolios.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): EGR 401

EGR 403 - FE Exam

Units: 1

When Offered: Fall

A review course for the Fundamentals of Engineering Exam or an equivalent exam for the programs within the College of Engineering. Review topics may be tailored to fit the needs of the various programs. Exam policies and test-taking strategies may be covered.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): Senior status

EGR 405 - Internship Report and Presentation

Units: 1

When Offered: Fall, Spring

Students will report on their internship experiences. Each student will submit a written report and give an oral presentation. Students will receive faculty and peer evaluations of their presentations.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): Permission of the Department Chair

EGR 423 - Mobile Applications Development

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall

Investigation of mobile operating systems and associated software development environments. Consideration of unique constraints and techniques for creating software designed for mobile devices. Design and development of a mobile application.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): EGR 325 and 327

EGR 424 - Web Application Development

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

The design and development of data driven web applications. The integration and exploitation of HTML, JavaScript, server-side programming languages and database technology.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): EGR 325

EGR 425 - Real Time and Embedded Development

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

Focus on Programming real-time applications on an embedded platform running a real-time operating system (RTOS). Consideration will be given to cross-compiled software development, embedded system debugging, multitasking, real-time scheduling, inter-task communication, software design for deterministic execution time, software performance analysis and optimization, device drivers.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): EGR 222 and 329

EGR 427 - Software Project Management

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall

Project planning, cost estimation and scheduling. Project management tools. Analysis of options and risks. Release and configuration management. Software process standards and process implementation. Approaches to maintenance and long-term software development.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): EGR 222

EGR 431 - Control Systems

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

Analog control system modeling, analysis, and design using root locus and frequency response methods. Introduction to state variable methods and digital control. Includes lab projects on real-time control systems. MATLAB and SIMULINK are used extensively as design tools.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): EGR 331

EGR 432 - Applied Electromagnetics

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

Vector description of the electric and magnetic properties of free space (using the laws of Coulomb, Ampere, and Faraday). Maxwell's electromagnetic field equations. Wave propagation in unbounded regions, reflection and refraction of waves, and transmission lines and antennas.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): EGR 232, MAT 343, and PHY 203

EGR 433 - Power Electronics

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall

Introduction to the power electronic systems, power controls, switching circuits; power converter topologies and magnetic components including AC/DC, DC/DC, DC/AC converters and their applications.

Grade Type: Letter Grade
Prerequisite(s): EGR 334 and 431

EGR 434 - Robot Modeling and Control

Units: 3

When Offered: As offered

Introduction to fundamentals of robotics. Topics include coordinate frames and transformations, forward and inverse positional kinematics, velocities and Jacobians of linkages, dynamics, sensors and actuators, path planning, robot control methodologies. Special topics such as teleoperation, haptics or computer vision will be introduced. Includes lab problems.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): EGR 431

EGR 435 - Advanced Digital System Design Using FPGAs

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall

Field-Programmable Gate Arrays (FPGAs) have become a popular method of implementing digital electronic designs. Introduction to FPGA integrated circuit structure, concepts, programming, and user designs by way of lecture and laboratory. Thorough treatment of the Verilog Hardware Description Language (HDL) and Xilinx design software plus development boards, in a learn-by-doing approach, via simulation and actual implementation plus testing. Students are taught design building blocks in ever increasing complexity, first combinational blocks then sequential. For example: multiplexors, decoders, counters, state-machines, UARTS and finally an imbedded microcontroller.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): EGR 322

EGR 437 - Digital Signals and Systems

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall

This course focuses on the representation and analysis of discrete-time signals and systems, and also provides an introduction on digital signal processing. Topics covered include convolution sum, difference equations, discrete-time Fourier Series and Fourier Transform, z-Transform, sampling and reconstruction, DFT, FFT, digital FIR and IIR filters.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): EGR 331

EGR 441 - Heat Transfer

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

Steady and unsteady heat conduction including numerical solutions, forced and natural convection in external and internal flows, thermal radiation properties and exchange between surfaces, introduction to heat exchangers, and boiling and condensation are covered.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): EGR 341

Pre- or Co- Requisite(s): EGR 342

EGR 442 - Computer-Aided Engineering Design and Visualization

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

Design, analysis and visualization of engineering components and systems using interactive computer programs with emphasis on computer simulation.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): EGR 242

EGR 443 - Mechanical Vibrations

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

The theory and analysis of vibrating systems including single and multi-degrees of freedom, free and forced, vibrations, with and without damping.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): EGR 343 and 382

EGR 444 - Mechanical Engineering Laboratory

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

Measurement of fluid flow, heat transfer, power and other properties of mechanical equipment. Design of experiments, use of data acquisition systems, data reporting and presentation.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): EGR 305 and 441

Pre- or Co- Requisite(s): EGR 443

EGR 445 - Thermal Design of Heat Exchangers

Units: 3

When Offered: As offered

This course covers the topics of classification of heat exchangers, design methods, single-phase convection correlations and two phase-correlations, pressure drop calculations, and fouling of heat exchangers. Study of various types of heat exchangers are also discussed, such as double pipe heat exchangers, shell-and-tube heat exchanger, compact heat exchangers, plate heat exchangers, condensers, and evaporators.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): EGR 371 or 441

EGR 446 - Aerodynamics

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

This course will introduce students the topic of gas dynamics and concepts of lift, drag, and pitching moment. The course will also cover the topics of potential flow, mechanics of laminar and turbulent flow, boundary-layer theory, and applications to wings and turbo-machinery. Numerical analysis will also be utilized in design analysis and problem solving.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

EGR 447 - Mechanics of Composite Structures

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall

This course will introduce students to the fiber-reinforced composite materials and structures with emphasis on numerical analysis. Topics covered in this course will include composite micromechanics and failure criteria, design considerations for structures made of composite materials, and the overview of fabrication process and experimental characterization.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): EGR 242

EGR 448 - Propulsion

Units: 3

When Offered: As offered

This course will introduce students to the topic of propulsion, stationary power production with gas turbine engines, and reciprocating engines. Air-breathing propulsion is emphasized, with a brief treatment of rocket propulsion. It also includes the application of thermodynamic and fluid-mechanical principles to analysis of performance and design with numerical methods.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

EGR 451 - Project and Construction Management

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall

An introduction to professional construction management practice including contracts, addendums, bonds, design-build, bids, specifications, scheduling, and other legal issues.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): Junior or Senior status

EGR 452 - Structural Dynamics and Earthquake Engineering

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

The course will focus on the analysis of the dynamic response of structural systems. Students will be introduced to the basic concepts of seismology and structural dynamics including the evaluation of structural response to earthquake motions. We will also discuss the seismic design procedure in building codes used in the United States. This will enable students to have a better understanding of dynamic behavior of structural systems under earthquakes. Students will also use their knowledge of seismic design to prepare the Professional Engineer's (PE) examination, which is a mandatory section in California.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): EGR 351 and 343

EGR 453 - Environmental Engineering I

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall

Introductory study of water treatment and supply, wastewater collection and treatment common to rural and metropolitan areas. Laboratory principles and methods related to safety, sampling, data analysis, and measurement of selected physical, chemical, and biological characteristics of water and wastewater are introduced. Field trips are required.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): Senior status

EGR 454 - Environmental Engineering II

Units: 3When Offered: As offered

Introductory study of solid and hazardous waste management and air pollution control. Study of solid and hazardous waste properties, sources, composition, magnitude, and regulations. Engineered solid waste management functional elements will be introduced. Landfilling methods including siting and modern landfill designs will be studied.

Introduction to air pollution sources, quality, meteorology, atmospheric dispersion modeling, and control methods.

Field trips are required.

Grade Type: Letter GradePrerequisite(s): EGR 453

EGR 455 - Structural Design II

Units: 3When Offered: Fall

Principles of the design of reinforced concrete structures. Design includes flexural members, compression members, one-way slabs and footings. ACI Strength Design Method.

Grade Type: Letter GradePrerequisite(s): EGR 352

EGR 456 - Sustainable Civil Engineering

Units: 3When Offered: As offered

This course will focus on applying the principles and practices necessary such that planning, design, and construction of a project can be sustainable technically, economically, and environmentally. Students will carefully examine scientific, economic, energy, political, ethical, and regulatory principles by evaluating two actual case studies—one in a developed country; one in a developing country.

Grade Type: Letter GradePrerequisite(s): EGR 256

EGR 457 - Transportation Engineering

Units: 3When Offered: Fall

Introduction to transportation engineering with an emphasis on highway design. Topics include transportation demand and planning, aerial photography, environmental impact statements, horizontal and vertical alignment, earthwork, volumes, and design of flexible and rigid pavements, and batteries.

Grade Type: Letter GradePrerequisite(s): Junior or Senior status

EGR 458 - Water Resources Engineering

Units: 3When Offered: Spring

A continuation and extension of Fluid Mechanics with civil engineering applications of hydraulic and hydrologic engineering. Applications of the concepts from Fluid Mechanics (hydrostatics, conservation laws), analyses of pipe flows, pipe networks, hydraulic machinery, hydroelectric power, pressure conduits, reservoirs and dams, and open channel flow are covered.

Grade Type: Letter GradePrerequisite(s): EGR 342 and 356

EGR 459 - Advanced Transportation Engineering

Units: 3

When Offered: As offered

Advanced transportation engineering with an emphasis on the design, construction, maintenance and rehabilitation of highway pavements, airport pavements, railroads, traffic engineering, sustainable transportation systems. The course will cover topics like transportation material characterization, pavement structural design, pavement damage (distress) prediction, airport pavement design specifications, railroad sub-structure design, traffic forecasting, and building sustainable transportation infrastructure.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): EGR 251

EGR 461 - Rehabilitation Engineering

Units: 3

When Offered: As offered

The course provides a basic understanding of assistive technology research and application in: wheelchair technology, augmentative communication, computer access, home and work site modifications, environmental access, and prosthetics. Course also includes a focus on novel prosthetic materials.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): EGR 242

EGR 462 - Biomaterials I: Fundamentals of Concepts

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

The course provides students with a fundamental understanding of the material selection process required in engineering for medical applications. Materials to be covered include both short-exposure, such as surgical tools and catheters, and long-exposure, such as implants and shunts. Topics to be included are: the manufacturing process, performance characteristics, biocompatibility testing, and long-term biological response such as tissue formation and fibrosis. Relevant design considerations will be discussed, including common medical device standards relating to biomaterials testing and performance.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): EGR 382, CHE 115, and 115L

EGR 463 - Biomaterials II: Polymers for Biomedical Applications

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall

The course provides students with a fundamental understanding of the soft material science and technology required in engineering for medical applications such as cardiovascular, bones and joint, intraocular lenses, artificial kidney, surgical sutures, tissue ingrowth polymers, and controlled release of drugs. Topics to be included are: polymeric materials for advanced technology, thermoplastics, elastomers, thermosets, nanocomposites, and biopolymers. This course also includes the emerging areas of technological growth such as separation, nanomedicine, and biotechnology. Recent examples from the literature will be used to illustrate technologically relevant materials in current nano-biotechnology.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): CHE 115, 115L, EGR 242, and 382

EGR 464 - Neural Engineering

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

This course provides students with basic principles, theories, and methods that underlie technology for recording and stimulation of central and peripheral nervous system structures. The course also presents recent advances in the development of technology, its practical applications in neuroscience and in medicine.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): BIO 153 and EGR 262

EGR 473 - Chemical Reaction Engineering

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall

The course covers reaction kinetics, differential and integral data analysis, batch, mixed, and plug flow reactors, systems with multiple reactions, reactor cascades, temperature and energy effects, and catalysis.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): EGR 371 and 372

EGR 474 - Chemical Process Control

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

Control theory and practice, instrumentation, system responses, transfer functions, feed-back control, and stability as applied to chemical engineering processes.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): EGR 272 and MAT 342

EGR 475 - Process Safety

Units: 2

When Offered: Fall

Fundamentals of chemical process safety including toxicology, industrial hygiene, toxic release and dispersion models, fires and explosions, and designs to prevent fires and explosions.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): EGR 342

EGR 477 - Chemical Engineering Laboratory

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall

The application of fundamentals to the experimental study of various chemical processes and unit operations.

Experimental design, data collection and analysis, error analysis, instrumentation, and oral and written communication will be emphasized.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): EGR 302 and 374

EGR 478 - Bioprocess Engineering

Units: 3

When Offered: As offered

Embracing emerging challenges in sustainable biochemical production, environment protection, biomedical engineering, pharmaceutical, and alternative energy resources, this course explores the principles and potentials in applying biological tools for chemical transformation processes. The focus is on the fundamentals of engineering principles involved in biological processing and bioreactors. Contents will cover biocatalysis fundamentals, biocatalyst engineering and application, microbial growth, and bioreactor analysis and design. A brief survey on related biotechnologies, including bioseparation, biosensors and bioassay, and other emerging frontier biotechnologies will also be provided.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): MAT 342 or EGR 382

EGR 481 - Systems Simulation

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall

Model design to simulate discrete event systems with basic input and output analysis using high order languages, applied to industrial systems analysis and design problems.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): EGR 305

EGR 482 - Supply Chain and Logistics Management

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

Apply industrial and systems engineering and management approaches to improve the effectiveness and efficiency of material flow, information flow and cash flow for the entire supply chains.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): EGR 305 and 381

EGR 483 - Production Systems

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall

Production planning, forecasting, scheduling, and inventory; computer integrated decision systems in analysis and control of production systems, facilities layout and design.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): EGR 305 and 381

EGR 490 - Independent Study

Units: 1-3

When Offered: As offered

Registration Approval: Independent Study Agreement. Student does an independent study under direction of a faculty member. Study of problems in a topic for which related courses have been completed.

Repeatable: May be repeated for a maximum of three (3) units

Grade Type: Letter Grade

EGR 491 - Research Project

Units: 1-3

When Offered: Fall

This special registration permits the completion of upper division degree requirements for transfer or other students, program requirement changes, or other special circumstances in which students have partial but not full credit toward a specific degree requirement. It also provides the opportunity for recognition of supervised academic experiences that are not included in traditional curriculum. Registration requires approval by the dean and sponsoring faculty member. The determination of degree credits is at the time of registration.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): EGR 101 and Permission of the Dean

ENG 100 - Introduction to Technology in Literary Studies

Units: 1

When Offered: Online

An introduction to the English major in the online modality with a focus on applying a Christian worldview to study of English. Introduces students to a range of online discussion tools and to a range of professions in which the English major can be applied.

Grade Type: Pass/Fail

ENG 101 - Introduction to the Discipline

Units: 1

When Offered: Fall

This course introduces a consideration of personal worldview, faith, and the discipline of English, including literary studies and creative writing. It is also designed to introduce students to the basic skills necessary for academic success in the discipline of English and to provide students with an overview of the discipline including requirements of the major and expectations of professions in which that major may be applied.

Grade Type: Pass/Fail

ENG 113 - Composition

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall, Spring, & Online

This is a process-based writing class that focuses on academic writing, reading, and critical thinking as expressed in expository and analytical writing assignments through 5 to 7 substantial essays over the course of the semester. Develops fluency, coherence, style, effectiveness, and literary analysis. Students must pass this course with a C- or better or demonstrate a comparable level of writing competence to fulfill general competency requirements and to proceed to ENG 123 - Intermediate Composition. Students may only earn credit for ENG 113 or ENG 113E - Composition Enriched with Lab.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

ENG 113E - Composition Enriched with Lab

Units: 4

When Offered: Fall, Spring

This is a process-based writing class enriched with a paired writing lab and a cohort model that focuses on academic writing, reading, and critical thinking as expressed in expository and analytical writing assignments through 5 to 7 substantial essays over the course of the semester. Develops fluency, coherence, style, effectiveness, and literary analysis. It provides students with additional opportunity for close attention to the fundamentals of written communication and revision. By learning in a collaborative writing community, students will develop effective strategies in generating and developing ideas, giving and receiving feedback, and reading and analyzing texts. Students must pass this course with a C- or better to proceed to ENG 123E - Intermediate Composition Enriched with Lab. Students may petition to move into ENG 123 - Intermediate Composition. Students may only earn credit for ENG 113 - Composition or ENG 113E.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

ENG 123 - Intermediate Composition

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall, Spring, & Online

Continued practice in writing and research strategies, with emphasis on critical thinking, information literacy, argument, analysis, and interpretation of multicultural and interdisciplinary readings. Includes the writing of a major research paper in addition to several shorter essays. Students may earn credit for either ENG 123 or ENG 123E - Intermediate Composition Enriched with Lab.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): ENG 113 or 113E with a grade of C- or better or evidence of a comparable level of writing competence

Pre- or Co- Requisite(s):

ENG 123E - Intermediate Composition Enriched with Lab

Units: 4

When Offered: Fall, Spring

This course provides students with continued practice in writing and research in the enriched environment of a writing lab and a cohort model. It emphasizes critical thinking, argument, analysis and interpretation of multicultural readings and other interdisciplinary expository materials, providing students with additional time to gather, interpret, and integrate interdisciplinary research into the writing of a research paper (or report). Researching and writing within a community supports students' individual growth of written communication as well as public engagement of ideas through informal discussion and formal presentation. Students must pass this course with a C- or better. Students may only earn credit for ENG 123 - Intermediate Composition or ENG 123E.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): ENG 113E with a grade of C- or better or evidence of a comparable level of writing competence.

ENG 200 - Special Topics in English

Units: 3

When Offered: As offered

Focuses on a different phase of British, American or world literature each time offered-themes, genres, periods. See instructor for the topic currently to be studied.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

ENG 201 - Introduction to Literature

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall, Spring, & Online

An introductory study of literary terminology and the major genres of American, British, European, and multicultural literature. Focuses on critical reading and intelligent appreciation of literature and of the ways of writing about literature.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Pre- or Co- Requisite(s): ENG 100, 101, 123, or 123E

ENG 213 - British Literature Pre-1750

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring (even years) & Online

Literature of Great Britain from the Middle Ages through the eighteenth century.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Pre- or Co- Requisite(s): ENG 100, 101, 123, or 123E

ENG 223 - British Literature Post-1750

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring (even years)

Literature of Great Britain from the Romantic Period to the present.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Pre- or Co- Requisite(s): ENG 100, 101, 123, or 123E

ENG 233 - American Literature Pre-1865

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall & Online

American Literature from the Colonial Period to 1865.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Pre- or Co- Requisite(s): ENG 100, 101, 123, or 123E

ENG 243 - American Literature Post-1865

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

American literature from 1865 to present.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Pre- or Co- Requisite(s): ENG 100, 101, 123, or 123E

ENG 253 - World Literature Pre-1650

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall (odd years)

World literature (excluding British and American) through the Renaissance.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Pre- or Co- Requisite(s): ENG 100, 101, 123, or 123E

ENG 263 - World Literature Post-1650

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall (even years)

World literature (excluding British and American) from Neoclassicism to present.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Pre- or Co- Requisite(s): ENG 100, 101, 123, or 123E

ENG 273 - Introduction to Creative Writing

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall, Spring, & Online

This course introduces the creative writer to the literary genres, encouraging creativity, individuality, spontaneity and boldness for students in search of the writer within. The lecture/discussion is designed to help students develop a writing voice and work toward a final project in one of the major genres.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Pre- or Co- Requisite(s): ENG 100, 101, 123, or 123E

ENG 302 - Professional Writing

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall (even years)

This course studies writing within the diverse environment of the workplace. It emphasizes the need to adapt written documents for a distinct task, audience, or platform. The course introduces students to professional and technical writing through examination and evaluation of interdisciplinary readings and representative models of professional documents-both print and digital. The course will incorporate strategies for developing and improving skills in writing, reading, researching, editing, presenting, and collaborating. Students will demonstrate an understanding of effective practices through a portfolio of professional documents.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): ENG 123 or 123E

ENG 303 - Topics in World Literature

Units: 3

When Offered: As offered & Online

An intensive study of a particular area of world literature in translation (e.g., Greek drama, or the literature of Existentialism). See the instructor for the area currently being studied. May be offered as a dual-language topic such as Latin American authors.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): ENG 123 or 123E

ENG 313 - American Multicultural Literature

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring & Online

The literature of women and ethnic minorities. Recommended for Liberal Studies majors. At least one literature survey course recommended.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): ENG 123 or 123E

ENG 314 - Global Literature

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall

This course offers students an intensive study of global literature with an emphasis on works translated into English, excluding American literature. Students will study literature and cultures from around the world, equipping them to broaden their engagement in academic studies and Great Commission service. It is recommended that at least one literature survey course be taken prior.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): ENG 123 or 123E

ENG 323 - Classical Literature

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

This course explores the intellectual contributions of Classical Literature by examining the meaning of these works within historical, political, and cultural context of Classical society.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): ENG 123 or 123E

ENG 333 - Seventeenth Century British Literature

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall (odd years)

The Metaphysical and cavalier Poets, and the prose of John Milton, in historical context.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): ENG 123 or ENG 123E

ENG 343 - Eighteenth and Nineteenth Century British Literature

Units: 3

When Offered: As offered & Online

Neoclassical, Romantic, and Victorian literature in historical context.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): ENG 123 or 123E

ENG 345 - Nineteenth Century American Literature

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring (odd years)

American literature and thought, 1800-1914, with emphasis on Poe, Hawthorne, Emerson, Dickinson, Douglass, Whitman, Melville, Stowe, and Twain.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): ENG 123 or ENG 123E

ENG 350 - Research and Writing in Literature and Language

Units: 3

When Offered: Online

Introduction to research topics, methods, and materials in the field of language and literature for application in a series of scholarly papers and presentations of various types and lengths.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): ENG 123 or 123E

ENG 353 - Introduction to Children's Literature

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall, Spring, & Online

An introduction to the study of a wide variety of children's literature, including picture books, novels, poetry, and folklore. Focus on critical analysis of texts, employing a variety of literary theoretical perspectives, close readings, and contemporary research. Also examines the historical constructions of childhood, uses within the elementary classroom, and social response to children's literature. Meets the Liberal Studies requirement for Children's literature.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): ENG 123 or 123E

ENG 354 - Children's Classics

Units: 3When Offered: Fall (odd years)

A consideration of children's classics, including but not limited to texts from "Golden Age" of children's literature, approximately 1865-1914. Focus on critical analysis of texts, employing a variety of literary theoretical perspectives, close readings, and contemporary research. Also examines the historical constructions of childhood and social responses to children's literature. Students will examine the texts in light of literary, historical, social contexts.

Grade Type: Letter GradePrerequisite(s): ENG 123 or 123EENG 355 - Folklore and Fairy Tales*Units: 3*When Offered: Fall (even years)

A close examination of selected folklore and fairy tales from various cultural or literary traditions. Focus on interpretation and analysis of individual texts, utilizing a variety of historical and contemporary critical approaches to reading, understanding, and researching folklore and fairy tales as a distinctive genre.

Grade Type: Letter GradePrerequisite(s): ENG 123 or 123EENG 360 - Detective Fiction*Units: 3*When Offered: Online

Detective Fiction is an historical approach to the detective fiction genre and its impact on Western society. The class explores issues of knowledge production, detection, policing, and identity through drama, novels, short stories, and film.

Grade Type: Letter GradePrerequisite(s): ENG 123 or 123EENG 363 - Introduction to Young Adult Literature*Units: 3*When Offered: Spring & Online

Introduction to literature designed to meet the unique needs of adolescents and young adults. Varied uses of literature such as poetry and short stories will be explored with intensive study of longer works of fiction and non-fiction.

Grade Type: Letter GradePrerequisite(s): ENG 123 or 123EENG 365 - Christian Classics*Units: 3*When Offered: Spring (odd years)

Surveys some of the great literary texts in the Christian tradition. Readings from primary works will provide opportunity to become familiar with a variety of voices in the history of Christian spirituality. Students will examine the texts in light of literary, historical, social, and theological contexts. Authors and texts may vary each time the course is offered.

Grade Type: Letter GradePrerequisite(s): ENG 123 or 123EENG 366 - Faith and Literature

Units: 3When Offered: Fall (even years)

The course is designed to examine the study of literature through the lens of faith. It considers the intersection of personal belief and reading practices, the analysis of literature, both religious and secular, from a Christian worldview, and potential avenues of Christian literary theory. It requires students to evaluate and analyze both literary texts and approaches to literature, with each student formulating a formal position in regard to the intersection of faith and literature.

Grade Type: Letter GradePrerequisite(s): ENG 123 or 123EENG 371 - The Graphic Novel*Units: 3*When Offered: Fall (odd years)

The class represents a close examination of select graphic novels from a variety of genres and styles. It focuses on literary interpretation and analysis of individual texts, utilizing a variety of historical and contemporary critical approaches to reading, understanding, and researching the graphic novel within an interdisciplinary context.

Grade Type: Letter GradePrerequisite(s): ENG 123 or 123E (Recommend: ENG 201)ENG 382 - Introduction to Digital Studies*Units: 3*When Offered: Fall (odd years)

This course introduces students to the growing field of digital studies. Given the interdisciplinary nature of digital studies, students will study digital texts and projects and will work collaboratively to evaluate, develop, and refine their technical skills to create and edit various forms of digital publications.

Grade Type: Letter GradePrerequisite(s): ENG 123 or 123EENG 384 - Writing Fiction*Units: 3*When Offered: Fall

An intensive writing workshop designed to permit the student to study and practice fiction in various forms: articles, short stories, novels, etc.

Grade Type: Letter GradePrerequisite(s): ENG 123 or 123EENG 385 - Writing Poetry*Units: 3*When Offered: Spring

This college course is an intensive workshop designed to encourage creativity in poetry. The class offers specific writing direction plus critical responses to students' works, both creative and analytical.

Grade Type: Letter GradePrerequisite(s): ENG 123 or 123EENG 386 - Writing Creative Nonfiction

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall (odd years)

An intensive writing workshop designed to permit the student to study and practice creative nonfiction in various forms: personal narrative, topical essay, lyric essay, memoir, etc.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): ENG 123 or 123E

ENG 399 - Independent Study

Units: 3

When Offered: As offered

An opportunity for students who have demonstrated the ability to do independent work to pursue in depth a topic of particular interest. Other courses listed in the catalog may not be taken by independent study.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

ENG 400 - Special Topics in English

Units: 3

When Offered: As offered

Focuses on a different theme, genre, or period of British, American, or World literature each time offered. See instructor for topic currently to be studied.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): ENG 123 or 123E

ENG 401 - Literary Theory and Criticism

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring & Online

Advanced study in theories of imaginative literature and in the issues of interpreting literary texts.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): ENG 123 or 123E, and 201 as well as at least one literature survey course are required

ENG 409 - Good Books

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring (odd years)

This course offers students intensive study of print culture, particularly in regard to the history of the book, as found in American, British, and/or world literature. The course may focus on a particular genre, such as the novel, the autobiography, or the chapbook, or on a particular subgenre, such as the gothic or satirical novel. This study will also equip students to understand how books within the discipline of English shaped and were shaped by various historical, cultural, economic, philosophical, and social forces. It is recommended that at least one literature survey course be taken prior.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): ENG 123 or 123E

ENG 411 - Special Topics in Creative Writing

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall (even years)

Focuses on different styles or aspects of creative writing each time offered—for example, creative non-fiction, storytelling, etc. See instructor for the topic currently to be studied.

Repeatable: May be repeated one (1) time for credit with a change in topic

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): ENG 123 or 123E

ENG 413 - Shakespeare Studies

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall & Online

Selected poems and plays are studied in their historical contexts. A variety of critical approaches are incorporated. Includes comedies, history plays, and tragedies.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): ENG 123 or 123E

ENG 420 - Special Topics in American Literature

Units: 3

When Offered: As offered

This course offers students intensive study of a special topic in American literature. Students will study a specific theme, author, genre, or period within the broad literary history of the United States. This study will equip students to broaden their engagement in American literature. It is recommended that at least one literature survey course be taken prior.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): ENG 123 or 123E

ENG 430 - Special Topics in British Literature

Units: 3

When Offered: As offered

This course offers students an intensive study of a special topic in British Literature. Students will study a specific theme, author, genre, or period within the broad literary history of Great Britain. This study will equip students to broaden their engagement in British literature. It is recommended that at least one literature survey course be taken prior.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): ENG 123 or 123E

ENG 431 - Literary Journal Editing and Publishing

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

In this course students assist in all aspects of the publication of the campus literary journal. Students read submissions of poetry, fiction, and creative nonfiction, they work with writers to edit their pieces, and they assist with layout and design.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): ENG 123 or 123E

ENG 432 - Sociolinguistics

Units: 3

When Offered: As offered

Sociolinguistics is the study of the relationship between language and society. This course explores key areas within the field of sociolinguistics. It also gives students practice in reflecting on how sociolinguistics of English and other languages affects how they speak. Students will investigate a topic in sociolinguistics and write a review of literature about it as well as develop a language policy report.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): ENG 123 or 123E

ENG 434 - Major Christian Authors

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring (even years) & Online

Focuses on the development of style, themes, and worldview in a body of work by concentrating on no more than three Christian authors per semester, such as C.S. Lewis, J.R.R. Tolkien, Flannery O'Connor, Li-Young Lee, or Shusaku Endo. Explores this body of work in depth from the British, American, or world traditions. See instructor for the current author(s).

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): ENG 123 or 123E

ENG 440 - Modern American Literature

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall (even years) & Online

Major fiction and poetry from 1900 to World War II.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): ENG 123 or 123E

ENG 442 - Teaching Second Language Writing

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall

This course prepares students to teach writing to second language learners, especially but not exclusively at the college level. Course materials and activities focus on current composition philosophy, research-based method and teaching techniques for collegiate level second language writing courses. At a minimum, this course is designed to introduce students to major theories, research, and practice in the teaching of English writing to second language learners. Thus, students should complete this course being able to do what ESL/EFL writing instructors do: design lesson plans for college composition; evaluate (read, respond to, grade, and assess) college level writing; and engage in research in at least one relevant issue in ESL/EFL composition pedagogy. This course should train students to be reflective practitioners and researchers of collegiate level English composition.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): ENG 123 or 123E

ENG 443 - Contemporary American Literature

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring (even years)

Major fiction and poetry from World War II to the present.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): ENG 123 or 123E

ENG 446 - Teaching Second Language Reading

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

This course will be about reading in a second language, primarily, but not exclusively English. In particular, the class will emphasize teaching reading in English to learners whose native language is not English. Since research and theory inform sound pedagogical practice, we will also research and review research on a variety of relevant topics to teaching reading from both linguistic and educational perspectives. Finally, given the importance of literacy in so many contexts today, we will consider a multitude of variables which affect the teaching and learning of reading skills for both children and adults, in second and foreign language settings, and explore the implications of the research for all concerned.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): ENG 123 or 123E

ENG 452 - Second Language Curriculum Development and Assessment

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

This course is designed for future ESL teachers who are interested in current thinking and research in second language material development and assessment and in the application of such in classroom teaching. There are two major goals: one is developing a solid understanding of the core issues in these areas and the other, which requires students to design their own materials and assessment tools and to evaluate existing ones, is facilitating the application of such an understanding in classroom teaching.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): ENG 123 or 123E

ENG 454 - Writing in Context

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

This course will provide a practical, hands on approach to the study of English grammar and the application of the acquired knowledge of grammar to the classroom setting. It will be assumed that few, if any, students have had a thorough, formal study of English grammar. The approach will seek to present models for application in the literature based curriculum prescribed by the California State Framework in English. Students will complete numerous in class exercises as well as independent work outside of class for presentation in discussion at subsequent class meetings.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): ENG 123 or 123E

ENG 460 - Modern and Contemporary British Literature

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring (even years)

Prose, fiction, poetry, and drama from 1890 to the present, with emphasis on the Modernist writers.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): ENG 123 or 123E

By strengthening their connection to the creative process, students will gain an understanding of personal symbolic language, and arts-based learning allowing for the opportunity to integrate intellectual, emotional, artistic, and interpersonal knowledge.

Grade Type: Letter GradePrerequisite(s): ART 201 and DES 110Pre- or Co- Requisite(s): PSY 376ART 499 - Senior Exhibition*Units: 3*When Offered: Fall, Spring

Senior Exhibition provides unit reward for the work art majors perform en route to the creation and mounting of their required thesis exhibit.

Grade Type: Letter GradePrerequisite(s): Senior status and permission of the Department ChairFRE 115 - Elementary French I*Units: 3*When Offered: Fall

This course introduces students to fundamental skills such as understanding, reading, writing, and speaking the French language, while developing French cultural awareness. To introduce students to these skills, this course will prepare students to use common phrases, a basic vocabulary, and essential grammar. In addition, students will develop their cultural awareness and language skills through a variety of learning activities such as French games and interactive software, French songs, reading and writing short stories, and performing a brief oral topic demonstration.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

FRE 125 - Elementary French II

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

This course continues the study of the basics of the French language and expands or further develops the student's ability to speak, understand, read, and write elementary French through a variety of activities both in and out of the classroom, homework assignments, workbook exercises, and language lab participation. In addition, the class gives further understanding and appreciation of French civilization/culture.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): FRE 115

FRE 215 - Intermediate French I

Units: 3

When Offered: As offered

Introduces students to more complex linguistic patterns presented in a French/Francophone cultural and comparative context, and includes practice in speaking, listening, reading, and writing through discussion of short texts, written exercises and short compositions, work in multimedia resources, and participation in French cultural events. This is a dynamic, hands-on language course geared toward discussion of topical issues of interest to contemporary French speakers. It includes a review of basic French vocabulary and syntax keyed to readings on cultural topics including globalization, immigration, media, friendship, gender, religion, and human rights. Classes are conducted primarily in French.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): FRE 125

FRE 225 - Intermediate French II

Units: 3

When Offered: As offered

This course develops the advanced linguistic patterns introduced in Intermediate French I and includes more practice in speaking, listening, reading, and composition through discussion and written analysis of French films. The student will become a more proficient French communicator by learning about French culture, history, and politics while studying French cinema in the context of hands-on classroom activities. Knowledge of French vocabulary and grammatical structures taught in the earlier three semesters is assumed. Some grammar study is included, associated primarily with cultural conversations following from the cinema selections and student review projects. Classes are conducted primarily in French.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): FRE 215

GST 010 - Lifeline

Units: 1

When Offered: As offered

The Lifeline course is an extension of the International Student Orientation at California Baptist University and is required of all Intensive English Program Students. The course is comprised of a semester-long series of small group seminars, activities and discussions designed to address the developmental and transitional needs of new international students at CBU. The course is designed to motivate students to engage in and think about issues and topics that are critical to academic success at the university level and cultural transition into the United States. Topics address the skills and relationships needed for students to succeed academically, socially, emotionally and spiritually.

Grade Type: Pass/Fail

GST 050 - Chapel Convocation

Units: 0

When Offered: Fall, Spring

The California Baptist University community gathers regularly for worship, communication, fellowship, personal development, and spiritual formation. As a community deeply rooted in the Baptist tradition of the Christian faith, it is appropriate to expect broad participation in this experience. (This is a non-academic requirement and does not count toward the number of units required for graduation. A failing grade in Chapel will have a 1 unit negative effect on a student's semester and cumulative grade point average.)

Grade Type: Pass/Fail

GST 060 - Academic Success Seminar

Units: 1

When Offered: Fall

The purpose of this course is to equip students with tools that they need to be successful in their academics at California Baptist University. The course will be comprised of a series of workshops, activities and small group discussions designed to meet the academic needs of students at California Baptist University.

Grade Type: Pass/Fail

GST 061 - Academic Course on Excellence

Units: 1

When Offered: Fall, Spring, & Online

The purpose of this course is to promote academic success through excellence. Learning theories, concepts, and strategies related to academic excellence and personal success are covered.

Grade Type: Pass/Fail

GST 099 - The Teaching Assistant

Units: 0

When Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer

The class is designed to provide students a deeper understanding of the academic discipline by viewing through the lens of instruction and evaluation of student work. Students will experience this perspective through opportunities to evaluate work, provide supplemental instruction, and participate in other in and out of class activities in support of the course in which the student is serving as a teaching assistant.

Grade Type: Pass/Fail

Prerequisite(s): Permission of the Provost Office

GST 100 - First Year Experience

Units: 1

When Offered: Fall, Spring

The First Year Experience is designed to assist new students with the transition to university life and the California Baptist University community. The course is comprised of a semester-long series of small group seminars, activities, and discussions and is designed to address the developmental and transitional needs of new students at California Baptist University. Topics focus on the issues, skills, and relationships that can help students succeed academically, socially, emotionally, and spiritually. Based on years of tradition, but sensitive to the ever-changing needs of university students, this course provides a well-rounded introduction to the California Baptist University experience.

Grade Type: Pass/Fail

GST 101 - Essentials for Online and Professional Studies

Units: 0

When Offered: Online

The course is designed to prepare students for a successful transition to college coursework, including online studies. Students are introduced to the resources California Baptist University has in place to ensure the success of its student body including an introduction to the Blackboard learning management system.

Grade Type: Pass/Fail

GST 199 - Portfolio Seminar

Units: 1

When Offered: Online

The goal of the portfolio workshop is to help the student gather the material necessary for petitioning for prior learning credit and to assist in the presentation of the material. The prior learning portfolio is intended to be a thorough compilation of the student's prior learning. With guidance from the faculty, the student will develop a portfolio documenting college level learning which has been obtained outside of the traditional college classroom setting through work related training, professional experiences, and community involvement. Portfolio credit is awarded for learning that has taken place-not for experience. Therefore in addition to documenting experience, students are expected to articulate and demonstrate appropriate theory and terminology in their portfolio. (Portfolio credit can only be earned toward general elective credits and cannot be earned in a student's major field of study.)

Grade Type: Pass/Fail

GST 200 - Career Readiness

Units: 1

When Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer

This course is designed to help students align their academic studies with professional development so that they will be equipped to present themselves as the most preferred candidate when entering into their chosen job field. The full process of career readiness will be discussed and evaluated from student, alumni, and employer perspectives. Subject matter will consist of how to choose a major/career, preparing job application materials, interview skills, strategic job searching, etc.

Grade Type: Pass/Fail

GDM 110 - Fundamental Design

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall, Spring, & Online

This course explores the tools and implementations of Adobe Illustrator through assigned projects and exercises. Techniques will be explored and explained. Best practice work-flows will be taught. The goal of this course is a working knowledge of Illustrator for the student.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Fee: Additional course fee (TRAD only)

GDM 120 - Fundamental Typography

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall, Spring, & Online

This course explores the tools and implementations of Adobe InDesign through assigned projects and exercises. Techniques will be explored and explained. Best practice work-flows will be taught. The goal of this course is a working knowledge of InDesign for the student and for the student to be able to identify key typography concepts.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Fee: Additional course fee (TRAD only)

GDM 130 - Fundamental Image

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall, Spring, & Online

This course explores the tools and implementations of Adobe Photoshop through assigned projects and exercises. Techniques will be explored and explained. Best practice work-flows will be taught. The goal of this course is a working knowledge of Photoshop for the student.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Fee: Additional course fee (TRAD only)

GDM 140 - Fundamental Web

Units: 3

When Offered: Online

This course introduces students to the primary languages of web design, HTML and CSS. The course is designed to provide students with a foundational knowledge in the way that web pages are designed and coded. Tools and techniques needed to design and create web pages will be explored.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

GDM 150 - Fundamental User Interface and User Experience Design

Units: 3

When Offered: As offered

This course serves as an introduction to a variety of visual, navigational and structural approaches in the user experience (UX) and interface (UI) building process. The primary goal is for students to better understand how to design for various digital and environmental user experiences. Topics that will be covered include research, navigation systems, visual hierarchy, prototyping, testing and best practices. A strong emphasis is placed on conceptual development, structure, interactivity, and design aesthetics that will result in effective physical and virtual user experience solutions.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

GDM 200 - Special Topics in Graphic Design

Units: 3

When Offered: As offered

This course focuses on different topics in the field of graphic design each time it is offered. Designed to reflect both the rapidly changing culture and technologically progress of the field.

Repeatable: May be repeated for credit with change in topic

Grade Type: Letter Grade

GDM 215 - Principles: Introduction to Graphic Design

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall, Spring

This foundational course provides a broad introduction to the field of visual communication by exploring 2D design concepts, processes, techniques, and production methods. Students will gain experience in the ideation, research, execution, and presentation of design related projects.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Fee: Additional course fee

GDM 225 - Principles: Letterforms and Structure

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall, Spring

Students will learn the fundamentals of typesetting and typographic layout by exploring the history, anatomy, vocabulary, design, and function of letterforms and the role it plays in the visualization of language.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Fee: Additional course fee

GDM 235 - Principles: Image Visualization

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall, Spring

This course explores the use of the image as a tool for non-verbal communication and story-telling. Students will learn the fundamentals of image based design through compositing and editing techniques and processes.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Fee: Additional course fee

GDM 240 - Principles: Innovations in Design

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall, Spring

This course surveys the conceptual underpinnings of the major movements in graphic design and digital art. Students will examine visual communication from the earliest human expressions of cave paintings to contemporary design movements to the software breakthroughs of the Digital Revolution. Students will interpret selected concepts and movements and then create their own designs using a variety of analytic methodologies.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

GDM 305 - History of Graphic Design

Units: 3

When Offered: Online

A study of the causes and effects of critical design movements. This course explores the political and social environments that shaped the creation and evolution of graphic design. This course will give students insight into different movements, such as the Medieval Era, Graphic Renaissance, Industrial Revolution, Art Nouveau, Modernism, Postmodernism, and the Digital Revolution. Students will also evaluate how the history of graphic design influences current design philosophies and strategies.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

GDM 310 - Intermediate Design

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall, Spring, & Online

This course is an intermediate design course in which project work is used to study work flow, pre-press techniques and practices, idea generation, and other concepts that arise from the process of creativity.

Grade Type: Letter Grade
Prerequisite(s): GDM 110 and 130

GDM 315 - Practice: Designing Brand Identity

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall, Spring

This course will explore how to develop, conceptualize and craft effective design solutions in the form of a visual identity system. Students will design a variety of branding elements and strategy guidelines to visually communicate a core message across an array of products, services, and environments.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Fee: Additional course fee

Prerequisite(s): GDM 215

GDM 320 - Intermediate Typography

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall, Spring, & Online

This course is an intermediate typography course in which more complex typography concepts, best practice type generation and project work challenge the student.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): GDM 110, 120, and 130

GDM 321 - The Art and Design of Professional Presentations

Units: 3

When Offered: Online

This course introduces students to the knowledge and skills necessary to develop professional interactive multimedia productions. Classroom activities include how to identify the design and communication issues from pre through post production of an interactive presentation. In this multimedia design and production course, students integrate research, writing, creative visual layout, and interface design to develop high impact professional presentations. Additionally, students will learn how to define and identify project goals, purpose, audience, timeline milestones, budget constraints and other multimedia project parameters.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

GDM 325 - Practice: Typographic Form and Space

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall, Spring

The goal of this course is to refine the student's skills and understanding in using typography as an informative medium. Students will analyze the semiotic function of text including its relationship with content and image. Students will work with visible language in a variety of media and dimension, exploring the possibilities of conceptually-based typographic solutions.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): GDM 225

GDM 330 - Intermediate Image

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall, Spring, & Online

This course is an intermediate image course in which more complex photography and photoshop techniques will be taught. Students will learn how to manipulate photography using photoshop to create complex ideas and messages.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): GDM 130

GDM 335 - Conceptual Image Making

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall, Spring

This course will explore how to critically interpret and create meaning in context. Students will design solutions to problems across a variety of media by visualizing conceptual ideas through advanced image-making processes.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): GDM 235

GDM 340 - Intermediate Web

Units: 3

When Offered: Online

This course expands on students accrued HTML and CSS knowledge. Principles of content strategy will be integrated with visual design to create compelling web experiences. Popular as well as up and coming CMS solutions such as WordPress, Ghost, and others will also be explored.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): GDM 140

GDM 341 - Video Fundamentals

Units: 3

When Offered: As offered

This course explores the tools and implementations of Adobe Premiere Pro through assigned projects and exercises. Techniques will be explored and explained. Best practice work-flows will be taught. The goal of this course is for the student to have a working knowledge of the Adobe Premiere Pro editing software.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

GDM 342 - Motion Design I

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall (odd years)

This course teaches students the fundamental skills and processes used in the motion design industry. Students will learn about storyboards, style frames, sound development, and rendering and they will use industry-standard time-based software such as Adobe After Effects to learn 2D animation principles.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): GDM 315 or 325

GDM 343 - Motion Design II

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring (even years)

This upper-level course teaches advanced motion theory, as well as pipeline workflow concepts, strategies and common industry trends and practices. The emphasis is on showing the full motion design workflow in a studio-like environment from concept to final output.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): GDM 342

GDM 351 - 3D Concept Design I

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall

This course builds a foundation for advanced 3D environmental modeling, photorealistic rendering, stylistic shading, and effects processes. Students will build upon fundamental techniques to create professional quality imagery and motion with industry standard software such as Cinema 4D and Element 3D. Working in a typical design studio pipeline, students will work with NURBS modeling and mesh editing for hard surface and organic objects; texture mapping, special effects including effectors, dynamics, and multiple emitters; optimization techniques; and a variety of compositing methods to create both artistic works and commercial products.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): EGR 121, FLP 170, or GDM 215

GDM 352 - Visual Effects Concept Design

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall

This course teaches students the primary skills and processes used in the visual effects (VFX) industry. Students will learn basic compositing and how to integrate computer graphics and 3D components with live action in a methodology that simulates standard VFX production pipelines.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): EGR 121, FLP 170, or GDM 215

GDM 353 - 3D Concept Design II

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring (odd years)

This course focuses on advanced 3D concept design, compositing, product design, environmental modeling, photorealistic rendering, stylistic shading, and effects processes. Students will learn advanced techniques for 3D compositing into live action videography that includes a variety of methodologies to create both artistic works and commercial products with industry standard software such as Cinema 4D, After Effects, and Premiere.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): GDM 351

GDM 354 - Mixed Reality Concept Design

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

With the ubiquity of mobile devices and the mainstream adoption of wearables, there is an additive digital layer of structured data viewable in mixed reality environments such as augmented reality (AR) and virtual reality (VR). This course provides students with an overview of the history and evolution of these technologies, their convergence, and how to build basic mixed reality applications for such domains as the arts, design visualization, architecture, fashion, and other artistic and commercial use cases. Students will use industry standard programs such as Unity 3D and Snapchat Lens.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): GDM 351

GDM 371 - User Interface and User Experience Design I

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

This course takes a deep dive into designing UI / UX for mobile and emerging technologies and will critically examine conceptual innovations in the field. On a practical level, students will work with information architecture, prototyping and wireframing tools, usability assessment, and best practices for design communication. Finally, students will work with the major principles and professional practice of UI/UX design through weekly exercises, class discussions, presentations, and functional projects.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): GDM 215, 225, and 235

GDM 399 - Independent Study

Units: 1-3

When Offered: As offered

An opportunity for students who have demonstrated the ability to do independent work to pursue in depth a topic of particular interest. Courses listed in the Catalog may not be taken by independent study.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

GDM 400 - Special Topics in Graphic Design

Units: 3

When Offered: As offered

This course focuses on different topics in the field of graphic design each time it is offered. Designed to reflect both the rapidly changing culture and technologically progress of the field.

Repeatable: May be repeated for credit with change in topic

Grade Type: Letter Grade

GDM 410 - Advanced Design

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall, Spring, & Online

This course is an advanced design course in which project work is used to build a professional portfolio for employment or advanced studies. Complex design issues and problem solving challenge the student throughout the creative process.

Repeatable: May be repeated one (1) time for credit

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): GDM 310

GDM 415 - Studio: Visual Systems Design

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall, Spring

This studio-based course is expected to be the culmination and synthesis of visualizing complex, integrated design systems from the skills acquired in prior courses within the major. Through key principles in visual systems design, each student will contextualize and develop strategies for managing design solutions across a variety of communication outlets.

Repeatable: May be repeated for a maximum of six (6) units

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): GDM 315, 325, and 335

GDM 420 - Advanced Typography

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall & Online

This course is an advanced typography course in which complex real-world typography concepts are now explored to build projects for a professional portfolio of work for employment or advanced studies.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): GDM 320

GDM 425 - Studio: Typographic Hierarchies

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall

This experiential studio course is expected to be the culmination and synthesis of the typographical knowledge and skills acquired from the successful completion of prior courses within the major. By exploring and discussing historical and contemporary theory related to typography and design, each student will contextualize and apply critical thinking to their developing practice and conceptual interests.

Repeatable: May be repeated for a maximum of six (6) units

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): GDM 315, 325, and 335

GDM 430 - Advanced Image

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring & Online

This course is an advanced image course in which professional, complex image generation is explored and expert techniques in color correction, masking and compositing are implemented. Professional portfolio projects are built to prepare students for employment or advanced studies.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): GDM 330

GDM 435 - Studio: Image and Art Direction

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall

This experiential studio course is expected to be the culmination and synthesis of the creative image-making knowledge and skills acquired from the successful completion of prior courses within the major. Studio emphasis is placed on strategic and conceptual art direction for products and subjects.

Repeatable: May be repeated for a maximum of six (6) units

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): GDM 315, 325, and 335

GDM 440 - Advanced Web

Units: 3

When Offered: Online

This advanced course exposes students to real world web design problems through projects and case studies. Client side scripting with JavaScript will be introduced. Web standards and best practices will be studied in depth, as well as project workflow.

Repeatable: May be repeated one (1) time for credit

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): GDM 340

GDM 455 - Studio: Visual Experience Design

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall

This experiential learning course teaches students to develop a disciplined studio digital arts and design practice. Advanced Design Studio explores leading-edge ideas and design methodologies and directs each student to develop specific concepts, processes, and techniques in relation to their developing practice and conceptual interests. Students will develop an individualized area of research, and a directed, productive approach to studio practice. Finally this course will introduce and discuss professional practices in digital arts and design in order to prepare students for careers in design, the arts, exhibitions, graduate study, professional practices, self-promotion, or various other creative pursuits.

Repeatable: May be repeated for a maximum of six (6) units

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): GDM 315, 325, 335, and either 343 or 353

GDM 495 - Design Capstone

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

This course prepares students for their capstone show by bringing together the skills and processes students have developed here at California Baptist University. Students begin by identifying an area of research and discussing its relationship to graphic design and visual experience while being challenged to expand their abilities of creating visual form with integrity and meaning. This course is viewed by the program as the pinnacle event in their academic journey.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): Senior status and permission of the Dean

GDM 499 - Senior Project

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall, Spring, & Online

This course is designed as a capstone showcase of the student's accumulated body of work while in the program. The Graphic Design Senior Show will consist of 10 portfolio pieces from the student's portfolio. This is an effort to keep the student on task and focused on the portfolio.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): Senior status and permission of the Department Chair

GRK 213 - Introduction to Koiné Greek I

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall

An introduction to Koiné Greek emphasizing basic grammar and vocabulary preparatory for translation of the Greek New Testament.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

GRK 223 - Introduction to Koiné Greek II

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

Continuation of GRK 213 with beginning translation from the First Epistle of John.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): GRK 213

GRK 313 - Intermediate Greek

Units: 3

When Offered: As offered

A "literary laboratory" in which to observe the function of Greek syntax through the translation and exegetical study of specific New Testament materials.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): GRK 223

GRK 323 - Intermediate Greek

Units: 3

When Offered: As offered

A "literary laboratory" in which to observe the function of Greek syntax through the translation and exegetical study of specific New Testament materials.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): GRK 223

GRK 413 - Greek Exegesis

Units: 3

When Offered: As offered

A careful exegetical study of a Greek text of specific New Testament text(s) presenting the opportunity to further develop translational, analytical, and interpretive skills.

Repeatable: May be repeated for credit with change in topic

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): GRK 313 and 323

HSC 100 - Introduction to the Health Science Professions

Units: 1

When Offered: Fall, Spring

This course is designed to introduce students to the basic skills necessary for academic success in the health science majors, to review the numerous career options in the health, exercise, and allied health professions, and to explore the student's calling and vocation.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

HSC 101 - Introduction to Public Health

Units: 3

When Offered: As offered & Online

This course provides an introduction to public health concepts and practice by examining the philosophy, purpose, history, organization, functions, tools and activities and results of public health practice. Case studies and a variety of practice-related exercises serve as a basis for student's participation in real world public health problem-solving simulations.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

HSC 104 - Survey of U.S. Health Care Delivery

Units: 3

When Offered: As offered & Online

The course is designed to provide the students with a basic foundation in the ways in which healthcare is delivered to patients in the United States. The course will explore the matrix of insurance companies, financing, patient rights, and physician liabilities as it creates a contemporary illustration of how environmental factors influence and shape our current system. The primary foci will be the delivery, financing, and regulation of healthcare in the US.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

HSC 200 - Special Topics in Health Science

Units: 3

When Offered: As offered

Concentration upon a specific topic in the field of health science. Topic varies for different semesters.

Repeatable: May be repeated for credit with change in topic

Grade Type: Letter Grade

HSC 210 - Ethics in Health Care

Units: 3

When Offered: As offered & Online

This course provides grounding in ethical theories and principles as they relate to and impact current healthcare issues and policies. Students are introduced to a variety of frameworks for ethical decision-making and policy analysis.

Current trends in the contemporary healthcare arena are analyzed through the use of case studies. Recent healthcare issues are presented including euthanasia, fertility interventions, mental illness, genetic engineering, multicultural issues, economics, public policy, professional ethical codes, and other relevant topics.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

HSC 300 - Health Communication

Units: 3

When Offered: As offered

The purpose of this course is to focus on the use of communication strategies to inform and influence individual and community decisions regarding health. The seminar will focus on the following contexts of health: the multidimensional nature of health communication; understanding empirical research in health communication; behavioral theories in health communication; rhetorical theories in health communication; legal and ethical concerns in health communication; the communication of risk and uncertainty; and the design of health campaigns. Students will be required (a) to research and prepare a health communication strategy for use in a specific context and (b) to design an accompanying print or hypertext document to be used in that context.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

HSC 301 - Principles of Health Education

Units: 3

When Offered: As offered & Online

This is an introductory course that overviews principles of health education. Health education is an academic area that fosters the acquisition of skills and competencies to assist individuals, families, and communities to make informed decisions related to health. This course will introduce students to Certified Health Education Specialist (CHES) credential that is nationally recognized by National Commission on Health Education Credentialing, and will be a fundamental course for students who are preparing for the CHES exam.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

HSC 305 - Epidemiology

Units: 3When Offered: Fall & Online

Principles and methods used to investigate the distribution, determinants, and prevention strategies for disease in human populations. Major topics include: disease classification, measures of disease frequency and relative effect, comparisons and contrasts of analytic study designs, methods used to isolate effects, statistical significance testing, interpretation of results, and screening for latent disease.

Grade Type: Letter GradeHSC 306 - Pathophysiology for Public Health*Units: 3*When Offered: As offered & Online

This course introduces students to the basic pathogenesis of disease in human beings. The course will describe the most common disorders as they relate to each major body system while exploring the etiology, risk factors, diagnostic and prognostic procedures of each disease. This course also studies the pathology and general health management of disease and injuries across the human lifespan.

Grade Type: Letter GradeHSC 312 - Principles of Environmental and Occupational Health*Units: 3*When Offered: As offered & Online

In-depth discussion and analysis of the physical, chemical and biological hazards found in the environment and health risks associated with workplace and community exposure to them. Risks to special populations and mechanisms of reducing or controlling these risks are discussed.

Grade Type: Letter GradeHSC 316 - Public Health Promotion, Disease Prevention and Intervention*Units: 3*When Offered: As offered & Online

This course will discuss approaches to health promotion and disease prevention intervention in different settings, using varied strategies, and for different target groups. It is intended to be practical in nature focusing on the specifics of intervention development and delivery and how these might vary across settings, behaviors and strategies.

Grade Type: Letter GradePrerequisite(s): HSC 306HSC 320 - Public Health Nutrition and Physical Activity*Units: 3*When Offered: Online

This course introduces concepts of nutrition as they relate to nutritional needs, practices and problems throughout the life cycle, nutritional counseling and education of individuals/groups toward health promotion and disease prevention. This course also introduces knowledge, skills and experiences necessary to lead participants in gaining the skills, knowledge, attitudes and behaviors required to lead physically active lifestyles.

Grade Type: Letter GradeHSC 380 - Health Science Seminar*Units: 1*When Offered: As offered

This course will introduce and reinforce the skills necessary to perform research within the health sciences including discussions of the scientific method, literature research, reading scientific journal articles, analyzing scientific data, reporting research findings in both written and oral formats, critiquing original research and science ethics. It will be required to present a research proposal and or locate and prepare all necessary documents for entering an internship, fieldwork, or research opportunity.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): Health Science major

HSC 400 - Special Topics in Health Science

Units: 3

When Offered: As offered

Concentration upon a specific topic in the field of health science. Topic varies for different semesters.

Repeatable: May be repeated for credit with change in topic

Grade Type: Letter Grade

HSC 406 - Food Safety and Consumer Protection

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall

Principles and techniques of quality assurance for food preparation and prevention of food-borne diseases. Sanitary and safe preparation, storage, transportation, and handling of foodstuffs and products both commercially and residentially. Criteria and practical methodology of inspection and surveillance techniques, facilities design, and plan checking. Performance criteria for food handlers, with application to environmental techniques in education, enforcement, and consultation.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

HSC 410 - Health Behavior Change

Units: 3

When Offered: As offered

This course addresses the exploration and application of education, psychosocial, and spiritual components of health behaviors. Behavior change theory, principles, predictive models, and their application to health behavior change programs and interventions will be investigated.

This course will provide the platform necessary for the student to engage in accurate communication of ideas which can influence other behavior.

Grade Type: Letter GradeLDR 480 - Communication for Leadership*Units: 1*When Offered: Fall

This course provides an analysis of the principles of communication in the workplace. Students will learn basic communication theories, strategies, and processes as they relate to the modern organizational structure.

Grade Type: Letter GradeLDR 481 - Cross Boundary Communication*Units: 1*When Offered: Spring

Students learn how to manage multidisciplinary team communications vertically and horizontally in the organizations to meet objectives. Help facilitate effective communication, improve listening skills, and develop a mastery for asking for, giving, and receiving feedback. These traits increase a team and departmental collaborative approaches.

Grade Type: Letter GradeLDR 482 - Leading Change in the Workplace

Units: 1When Offered: Fall

Develop an understanding of the requirements, barriers, and successes relevant to leading effective organizational change. Students will analyze case studies and utilize change management simulations to enhance the learning process.

Grade Type: Letter GradeLDR 483 - Leading People With Emotional Intelligence*Units: 1*When Offered: Fall

The course focus on increasing ones emotional intelligence awareness to enable high performance in the workplace. Students will learn principles to increase the emotional intelligence (EQ) of self and others, build strong relationships and a support active environment.

Grade Type: Letter GradeLDR 484 - The Art of Stewardship Leadership*Units: 1*When Offered: Spring

God calls us to be good stewards of the things he has given us. Stewardship leadership examines the relationship between self, others, and society. Students will gain insight into the various ways stewardship leadership practices are implemented and sustained. Students will engage in dialogue and analyze the relationship between succession planning and corporate sustainability.

Grade Type: Letter GradeLDR 485 - Women and Leadership*Units: 1*When Offered: Spring

Learn how to effectively handle common challenges that impede success for emerging female leaders. Develop insight and implement principles that help students expand their sphere of influence and skills to make a positive difference. Students develop strategies and tools for creating structural change and moving towards greater equity.

Grade Type: Letter GradeLDR 491 - Internship*Units: 3*When Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer

Under the supervision of a faculty member and representative from the sponsoring organization, students will utilize the internship to develop and demonstrate the principles and skills introduced in the Leadership Studies courses.

Grade Type: Pass/FailLBA 101 - Introduction to the Liberal Arts*Units: 1*When Offered: Fall

This course is designed to prepare students to successfully complete their foundational courses in the study of humanities, including literature, history, Christian Studies, philosophy, and art, as well as in math and science. It considers both philosophical and practical foundations within various liberal arts disciplines, including how quantitative reasoning, moral and aesthetic judgments, and a personal worldview shape interactions with the liberal arts. It also introduces students to basic skills, tools, and resources necessary for academic success in a liberal arts education.

Grade Type: Pass/Fail

LBA 499 - Capstone

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

The capstone in the liberal arts is designed to enable liberal arts majors, generally in their senior year, to reflect upon, pose, and respond to enduring questions about the human experience-critically, creatively, and contemplatively. Students will design and develop a capstone portfolio and accompanying project that demonstrates a synthesis of their learning across the liberal arts disciplines.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): Permission of the program director

Pre- or Co- Requisite(s): LBA 101

LBS 498 - Capstone Portfolio

Units: 1

When Offered: As offered & Online

Students will review their personal and professional development based upon their baccalaureate experiences at California Baptist University. Students will evaluate their growth and development through the program, identify their relative strengths and areas for growth, and development a personal development plan. Students will demonstrate critical self-reflection and the ability to make judicious, relevant and insightful applicants and professional judgment from their cumulative undergraduate experience.

Grade Type: Pass/Fail

Fee: Additional course fee

MKT 313 - Retailing and Merchandising

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall (even years) & Online

To familiarize students with the decisions involved in running a retail firm and the concepts and principles for making those decisions. Topics of discussion will include retail business planning, site selection, retail promotion strategies, HR management, customer relationship management, supply chain management, customer buying behavior, merchandising, space planning and layout, and store management. While the course focuses on the retail industry including retailers of consumer services, the content of the course is also useful for students interested in working for companies that interface with retailers such as manufacturers of consumer products or for students with a general business interest.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): MKT 333

MKT 323 - Marketing Research

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring & Online

The emphasis of the course is on improving the skills of conducting marketing research. This course is designed to teach students the fundamentals of the research process including: recognizing the need for marketing research, planning for marketing research, obtaining and collecting the data, analyzing the data, and presenting the research results. This course concerns the use of marketing research as an aid to making marketing decisions. Accordingly, this course is appropriate for both prospective users of research results and prospective marketing researchers. Primary and secondary research will be performed, qualitative and quantitative methods will be utilized as well.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): BUS 315 and MKT 333

MKT 333 - Principles of Marketing

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall, Spring, & Online

A study of the marketing functions, channels of distribution, selling, advertising, distribution, and marketing management for both retail and industrial businesses.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

MKT 353 - Integrated Marketing Communications

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall & Online

This course examines the best practices companies use to perform integrated marketing communications (IMC). IMC includes advertising, sales promotion, direct marketing, personal selling, public relations, customer segmentation and selection, branding, and building customer relationships. Integration of these functions is essential to the success of the marketing strategy of the organization.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): MKT 333

MKT 360 - Digital Marketing Essentials

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall

This course teaches the core principles of digital marketing and the digital marketing process. Students will learn to utilize digital strategies, social tools and tactics to gain insights into the audience, competitors and industry on a variety of social media platforms. Industry examples will be analyzed and utilized in class. At the end of the course, students will have gained practical experience in creating, launching, and maintaining digital marketing campaigns. Class project and assignments will build students' applied portfolios.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): MKT 333

MKT 362 - Digital Marketing Analytics

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall

This course will enable students to learn and use various analytics tools to best leverage digital marketing and social media data. This course will introduce and utilize analytics tools for better consumer engagement, modeling, network analysis, sentiment analysis and identification of key influencers in the social media sphere. This is a practical course with hands on exercises that prepare for professional analytics certifications.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Pre- or Co- Requisite(s): BUS 380 and MKT 333

MKT 363 - Social Media and Content Marketing

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

Students will learn how to use social media and content marketing to communicate an organization's message and engage with customers. Additionally, students will learn how to manage an organization's social media presence.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): MKT 333

MKT 373 - Digital Marketing Strategy

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall

This course teaches the core components of an effective digital marketing strategy. Students will learn how to use the Buyer's Journey model to influence purchase decisions over digital platforms using digital content and tools. This course also explains how to choose the right content for your customers - and how to develop a creative strategy to deliver on key business goals. The class project is applied and adds to students' portfolios.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): MKT 333 and 360

MKT 443 - Personal Selling and Sales Management

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring (odd years)

An introduction to the profession of personal selling and sales management. The choice of sales and sales management as a career will be discussed. Topics of interest include: Strategically planning each sales call within a larger account strategy, making the sales call, strengthening communications, responding helpfully to objections, obtaining commitment, and building partnerships. Sales force planning, organizing, management, territory development, selection, compensation, sales force effectiveness, and performance will also be analyzed and discussed.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): MKT 333

MKT 444 - International Marketing

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall

This course focuses on the theoretical and practical aspects of the cultural environment of global markets, assessing global market opportunities and developing and implementing international marketing strategies.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): MKT 333

MKT 458 - Consumer Behavior

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall & Online

A focus on the individual buyer's role in the marketing system; retail operation and how the needs and wants of the buyers are met in a market-oriented system; importance of product image, brand package influence, and store image in influencing consumer purchases.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): MKT 333

MKT 463 - Marketing Capstone

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring & Online

This capstone course will utilize student knowledge and skills learned in the marketing program. Students will demonstrate the skills they learned in the program to develop and implement a comprehensive marketing strategy, marketing plan with a comprehensive social medial plan, develop all marketing elements needed, and build an implementation plan. These plans will be presented to university and business professionals.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): MKT 333 and Senior status

MKT 491 - Marketing Internship

Units: 1-3

When Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer

Under faculty supervision, the student will work with an outside organization in the field of marketing.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): MKT 333 and permission of the Dean

MAT 095 - Elementary Algebra

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall, Spring, & Online

This course is designed to prepare a student who is not ready for college algebra. There is no prerequisite. This course will include instruction in the following areas: The real number system, linear equations and inequalities, linear graphs, exponents and polynomials, and rational expressions. Math placement will be determined by SAT or ACT or math placement test scores.

Grade Type: Pass/Fail

MAT 101 - Orientation to the Discipline

Units: 1

When Offered: Spring

This course is designed to introduce students to the basic skills necessary for academic success in the discipline of Mathematics and to provide students with an overview of professions in which that major may be applied.

Grade Type: Pass/Fail

MAT 115 - Intermediate Algebra

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall, Spring, & Online

This course satisfies the math competency for the general education requirements. It will include instruction in the following areas: roots and radicals, quadratic equations and inequalities, graphing relations and functions, systems of equations and inequalities, and matrices and determinants.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): MAT 095 or sufficient SAT, ACT or math placement exam scores

MAT 123 - Survey of Mathematics

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall, Spring, & Online

This is a survey course covering the topics of critical thinking skills, inductive reasoning, problem solving, sets, logic, number theory, algebra, graphs and functions, systems of linear equations and inequalities, euclidean and non-euclidean geometry, groups, finance, probability, and statistics. The course is designed to expand into a variety of areas which students in the arts may find more applicable.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): MAT 095 or sufficient SAT, ACT or math placement exam scores

MAT 125 - Mathematical Concepts and Applications I

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall

This course will include instruction in the following areas: critical thinking, sets, systems of numeration, number theory, the real number system, algebra, graphs, and functions. Students will analyze complex problems, apply logical reasoning techniques learned from the above-mentioned areas, evaluate the truth of mathematical statements, and apply different solution strategies. This course will partially fulfill the requirements for a Liberal Studies waiver.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): MAT 115 or sufficient SAT, ACT or math placement exam scores and appropriate high school mathematics background

MAT 127 - Mathematical Concepts and Applications II

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

This course will include instruction in the following areas: critical thinking, two and three dimensional geometry, representational systems, methods for determining measurement, statistics, data analysis, and probability. Students will analyze complex problems, apply logical reasoning techniques learned from the above-mentioned areas, evaluate the truth of mathematical statements, and apply different solution strategies.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): MAT 125

MAT 135 - Pre-Calculus

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall, Spring

This course is designed to prepare a student for Calculus I. It will include instruction in the following areas: review of systems of equations and inequalities, functions and their graphs, sequences, induction, counting, probability, trigonometry, analytical geometry, and pre-calculus material.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): MAT 115 or sufficient SAT, ACT or math placement exam scores and appropriate high school mathematics background

MAT 145 - Mathematical Methods in the Natural Sciences

Units: 4

When Offered: Spring

A calculus-based course including an introduction to derivatives and integrals, dimensional analysis, analytical geometry, trigonometry, vectors, experimental error and other topics to provide a mathematical foundation for natural science majors.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): MAT 115, 135, or sufficient SAT, ACT or math placement exam scores and appropriate high school mathematics background

MAT 154 - Statistics for Nursing and Healthcare

Units: 3When Offered: As offered

An introduction to statistics for Nursing majors that includes an introduction to epidemiology and clinical trials in addition to a study of principles of statistical decision theory, descriptive measurements, probability concepts, random variables, normal distribution, inferential statistics, sampling distributions, confidence intervals, hypothesis testing, chi-squared procedures, linear regression, and the use of computers in statistics.

Grade Type: Letter GradePrerequisite(s): MAT 115 or RN-level nursing license.MAT 200 - Special Topics in Mathematics*Units: 1-3*When Offered: As offered

Various appropriate topics of different concentrations are offered each time. Student involvement in selection of topics is strongly encouraged.

Repeatable: May be repeated for credit with change in topicGrade Type: Letter GradeMAT 245 - Analytical Geometry and Calculus I*Units: 4*When Offered: Fall, Spring

Basic concepts of analytical geometry, limits and derivatives, differentials and rates, integration, definite and indefinite integrals, differentiation of logarithmic and exponential functions.

Grade Type: Letter GradePrerequisite(s): MAT 135, 145, EGR 182, or sufficient SAT, ACT or math placement exam scores and appropriate high school mathematics backgroundMAT 250 - Modeling and Applications of Calculus*Units: 2*When Offered: Spring

The study of symbolic languages, such as Mathematics, Maple, and MATLAB, for the use and application in Calculus and modeling courses.

Grade Type: Letter GradePrerequisite(s): MAT 245MAT 255 - Analytical Geometry and Calculus II*Units: 4*When Offered: Fall, Spring

Continued study and applications of integration: volumes, lengths, surface of revolution; derivatives and integrals involving trigonometric functions, infinite series, expansion of functions, hyperbolic functions, law of the mean, partial fractions, polar coordinates, and conic sections.

Grade Type: Letter GradePrerequisite(s): MAT 245MAT 303 - Linear Algebra with Applications to Differential Equations*Units: 3*When Offered: Fall (even years)

This course is designed to teach students some of the basic computational skills of Linear Algebra in the context of Differential Equations. Students will learn to use the basic operations of matrices, study systems of linear equations and find the determinant, eigenvalues and eigenvectors of a matrix. The student will apply these tools in the qualitative study of solutions to systems of Differential Equations.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): MAT 255

MAT 310 - Differential Equations

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall

Methods of solution of ordinary differential equations with some applications to geometry and physics.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): MAT 255

MAT 313 - Mathematical Proof and Structures

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall, Spring

A study of various methods of proofs and mathematical structures covering logic, universal and existential quantifiers, sets, functions, and selected topics in discrete mathematics, linear algebra, abstract algebra, and real analysis. This is a bridge course to abstract mathematics and should be taken prior to or concurrently with courses in linear or abstract algebra, and real or complex analysis.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): MAT 245

MAT 333 - Complex Variables

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

Structure of complex numbers and their functions, analytic, harmonic, and elementary functions, residue theory, and conformal mapping.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): MAT 313

MAT 342 - Fundamentals of Multivariable Calculus and Differential Equations for Engineers

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

Students will learn basic concepts of Linear Algebra and multivariable calculus in the context of differential equations. Analytic and numerical methods of solving ordinary differential equations will be discussed. Furthermore, students will be briefly introduced to the qualitative theory of ordinary differential equations. Separation of Variables will be discussed as a method for solving partial differential equations as well as some other methods. Problems discussed in class will have applications in engineering, physics, biology, and chemistry.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): MAT 255 and Pre-Chemical Engineering or Chemical Engineering

MAT 343 - Multivariable Calculus

Units: 4

When Offered: Fall, Spring

Study and applications of vector analysis, partial differentiation, multiple integration, Jacobians, theorems of Green and Stokes, and divergence theorem.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): MAT 255

MAT 353 - Probability and Statistics

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall

A calculus based course covering discrete and continuous distributions, expectations, the normal distribution, the central limit theorem, the binomial distribution, and various topics in statistical theory such as point estimation, hypothesis testing, and linear regression.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): MAT 245

MAT 363 - History of Mathematics and Theory of Numbers

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall (odd years)

A study of the History of Mathematics from ancient to modern times: Elementary topics in number theory, linear congruencies, Fermat and Wilson theorems, quadratic reciprocity laws.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Pre- or Co- Requisite(s): MAT 313

MAT 399 - Independent Study

Units: 1-3

When Offered: As offered

This course of study is offered to afford the superior student an opportunity to explore independently subject matter not already offered in the catalog.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

MAT 400 - Special Topics in Mathematics

Units: 1-3

When Offered: As offered

Various appropriate topics of different concentrations are offered each time. Student involvement in selection of topics is strongly encouraged.

Repeatable: May be repeated for credit with change in topic

Grade Type: Letter Grade

MAT 403 - Linear Algebra

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

Vector spaces; matrices, rank and systems of linear equations; linear transformation; similarity and diagonalization theorems; eigenvectors and eigenvalues.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): MAT 313

MAT 423 - Introduction to Topology

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring (even years)

An introduction to general and algebraic topology, concentrating on point-set topology. Topics to be covered include topological spaces, metric spaces, continuous functions, connectedness, and compactness.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): MAT 313

MAT 425 - Applications of Topology

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring (odd years)

This course will be a survey of applications of various topics of point-set topology. Applications to areas of science, technology, and industry will be introduced, which may include chemistry, biochemistry, genetics, cryptography, robotics, and GIS.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): MAT 313

MAT 443 - Introduction to Real Analysis

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

An introduction to real analysis and topology covering the completeness of the real numbers, sequences, limits, continuity, uniform continuity, Riemann integrability, topology of the real numbers, topological spaces, connectedness, compactness, and metric spaces.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): MAT 313

MAT 453 - Numerical Analysis

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall (odd years)

Solutions of Equations of One Variable, Interpolations and Polynomial Approximation, Numerical Integration and Differentiation, Direct Methods for Solving Linear Systems and Approximation Theory.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): MAT 255

MAT 463 - Fundamental Concepts of Geometry

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring (even years)

An advanced study of concepts of Euclidean geometry and an introduction to non-Euclidean geometry. Theorems and proofs are emphasized.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): MAT 313

MAT 473 - Abstract Algebra I

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall

An introduction to the structure of algebraic systems such as groups, subgroups, cosets, homomorphisms, factor groups, rings, and fields.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): MAT 313

MAT 480 - Senior Seminar

Units: 1

When Offered: Fall

This seminar serves as a survey course that covers concepts and theory of calculus, linear algebra, abstract algebra, number theory, analysis, and topology. Conceptual problems will be discussed and assigned to improve problem-solving skills.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): MAT 313 and Senior status

MAT 483 - Abstract Algebra II

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring (odd years)

This course is a continuation of Abstract Algebra and will include ideals and factor rings, extension fields, Isomorphism and Sylow Theorems, free groups, factorization, automorphisms, Galois Theory, and an introduction to Homology theory.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): MAT 323

MAT 490 - Senior Research in Mathematics

Units: 1-4

When Offered: Fall, Spring

The focus of this class is an independent research project that the student undertakes under the direction of a faculty member who acts as a research advisor. Content varies from year to year and is determined by both instructor's and students' interests.

Repeatable: May be repeated for a maximum of eight (8) units

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): MAT 313 and permission of the Department Chair

MAT 499 - Capstone

Units: 4

When Offered: Fall, Spring

The course is designed to be a culminating experience for senior students who are preparing to teach mathematics at the junior/senior high school level. The course provides students an opportunity to reflect on the critical assignments that have been completed throughout their coursework and relate these lessons to the career of teaching.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): Permission of the Department Chair

MSL 100 - Leadership Laboratory

Units: 1

When Offered: Fall, Spring

Practicum in those skills taught in the classroom during other military science classes in the semester. To include

Platoon Level Operations, such as patrolling, situational training exercise, map reading, land navigation, rappelling and weapons qualification. Some training is conducted on weekends. This course is only open to enrolled Army ROTC cadets. The course must be taken each semester the student is enrolled in the Military Science program.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

MSL 101 - Introduction to the Army and Critical Thinking

Units: 1

When Offered: Fall

This course introduces students to the personal challenges and competencies that are critical for effective leadership and communication. Students will learn how the personal development of life skills such as cultural understanding, goal setting, time management, stress management, and comprehensive fitness relate to leadership, officership, and the Army profession. During the course students will learn the structure of the ROTC Basic Course program, Fall and Spring Leadership Labs, and Cadet Initial Entry Training (CIET.)

Grade Type: Letter Grade

MSL 102 - Introduction to the Profession of Arms

Units: 1

When Offered: Spring

This course introduces students to the professional challenges and competencies that are needed for effective execution of the profession of arms and Army communication. Through this course, students will learn how Army ethics and values shape the Army and the specific ways that these ethics are inculcated into Army culture.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

MSL 201 - Leadership and Decision Making

Units: 2

When Offered: Fall

Cadets will study, practice, and apply the fundamentals of Army Leadership, Officership, Army Values and Ethics, Personal Development, and small unit tactics at the platoon level. Cadets will be required to demonstrate writing skills and present information briefings as preparation for development in becoming a successful future officer.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): ROTC Cadet

MSL 202 - Army Doctrine and Team Development

Units: 2

When Offered: Spring

This course primarily is drawn from the Army Profession and Team Work Army Learning Areas (ALA's). Cadets will study, practice, and apply the fundamentals of the Leadership, Officer Skills, Army Values and Ethics, Personal Development, and Tactics at the small unit level.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): ROTC Cadet

MSL 301 - Training Management and the Warfighting Functions

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall

Cadets will study, practice, and apply the fundamentals of Army Leadership, Officership, Army Values and Ethics, Personal Development, and small unit tactics at the platoon level with a focus on training management and warfighting functions. At the conclusion of this course, cadets will be capable of planning, coordinating, navigating, motivating and leading a squad and platoon in the execution of a mission during a classroom practical exercise (PE), a Leadership Lab, or during a Leader Training Exercise (LTX). Successful completion of this course will help prepare cadets for the ROTC Cadet Leader Course (CLC), which they will attend in the summer at Fort Knox, KY.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): ROTC Cadet

MSL 302 - Applied Leadership in Small Unit Operations

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

Building on knowledge and skills learned in prior courses, cadets will study, practice, and apply the fundamentals of Army Leadership, Officership, Army Values and Ethics, Personal Development, and small unit tactics at the platoon level with a focus on applied leadership in small unit operations. At the conclusion of this course, cadets will be capable of planning, coordinating, navigating, motivating and leading a squad and platoon in the execution of a mission during a classroom practical exercise, a Leadership Lab, or during a Leader Training Exercise (LTX). Successful completion of this course will help prepare cadets for the ROTC Cadet Leader Course (CLC), which they will attend in the summer at Fort Knox, KY.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): ROTC Cadet

MSL 401 - The Army Officer

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall

Cadets will study, practice, develop, and apply critical thinking skills pertaining to Army leadership, officer skills, Army Values and ethics, personal development, and small unit tactics at platoon level. Cadets will be assessed on the execution of a missions during a classroom practical exercise (PE), Leadership Lab, or during a Leader Training Exercise (LTX). At the conclusion of this course, Cadets will be able to plan, coordinate, navigate, motivate and lead a platoon in future operational environments. Successful completion of this course will assist in preparing Cadets for their BOLC B course and is a mandatory requirement for commissioning.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): ROTC Cadet

MSL 402 - Company Grade Leadership

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

Cadets will study, practice, develop, and apply critical thinking skills pertaining to Army leadership, officer skills, Army Values and ethics, personal development, and small unit tactics at platoon level. Cadets will be assessed on the execution of a mission during a classroom practical exercise (PE), Leadership Lab, or during a Leader Training Exercise (LTX), as well as, completing a Capstone Exercise. For the Capstone Exercise, Cadets are required to complete an Oral Practicum demonstrating knowledge of the 20 Army Warfighting Challenges (AWFC) covered throughout the course. Successful completion of this course will assist in preparing Cadets for their BOLC B course and is a mandatory requirement for commissioning.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): ROTC Cadet

MSL 451 - Seminar in Military History

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

The course is designed to enable a student with no prior military or cadet experience to quickly learn the importance of studying military history, conduct critical analysis, and identify patterns that occur in a study of history from the Civil War through the present. The course introduction provides an analytical framework for applying critical thinking skills to the study of military operations within each time period and provides a common language to use during the class. Students will demonstrate learning through classroom participation, short point papers, an in-class presentation and two longer analytical papers. This course is NOT about learning names, dates, and places. Rather, this course is designed to interest students in the study of American military history from the Civil War period to the present. Critical thinking about "the whys" things happened is the focus. Reading the assignments and participating in classroom discussions will facilitate student interest in further historical research on topic of their choosing. For Army ROTC cadets, this course satisfies the Cadet Command military history and pre-commissioning requirement.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

MUS 010 - Beginning Piano for Non-Music Majors

Units: 1

When Offered: Fall

Group instruction in keyboard fundamentals for the non-music major with little or no keyboard experience, focusing on keyboard orientation, rhythm and pitch reading, selected scales and chords, and performance of elementary keyboard literature.

Repeatable: May be repeated one (1) time for credit

Grade Type: Letter Grade

MUS 012 - Class Piano I

Units: 1

When Offered: Fall, Spring

Designed for the music major whose primary instrument is other than piano. The course material will focus on the rudiments of piano playing, including acquisition of the Technical Skills (Items 1-10) of Piano Proficiency (i.e. scales, arpeggios, and chords).

Repeatable: May be repeated three (3) times for credit

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): Declared Music major

MUS 014 - Class Guitar

Units: 1

When Offered: Fall, Spring

Group instruction in the fundamentals of guitar.

Repeatable: May be repeated for credit

Grade Type: Letter Grade

MUS 015 - Class Piano for Worship Arts and Commercial Music I

Units: 1

When Offered: Fall, Spring

Group instruction of fundamental piano skills to be used in live worship service settings. Focus on scales, basic chord structures, improvisation, chord chart realization, and accompaniment skills.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

MUS 016 - Rhythm Instruments I

Units: 1When Offered: Fall

Beginning group instruction on drum set as applied to commercial music studies. Students with a drum set as their primary instrument may substitute one unit of voice.

Grade Type: Letter GradeMUS 017 - Class Guitar for Worship Arts I*Units: 1*When Offered: Fall

Introduces students to foundational elements of guitar study. Students will learn how to play chords in open positions, major and pentatonic scales in all keys, note reading, basics of fingerstyle and plectrum technique, improvisation, and ensemble playing. Special emphasis will be placed on worship based applications of guitar playing.

Repeatable: May be repeated for creditGrade Type: Letter GradeMUS 020 - Intermediate Piano for Non-Music Majors*Units: 1*When Offered: Spring

A continuation of Beginning Piano for Non-Music Majors that develops skills gained the previous semester. Work with additional keys, harmonization, and performance of late elementary keyboard literature.

Repeatable: May be repeated one (1) time for creditGrade Type: Letter GradePrerequisite(s): MUS 010 or permission of the DeanMUS 022 - Class Piano II*Units: 1*When Offered: Fall, Spring

Designed for the music major whose primary instrument is other than piano. The course material will focus primarily on the Functional Skills (Items 11-15) of Piano Proficiency (i.e. solo repertoire, harmonization, transposition, score-reading, and sight-reading) with review of the Technical Skills.

Repeatable: May be repeated three (3) times for creditGrade Type: Letter GradePrerequisite(s): MUS 012 or permission of the ProfessorMUS 025 - Class Piano for Worship Arts and Commercial Music II*Units: 1*When Offered: Fall, Spring

Group instruction of intermediate piano skills to be used in live worship service settings. Content will continue from MUS 015 - Class Piano for Worship Arts and Commercial Music I and focus on more advanced chord structures, improvisation, chord chart realization, and accompaniment skills.

Repeatable: May be repeated for creditGrade Type: Letter GradePrerequisite(s): MUS 015MUS 026 - Rhythm Instruments II

Units: 1When Offered: Spring

Beginning group instruction on bass and guitar as applied to commercial music studies. Students with guitar or bass as their primary instrument may substitute one unit of voice.

Grade Type: Letter GradeMUS 027 - Class Guitar for Worship Arts II*Units: 1*When Offered: Spring

Expounds upon foundational elements in MUS 017 - Class Guitar for Worship Arts I by introducing intermediate guitar skills and worship applications. Students will learn how to play closed chord forms, including inversions and extended chords, major and pentatonic scales in all keys, note reading beyond first position, applications of fingerstyle and plectrum technique in worship, improvisation, and ensemble playing. Grade Type: Letter GradePracticum: 9 hours/week practicumFee: Additional trip fee(s)Prerequisite(s): Permission of the DeanNUR 431 - Global Service-Learning in Nursing: Core Concepts*Units: 3*When Offered: As offered

This is the first of three courses in the Global Integration Studies: Global Health Nursing Minor. This course begins to prepare the student for engaging in healthcare globally. It provides a solid foundation of the concepts of cultural awareness, cultural knowledge, cultural skill, cultural encounters and cultural desire based on Campinah-Bacote's (2002) definition of cultural competence. Using Biblical principles and Parse's Humanbecoming School of Thought (1998), students will develop the skills needed to provide relevant and meaningful nursing care to members of various population groups.

Grade Type: Letter GradePrerequisite(s): Previous ISP experienceNUR 432 - Global Service-Learning in Nursing: Advanced Concepts*Units: 3*When Offered: As offered

This is the second of three courses in the Global Integration Studies: Global Health Nursing Minor. Building upon the Core Concepts of Global Service Learning in Nursing, students will compare and contrast nursing, healthcare and healthcare systems nationally and globally. This course will incorporate frameworks for Global Service Learning in Nursing from the National League of Nursing, Center for Disease Control and World Health Organization. Using Biblical principles and Parse's Humanbecoming School of Thought (1998), students will develop a plan to provide relevant and meaningful nursing care to members of specific population groups.

Grade Type: Letter GradePrerequisite(s): NUR 431 and permission of the DeanNUR 433 - Global Service-Learning in Nursing: Immersion Practicum*Units: 3*When Offered: As offered

This is the third of three courses in the Global Integration Studies: Global Health Nursing Minor. Building upon the Core and Advanced Concepts of Global Service Learning in Nursing, students will apply cultural awareness, cultural knowledge, cultural skill, cultural encounters and cultural desire based on Campinah-Bacote's (2002) definition of cultural competence to a specific global nursing population. Using Biblical principles and Parse's Humanbecoming School of Thought (1998), students will implement a plan to provide relevant and meaningful nursing care to members of specific population groups. Involves travel as a group to selected local areas inside and/or outside of the U.S.

Grade Type: Letter GradePracticum: 9 hours/week practicumPrerequisite(s): NUR 431, 432, and permission of the Dean

NUR 440 - Adult Health II

Units: 4

When Offered: Fall, Spring

This is the second of two Medical Surgical courses analyzing nursing theory and applying evidence based clinical judgment in the care of adult clients with complex acute and chronic illnesses.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): Permission of the Dean

Pre- or Co- Requisite(s): NUR 441

NUR 441 - Adult Health II Practicum

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall, Spring

In this practicum course, learners will analyze nursing theory and apply evidence based clinical judgment in the care of adult clients with complex acute and chronic illnesses.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Practicum: 9 hours/week practicum

Prerequisite(s): Permission of the Dean

Pre- or Co- Requisite(s): NUR 440

NUR 450 - Nursing Services for the Older Adult and Family

Units: 2

When Offered: Fall, Spring

This course focuses on the provision of nursing care for the aging population. Expected and unexpected health-related changes of older adults are explored. Emphasis is on living quality in health promotion and disease prevention. This course will examine how ageism impacts care of the older adult.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): Permission of the Dean

Pre- or Co- Requisite(s): NUR 451

NUR 451 - Nursing Practicum with the Older Adult and Family

Units: 1

When Offered: Fall, Spring

This practicum allows students to provide nursing care for the aging population with expected and unexpected health-related changes. Students will participate in health promotion and disease prevention activities in a variety of settings.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Practicum: 3 hours/week practicum

Prerequisite(s): Permission of the Dean

Pre- or Co- Requisite(s): NUR 450

NUR 460 - Ethics and Issues in Health Care

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall, Spring, RN-BSN

The course is designed to explore the meaning of becoming a member of the nursing profession. The philosophical and ethical aspects of the professional role of the Registered Nurse are examined. Emphasis is placed on current issues of professionalism, legal accountability and responsibility, liability, advocacy, collaboration, and ethical responsibilities of decision making within complex healthcare systems.

Grade Type: Letter Grade
Prerequisite(s): Permission of the Dean

NUR 470 - Christian Leadership in Nursing

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall, Spring, RN-BSN

This course emphasizes principles of nursing leadership and clinical reasoning to promote safe, quality patient care in a variety of settings. Leadership skills include prioritization, delegation, negotiation, collaboration, and coordination. Roles include provider and manager of nursing care in an interprofessional environment. Specific focus will be on transition to practice as an entry-level professional nurse.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): Permission of the Dean

Pre- or Co- Requisite(s): NUR 471

NUR 471 - Christian Leadership in Nursing Practicum

Units: 2

When Offered: Fall, Spring, RN-BSN

This practicum allows students to demonstrate principles of nursing leadership and clinical reasoning to promote safe, quality patient care in a variety of settings. Prioritization, delegation, negotiation, collaboration, and coordination will be emphasized. This practicum culminates in a project designed to improve outcomes in health promotion and disease prevention.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Practicum: 6 hours/week practicum

Prerequisite(s): Permission of the Dean

Pre- or Co- Requisite(s): NUR 470

NUR 494 - NCLEX Review

Units: 1

When Offered: Fall, Spring

This course prepares students to pass the NCLEX-RN.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): Permission of the Dean

NUR 498 - Senior Capstone Practicum

Units: 2

When Offered: As offered

LVN thirty (30) unit option only. This practicum course focuses on the roles and responsibilities of a new graduate professional nurse. The course provides an opportunity for the student to further develop appropriate leadership and practice nursing skills necessary for the beginning practitioner role. It also facilitates synthesis for nursing knowledge and skills acquired in previous LVN option courses for the provision of nursing care to individuals and families.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Practicum: 6 hours/week of practicum

NUR 499 - Senior Capstone Practicum

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall, Spring, RN-BSN

This final course practicum focuses on knowledge synthesis and role-readiness of a new graduate nurse. Clinical opportunities are provided utilizing preceptor partnerships to further develop leadership and nursing skills necessary for transition to practice.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Practicum: 9 hours/week practicum

Prerequisite(s): Permission of the Dean

NFS 100 - Nutrition Basics for Sport Performance

Units: 1

When Offered: Fall

Course covers key topics of nutrition for student athletes outlined in the LANCERS' Fuel Student Athlete Nutrition Manual. Course includes didactic and personalized learning experiences in nutritional and dietary assessments targeted to enhance healthy eating practices that support cognitive function and athletic practice while promoting proper nourishment of the body to optimize performance levels.

Grade Type: Pass/Fail

NFS 101 - Introduction to Nutrition and Food Sciences

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall, Spring

This class provides an introduction to the fundamental principles of normal nutrition, food science and their relation to the health and physical fitness of individuals. Also includes a discussion of the career opportunities within nutrition and sciences, and the computer software pertinent to the field.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

NFS 300 - Lifecycle Nutrition

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall

This class will provide a rapidly moving study of nutrition in the lifecycle from infancy through advancing years. Emphasis will be placed on the application of nutritional requirements and guidelines in each age group to dietary planning and intake.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

NFS 310 - Community and Public Health Nutrition

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall, Spring

Study of the community-based programs with nutrition components, including work-site wellness, health promotion, schools, day-care programs, and health clinics. Programs in these areas include nutrition screening and assessment, feeding programs and assistance, plus health promotion and disease prevention.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

NFS 315 - Experimental Foods

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

Students will learn to apply basic nutrition and food science research designs to conduct experiments, interpret data, and write reports. The techniques used in the planning, preparation, development, and evaluation of new food products will be covered.

Grade Type: Letter Grade
Pre- or Co- Requisite(s): NFS 101

NFS 320 - Nutritional Biochemistry

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

Introduction to biochemistry with particular emphasis on nutrition and its effect on metabolism.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): NFS 101

NFS 330 - Food Service, Organization, Purchasing, and Management

Units: 3

When Offered: As offered

Study of equipment, personnel, and cost in the management of large quantity food services. Includes guest professional lectures and site visits to local food service operations.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

NFS 335 - Food Chemistry

Units: 3

When Offered: As offered

This course provides an introduction to theories on the molecular bases of chemical phenomena that dictate the behavior of foods. This is an integrated lecture and lab course. Laboratory sections will provide opportunities for students to observe, manipulate, and explore model food systems. The emphasis is on the major food components (water, lipids, proteins, and carbohydrates) and how these food components behaves under conditions of particular relevance to food processing.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): CHE 115, 115L, and NFS 101

NFS 345 - Food Processing and Engineering

Units: 3

When Offered: As offered

This course examines the application of principles related to the conversion of raw materials into food products. Students will be exposed to principles and practices of food processing unit operations including materials handling, mixing, heating and cooling, quality control, packaging, food quality, and food safety.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): NFS 101

NFS 355 - Food Sensory Analysis

Units: 3

When Offered: As offered

This course emphasizes the principles and applications of instrumental methods for qualitative and quantitative analysis used in the physical, chemical, and instrumental examination of food products. The basic analytical tools for determination of moisture, proteins, carbohydrates, lipids, minerals, and vitamins in food systems are introduced. Sensory methods are also employed in planning, preparation, developing new products, and evaluation of food products.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

NFS 400 - Special Topics in Nutrition and Food Sciences

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall

This course will teach advanced topics in specialized nutrition and food sciences areas such as sports nutrition, quantity foods, planning therapeutic diets, maternal and child nutrition, personal nutrition, nutrient-drug interactions, food safety, and current issues. The specific topic will be announced each semester.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): NFS 101

NFS 420 - Quantity Food Management

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

The course will focus on the planning and execution of large quantity food production operations and banqueting in various food service environments. The student will obtain hands on experience in the management of large kitchens such as institutional, banquet, and a la carte restaurants.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

NFS 445 - Food Microbiology

Units: 3

When Offered: As offered

This course covers the nature, physiology, and interactions of microorganisms in foods including foodborne diseases, effects of food processing on the microflora of foods, food preservation, food spoilage, and foods produced by microorganisms. Analytical techniques in detecting and quantitating microorganisms and their toxins in foods will be practiced.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): BIO 205 and NFS 101

NFS 455 - Medical Nutrition Therapy I

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall

This course provides a scientific basis for introduction to biochemistry and physiology of human chronic diseases, cardiovascular disease, diabetes, renal disease, cancer, metabolic disorders, with emphasis on nutrition-related principles and intervention.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Pre- or Co- Requisite(s): NFS 320

NFS 460 - Human Nutrition Assessment Lecture

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

Scientific study on basis of nutritional assessment using anthropometric, dietary, biochemical, and clinical tests and criteria.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): NFS 101

NFS 465 - Medical Nutrition Therapy II

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

This course provides an advanced level of understanding of biochemistry, physiology, pathology of human chronic diseases, cardiovascular disease, diabetes, renal disease, cancers, metabolic disorders, with emphasis on nutrition-related mechanisms, metabolisms, and clinical interventions.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): NFS 320 and 455

NFS 475 - Advanced Human Nutrition

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

Advanced-level nutrition biochemistry with particular emphasis on micro-nutrients, their roles in physiological metabolism, energy balance, physical activity, disease prevention, and emerging issues in maternal nutrition and offspring disease development will be covered.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): NFS 320 and Senior status

NFS 491 - Internship in Nutrition and Food Sciences

Units: 1-4

When Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer

An internship provides nutrition and food sciences majors with valuable experience through working with professionals in their chosen field of study. Three (3) hours per week for 14 weeks of on-site work, observation, or participation are required for each unit of credit and 1-4 units may be taken in any one semester.

Repeatable: May be repeated for a maximum of six (6) units

Fee: Additional course fee

Prerequisite(s): PHO 350

PHO 330 - Visual Storytelling

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall

This course integrates a conceptual framework and narrative structure into the photographic process. Utilizing color, design and visual communication skills to evoke emotion, students will learn how narrative shapes messaging. The course supports students involved in a wide range of photographic disciplines where visual storytelling is critical to a work's reception.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Fee: Additional course fee

Prerequisite(s): PHO 310

PHO 332 - Studio Lighting

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

This course will implement a practical workflow within a controlled space, utilizing the tools and techniques of studio photographers. Students will gain an understanding of light quality and how it relates to ideas, and the emotional depiction of a subject. Students will understand how to craft their lighting to the specific subject they are photographing. Labs will be hands-on, integrating professional studio practices for digital capture and utilizing industry-wide workflow standards related to the latest software and hardware.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Fee: Additional course fee

Prerequisite(s): PHO 350

PHO 350 - Digital Printing and Color Management

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall

This course presents students with the digital workflow techniques needed to produce archival photographs. File preparation, resolution selection, print-profiling, paper selection and soft-proofing techniques will be covered. Students will learn the techniques of digital color management by applying color profiles to produce archival prints for the purpose of promotional, gallery, and printed portfolios.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Fee: Additional course fee

Prerequisite(s): PHO 250 or GDM 235

PHO 400 - Special Topics in Photography

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

This course focuses on different topics in the field of photography each time it is offered.

Repeatable: May be repeated for a maximum of nine (9) units with change in topic

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Fee: Additional course fee

Prerequisite(s): PHO 350

PHO 415 - Context and Narrative

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

Students will apply their knowledge of photographic processes and visual storytelling to the development of a cohesive and professional body of work as their authentic voice. Emphasis is on advanced level conceptual development, contextual research, image making, and critique. Resulting in an approved proposal allowing them to proceed with their senior project.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Fee: Additional course fee

Prerequisite(s): PHO 330

PHO 432 - Location Lighting

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall

Students will be able to approach locations efficiently to determine what artificial lighting methods to introduce, to create technically refined photographs. While also introducing these techniques creatively to further demonstrate mastery of photography through the use of location lighting.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Fee: Additional course fee

Prerequisite(s): PHO 332

PHO 433 - Studio Practice

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall

This course will address project cohesiveness, work quality, concept and process through critique and feedback.

Students will apply all skills and theory learned to further define a contextual response to their photographic narrative.

Students will demonstrate a detailed understanding of the photographic process including research, concept, design and documentation in preparation for their final presentation.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Fee: Additional course fee

Prerequisite(s): PHO 415

PHO 450 - Digital Asset Management

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

Students will curate, control, and communicate their photographic library by gathering and assembling current assets in one collaborative location. Establishing digital workflow best practices for the entire asset life cycle, by integrating their image library with other applications and services.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Fee: Additional course fee

Prerequisite(s): PHO 485

PHO 485 - Photography Business

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall

Students will understand and develop the principles of running a successful photography business. With a hands on practical approach in relationship to; self promotion, marketing, accounting, copyright, permitting, contracts, artist representation, and the procurement of work.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Fee: Additional course fee

Prerequisite(s): PHO 415

PHO 498 - Photography Intensive

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring, Summer

Students will explore through the photographic medium - art, culture and sites of historical and contemporary significance. Emphasis is placed on independent project advancement, individualized instruction, and group critique on each student's project progress. Photography Intensive students will create a series of photographs working within the confines of shooting in a foreign location during the condensed semester. The course culminates in a group exhibition and photographic book.

Repeatable: May be repeated for a maximum of six (6) units

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): Permission of the Dean

PHO 498G - Photography Intensive

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring, Summer

Students will explore through the photographic medium - art, culture and sites of historical and contemporary significance. Emphasis is placed on independent project advancement, individualized instruction, and group critique on each student's project progress. Photography Intensive students will create a series of photographs working within the confines of shooting in a foreign location during the condensed semester. The course culminates in a group exhibition and photographic book. Students registered in this section will participate in a global practicum experience during which the skills learned throughout the semester will be applied in an international setting.

Repeatable: May be repeated for a maximum of six (6) units

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Fee: Additional trip fee(s)

Prerequisite(s): Permission of the Dean

PHO 499 - Portfolio and Gallery

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

Students will apply the skills necessary for the professional presentation of a completed body of work including editing, sequencing, printing, marketing, portfolio design, and gallery presentation.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Fee: Additional course fee

Prerequisite(s): PHO 433

PSC 133 - Survey of Physical Science

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall

A survey course designed to provide a foundation in the physical sciences by covering essential principles of motion and energy along with the structure and properties of matter. The application of physical science concepts to daily life will be emphasized.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): MAT 095 or sufficient SAT or ACT score

PSC 133L - Survey of Physical Science Lab

Units: 1

When Offered: Fall

A laboratory experience designed to illustrate and reinforce physical science principles and to introduce basic physical science laboratory techniques.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Fee: Additional lab fee

Pre- or Co- Requisite(s): PSC 133

PSC 201 - Special Topics in Physical Science

Units: 3

When Offered: As offered

Concentration upon a specific topic in the field of physical science. Topic varies for different semesters.

Repeatable: May be repeated for credit with change in topic

Grade Type: Letter Grade

PSC 399 - Independent Study

Units: 3

When Offered: As offered

An opportunity for students who have demonstrated the ability to do independent work to pursue in depth a topic of particular interest.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

PSC 401 - Special Topics in Physical Science

Units: 3

When Offered: As offered

Concentration upon a specific topic in the field of physical science. Topic varies for different semesters.

Repeatable: May be repeated for credit with change in topic

Grade Type: Letter Grade

PSC 413 - Lab Techniques for Physical Science Teachers

Units: 3

When Offered: As offered

Development and practice of classical and modern lab procedures and philosophies including mathematical analysis. Practice, organization, and set up, to conduct various labs used throughout the physical sciences. Study of conformity to various lab situations, and how to improve and modernize existing or standard labs.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Fee: Additional lab fee

Prerequisite(s): PSC 133

PTH 100 - Introduction to Physical Therapy

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall

This course introduces the student to the field of physical therapy by covering the history and ethics of the profession as they relate to the healthcare system. The course addresses the development of the healthcare team, philosophy of rehabilitation, interviewing patients, inter-professional communication, cultural awareness, patient confidentiality, and the psychosocial impact of illness and injury. The scope of practice of the physical therapist assistant and basic documentation is emphasized.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): Physical Therapist Assistant major

PTH 110 - Medical Terminology for the Physical Therapist Assistant

Units: 1

When Offered: Fall

This course offers students interaction with the dynamic language of healthcare. Through comprehensive study, exercises, and case studies, students will have the opportunity to be immersed in the words, abbreviations, and symbols used in healthcare.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): Physical Therapist Assistant major

PTH 130 - Functional Kinesiology and Therapeutic Exercise

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall

This course covers the study and application of human movement and measurement. Anatomical function of muscle and muscle groups are discussed. Muscle activation with normal gait is presented. Developing skill competencies with manual muscle testing, goniometry, and posture are emphasized.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): Physical Therapist Assistant major

PTH 140 - Basic Clinical Skills

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

This course covers safe mobility, therapeutic exercise, and basic patient handling and assessment skills. Patient data collection and assessment is discussed. Developing skill competency with therapeutic exercise, positioning, draping, bed mobility, transfers, gait training, wheelchair management and mobility, vital signs, anthropometric measures, and aseptic techniques are emphasized.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): PTH 100 and 110

PTH 150 - Preparation for Clinical Practice

Units: 1

When Offered: Spring

This course is designed to prepare the student for clinical experiences. Content will include reviewing the clinical handbook, Clinical Performance Instrument (CPI), and the clinical placement and assessment process. Written and oral communication skills specific to the clinical environment, professional behaviors, and clinical expectations are emphasized.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): PTH 100, 110, and 130

PTH 170 - Physical Agents

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

This course prepares the student for safe and effective application of physical agents and therapeutic massage for patient treatment. Mechanisms of action, indication, precautions, contraindications, and treatment procedures are covered. Pain assessment is introduced. Developing skill competency with biophysical agents, therapeutic massage, and skin assessment are emphasized.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): PTH 100 and 110

PTH 200 - Special Topics in Physical Therapy

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall

This course addresses special topics within physical therapy practice. The role of the physical therapist assistant within the progression of the physical therapy plan of care is discussed. Pelvic health and health behavior and wellness are also presented. Developing skill competency within the areas of cardiopulmonary, environmental management and safety, pediatrics, and geriatrics are emphasized.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): PTH 130, 140, 170, and 230

PTH 230 - Pathophysiology for the Physical Therapist Assistant

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

This course discusses basic pathologic conditions and principles commonly treated in physical therapy. Etiology, signs, symptoms, clinical course, primary medical interventions, and implications for rehabilitation of disorders are presented.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): PTH 100 and 110

PTH 240 - Advanced Clinical Skills

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall

This course explores theory and application of advanced skills within physical therapy practice. The role of the physical therapist assistant within the progression of the physical therapy plan of care is discussed. Dependent transfers and equipment, lymphedema care, and aquatic therapy are also discussed. Developing skill competency with prosthetics, orthotics, integumentary/wound care, and ergonomics are emphasized.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): PTH 130, 140, and 170

PTH 255 - Clinical I

Units: 3

When Offered: Summer

This course provides students with the opportunity to perform delegated patient care responsibilities in a physical therapy clinical setting, with supervision. Students complete a full-time clinical affiliation at a facility assigned by the program faculty.

Grade Type: Pass/Fail

Prerequisite(s): Permission of the Department Chair

PTH 260 - Orthopedics

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall

This course presents the effects of disease, disorders, and injuries of the musculoskeletal system, as well as orthopedic diagnoses encountered by the physical therapist assistant across the lifespan. Signs and symptoms, medical/surgical intervention, physical therapy treatment, documentation, and implications for rehabilitation are covered and applied. Developing skill competency with joint mobilization and pain assessment are emphasized.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): PTH 130, 140, 170, and 230

PTH 265 - Clinical II

Units: 5

When Offered: Spring

This course provides students with the opportunity to perform delegated patient care responsibilities in a physical therapy clinical setting, with supervision. Students complete a full-time clinical affiliation at a facility assigned by the program faculty.

Grade Type: Pass/Fail

Prerequisite(s): Permission of the Department Chair

PTH 270 - Neurology

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall

This course presents the effects of disease and trauma of the neurological system encountered by the physical therapist assistant with adults. Neurological interventions, therapeutic exercise, documentation, and treatment progressions are applied. Developing skill competency with arousal, mentation, and cognition levels, sensory assessment, and facilitation/inhibition techniques are emphasized.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): PTH 130, 140, 170, and 230

PTH 275 - Clinical III

Units: 5

When Offered: Spring

This course provides students with the opportunity to perform delegated patient care responsibilities in a physical therapy clinical setting, with supervision. Students complete a full-time clinical affiliation at a facility assigned by the program faculty.

Grade Type: Pass/Fail

Prerequisite(s): Permission of the Department Chair

PTH 280 - Professional Integration

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

This course incorporates student experiences from clinical courses into discussion, group activities, and case presentations. Students communicate, problem-solve, and present challenging cases and complicated professional situations within a group atmosphere. Students will develop a resume and a plan for obtaining a job after graduation. Students will prepare for the Physical Therapist Assistant licensure exam. Legal and ethical practices, professional success, and lifelong learning are emphasized.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): PTH 255, 260, and 270

PHY 112 - The Physics of Hollywood with Lab

Units: 4

When Offered: Fall (odd years)

A study of optics, cameras, lighting, sound, analog vs. digital processes, polarization and the 3-D moving making process. The course is a very lab intensive class taught in a semi inquiry-based manner. The class and lab are heavily integrated. The course is a self contained class which includes some reviews of the math necessary to be successful in the class.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Fee: Additional lab fee

PHY 113 - Astronomy

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall

A study of the earth, time, moon, sky, celestial mechanics, solar system, and the sidereal universe.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

PHY 113L - Astronomy Lab

Units: 1

When Offered: Fall

A study of the laws of physics related to the optics of telescopes. Observational labs, including remotely operating telescopes on mountain tops.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Fee: Additional lab fee(s) (Field trips may require additional lab fees)

Pre- or Co- Requisite(s): PHY 113

PHY 115 - Physics for Architects with Lab

Units: 4When Offered: Fall

A study of mathematical methods of physics, kinematics, forces, Newton's Laws, earthquakes, fluids, work, energy, power, momentum, heat and thermodynamics, electricity, waves, light, and sound.

Grade Type: Letter GradeFee: Additional course feePrerequisite(s): MAT 135, 145, or 245

PHY 122 - The Physics of Photography

Units: 3When Offered: As offered

A study of the physical properties of the camera, predominantly optics. Emphasis placed on black and white, 35mm, exposing, developing and printing.

Grade Type: Letter GradeFee: Additional lab fee

PHY 125 - Physics of Sound and Music

Units: 3When Offered: Fall (even years)

This course covers the basic physical principles of waves required to understand the phenomena of sound and music. We will discover the properties of waves, such as speed, frequency, wavelength, amplitude, and intensity. We will discuss how frequency relates to harmonics, pitch, and resonance. We will discuss diffraction, interference, and the Doppler Effect. We will discuss the different kinds of sounds produced by different kinds of musical instruments (strings, wind, brass, and the human voice). It is also recommended to concurrently take Physics of Sound and Music Lab.

Grade Type: Letter GradePrerequisite(s): MAT 115

PHY 125L - Physics of Sound and Music Lab

Units: 1When Offered: Fall (even years)

This laboratory course will feature demonstration, examples, and hands-on laboratory activities to supplement the learning objectives of Physics of Sound and Music. These interactive laboratory based experiences will cover sound waves, pitch, loudness, timbre, harmonics, resonance, the human ear, and other topics related to Physics of Sound and Music. Time may also be dedicated to working out examples to develop physics problem-solving skills in a highly interactive setting.

Grade Type: Letter GradeFee: Additional lab feePre- or Co- Requisite(s): PHY 125

PHY 200 - Special Topics in Physics

Units: 1-3When Offered: As offered

Various appropriate topics of different concentrations are offered each time. Student involvement in selection of topics is strongly encouraged.

Repeatable: May be repeated one (1) time for credit with change in topicGrade Type: Letter Grade

PHY 201 - Physics for Engineers I with Lab

Units: 4

When Offered: Fall, Spring

This course covers topics such as units, vectors, motion (in one, two and three dimensions), Newton's laws of motion, work, kinetic and potential energy, momentum, impulse, collisions, conservation laws, dynamics of rotational motion, equilibrium, gravitation, and periodic motion. Six (6) hours per week of inquiry-based instruction.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Fee: Additional course fee

Prerequisite(s): MAT 145 or a B or better in EGR 182

Pre- or Co- Requisite(s): MAT 245

PHY 203 - Physics for Engineers II with Lab

Units: 4

When Offered: Fall, Spring

This course covers topics such as fluids, temperature and ideal gas, electric charge and field, Gauss' Law, electric potential, capacitance and dielectrics, current, resistance and electromotive force, direct-current circuits, magnetic field and force, Ampere's and Faraday's laws, electromagnetic induction, inductance, alternating current circuits, and electromagnetic waves. Six (6) hours per week of inquiry-based instruction.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Fee: Additional course fee

Prerequisite(s): PHY 201 and MAT 245

PHY 214 - Physics I

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall, Spring

A study of mechanics, heat and thermodynamics, waves, sound, and the mathematical methods of physics. Should be taken with PHY 214L - Physics I Lab.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): MAT 145 or 245

PHY 214D - Physics I Discussion

Units: 1

When Offered: Fall, Spring

This discussion section is designed to be taken concurrently with PHY 214 - Physics I. Emphasis will be placed on problem solving and computational techniques, and is meant to reinforce topics in mechanics, heat and thermodynamics, waves, sound, and the mathematical methods of physics.

Grade Type: Pass/Fail

Concurrent Requisite(s): PHY 214

PHY 214L - Physics I Lab

Units: 1

When Offered: Fall, Spring

This laboratory course, designed to be taken concurrently with PHY 214 - Physics I, emphasizes scientific measuring and reporting techniques. Observational laboratories will reinforce topics in mechanics, including kinematics, Hooke's Law, momentum and inertia, and waves.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Fee: Additional course fee
Pre- or Co- Requisite(s): PHY 214

PHY 224 - Physics II

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

A continuation of Physics I, including a study of electricity, magnetism, electromagnetic waves, optics, and modern physics topics. Should be taken with Physics II Lab.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): PHY 214

PHY 224D - Physics II Discussion

Units: 1

When Offered: Spring

This discussion section is designed to be taken concurrently with Physics II. Emphasis will be placed on problem solving and computational techniques, and is meant to reinforce topics in waves, optics, electricity, and thermodynamics.

Grade Type: Pass/Fail

Concurrent Requisite(s): PHY 224

PHY 224L - Physics II Lab

Units: 1

When Offered: Spring

This laboratory course, designed to be taken concurrently with Physics II, emphasizes scientific measuring and reporting techniques. Observational laboratories will reinforce topics in waves, optics, electricity, and thermodynamics.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Fee: Additional lab fee

Pre- or Co- Requisite(s): PHY 224

PHY 301 - Astronomy II

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring (odd years)

The main focus of the course is on complex concepts from extra-solar astrophysics (astronomy outside of our solar system), including star formation, stellar evolution, supernova and stellar remnants, black holes, galaxy formation, dark matter, the large-scale structure of the universe, and the Creation of the universe. The purpose of this course is to provide a broad baseline of conceptual understanding. Student will also learn how to analyze and understand new discoveries in astronomy as they are related directly to the professional astronomical community, in addition to understanding astronomy articles that are presented through more mainstream media.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): PHY 113, 201, or 214

PHY 301L - Astronomy II Lab

Units: 1

When Offered: Spring (odd years)

This laboratory course focuses on studying the laws of physics related to astronomy. The purpose of this course is to give a broad experiential understanding of the process of analyzing data from telescopes, integrating real astronomical data with astronomical concepts such as the expansion of the universe and supernova explosion.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Fee: Additional lab fee

Pre- or Co- Requisite(s): PHY 301

PHY 305 - Physics of Semiconductors

Units: 4

When Offered: As offered

An introduction to the underlying mechanism and the physical operation of semiconductor devices. This includes discussion of material properties, energy band theory, carrier behavior, and electronic transport. We'll apply this to understanding of junction diodes, bipolar junction transistors, and metal-oxide-semiconductor capacitors and field-effect transistors.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Fee: Additional lab fee

Prerequisite(s): MAT 343, and PHY 203 or 224

PHY 310 - Waves and Optics with Lab

Units: 4

When Offered: Spring (even years)

An advanced study of waves and optics, with explicit investigation into mechanical and electromagnetic waves. Topics include (but are not limited to): simple harmonic motion, superposition, dampening, forced oscillations, beats, elasticity, coupling, normal modes, polarization, constructive and destructive interference, single and double slit interference, diffraction gratings, lenses, ray optics, geometric optics, physical optics, beams, and Doppler effect. The course is a very lab intensive class taught in a semi inquiry-based manner. The class and lab are heavily integrated.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Lecture: 3 hours Lab: 3 hours

Fee: Additional lab fee

Prerequisite(s): PHY 203 or 224

PHY 320 - Modern Physics

Units: 4

When Offered: Fall (even years)

An advanced study of modern physics theories. Topics include (but not limited to): relativity, photons, photoelectric effect, the Bohr-model, Heisenberg's uncertainty principle, Compton scattering, de Broglie waves, wave particle duality, wave packets, Schroedinger's equation, nuclear models, decay and reactions, Rutherford scattering.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Lecture: 4 hours

Prerequisite(s): PHY 203 or 224. (Recommend: PHY 310)

PHY 399 - Independent Study

Units: 1-3

When Offered: As offered

This course of study is offered to afford the superior student an opportunity to explore independently subject matter not already offered in the catalog.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

PHY 400 - Special Topics in Physics

Units: 1-4

When Offered: As offered

Various appropriate topics of different concentrations are offered each time. Student involvement in selection of topics is strongly encouraged.

Repeatable: May be repeated one (1) time for credit with change in topic

Grade Type: Letter Grade

POL 101 - Introduction to the Political Science Discipline

Units: 1

When Offered: Fall

This course is designed to introduce Political Science majors to the academic field of Political Science and the Political Science Program. The course provides an overview of each subfield in Political Science and the curriculum options for studying that subfield. The course encourages students to examine their own philosophical presuppositions as they learn to think about the study of politics from a Christian perspective. There is also substantial opportunity for building connections with faculty and fellow majors.

Grade Type: Pass/Fail

POL 200 - Special Topics in Political Science

Units: 3

When Offered: As offered

This course examines special topics in political science. Topics are announced each time the course is offered.

Repeatable: May be repeated two (2) times for credit with change in topic

Grade Type: Letter Grade

POL 213 - American Government

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall, Spring, & Online

The course provides an introductory overview of the American political system. It begins with a discussion of the principles of the Declaration of Independence, Constitution, and Bill of Rights and an examination of their impact on the country. It also covers the avenues and means of democratic citizenship and political influence in American politics. The course further examines the major political institutions in the United States: Congress, Presidency, Bureaucracy, and Courts. In order to assess the impact of government on society, the course concludes with an exploration of public policy. (Meets state requirement in United States Constitution and California Government.)

Grade Type: Letter Grade

POL 223 - State and Local Government

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall, Spring, & Online

This course studies the place and responsibilities of state and local governments in the United States and how they relate with other units of government. This includes an assessment of the citizenship and participation in state and local politics, both at the individual and collective level; and then an examination of state political institutions, such as governors, state legislatures, state courts, and administration. The course also covers city and county governments, and other local units of government. Although it is comparative, special attention is given to California politics.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

POL 250 - Introduction to International Politics

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

This course begins with an examination of the relevant international relations paradigms and evaluates several foreign policy decision-making models. The course considers important actors within the international system, such as intergovernmental and nongovernmental organizations and concludes with an examination of contemporary international relations issues, such as interstate war, economic development, human rights, and trade.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

POL 255 - Introduction to Comparative Politics

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall & Online

The course begins with an overview of factors (constitutions, political systems, and political ideology) political scientists use to understand and explain variations in policy outcomes at the national level. The course also examines actors (political parties, interest groups, social movements, and public opinion), processes (elections), and political institutions from a comparative perspective. The course concludes with an overview of the public policy process and examination of specific policy areas.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

POL 323 - Political Parties and Interest Groups

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring (odd years)

The study of the nature, development, organization, function, and methods of political parties. Also designed to furnish an understanding of the pluralist nature of the American system through the dynamics of group action and their methods and impact.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

POL 330 - Law and Literature

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall (odd years)

This course is designed to examine the role and function of narrative in law, and the role and function of law in major works of literature, to understand better both law and literature.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

POL 350 - International Relations Theory

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall (even years)

This course begins with an in-depth examination of the dominant and alternative theories found within the international relations literature. Having established a solid theoretical foundation, the course will consider important disagreements between the dominant theories (e.g., the structure of the international system) and the corresponding predicted outcomes (e.g., conflict or cooperation within the international system). The course concludes with an examination of several contemporary international relations issues, such as globalization and terrorism.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

POL 390 - Congress and the Presidency

Units: 3When Offered: Spring (even years)

The study of the place, responsibilities, and functions of Congress and the presidency in American politics is covered. This includes congressional organization and behavior, congressional elections, party leadership, congressional rules and procedures, and the committee system, with its effect on policy. The presidency roles, powers, and functions are also examined. The president's relationship with both the media and public, other branches, presidential character and leadership are included. Both branches are examined in light of checks and balances.

Grade Type: Letter GradePOL 395 - Political Economy*Units: 3*When Offered: Fall (odd years) & Online

This course explores the relationship between the economy and politics and provides both a description and assessment of the economy. This entails an overview of economic theory, macroeconomics, savings, investments, microeconomics and markets, inflation, monetary policy, international economics and globalization, and the role of the private sector and government.

Grade Type: Letter GradePOL 399 - Independent Studies*Units: 3*When Offered: As offered

Independent study of a specific area of political science not offered by the department. This allows a student to explore a specific area of political science on an independent basis. It is directly supervised by specific faculty in the program and has specific timetables and course requirements.

Grade Type: Letter GradePOL 400 - Special Topics in Political Science*Units: 3*When Offered: As offered

This course examines special topics in political science. Topics are announced each time the course is offered.

Repeatable: May be repeated two (2) times for credit with change in topicGrade Type: Letter GradePOL 401 - Special Topics in Government*Units: 3*When Offered: As offered

This course examines special topics in government. Topics are announced each time that the course is offered.

Repeatable: May be repeated two (2) times for credit with change in topicGrade Type: Letter GradePrerequisite(s): POL 213POL 415 - World Geography*Units: 3*When Offered: Fall, Spring, & Online

This course studies the world's geographic areas and the outstanding human, social, and physical features of realms and regions. In doing so, special attention is given to the more important features of histories, societies, cultures, and religions of the people living in the region. It also examines the relationship between human life and natural environment. The purpose is to help students better understand the world, our relationship with the environment, and human connections around the globe.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

POL 423 - Classical Political Philosophy

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall (odd years)

This course examines the origin of Western political, social, and legal thought in order to understand the present through the great political works of the past. It begins in ancient Greece in early democratic Athens and moves through Socrates, Plato, and Aristotle. From there, the course explores classical Rome, focusing on Polybius and Cicero. Since the advent of Christianity shapes the development of medieval political thought, the political thought of St. Augustine, John of Salisbury, St. Thomas Aquinas, Marsilio of Padua, Dante, and Thomas More are discussed.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

POL 425 - Modern Political Philosophy

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring (even years)

This course entails a comparative study of modern social, legal, and political philosophy, from the Renaissance toward the present by focusing on the great works of the Western traditions, including Machiavelli, Hobbes, Locke, Rousseau, Montesqueie, Kant, Hegel, Bentham, Marx, Mill. The course examines the relationship between these various political philosophers and the modern political world.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

POL 427 - American Political Theory

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall (even years)

This course provides an exploration of the founding of the American Republic. It begins with the colonial period, noting the relationship between religion, liberty, and politics, and then moves to ideas that shaped the American Revolution. From there it analyzes the discussions on the Constitution by both the Federalists and the Antifederalists. The course also examines the discussions surrounding the new Republic and the growth of the nation, including the struggles regarding individualism, liberty, equality, race, gender, wealth, economic regulation, and community responsibility.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

POL 429 - Critical Political Philosophy and Postmodernism

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring (odd years)

This course examines 20th century responses to modernity and its political and social theories. It focuses on continental philosophers and relates their ideas to contemporary society and politics. It begins with the Frankfurt School of critical theory and its criticisms of modern culture, and then moves from Nietzschean and Heideggerian thought to the hermeneutic theory of Gadamer and Ricoeur. After this, the course assesses the political relevance of the poststructuralism of Foucault, Derrida, and Lyotard. It concludes with Habermas' discourse ethics and deliberative democracy.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

POL 431 - Christianity and Citizenship

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

This goal of the course is the development of a Christian perspective toward politics. The course begins with an examination of the important role that Christianity played in the founding of the United States. The course carefully considers a number of political worldviews and ideologies from a Christian perspective. The course analyzes the impact of Christianity on political culture and behavior in the United States. Lastly, the course introduces students to the duties and obligations of American Christians in the arena of democratic politics.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): Political Science major and Junior/Senior status

POL 435 - Campaigns and Elections

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall (even years)

The course analyzes the dominant role political parties played in the American political system in the past. The course explores the decline of American political parties in recent decades. The course considers the increasing importance of campaign consultants and interest groups. The course examines the consequences of the shift in the roles played by political parties, campaign consultants, and interest groups on the American political system. Since the nature of political campaigns strongly impacts the political agenda of successful candidates once they take office, the course devotes considerable attention to the role of campaign issues in mobilizing key groups of voters as well as the use of campaign strategies and tactics aimed at achieving electoral success.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

POL 437 - Globalization

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall (even years)

The course provides a critical assessment of political economy with a special emphasis on the increasing pace of globalization. The course begins with an overview of economics, which is the study of how human beings cope with the problem of provisioning themselves. After discussing the relevant economic principles, the course examines the causes and consequences of economic globalization.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

POL 439 - International Conflict

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall (odd years)

The course examines many theoretical explanations for international conflict, such as religious differences, groupthink, territorial demands, domestic politics, misperception, shifts in the balance of power, and ideological differences. Following an extensive discussion of these theories, the course analyzes relevant case studies to determine the validity and relevance of the theoretical explanations. The course concludes with an examination of the diplomatic and political options available to states and intergovernmental organizations seeking to reduce the intensity and frequency of wars in the 21st century.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

POL 440 - Pre-Law Internship

Units: 1-3

When Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer

Students enrolled in this course will gain the professional experience valued by employers by utilizing knowledge acquired as Political Science majors in volunteer or paid internship positions. Students will perform relevant tasks under the direction of the Internship Site Supervisor. Students will identify and explore connections between their internship experiences and academic coursework.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): Permission of the Department Chair and Junior/Senior status

POL 443 - Diplomatic History of the United States

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring (odd years) & Online

This course is a history of the diplomatic relations of the United States and the development of the leading principles of foreign policy set within the context of an analysis of various geopolitical models.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

POL 444 - International Law

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall (odd years) & Online

This course is for students in medical fields who will often come into contact with Spanish speaking persons in medical situations both in their professions and during preparation for these professions. This course is designed to prepare students for such situations focusing on the correct use of medical terminology in Spanish. Students will be able to interview patients and record their medical histories accurately and completely, as well as explain correctly, and in a culturally appropriate way to this type of patient the medical tests and procedures needed. Emphasis will be placed on terms most commonly used in communication between a health care provider and a patient.

Grade Type: Letter GradePrerequisite(s): SPA 223, 230, or 233SPA 339 - Modern Mexican Literature and Film*Units: 3*When Offered: Fall (odd years)

This course provides an introduction to the study of Mexican literature and film of the twentieth and twenty-first century. In this course, students will learn to analyze and interpret masterpieces in a variety of genres. Students will develop literacy and analytical skills in reading, interpreting, and writing Spanish. This course also provides an introduction to the study and application of film theory and literary criticism.

Grade Type: Letter GradePrerequisite(s): SPA 223, 230, or 233SPA 345 - Survey of Iberian Literature I*Units: 3*When Offered: Spring (odd years)

Covers multiple genres of literature produced in Spain from ancient times to the 16th century.

Grade Type: Letter GradePrerequisite(s): SPA 223, 230, or 233SPA 365 - Survey of Iberian Literature II*Units: 3*When Offered: Fall (odd years)

This course studies major works in Iberian literature written from the Golden Age to present times. Many literary movements come to life throughout the study of these works. This course brings forth the conflict between tradition and reform that characterized Spanish literature throughout the last centuries.

Grade Type: Letter GradePrerequisite(s): SPA 223, 230, or 233SPA 399 - Independent Study*Units: 1-3*When Offered: As offered

An opportunity for students who have demonstrated the ability to do independent work to pursue in depth a topic of particular interest.

Grade Type: Letter GradeSPA 400 - Special Topics

Units: 1-3When Offered: As offered

Focuses on a different topic each time offered.

Repeatable: May be repeated for credit with change in topicGrade Type: Letter GradeSPA 411 - Spanish-English Comparative Structures*Units: 3*When Offered: As offered

An introductory linguistic description of the Spanish language with a special focus on its main differences with English. By means of comparing the two languages, students will discover the main problematic contrasts for an English-speaking student of Spanish. Topics to be covered include: morphology, syllabification, stress placement, grammar, word meaning, language usage and syntax.

Grade Type: Letter GradePrerequisite(s): SPA 223 or 230SPA 414 - Latin American Literature I*Units: 3*When Offered: Spring (even years)

Explores Latin American literature from early periods to the 19th century. Emphasis will be placed on different genres arising from both indigenous traditions, ethnographical narratives of the conquest, and major works written during the colonial and emancipation periods.

Grade Type: Letter GradePrerequisite(s): SPA 223, 230, or 233SPA 424 - Latin American Literature II*Units: 3*When Offered: Fall (even years)

This course studies major works in Latin American literature written from the nineteenth century to present times. Emphasis is placed on literary movements and genres that came to life during these centuries, among them: Modernism, Postmodernism, Revolutionary Narratives, Indigenous Novels, and Vanguard Poetry.

Grade Type: Letter GradePrerequisite(s): SPA 223, 230, or 233SPA 450 - Research in Literature*Units: 3*When Offered: Fall (odd years)

This course reviews and organizes the linguistic, literary, and cultural knowledge acquired by students throughout their course of studies in the Spanish program. Students will demonstrate this knowledge and their advanced proficiency levels in oral and written Spanish by developing and presenting research papers, essays, literary analysis and critical theories.

Grade Type: Letter GradePrerequisite(s): SPA 315 and 325SPA 465 - Spanish-English Translation and Interpretation

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring (odd years)

This course will serve as an introduction to translation theory and practice between Spanish and English. Emphasis is placed on practical simultaneous interpretation. The course will also provide an introduction to Spanish linguistics and will give a general overview of phonology, morphology, and comparative English/Spanish syntax.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): SPA 223, 230, or 233

SPA 470 - Spanish for Education

Units: 3

When Offered: As offered

This course serves as an introduction to Second Language Acquisition theory for students who plan to teach language in K-12. The course covers contemporary theory of the process of learning a second language, as well as pedagogical approaches to teaching language to non-native speakers in K-12.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): SPA 325

SPA 491 - Internship

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer

The purpose of this course is to provide students the opportunity to practice the written, oral, research, analytical, and/or technological skills developed in their field of study under the direct supervision of a practitioner in a professional field. In consultation with the internship coordinator, the student works in the field through supervised practical experiences with a professional organization.

Repeatable: May be repeated for a maximum of six (6) units

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): Permission of the Program Director and/or Department Chair

SPA 499 - Capstone

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

This course reviews and organizes the linguistic, literary, and cultural knowledge acquired by senior students throughout their course of studies in the Spanish program. Students will demonstrate this knowledge and their advanced proficiency levels in oral and written Spanish by developing and presenting a capstone portfolio.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Fee: Additional course fee

Prerequisite(s): Senior status

SPP 410 - Psychology of Performance Recovery

Units: 3

When Offered: Online

This focus of this course is on addressing the practice of psychological issues and cognitive variables that may hinder one's performance recovery. The complex psychological nature of recovery, both physical and cognitive, whether from injury or psychological distress, will be discussed. This course will allow the student to explore performance recovery from multiple areas and approaches, as well as concentrating on theoretical foundations of behaviors, psychological intervention of performance problems, prevention, recovery, and strategies/mental health issues related to performance.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): PSY 213

SPP 420 - Social Implications of Sport and Performance

Units: 3

When Offered: Online

This course explores the establishment of relationships among psychology, social relationships, and performance within various social environments and contexts. Key topics such as social support, diversity, impact of media, coaching relationships, and the wider social contexts of individual performance will be examined and discussed. The course will utilize both theoretical and research findings to suggest practical applications for assisting with human performance.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): PSY 213

SPP 430 - Ethics and Leadership in Performance Psychology

Units: 3

When Offered: Online

This course is centered around the leadership and ethics needed to build and develop professional relationships within a sport and performance psychology setting. The course examines ethical principles, professional guidelines, organizational standards and ethical codes, and leadership practices designed to help students develop ethical decision-making and behavior skills necessary to meet the appropriate standards of care in providing psychological services to enhance human performance.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): PSY 213

SPP 499 - Sport and Performance Psychology Capstone

Units: 3

When Offered: Online

This course provides sport and performance psychology students the opportunity to integrate and demonstrate learning from their major, evaluate their own strengths/weaknesses and demonstrate an understanding of the integration of a Christian worldview and their major field of study. Students will evaluate their personal goals, calling and purpose as well as develop skills to move toward successful and fruitful participation in multiple levels of community, including graduate school and careers.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): Permission by the Program Director

SRF 201 - Introduction to Sport, Recreation and Fitness Management

Units: 3

When Offered: Online

The purpose of this course is to present historical, philosophical, and social aspects in leisure service management. This course encompasses a variety of services, including recreational sport management, outdoor and adventure recreation, and health and fitness. Students will explore a variety of career options and concentrated interests to prepare for challenging careers in the growing field of sport, recreation and fitness.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

SRF 250 - Financial Principles for Sport, Recreation and Fitness Management

Units: 3

When Offered: Online

This course examines the financial tools that are essential to sport, recreation and fitness managers. Principles of financial management, financial business structure, and planning and forecasting processes that make organizations effective in sport, recreation, and fitness organizations will be explored. The practical application of financial principles for both business and personal life are incorporated.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

SRF 310 - Legal Aspects of Sport, Recreation and Fitness

Units: 3

When Offered: Online

This course provides an understanding of the American legal system and its response to sport, recreation and fitness related disputes. Material includes legal terminology, liability, risk management, personnel issues, Title IX, and various issues facing today's teachers, coaches, athletic administrators, and fitness professionals.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

SRF 320 - Ethical Considerations in Sport, Recreation and Fitness

Units: 3

When Offered: Online

This course focuses on value systems and their role in ethical leadership. Ethical issues in sport, recreation and fitness disciplines are examined, with the application of fundamental principles in guiding ethical discussion, assessment and evaluation. This course will include an examination of relevant ethical considerations and the development of leadership in the domains of sport, recreation and fitness.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

SRF 410 - Special Populations in Sport, Recreation and Fitness

Units: 3

When Offered: Online

This course incorporates various dimensions of wellness (physical, social, emotional, intellectual, spiritual, and vocational) as they pertain to special populations. Students will examine practical solutions to address physical inactivity and specific approaches that promote active lifestyles among youth, older adults, and persons with disabilities. Safe and effective health and fitness recommendations will be explored.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

SRF 420 - Facility Planning and Design Management

Units: 3

When Offered: Online

This course introduces students to practical applications used in project analysis through design synthesis that sport, recreation and fitness professionals should be aware of during facility planning and design. Aspects of construction, managing equipment, safety and control, supervision, space utilization, project accounting and scheduling, and maintenance will be explored.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

SRF 430 - Event Programming in Sport, Recreation and Fitness

Units: 3

When Offered: Online

This course will explore the competencies necessary for managing and operating sport, recreation and fitness events such as tournaments, 5K run events, banquets, fundraisers, stadium events, etc. Students will explore strategies and tactics to guide professionals through the event planning and implementation process, starting with the earliest stages of event design. Conceptualization, staffing, budgeting, financing, promoting, securing, managing, and post-event follow-up will be incorporated.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

SRF 490 - Organization and Administration of Sport, Recreation and Fitness Management

Units: 3

When Offered: Online

This course provides students with an understanding of management functions in organizations that deliver sport, recreation and fitness programs. Students will learn key elements in organizational development and planning, issues related to interagency collaboration, contracts, and successful marketing. In addition, financial management, human resources, facility maintenance, employee development, communication, and evaluation will be explored.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

STA 101 - Statistical Foundations

Units: 1

When Offered: Fall

A course emphasizing the empirical and scientific approaches to disciplines involved in statistical and data analytics sciences. Students learn the historical foundation of each departmental program area. Students will also familiarize themselves with the perspectives and specialties of our department faculty while systematically and critically reviewing the expanding roles of data-centric sciences. The course focuses on teaching, writing, developing a future internship, exploring potential graduate work, and engaging in professional associations from a Christian worldview. Note: This course is designed to introduce students in statistics-related majors (Applied Statistical Analysis, Statistics and Data Analytics, Actuarial Science, Sports Analytics, etc.) to the discipline. It is not designed as a major or general education course in statistics and does not fulfill the 'introduction to statistics' requirement for any major.

Grade Type: Pass/Fail

STA 144 - Introduction to Statistics

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall, Spring, & Online

Mathematical theory and applications, development of formulae, principles of statistical decision theory, descriptive measurements, probability concepts, random variables, normal distribution, inferential statistics, sampling distributions, confidence intervals, hypothesis testing, chi-squared procedures, linear regression, and the use of computers in statistics.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): MAT 115 or sufficient SAT, ACT or math placement exam scores and appropriate high school mathematics background

STA 205 - Applied Linear Regression

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring (even years)

This course represents a basic concepts and methodology course in regression analysis using application of general linear regression models to real-life situations. Case studies are used to give practice in diagnosing practical problems, deciding on appropriate models, and knowing which inferential technique will answer the researcher's questions for the purposes of description and prediction. Regression models and model building typical of problems used in the social and behavioral sciences, the natural and health sciences, and many other disciplines are covered.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): STA 144

STA 210 - Statistical Computing I

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall

An introduction to data mining, management and statistical programming techniques using comprehensive and widely available tools like SAGE, SPSS, SAS and R. Students learn exploratory data analysis, coding and manipulation of variables, database management applying statistical concepts. Modeling and simulation experiments on a variety of applied data sets.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Pre- or Co- Requisite(s): STA 144

STA 211 - Statistical Computing II

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

A continuation of Statistical Computing I using comprehensive and widely available tools like SAGE, SPSS, SAS and R. Advanced techniques will be covered including (but not limited to) numerical linear algebra, optimization and nonlinear equations, the EM algorithm, Laplace approximations, quadrature methods, simulation methodology, sampling, Monte Carlo and bootstrap methods.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): STA 210

STA 303 - Research and Experimental Design

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall (odd years)

This course studies experimental designs with corresponding models and analyses critical for students in the empirical sciences. Course topics include estimation, test of hypothesis, analysis of variance and a variety of topics in experimental design. Decisions and practical considerations which minimize experimental error and avoid confounding results are dealt with in real life contexts.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): STA 144

STA 305 - Sampling and Survey Methodology

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall (even years)

Sampling theory and practice are presented in this course through a study of simple random samples, stratified random samples, cluster sampling, estimating sample size, ratio estimates, subsampling, two-state sampling and analysis of sampling error. This is a critical course for students in education and the social, medical, biological and management sciences where sampling is a fundamental step in virtually every statistical procedure and critical to meaningful survey research.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): STA 144

STA 310 - Mathematical Statistics I

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall (even years)

The first semester of a two-semester course providing a systematic development of the theories of probability and statistics. Students learn and use fundamental concepts of probability models, random variables and their distributions, reduction of data, estimation, testing of hypotheses, univariate normal inference, and statistical decision theory. The first semester is required for BA and BS statistics majors of all concentrations.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): MAT 245 and STA 144

STA 311 - Mathematical Statistics II

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring (odd years)

Second semester course in a systematic development of the theories of probability and statistics. Topics include analysis of categorical data, multivariate distributions, nonparametric inference, linear models and analysis of variance. As time permits, the theory underlying Markov chain, Monte Carlo, quasi-likelihood, empirical likelihood, statistical functionals, generalized estimating equations, the jackknife, and the bootstrap are addressed.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): STA 310

STA 320 - Financial Mathematics I

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall (even years)

An introduction to the fundamental concepts of financial mathematics including basic interest theory. These concepts will be applied in calculating present and accumulated values for various streams of cash flows as a basis for future use in: reserving, valuation, pricing, asset/liability management, investment income, capital budgeting, and valuing contingent cash flow.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): MAT 245

STA 321 - Financial Mathematics II

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring (odd years)

A continuation of the fundamental concepts of financial mathematics including the basics of financial economics and an introduction to financial instruments, including derivatives, and the concept of no-arbitrage as it relates to financial mathematics.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): STA 320

STA 360 - Data Visualization

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring (even years)

This course provides the tools to create and critically evaluate data visualizations. Focus will be on statistical graphics, graphics that display statistical data. Additionally, recent advances in the field of information visualization will be covered.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): STA 144

STA 362 - Advanced Statistical Computing

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall (even years)

A course to introduce statistical models of advanced least squares regression and standard ANOVA techniques and extensions to categorical data. Students will conceptually understand linear mixed effects models, log linear and generalized linear models for count data; and survival models for the analysis of lifetime data. In addition, students will apply these models to real data, to discern patterns and conclusions, and present their results.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): STA 205 and 210

STA 364 - Applied Statistical Methodology

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring (odd years)

A course in application of parametric and nonparametric single and multivariable data analytic techniques to sports. Topics will include: linear regression, correlation, confounding and interactions, variable selection, categorical predictors and outcomes, logistic regression, factor analysis, discriminant analysis, and regression techniques with longitudinal data.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): STA 210

STA 399 - Independent Study

Units: 1-3

When Offered: As offered

This course of study is offered to afford the superior student an opportunity to explore independently subject matter not already offered in the catalog.

Repeatable: May be repeated for a maximum of three (3) units

Grade Type: Letter Grade

STA 400 - Special Topics

Units: 1-3

When Offered: As offered

A seminar course offered upon sufficient demand covering appropriate of different concentrations each time. Student involvement in selection of topics is strongly encouraged.

Repeatable: May be repeated for a maximum of six (6) units with change in topic

Grade Type: Letter Grade

STA 460 - Sports Analytics Seminar

Units: 1

When Offered: Spring (odd years)

This course enables students to examine theory and applications of data science and analytics to the field of sports performance, administration, and player rehabilitation. Students will evaluate evidence based literature related to statistical analysis to determine whether a published study has reliable results which can be used in translating evidence to practice. Topics may include aspects of sports strategy, team and player performance, team and franchise management, officiating and refereeing, coaching and training issues, fan support and marketing, fantasy competitions, and contemporary topics of metrics and technology use (limitations and extensions).

Grade Type: Letter Grade

STA 462 - Measurement and Evaluation

Units: 3When Offered: Fall (odd years)

This course is designed to develop an understanding of measurement and evaluation concepts. Measurement and evaluation topics relevant to construction and use of assessment in the psychomotor, cognitive and affective domains will be covered. Class activities include collection, analysis of data, and evaluation of instruments for personal and program evaluation.

Grade Type: Letter GradeSTA 470 - Seminar in Financial Mathematics*Units: 2*When Offered: Spring (odd years)

An overview of topics from financial mathematics including interest theory and financial economics.

Repeatable: May be repeated one (1) time for a maximum of four (4) unitsGrade Type: Letter GradePre- or Co- Requisite(s): STA 321STA 480 - Seminar in Probability and Statistics*Units: 3*When Offered: Spring

An overview of topics from probability and statistics including general probability, univariate distributions, and multivariate distributions, as well as, calculus and basic concepts of insurance and risk management.

Repeatable: May be repeated one (1) time for creditGrade Type: Letter GradePrerequisite(s): MAT 343 and 353STA 490 - Research in Statistics*Units: 1-4*When Offered: As offered

The focus of this class is an independent research project that the student undertakes under the direction of a faculty member who acts as a research advisor. Content varies from year to year and is determined by both the instructor's and student's interests.

Repeatable: May be repeated for creditGrade Type: Letter GradePrerequisite(s): Permission of the Department ChairSTA 491 - Sports Analytics Internship*Units: 1-3*When Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer

This course is aimed at developing "hands on" experience in data and visualization analytic skills in the context of involvement with a sport team, league, or corporation. Students will assist in the development of the analytical and data collection capabilities of the organization.

Repeatable: May be repeated for a maximum of six (6) unitsGrade Type: Letter GradeSTA 499 - Capstone

Units: 1-3When Offered: Spring

The course is designed to be a culminating experience for senior students. The course gives students through writing, seminar and conference participation, an opportunity to demonstrate their skill and proficiency in the field of statistics. In some cases, this may be coupled with internships.

Repeatable: May be repeated for a maximum of three (3) unitsGrade Type: Letter GradePrerequisite(s): Permission of the Department ChairTHE 111 - Fundamentals of Stagecraft*Units: 3*When Offered: Fall

This course offers an introduction to the basic construction methods, materials and techniques employed in the scene shop. Students will also develop skills in producing large-scale scenic painting and texturing effects through multiple in-class projects.

Grade Type: Letter GradeTHE 113 - Makeup for Stage and Screen*Units: 2*When Offered: Fall

This course provides a foundation for the student actor and designer in the materials, tools, and application techniques of stage and film makeup. Students will develop skills in brush and sponge application techniques, the design of old age and character specific facial alterations, historical makeup effects and three-dimensional appliances. Students will develop an appreciation of relative viewing distance in the level of subtlety of makeup effects for theatre versus film. Each student will assemble a makeup kit that will be used to prepare projects in class and for productions.

Grade Type: Letter GradeFee: Additional lab feeTHE 123 - Voice and Diction for the Stage*Units: 3*When Offered: Spring

This course will focus on the importance of a free and expressive voice in the actor's work. It will develop the voice through a focus on awareness of inner space, alignment, breath, resonance, articulation, expressivity; awareness of General American Dialect, and a beginning look at Phonetics and the IPA (International Phonetic Alphabet), vocal anatomy and voice care.

Grade Type: Letter GradeTHE 133 - Acting for Non-Majors*Units: 3*When Offered: Spring

This course is designed to help the amateur actor develop a beginning understanding and appreciation of the art and skill of acting through the study of acting principles, dramatic scenes, and basic stage techniques. Students will learn to use the tools of the actor (mind, body and voice) through exercise, improvisation, scene and character study and learn the basics of the rehearsal process. The student will also develop into a more informed observer of theatre.

Grade Type: Letter GradeTHE 142 - Introduction to Theatre

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall

This course provides a background, framework and vocabulary for the appreciation of six (6) major areas of production (director, actor, designer/technician, playwright, script, and audience) and the various historical, textual, and performative elements that inform theatrical practice. Students will read a variety of plays, attend productions by the Theatre Arts Program, and participate in a course module involving production creation.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

THE 163 - Production Practicum: Performance

Units: 1-3

When Offered: Fall

Practical training in the areas of acting, directing, and stage management. Students will have the opportunity to participate in a fully realized production, from auditions through to performance. This course consists of regular rehearsals and performances. Students should enroll in the section assigned to their show.

Repeatable: May be repeated for a maximum of three (3) units

Grade Type: Letter Grade

THE 164 - Production Practicum: Technical

Units: 1-3

When Offered: Fall

Practical hands-on training in the areas of scenic construction, stage lighting, and sound production, costume construction and backstage crew assignments.

Repeatable: May be repeated for a maximum of three (3) units

Grade Type: Letter Grade

THE 183 - Acting I: Fundamentals of Acting

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall

This course is designed to acquaint the student with the fundamental skills necessary to acting and to explore the basic elements of the actor's art. This course will explore the physical, vocal, intellectual, and technical aspects of acting in a format that encourages freedom of imagination and personal growth. Additionally, the course will explore the connections between faith and theatre and the ways in which God's truth is embedded within the fabric of both the plays themselves and the actor's work.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): Theatre major or minor

THE 200 - Special Topics in Theatre

Units: 1-3

When Offered: As offered

Concentration upon a specific topic in the field of Theatre. Topic varies for different semesters.

Repeatable: May be repeated for credit with change in topic

Grade Type: Letter Grade

THE 211 - Introduction to Stage Design and Management

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

This course will serve as an introduction to the collaborative nature of design and stage management in theatrical productions. Each of the four major areas of design; scenic, costume, lighting, and audio will be explored through projects and the critical viewing of plays on film and live productions. Basic techniques of stage management and production protocols will be explored through exercises and the creation of a prompt script.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

THE 221 - Techniques in Pre-Visualization of Design

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall (odd years)

This course focuses on methods and techniques for pre-visualizing design concepts within the play production process with a focus on using digital modeling software. Traditional techniques in model building, rendering, costume plates and concept sketching will also be explored. Techniques of pitching a design through pre-visualization will be examined through mock design projects and production scenarios.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

THE 223 - Movement for the Stage

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall (odd years)

This course focuses on the mechanics of the actor's body, explores how the body becomes an element of communication in theatre, and works toward freeing up the actor's body to communicate. Students will be introduced to a variety of movement techniques and theories.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

THE 230 - Acting for the Camera

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring (even years)

Students will learn strategies for building truthful performances in a multi-camera studio environment. Participants will refine acting techniques through monologues, sensory exercises, and beginning scene study work. Open to all students.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

THE 232 - Play Structure and Analysis

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring

This course is designed to introduce the student to the skills of dramatic analysis, theatrical research, writing, and critical thinking which are vital to the work of all artists in the theatre. Using the techniques of the Production Dramaturg, the course teaches close reading of play texts and demonstrates ways in which play analysis contributes to the realization of theatrical productions.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

THE 233 - Introduction to Musical Theatre Dance

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall (even years)

This course introduces students to the basics of musical theatre dance. Students will study a variety of theories, techniques, and major choreographers of the stage. Students will build competencies with short dance combinations and entire choreographed pieces that reflect the diversity of styles used in musical theatre.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

THE 263 - Production Practicum: Performance

Units: 1-3

When Offered: Spring

Practical training in the areas of acting, directing, and stage management. Students will have the opportunity to participate in a fully realized production, from auditions to performance. This course consists of regular rehearsals and performances.

Repeatable: May be repeated for a maximum of three (3) units

Grade Type: Letter Grade

THE 264 - Production Practicum: Technical

Units: 1-3

When Offered: Spring

Practical hands-on training in the areas of scenic construction, stage lighting, and sound production, costume construction and backstage crew assignments.

Repeatable: May be repeated for a maximum of three (3) units

Grade Type: Letter Grade

THE 283 - Acting II: Scene Study

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall (even years)

A continuation of Acting I: Fundamentals of Acting, this course is designed to further explore the actor's art, and continue to develop the individual's technique. This course specifically focuses on the intellectual work of an actor as well as the relationship between actors on stage. Additionally, the course will explore the connections between faith and theatre and the ways in which God's truth is embedded within the fabric of both the plays themselves and the actor's work.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

THE 312 - Drama in the Classroom

Units: 3

When Offered: Fall, Spring

The student will learn how to use drama and theatre activities both for and with children, and how they can incorporate drama into education by creating lesson plans and planning specific assignments. The student will also develop skills in oral interpretation and storytelling to become a more interesting and expressive teacher.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

THE 313 - Advanced Makeup

Units: 3

When Offered: Spring (even years)

Advanced study and application of 3-Dimensional makeup techniques with a focus on foam latex prosthetics. Students will develop skills in life casting, mold making, sculpting, casting and running foam latex. Students will learn advanced painting and makeup application techniques required for blending prosthetics with human skin. Students will also explore techniques for using gelatin makeup for large wound and facial trauma effects.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Fee: Additional lab fee

THE 330 - Advanced Acting for the Camera

Units: 3When Offered: Spring (even years)

Advanced scene work in a multi-camera environment. Students learn to scale performances to the shot, dig deeper into character development, clarify subtext, and to emotionally connect to challenging material. All performances are recorded for critique by the instructor and for student self-assessment, through daily journaling.

Grade Type: Letter GradePrerequisite(s): COM 113, THE 133, 183, or 230THE 332 - Theatre History I*Units: 3*When Offered: Fall (even years)

The first part of a two-part review of the development of theatre, with a detailed study of the origins of drama in religious ritual and the beginnings of formalized theatre in Classical Greece through the French Neoclassical Period. Nine plays will be studied in detail during the course, and students will be asked to specifically engage with the material from the Christian worldview to explore how God's truth may be represented within the work.

Grade Type: Letter GradeTHE 333 - Advanced Musical Theatre Dance*Units: 3*When Offered: Fall (even years)

This course continues the training begun in Introduction to Musical Theatre Dance, by exploring advanced theories and styles of dance developed by major choreographers throughout the history of musical theatre.

Grade Type: Letter GradePrerequisite(s): THE 233THE 340 - Drama in the Church*Units: 3*When Offered: Spring (odd years)

Designed for pastors, teachers, youth leaders, and church workers, this class explores various ways that drama can be utilized in the church. Class work includes hands-on experience in using church drama with children and youth, drama for the worship service, and how to start a drama program at your local church.

Grade Type: Letter GradeTHE 340 - Drama in the Church*Units: 3*When Offered: As Offered

Designed for pastors, teachers, youth leaders, and church workers, this class explores various ways that drama can be utilized in the church. Class work includes hands-on experience in using church drama with children and youth, drama for the worship service, and how to start a drama program at your local church.

Grade Type: Letter GradeTHE 342 - Theatre History II*Units: 3*When Offered: Spring (odd years)

The second part of a two-part review of the development of theatre, with a detailed study of the beginnings of modern theatre including the English Restoration, 18th-century Sentimentalism, the birth of Realism and the revolt against

Realism, experimental and political theatre, and current trends today. Ten plays will be studied in detail during the course, and students will be asked to specifically engage with the material from the Christian worldview to explore how God's truth may be represented within the work.

Grade Type: Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): THE 332

THE 344 - Celebration Drama Team

Units: 1-3

When Offered: As offered

Practical experience in rehearsal and performance as part of Celebration! Drama Team.
